

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NOTE.

RHYTHM is of two kinds, (1) the strict, regular rhythm of measured music and of metrical poetry like hymns, and (2) the free, varying rhythm of poetic prose words like the Psalms and of musical recitative, properly so called, of which the chant is a very simple example. But in our modern manner of chanting we have come to this contradictory position,—in the latter part of each half-verse, under the inflected part of the chant, the true free rhythm has fallen under bondage to the strict rhythm of barred music, while, on the other hand, the first part of each half-verse, under the reciting note of the chant, has been allowed to run into a reckless freedom heedless of any rhythm at all; and what we have to do is to restore freedom to the true rhythm of the one, and rhythm to the unintelligent freedom of the other. This is the aim of this Psalter.

To the Organ Edition, with full and varied harmonies, is prefixed an 'Introduction to the Principles and Practice of Chanting in Free Rhythm and true Antiphony,' which may be had separately, price 1s., with an Index of Composers, Tones, &c.

Choir Prayers

BEFORE A PRACTICE OR REHEARSAL

O Lord God, of Whose only gift it cometh that we are able to use and enjoy the voice of melody, grant that we may use it always to Thy glory, and to our own growth in grace ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From wanderings of thought ; from pride, vainglory, and hypocrisy ; from envy, jealousy, or contempt of others ; from self-will and impatience ; and from all lightness and ir - rév-er-ence. Good Lord, de - liv - er us.

AFTER A PRACTICE OR REHEARSAL

O God, accept, we beseech Thee, this offering of our time and voices, whereby we desire to make the service of Thy house more worthy of Thy glorious Name ; and grant that we, who are permitted to sing Thy praises on earth, may, by the help of Thy Holy Spirit, so live in holiness and purity of life that we may hereafter sing Thy praises in Heaven ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BEFORE SERVICE.

- V. O Lord, open Thou our lips :
- R. And our mouth shall shew forth Thy praise.
- V. O Lord, keep Thou our thoughts :
- R. That we may not wander in spirit.
- V. O Lord, purify our hearts :
- R. That we may worthily magnify Thy Holy Name.

Let us pray.

Cleanse us, O Lord, and keep us undefiled, that we may be numbered among Thy blessed ones, who, having washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb, stand before Thy throne, and serve Thee day and night in Thy Heavenly Temple. Amen.

EXAMPLE-CHANTS

AFTER SERVICE.

Grant, O Lord, that what we have sung with our lips, we may believe in our hearts, and what we believe in our hearts, we may shew forth in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EXAMPLE-CHANTS

TO WHICH REFERENCE IS MADE IN THE INSTRUCTIONS WHICH FOLLOW

Dec. Can. All. TALLIS.

M m r m : m | M r d r- m- | m m- A - mén.

Dec. Can. Tone II. (Rouen) 2. All.

D r m r : d || D s, i, t, l, - | s, i, - A - mén.

EXPLANATION OF MARKS AND SIGNS.

[NOTE.—The Editors, not the Composers, are responsible for the typographic form in which the chants are printed.]

Dec. = Decani, the leading side of the Choir and Congregation, alone.

Can. = Cantoris, the responding side, alone.

All p. = Both sides together, but softly.

Prec. = Precentor alone (who sings alone the first half of the first verse of all Gregorian, and such Anglican, Chants, as are so marked).

===== in the Staff, or | in the letter-noting and in the words, shews the end of the Intonation, in Gregorians.

===== in the Staff and : in the letter-noting, dividing two notes, } mean—and . in the words, dividing two syllables

'Sing both notes when there is a dot in the words, and sing them of equal length,—do not 'chop' the first; but when there is no dot in the words, sing the first note, omitting the other (which is in italic type in the letter-noting).

 Dots over notes and over a syllable, or syllables, shew that those notes belong to that syllable, or syllables.

/, ^, \, are accents, viz. / acute, strong; ^ circumflex, very strong; \ grave, weaker.

EXPLANATION OF MARKS AND SIGNS

MARKS IN THE WORDS ONLY.

— A 'long' mark, over a syllable, means lengthen it, dwell upon it, not accent it.

. in the recitation, after a word, means pause there, very slightly, as at a comma; in the mediation or cadence it indicates where the last note is to begin.

— at the end of a verse, means hold on the last syllable over both the last notes.

• in the middle of a verse marks the 'point' where the Versicle and the Decani half of the chant ends, and where the Response or Cantoris half begins.

(;) enclosed in brackets, means that there is no response or a defective one.

(H) = in accord with the Hebrew punctuation.

(sl.) means 'slacken speed,' or 'slower' = rallentando.

f = full force of voice; ff very full force; = forte, fortissimo.

p = softly; pp very softly; = piano, pianissimo.

m = middling, moderate; = mezzo.

dim. or $\rhd$ = with diminishing force = diminuendo.

cr. or $\lhd$ = with increasing force = crescendo.

A bracket (before, with a hyphen after, a very small word, means, Sing it with the following syllable and note, very lightly.

NB at the beginning of a Psalm, means that there is something peculiar in the chant or in the pointing.

+ at the beginning of a verse or half-verse, marks an exceptional pointing.

A word in italic type is never to be sung; it is only explanatory.

When a verse is printed in two different ways alongside of each other in parallel columns, that way must be followed which the authority in that particular church has decided to use always.

Exhortation to Confession.

Confession of Sin.

The Priest alone.

Almighty · and most mer-ci-ful Father ; We have erred and strayed from thy wāys · like lost sheep. We have followed tōo mūch · the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone · those things which we ōught to have done ; And we have dōne those things · which we ought nōt to have done ; And there is (s.) nō hēalth in us.

Prayer for Pardon.

But THŌU, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders.

¹ This note, and the lower note for the Exhortation and Confession, are not meant to indicate any fixed pitch ; the priest may take what note he thinks fit, but, under ordinary conditions, not higher than this.

² The priest may, if he think fit, deliver this Exhortation to Confession, and that to prayer at the end of the Absolution, in his natural speaking voice. And the Confession itself can be made by all without regard to uniformity of tone, but only in a very low and 'humble voice.' After the Lord's Prayer he must, with the aid, if needed, of the Organ, take the note G (or F) for the Vericle. (See Introduction, pp. 43, 44.)

