looking for pasture for their flocks.

39 and they went to the outskirts of Gedor to the east of the valley in search of pasture for their flocks.

quiet. Some Hamites had lived there formerly.

41 But the men in these family trees came when Hezekiah was king of Judah and attacked the Hamites, tearing down their tents and houses.
There was nothing left of them, as you can see today. Then they moved in and took over because of the great pastureland.

41 The men whose names were listed came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. They attacked the Hamites in their dwellings and also the Meunites who were there and completely destroyed them, as is evident to this day. Then they settled in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks.

42 Five hundred of these Simeonites went on and invaded the hill country of Seir, led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.

NIV

- 1 The Philistines went to war against Israel; the Israelites ran for their lives from the Philistines but fell, slaughtered on Mount Gilboa.
- 1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; the Israelites fled before them, and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa.
- 2 The Philistines zeroed in on Saul and his sons and killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malki-Shua.
- 2 The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons, and they killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua.
- 3 The battle went hard against Saul--the archers found him and wounded him.
- 3 The fighting grew fierce around Saul, and when the archers overtook him, they wounded him.
- 4 Saul said to his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and finish me off before these pagan pigs get to me and make a sport of my body." But his armor bearer, restrained by both reverence and fear, wouldn't do it. So Saul took his own sword and killed himself.
- 4 Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through, or these uncircumcised fellows will come and abuse me." But his armor-bearer was terrified and would not do it; so Saul took his own sword and fell on it.
- 5 The armor bearer, panicked because Saul was dead, then killed himself.
- 5 When the armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died.
- 6 So Saul and his three sons--all four the same day--died.
- 6 So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.

- 7 When all the Israelites in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and ran off; the Philistines came and moved in.
- 7 When all the Israelites in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