THE ORDER FOR MORNING

Spāre thou them O God, which confess their faults. Restōre thou thēm that are penitent; According to thy prōmises · declared unto mankind (sl.) in Chrīst Jēsu our Lord.

Prayer for Grace.

And grānt, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereāfter · live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory (sl.) of thy hōly Name. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION.

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live; and hath given power, and commandment, to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel.

[*An Exhortation to Prayer*¹.]

Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance, and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him, which we do at this present; and that the rest of our life hereafter · may be pure, and holy; so that at the last · we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

And forgive us our trespasses, As wē forgive thēm that trespass against ūs. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

The two following chants are provided as special Gloria chants for optional use instead of the chant of the Psalm or Canticle. They will, of course, be sung in the key of the psalm chant, or in one that will correctly follow it, and the Organist will play it in that key.—See Organ Edition.

VERY IMPORTANT.

Chant slowly, reverently, and smoothly, especially in the recitation,—but without drawling.

Observe all stops, but not suddenly or sharply, and all the marks and signs, both in the music and in the words, especially the rhythm-marks (—) in the recitation, which are marks of prolongation.

Every one, male and female, old and young, in the congregation must sing the MELODY ONLY as it is shown in this People's Edition. It is always within easy reach of all voices.

[Any individual in the congregation who may be inclined to resent this rule and break it, should remember that an isolated 'part' has a very bad effect on the general result, disturbs those within hearing and does not make true harmony, for which balance, proportion, and grouping, of parts is necessary.]

Dec. and Can. are to be understood with every chant and every Psalm-verse whether printed or not, except where a verse is directed to be sung by all or by the precentor alone.

Where there are two parallel columns, as in verse 10 of the Venite and elsewhere, it is optional which column should be followed; but the option must be made once for all, i. e. for all such verses throughout the Psalter, by the authorities of the church.

Words in Italic letters, such as '(saying)'—'(saith God)'—'(thou sayest),' are not to be sung; they are only explanatory.

PSALM 9.

Confitebor tibi.

Or this,—

A Psalm of Joy. God's triumph over evil.

Psalm 9.

f. I WILL | give thanks unto thee O Lord, with my whole heart : I will speak of all thy marvellous-works.

2 I will be glad . and rejoice in thee : Yea, my songs will I make of thy Name, O thou most Highest.

3 While mine enemies are driven back, they shall fall : And perish at Thy presence. 3 p. All. While mine enemies are driven back (:), They shall fall and perish . at thy presence. (H)

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause : Thou art set in the throne that judgeth-right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, and destroyed the strong : Thou hast put out their name . for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end : Even as the cities . which thou hast destroyed ; their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for ever : He hath also prepared his seat for judgement.

8 For he shall judge the world in righteousness : And minister true judgement . unto (the-people).

9 The Lord also . will be a defence for the oppressed : Even a refuge . in due time of trouble.

10 And they that know thy Name . will put their trust in thee : For thou Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee.

11 ff. O praise the Lord . which dwelleth in Zion : Shew the people of his doings.

12 For, when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them : And forgetteth-not the complaint of the poor .

13 m. Have mercy upon me O Lord ; consider the trouble . which I suffer of them that hate me : Thou that liftest me up . from the gates . of death.

14 cr. That I may shew all thy praises . within the ports of the daughter of Zion : I will rejoice . in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down . in the pit that they made : In the same net . which they hid privily, is their foot taken.

DAY 2

16 The Lórd is known to excecúte júdge·ment : The ungódly is trapped · in the wórk of hís ówn hānds.

A Meditation. The proud wickedness of the ungodly.

m. Mȳ | hēart sheweth me the wickedness of the ūngōd-ly : Thāt there is nō fear of Gōd befōre his ēyes.

2 Fōr he flattereth himself . in his ōwn sīght : Ūntil his abominable sīn bē fōund ōut.

3 The wōrds of his mouth are unrighteous, and fūll of dēcēit : Hē hath left ōff to behave himself wisely, ānd tō dō gōod.

4 He imāgineth mischief . upon his bed, and hath set himself in nō gōod wáy : Nēither doth he abhor āny thing thāt īs ēvil.

The patient strength of God.

5 f. + Thȳ mercy O Lord, reacheth ūntō (the-hēavens : + And thȳ faithfulness . ūntō (the-clōuds —.

6 Thȳ righteousness stāndeth like the strōng mōunt-ains : Thȳ judgements are līke thē grēat dēep.

7 Thōu Lord, shalt save both man and beast ; How ēxcellent is thy mērcy, Ō Gōd : Añd the children of mēn shall put their trūst under the shādw ōf thȳ wings.

8 Thēy shall be sātisfied with the plēnteousness of thȳ hōuse : Añd thou shalt give them drīnk of thy pleasures, as ōut of thē rīver.

9 For with thee is the well of life : And in thy light shall we see light.

10 dim. O continue forth thy loving-kindness . unto them that know thee : And thy righteousness . unto them that are true of heart.

11 O let not the foot of pride come against me : And let not the hand of the ungodly cast me down .

12 There are they fallen, all that work wickedness : They are cast down, and shall not (s.) be able to stand .

A prayer against spiritual enemies,—with full trust in God.

p. SĀVE me O God, for thȳ Nāme's sáke : And avēnge me·in thȳ strēngth.

2 Hēar my prāyer, Ō Gód : And hēarken unto the wōrds, of mȳ mōuth —.

[*unbelievers. †insolent sinners.]

4 cr. Behōld, Gōd is mȳ hēlp·er : The Lōrd is with thēm that ūphōld·my·sōul.

5 Hē shall reward ēvil unto mīne én·emies : Destrōy thou thēm in thȳ trùth.

6 f. An offēring of a frēe hēart will I give thee, and praise thȳ Nāme, Ō Lórd : Becāuse it is sō cōm·fortable.

7 Fōr he hath delivered me · out of āll mȳ trōu·ble : And mine ēye hath seen his desīre (sl.) upōn mīne én·emies.

PSALM 55.

Psalm 55.

A troubled prayer.

p. HĒAR my | prāyer, Ū Gód : And hīde not thyself .
from mý pētition.

2 Take hēed unto mē, ānd hēar-me : How I mōurn in my prayer, ānd ām vēxed.

3 The ēnemy crieth so, and the ungōdly cometh ōn sō fāst ;
Fōr they are mīnded to do me some mischief ; sō maliciously are they sēt āgāinst mē.

4 My hēart is disquieted wīthīn-mē : Añd the fear of dēath is fāllen ūpōn me.

5 Fēarfulness and trembling are cōme ūpōn-me : Añd an horrible drēad hath ōvērwhēlm-ed-mē.

6 Añd I said, Ō that I had wings . like ā dōve : For thēn would I flee awāy, ānd bē-at-rēst.

7 Lo, thēn would I get me awāy fār ōff : Añd remāin in thē wīld-erness.

8 I wōuld make haste . tō ēscāpe : Bēcāuse of the stormy wīnd ānd tēmpēst.

A Cry for justice.

9 cr. Destrōy their tōngues O Lord, ānd *dīvīde . them :
Fōr I have spied unrighteousness . and strife . In thē cīty.

[* confuse them (as at Babel).]

10 dīm. Dāy and nīght they go abōut . within the wālls thēreōf : Mischief-also, and sōrrow, are in thē mīdst-of-it.

11 Wickedness is thēreīn : Decēit and guile go not ōut ōf thēir strēets.

12 Fōr it is nōt an ōpen enemy, that hath done me thīs dīshōn-our : For thēn I cōuld hāve bōrne it.

13 Nēither was it mine ādvērsary, that did māgnify himself . āgāinst me : For thēn *peradventure . I wōuld have hīd mysēlf frōm him.

[* perhaps.]

14 Būť it was even thōu, mŷ cōmpán-ion : My guġde, and mine ōwn famġliār friēnd —.

15 Wē took sweet cōunsel tōgēth-er : And wālked in the hōuse ōf Gód . (as-friēnds.

16 Let dēath come hastily upon them, ānd let them gō down quġck-ġntō hēll : For wickedness is in their dwellings, ānd āmōng them. [ alive into the pit.]

The Lord shall save me.

17 cr. Ās for mē, I will cāll upōn Gód : Ānd the Lōrd shāll sāve me.

18 In the ēvening, and mōrning, and at nōon-day, will I prāy, and thāt ġnst-antly : And hē shāll hēar-my-vōice.

19 It is hē that hath delivered my soul in peace . from the bātġle that wās āgāġnst-me : Fōr there were mānŷ with me. [ withstanding me.]

20 Yēa, even God, that endureth for ever, shall hear me, and brġng thēm dōwn : Fōr they will not tūrġ, nōr fēar Gód.

The treachery of the wicked.

21 dim. He lāġd his hands upon sūch as be āt pēace-with-him : Ānd he brāke hġs cō-venant. [ the enemy.]

22 The wōrds of his mōuth were softer than bŷtter, having wār in hġs hēart : His wōrds were smooġher than ōil, and yēt be thēy vér-y-swōrds.

But trust in God.

23 cr. Ō cast thy burden upon the Lord, and hē shall nōurġsh thēe : Ānd shall not suffer the rġghteous to fāll,—fōr ēver. [ never.]

24, 25 Ānd as for thēm, thōu O God, shalt bring them into the pġt of destruction ; the blōod-thirsty and decēġtful men shall not live out hālf thēir dāys : Nēvertheless, mŷ trust shall bē ġn thēe, O-Lōrd. (H)

24 p. All. And ās fōr thēm (:), thōu, O God, shalt bring them into the pġt of dēstršction.

25 The blōod-thirsty and decēġtful men shall not live out hālf thēir dāys : Nēvertheless, mŷ trust (ā.) shall bē ġn thēe, O-Lōrd.

5 Lēt the people[s] praise thēe, Ō Gód : Let āll the pēoplē[s] práise thēe.

PSALM 68.

Psalm 68.

A Triumph song for our Lord in His progress, from victory over sin, to glory.

f. LĒT | Gōd arise; and let his ēnemies bē scāt-tered : Let thēm-also that hāte him . flēe bēfōre hīm.

2 Līke as the smōke vanisheth, sō shalt thou drive thēm āway : And līke as wāx-melteth at the fire, sō let the ungodly perish . at the prēsence of Gōd —

3 Būt let the righteous be glad, and rejōice befōre Gōd : Lēt them also be mērry and jōyful.

4 ff. Ō sing unto Gōd, and sing prāises . unto hīs Nāme : Māgnify hīm that rideth upon the hēavens, as it were upon an horse; prāise him in his Name * JAH, and rejōice bēfōre hīm.

[* pronounce YAH.]

5 dim. Hē is a Fāther of the fātherless, and defendeth the cāuse of thē wīd-ows : Even Gōd . in his hōly hābītation.

6 Hē is the Gōd . that maketh men to be of ōne mīnd in an house, and bringeth the prisoners . out of cāptīv-ity : Būt letteth the * rūnagates cōtinue in scārceness.

[* rebels.]

God's majesty and His mercy.

7 cr. O Gōd, when thou wentest fōrth . befōre thē pēo-ple : Whēn thou wentest . thrōugh thē wīld-erness,

8 The ēarth shōok, and the heavens drōpped . at the prēsence of Gōd : Eēven as Sīnai-also was moved . at the prēsence of Gōd, who is the Gōd of Is-rael.

9 Thōu O God, sentest a gracious rāin upon thīne inhēritance : And refreshedst it . whēn it wās wēary.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell therein : For thou O God, hast of thy goodness prepared for the poor.— [ seek.]

11 The Lord gave the word : Great was the company of the preachers. [ them that carried the tidings.]

12 Kings . with their armies . did flee, and were discomfited : And they of the household divided the spoil —.

13 ¹ Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove : That is covered with silver wings, and her feathers like gold —.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings for their . sake : Then were they as white as snow in Salmon.

15 As the hill of Basan, so is God's hill : Even an high hill, as the hill of Basan.

16 Why hop ye so, ye high hills ? this is God's hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell : Yea, the Lord will abide in it . for ever.

17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels : And the Lord is among them, as in the holy place of Sion.

18 Thou art gone up on high, thou hast led captivity captive, and received gifts for men : Yea, even for thine enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

The victory is ours.

19 ff. Praised be the Lord daily : Even the God who helpeth us, and poureth his benefits upon us.

20 He is our God, even the God of whom cometh salvation : God is the Lord, by whom we escape death.

21 dim. God shall wound the head of his enemies : And the hairy scalp of such-a-one as goeth on still in his wickedness.

¹ 13 Will ye lie at peace among the sheep folds : As a dove with wings covered with silver and her pinions with gold ? (Hebr.)

22 The Lōrd hath said, 'I will bring my people again, as dīd frōm Bā-san ; Mine ōwn will I bring again, as I dīd metime · from the dēep of thē sēa —.

23 'Thāt thy foot may be dīppēd · in the blōod of thīne enemies : And that the tongue of thy dōgs may be red · thrōugh thē sāmē —.'

24 cr. It is well seen O Gōd, how thōu gō-est : How thōu, O God and King, goest · in thē sānct-u-ary.

25 The sīngers go before, the mīnstrels fōllōw āft-er : In the mīdst are the dāmsels · plāying with thē tīmbrels.

26 f. Give thānks O Israel, unto God the Lord · in the ōngrēg-ations : Frōm the grōund of thē hēart —.

27 dīm. Thēre is little Benjamin, their ruler, and the prīnces of Judah, thēir cōun-sel : The prīnces of Za-būlon, and the prīnces ōf Nēph-thali.

He will gather in all nations.

28 Thy Gōd hath sent forth strēngth fōr thēe : Stāblish the thing O God, that thōu hāst wrōught · in-ūs.

29 p. All. Fōr thy temple's-sake · ēt Jērú-salem (: sō shall kīngs bring prēsēnts ún-to-thēe.

30 ¹ Whēn the company of the spear-men, and multitude of the mighty, are scattered abroad · among the beasts of the people[s] ; so that they humbly bring pīeces ōf sīl-ver : And whēn he hath scattered the pēople[s] · that delīght īn wār — ;

31 Thēn shall the prīnces come ōut ōf Ē-gypt : The * Mōrians' land shall sōon stretch ōut her hānds ún-to-Gōd.

[* Ethiopia.]

Glory to God in the highest.

32 f. Sing unto God, O ye kīngdoms ōf thē éarth : † O sing prāises ún-to (the-Lōrd — ;

33 Who sīt-teth in the heavens · over āll · frōm the bēgīn-ning : Lō, he doth send out his vōice, yea, and thāt ā mīght-y-vōice.

34 Asc-rībe ye the power to Gōd · ōvēr Ís-rael : His wōrship, and strēngth is īn thē clōuds —.

35 O Gōd, wōnderful art thou · in thy hōly plā-ces : Even the God of Israel ; hē will give strength, and power, unto his pēople ; (s.) blēssed bē Gōd —.

¹ 30 This difficult verse probably means—Rebuke [O Lord] the * beast of the reeds : The troop of † bulls with the calves of the peoples.

[* the crocodile, that is, Egypt. † heathen nations, great and small.]

Each humbly brings pieces of silver : He has scattered the peoples that delight in war.

m. HEAR my | lāw, O my péo-ple : Incline your ears . unto the wōrds ōf mý mōuth.

2 I will open my mouth . in a pár-able : I will declare hard sēntences ōf ōld — ;

3 Which we have hēard and kñown : Añd such as our fāthers hāve tōld us ;

4 That wē should not hide them . from the children of the generātions to cōme : Būt to shēw the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wōnderful works . thāt hē hath-dōne.

5 He māde a covenant with Jacob, and gave Israel a lāw : Which he commanded our fōrefathers . to tēach thēir children ;

6 Thāt their postērity might know it, and the children which were yēt unbōrn : (7) Tō the intent that when thēy came up . thēy might shew their children the sāmē-. (H)

6 Thāt their postērity might know it : Añd the children . which wēre yēt . unbōrn.

7 p. All. Tō the intent that when thēy came up (:), they might shēw their children the sāmē — ;

8 That thēy might put their trūst in Gód : And nōt to forget the wōrks of God, but to kēep hīs cōmmāndments ;

9 And nōt to be as their fōrefathers, a faithless and stūb-born generā-tion : A generā-tion that set not their hēart aright, and whose spīrit cleaveth not stedfastly ūntō Gód — ;

10 Like as the children of Éph-raim : Whō · being har-nessed, and carrying bows, turned themselves bāck · in the dāy ōf bāt-tle. [ armed.]

11 They kēpt not the covenant of Gód : Añd would not wālk in hīs lāw ;

12 Būt forgat what hē had dōne : Añd the wōnderful works · that hē had shēwēd fōr thēm.

[Change of first chant only.]

His wonderful works.

13 cr. Mārvellous things did he, in the sīght of our fōre-fathers, in the lānd of É-gypt : Even in the field ōf Zōan.

14 He dividēd the sea, and lēt them go thrōugh : He māde the wāters to stānd · ōn ān hēap —.

15 In the dāy-time-also he lēd them with a clōud : Añd all the night thrōugh · with ā līght · of · fire.

16 He clāve the hard rocks · in the wīld-erness : And gāve them drīnk thereof, as it had been ōut of the grēat dēpth —.

17 He brōught wāters out of the stony rók : Sō that it gushed out · like thē rīvers.

[Change of first chant only.]

Their ungrateful rebellion.

18 dim. Yēt · for all this · they sinned mōre āgāinst · him : Añd provoked the most Highest · in thē wīld-erness.

19 They tēpted God in their hēarts : Añd required mēat for thēir lūst —.

20 They spāke āgāinst Gód-also : Saying, 'Shāll Gód pre-pare a tāble · in thē wīld-er-ness ?' (H)

20 p. All. They spāke āgāinst God-also, sāy-ing (.), 'Shāll Gód pre-pare a tāble · in thē wīld-erness ?'

21 'He smōte the stony rock indeed, that the water gushed out, and the streams fīowed withál : But cān he give brēad also, or provide fīesh for his pēople ?'

22 Whēn the Lord heard thīs, he was wrōth : Sō the fire was kindled in Jacob, ānd there came up heavy displeasure agāinst Ís-rael ;

23 Becāuse they believed not in Gód : And pūt not their trūst in hīs hēlp.

[Change of first chant only.]

God still worked wonders to satisfy them, but not without warning.

24 cr. [Yet even] Sō he commanded the clōuds abōve : And ōpened the dōors ōf hēaven.

25 He rāined down mānna-also upon them . for to éat : And gāve them fōod frōm hēaven.

26 So mēn did eat āngels' fōod : Fōr he sēnt thēm méat-enough.

27 He cāused the east-wind to blōw under héav-en : And through his power . he brōught in the sōuth-wést-wind.

28 He rāined fīesh upon them . as thick as dúst : And fēathered fōwls . like as the sānd of thū sēa —.

29 He lēt it fāll among their ténts : Éven round abōut their hābītātion.

30 Sō they did eat, and were well filled ; for he gave them their ōwn desīre : They were nōt disappōinted ōf thēir lūst.

31 dim. Būt while the meat was yet in their mouths, the hēavy wrath of God cāme upon them, and slōw the *weal-thiest ōf them : Yēa, and smote down the chōsen men . that wēre in Ís-rael.

[* strongest.]

[Change of first chant only.]

Again they rebelled, and again He chastised them, and forgave their hypocrisy.

32 p Būt . for all thīs . they sinned yet móre : And believed not hīs wón-drous-wōrks.

33 Thērefore their days did he consūme in vān-ity : Añd their yēars īn trōuble.

34 Whēn he slēw them, they sōught him : And tūrned them early, and enquirēd āft-er-Gōd.

35 Añd they remembered that Gōd was their strēngth : Añd that the hīgh Gōd was thēir rēdēemer.

36 Nēvertheless, they did but flātter him with their mōuth : And dissēmbled with him . īn thēir tōngue —.

37 Fōr their hēart was not whōle with-him : Nēither continued they stēdfast . īn hīs cōv-enant.

38 cr. But hē was so mērciful, that he forgāve their mis-dēeds : Añd dēstrōyēd them-nōt.

39 Yēa, māny a time tūrned he his wrāth āwāy : Añd would not sūffer his whōle displēasure tō ārise —.

40 Fōr he considered that they wēre but flēsh : Añd that they wēre even a wīnd . that passeth away, and cōmēth nōt . āgāin.

Again and again they forgat His mercy, and all that He had done for them in Egypt.

41 dim. Māny a time did they provōke him . īn the wīld-er-nēss : And grīevēd him . īn thē dēsert.

42 They tūrned bāck, and tēptēd Gōd : And mōvēd the Hōly-One īn Īs-rael.

43 They thōught not of his hānd : Añd of the dāy when he deliverēd them . from the hānd of thē ēn-emy ;

44 Hōw he had wrought his miracles . īn Ē-gypt : Añd his wōnders . īn the field ōf Zōan.

[Change of first chant only.]

45 cr. He tūrned their wāters into blōd : Sō that they might not drīnk of thē rīvers.

46 He sent *lice among them, and devōured them ūp : And frōgs . to dēstrōy them.

[* swarms of flies.]

47 + He gāve their frūit untō (the-cāt-erpillar : + And their labour · untō (*the-grāss-hopper. [^o the locust.]

48 Hē destrōyed their vīnes with hāil-stones : And their mūlberry-trees · with thē frōst —.

49 He smōte their cāttle-also with hāil-stones : And their flocks · with hōt thūn-derbōlts.

50 He cāst upon them the fūriousness of his wrath, anger, displeasure, and trōu-ble : And sēnt evil āngels āmōng them.

51 He mādē a way to his indignation, and spared not their sōul from dēath : Būt gave their life over · tō thē pēst-ilence ;

52 And smōte all the first-born in Ē-gypt : The most prin-cipal and mīghtiest in the dwēllings of Hām —.

53 Būt as for his ōwn people, he led thēm forth · like shēep : And cārried them in the wilderness · like ā flock —.

54 He brōught them out safely, that they shōuld not fēar : And overwhelmed their ēnemies · with thē sēa —.

55 And brōught them within the bōrders of his *sānc-tuary : Ēven to his mōuntain · which he pūrchased with hīs right hānd. [^o holy land.]

56 He cāst out *the hēathen-also befōre · them : Cāused thēir land to be divided among them · for an heritage ; and mādē the tribes of Israel to dwēll in thēir tēnts —. [^o the nations.]

[Change of first chant only.]

Again they provoked Him with idolatry, and He hid His face and left them to perish.

57 p [Yet even] Sō · they tēmpted, and displeased the most high Gōd : And kēpt-not hīs tēst-imonies ;

58 But tūrned their backs, and fell awāy · like their fōre-fathers : Stārtīng asīde · like ā brōk-en-bōw.

59 Fōr they grieved him · with thēir *hill-ālt-ars : And provoked him to displeasure wīth thēir īm-ages. [^o 'high places.]

60 cr. Whēn God heard this, he was wrōth : And took sōre displeasure āt Īs-rael.

61 dim. Sō that he forsōok the tabernacle in Sī-lo : Ēven the tent that he had pīched āmōng mēn.

62 He delivered their ¹pōwer · into captiv-ity : And their ¹beauty · into the ēnemy's hānd —.

63 He gāve his people ōver-also unto the swōrd : And was wrōth with hīs inhēr-itage.

64 The fire consumed their yōung mēn : And their māidens were not given tō mārriage.

65 Their priests were slāin with the swōrd : And there were nō widows · to make lāmēntātion.

[Change of first chant only.]

Once more He arose and delivered them.

66 f. Sō the Lord awāked · as one out of slēep : And like a giant refrēshed with wīne —.

67 He smōte his enemies in the hinder pārts : And pūt them to a perpētūāl shāme —.

68 He refūsed the tabernacle of Jō-seph : And chōse-not the tribe ōf Ēph-raim ;

69 But chōse the tribe of Jūdah : Even the hill of Sion · which hē lōv-ed.

70 And thēre he built his tēmples on hīgh : And lāid the foundation of it like the grōund · which he hath māde cōntin-ually.

71 dim. Hē chose Dāvid-also his sēr-vant : And took him awāy frōm thē shēep-fōlds.

72 As he was following the ēwes great with young ones · he tōok · him : Thāt he might feed Jacob his pēople, and Israel · hīs inhēr-itage.

73 Sō he fed them · with a faithful and true hēart : And rūled them prūdently (sl.) with āll hīs pōwer.

Psalm 80.

A cry of prayer for the Church of God in time of grievous oppression.

m. HĒAR, | O thou Shepherd of Israel, thōu that leadest Joseph . like ā shēep : Shēw thyself also, thou that sittest upon thē chē-ubims.

2 Before Ēphraim, Benja-

2 p. All. Before Ēphraim, stir up thy strēngth, and cōme, ānd hēlp ūs.

3 Tūrn us agāin, Ū Gōd : Shēw the light of thy cōuntēn-

4 p. Ō Lord Gōd, Hōw lōng wilt thōu bē āngry : With thy pēople thāt prāyeth?

4 Ō Lord Gōd of hōsts (:), how lōng wilt thou be angry .
with thy pēople thāt prāy-

5 Thou fēdest them with the brēad of tēars : And gīvest them plēnteousness of tēars .to-drink.

6 Thōu hast made us a very strife unto ōur nēigh-bours :
And our enemies lāugh us tō scōrn —.

7 Tūrn us again, thou Gōd of hōsts : Shēw the light of thy Remember, Lord, Thy past goodness.

8 cr. Thōu hast brought a vīne out of Ē-gypt : Thōu hast cāst out the hēathen, ānd plānt-ed-it.

9 Thou mādest rōom .for it : And whēn it had taken root .

29 'My mercy will I keep for him for evermore : And my covenant shall stand fast with him.

32 p. All. 'If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments (:), I will visit their offences with the rod, and their sin with scourges.

But God's covenant still stands sure for Christ's sake.

33 cr. 'Nevertheless, my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him : Nor suffer my truth to fail.

34 'My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips : I have sworn once by my holiness, that I will not fail David.

35 'His seed shall endure for ever : And his seat is like as the sun before me.

Yet sometimes God seems to forsake even His Anointed, as on the Cross.

38 Thōu hast brōken the cōvenant of thy sēr-vant : And cāst his crōwn · tō thē grōund —.

Psalm 107.

A Psalm of Praise for God's redemption of His people from temporal distress and from spiritual darkness and peril.

N.B.

f. O GIVE | thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious And his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed And delivered from the hand of the enemy ;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, from the west ; From the north, and from the south —.

4 (B) dim. They went astrāy in the wilderness . Out of the wáy : And found no city tó dwêll in ;

5 Hūngry ānd thīrst-y : Their sōul faintêd in thēm.

6 cr. Sō they cried unto the Lōrd . in thēir tróub-le : Añd he delivered them . from thēir distrēss —.

7 Hē led them forth . by the rīght wáy : Thāt they might gō to the city whēre thēy dwêlt —.

8 (C) f. Ō that men would thērefore praise the Lōrd . for hīs góod-ness : Añd declare the wōnders that he doeth . for the childrēn ōf mēn — !

9 Fōr he satisfieth the ēmpty sōul : Añd filleth the hūngry sōul with góodness.

He delivers us from the bondage of sin.

10 (B) m. Sūch as sit in darkness, and in the shādw ōf déath : Bēing fast bōund in mis-erý ānd-īron ;

11 Bēcāse they rebēlled against the wōrds of the Lōrd : And lightly regarded the counsel ōf the mōst Hīghest ;

12 He ālso brought down their hēart thrōugh héav-iness : They fēll dōwn, and there was nōne tó hēlp thēm.

13 cr. So . . . they cried un- 13 All. Sō when they cried

14 Fōr he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shādw ōf déath : And brāke their bōnds in sūnder.

15 (C) f. Ō that men would thērefore praise the Lōrd . for hīs góod-ness : Añd declare the wōnders that he doeth . for the childrēn ōf mēn — !

16 Fōr he hath broken the gātes ōf brāss : Añd smitten the bārs of īron in sūnder.

He spares us from the temporal consequences of our folly and sin.

17 (B) m. Fōolish men are plāgued . for thēir ōffēnce : Añd bēcāse ōf thēir wīck-edness.

18 Thēir soul abhorred all mǎnner ōf méat : Añd they were even hārd āt déath's dōor.

20 He sēnt his wōrd, ānd hēaled them ; Añd they were sǎved frōm thēir déstrūctiōn.

22 Thāt they would offer unto him the sâcrifice of thâñks·

He protects those whose life is surrounded by perils.

23 (D) m. Thēy that go down to the sēa in shîps ; And 27 They rēel to and fro, and stâgger · like a drûnkēn mán ;

28 All. Sō when they cry out of thêir distrêss —.

29 Fōr he maketh the stōrm tō cêase ; Sō that the wâves therēof âre stîll —.

30 Thēn are they glad, because they âre ât rêst ; And sō he brîngeth them unto the hâven · whêre thēy wōuld bē.

31 (C) f. Õ that men would thêrefoṛe praise the Lōrd · foṛ hīs gōod·ness ; Añd declare the wōnders that he doeth · foṛ the childrēn ōf mēn — !

32 Thāt they would exâlt·him·also · in the congregâtion ōf thē peo·ple ; And prâise him in the seat ōf thē êlders !

*It is He who continually supplies all we need,
and much more.*

33 (A) m. + Who tūrneth the fīoods intō (a-wīld-erness :
And drieth up thē wā-ter-springs.

34 A frūitful land · māket hē bār-ren : Fōr the wīckedness of thēm thāt dwēll · therēin.

35 Agāin, he maketh the wīlderness a stāndīng wā-ter :
And wāter-springs ōf a drý grōund.

36 And thēre he sētteth thē húng-ry : Thāt they may build them a citý tō dwēll in ;

37 Thāt they may sōw their land, and plānt vīne-yards : To yīeld them frūits ōf incēase.

38 He blēsseth them, so that they mūltiply ēxcēd-ingly :
And suffereth not their cāttle tō décrēase —.

39 Añd again, when they are mīnished, and brōught lōw :
Thróugh opprēssion, thrōugh any plāgue, ōr trōuble ;

40 Thōugh he suffer them to be evil intrēated thrōugh tý-rants : Añd let them wānder out of the way · in thē
wīld-erness ;

41 cr. Yet hēlpeth he the poor · ōut ōf mīs-ery : And māket him hōuseholds · like a flōck ōf shēep —.

42 dim. The rīghteous will consider this, ānd rējōice : Añd the mouth of all wīckedness shāll bē stōp-ped.

43 Whōso is wise · will pōnder thēse thīngs : And thēy shāll understānd the loving-kīndness (sl.) ōf thē Lōrd —.

PSALM 111.

Psalm 111.

A Psalm of Thankful Praise.

f. I WILL give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart : Secretly among the faithful, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the Lord are great ; Sought-out * of all them that have pleasure therein —. [17.]

3 His work is worthy to be praised, and had in honour : And his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 ¹The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous works ; That they ought to be had in remembrance.

5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him ; He shall ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works ; That he may give them the heritage of * the heathen. [* the nations.]

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgment : All his commandments are true —.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever ; And are done in truth and equity.

9 He sent redemption unto his people : He hath commanded his covenant for ever ; holy and reverend is his Name.

10 dim. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom : A good understanding have all they that do thereafter ; the praise of it (sl.) endureth for ever.

¹ Hebr. 4 He appointed a memorial for His wondrous deeds : Gracious and compassionate is the Lord.

Pause before the Gloria. See note below.

¹ The sad, bitter thoughts of past wrongs, which close this Psalm, render it impossible here to find, as elsewhere, a means of harmonizing or connecting with it the praises of the Gloria Patri; and if this must be sung, it should be after an interlude or a pause (which would in any case make the joyous 138th Psalm follow less abruptly and discordantly).

[ Book. † in spirit.*]

The gift of tongues.

11 f. The Lōrd gāve thē wōrd : Grēat was the company . ōf thē prēachers.

12 Kīngs . with their ārmies . did flee, and wēre discōm-fited : And thēy of the hōusehold divided thē spōil —.

The days of darkness and degradation are passed.

13 Thōugh ye have lien among the pots, yēt shall ye be as the wings of ā dōve : That is cōvered with sīlver wings, and her fēathers līke gōld —.

14 Whēn the Almighty scattered kīngs fōr thēir-sake : Thēn wēre they as wīte as snōw in Sālmon.

15 m. As the hill of Basan, sō is *Gōd's hīll : Even an hīgh hill, as the hīll ōf Bāsan.

[ His Church.*]

16 *Whȳ hop ye so, t̄ye hīgh hīlls ? thīs is Gōd's hīll, in the whīch it pleaseth Hīm tō t̄dwēll : Yēa, the Lord will abīde in it . fōr ēver.

[ Why look up so jealously, t̄ye earthly powers ? † By His Spirit.*]

17 The chāriots of God are twēnty thōusand, even thōusands ōf āng-els : And the Lord is amōng them, as in the hōly plāce ōf Sī-nai.

WHIT SUNDAY. MORNING

Our Lord is gone up, that the Holy Spirit might come down.

18 ff. Thōu art gone up on high, Thōu hast led captivity captive, and received gifts for mén : Yea, ēven for Thine ēnemies, that the Lōrd Gōd might dwell āmong them.

19 Praisēd be the Lōrd dāi-ly : Eēven the God who hēlpeth us, and poureth His bēnefits upōn us. [ the gifts of the Spirit.]

20 Hē is ōur God, even the Gōd of whom cōmeth sālvā-tion : Gōd is the Lōrd, by whom wē ēscape dēath.

His judgements upon them that oppose Him.

21 m. Gōd shall wound the hēad of Hīs ēn-emies : And the hairy scalp of sūch-a-one as goeth on stīll in hīs wick-edness.

22 The Lōrd hath said, 'I will bring My people again, as I dīd frōm Bā-san : Mine ōwn will I bring again, as I dīd sometiē from the dēep of thē sēa —.

23 'Thāt thy foot may be dīpped in the blōod of thīne ēn-emies : And that the tongue of thy dōgs may be red .
thrōugh thē sāmē —.'

The triumph of the Holy Spirit.

24 It is well seen O God, hōw Thōu gō-est : How Thōu, my God and King, goest . in thē sānct-u-ary.

25 The sīngers go before, the mīnstrels fōllōw āft-er : In the midst are the damsels . plāying with thē tīmbrels.

Israel is first called.

26 cr. Gīve thānks O Israel, unto God the Lord . in the cōngrēgā-tions : Frōm the grōund of thē hēart —.

27 Thēre is little Benjamin, their ruler, and the princes of Jūdah, thēir cōun-sel : The princes of Za-būlon, and the princes of Nēph-thali.

28 Thy Gōd hath sent forth strēngth for thēe : Stāblish the thing O God, that Thōu hāst wrōught-in-ūa.

WHIT SUNDAY. MORNING

The heathen, too, shall be gathered in.

29 m. All. Fōr Thy tēmples-sake · āt Jēru-salem (:) so shall kīngs bring prēsēnts ún-to-Thēe.

30 ¹ Whēn the company of the spear-men, and multitude of the mighty, are scāttered abroad · among the beasts of the people[s]; so that they humbly bring pīeces ōf sīl-ver : And whēn he hath scattered the people[s] · that delīght īn wār —;

31 cr. Thēn shall the prīnces come ōut ōf É-gypt : The *Mōrians' land shall sōon stretch ōut her hānds ún-to-Gōd.

[* Ethiopia.]

32 f. Sīng unto God, O ye kīngdoms ōf thē éarth : † O sing prāises untō (the-Lōrd —;

33 Who sitteth in the heavens 'over āll · frōm the bēgīn-ning : Lō, He doth send out His vōice, yea, and thāt ā mīght-y-vōice.

34 Ascrībe ye the power to Gōd · ōvēr Ís-rael : His wōrship, and strēngth is īn thē clōuds —.

35 O Gōd, wōnderful art Thōu · in Thy hōly plā-ces : Ēven the God of Israel ; Hē will give *strength, and power, unto His pēople ; (s.) blēssed bē Gōd —

EVENING.

PSALM 104.

Benedic, anima mea.

Psalm 104.

The Holy Spirit is the Breath of God's mouth in Creation and Providence, the Giver of life and light to all living creatures.

'By the Word of the Lord were the heavens made, and all the host of them by the Breath of His mouth.'

f. PRAISE the | Lord, Ō my sōul : O Lōrd my Gōd, Thou art become exceding glorious ; Thou art clōthed with mājesty and hōnour.

2 f. Thou dēckest Thyself with light . as it were with ā gārment : And sprēadest out the heavens . like ā cūrtain.

3 Who lāyeth the beams of His chāmbers in thē wā-ters : And maketh the clōuds His chariot, and wālketh upon the wings of thē wind —.

4 He māketh His āngēls spīr-its : And His ministers . a flāmīng fire —.

5 He lāid the foundātions . ōf thē ēarth : Thāt it nēver should mōve āt ān-y-tīme.

'In the beginning' it was void and dark, and the Spirit was brooding upon the waters which covered it. And the dry land appeared, and there was light.

6 Thou cōveredst it with the dēep . like as with ā gārment : The wāters stānd in thē hills —. [ stood above.]

7 At Thȳ rebūke thēy flēe : At the vōice of Thȳ thunder . they †āre āfrāid —. [ fled. † hastened away.]

8 Thēy go ūp . as high as the hills, and dōwn . to the vālleys bēnēath : Even unto the plāce which Thōu hast appōintēd fōr thēm. [ want.]

9 Thōu hast set them their bounds . which they shāl nōt pās ; Nēither turn again . to cōver thē ēarth —. [ return.]

WHIT SUNDAY. EVENING

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of order and fitness.

10 dim. + He sēndeth the springs intō (the-riv-ers : Which rūn amōng thē hills —.

11 All bēasts of the field drīnk thērēof ; And the wild-asses quēnch thēir thīrst —.

12 Beside them shall the fowls of the āir have their hābī-tā-tion : And sīng amōng thē brānches.

13 He wātereth the hills . frōm ābōve : The ēarth is filled . with the frūit ōf Thȳ wōrks.

He divideth to each one severally as he willeth.

14 He brīngeth forth grass . fōr thē cāt-tle : And green herb . for the sērvīce ōf mēn — ;

15 Thāt He may bring fōod out of the earth, and wīne . that maketh glēd the hēart ōf mán : And ōil . to make him a cheerful cōuntenance, and brēad . to strēngthen mǎn's hēart —.

16 The trēes of the Lord also are fūll ōf sǎp : Even the cedars of Libanus . which Hē hāth plānted ;

17 Whereīn the bīrds māke thēir nēsts : And the fir-trees are a dwēlling . fōr thē stōrk —.

18 The hīgh hills are a refuge . for the wīld góats : And so are the stony rōcks . fōr thē cōnies.

19 He appōinted the mōon for cērtāin sēa-sōns : And the sūn knōweth hīs gó-ing-dōwn.

20 Thōu makest dārkness . that it māy bē nīght : Whereīn all the bēasts of the fōrest dō *mōve —.

[* prowl about.]

21 The Līons rōar . . . after 21 p. All. The Līons . roarthēir préy : [And] do sēek ing after thēir préy (:), do thēir méat . from-Gōd. (H) sēek thēir méat . from-Gōd.

22 The sūn ariseth, and they get them awāy tōgēth-er : And lāy them dōwn in thēir dēns —.

23 Mǎn goeth fōrth to hīs 23 p. All. Mǎn goeth forth wōrk : And to hīs lābour . to hīs work, and to hīs lāuntīl thē ēvening. (H) bour (:), untīl thē ēvening.

The Spirit is the Wisdom of God in Providence.

24 cr. Ō Lord, how mānyfold āre Thȳ wōrks : In wīsdōm hast Thou made them āll : the earth is fūll of Thȳ rīches.

25 Sō is the grēat and wīde sēa āl-so : Whereīn are things *creeping innūmerable, both smāll ānd grēat bēasts.

[* moving to and fro.]

26 Thēre go the ships, and thēre is thāt Lēvī-athan : Whom Thōu hast made . to take hīs pāstīme thērein. [ the great whale.]

WHIT SUNDAY. EVENING

He giveth, preserveth, and reneweth life.

27 m. These wait all upon Thee : That Thou mayest give them meat · in due season.

28 When Thou givest it them · they gather-it : And when Thou openest Thy hand · they are filled with good —.

29 When Thou hidest Thy face · they are troubled : When thou takest away their breath · they die, and are turned again to their dust —.

30 cr. When Thou lettest Thy *Breath go forth · they shall be made : And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth —.

[* Thy Spirit. † are. § dost.]

31 f. The glorious Majesty of the Lord shall endure forever : The Lord shall rejoice in His works —.

32 The earth shall tremble at the look of Him : If He do but touch the hills, they shall smoke —.

33 I will sing unto the Lord · as long as I live : I will praise my God · while I have my being.

34 And so shall my words please Him : My joy shall be in the Lord —.

35a dim. As for sinners, they shall be consumed · out of the earth : And the ungodly shall come to an end —.

35b cr. Praise thou the Lord, O my soul : Praise the Lord —. (R. V.)

35 As for sinners, they shall be consumed out of the earth, and the ungodly shall come to an end : Praise thou the Lord, O my soul, (s.) praise the Lord —.

NOTE.—To these last fourteen Endings the following Psalms can be sung with their pointing as it stands, throughout:—Pss. 20, 30, 41, 95 (Venite), 98 (Cantate), 99, 110, 119 (vv. 18–32; 65–96), 128, 131, 142. And any other Psalm can, by a slight alteration in the pointing of certain verses, be adapted to them, as explained in the Introduction, p. 50, except the following—Pss. 8, 9, 11, 12, 16, 18, 19, 23, 25, 27, 36, 39, 44, 45, 46, 51 (Miserere), 55, 57, 68, 69, 72, 73, 74, 78, 80, 89, 104, 106, 107, 108, 109, 113, 114, 115, 116, 119 (vv. 137–144), 133, 134, 137, 147. As any alteration of the Gloria Patri for these Endings only would prove a stumbling-block at other times, it must be sung always as it stands on p. 83—the three last notes (when it is sung to one of these Endings) all falling on the last syllable, thus,—‘End —.’
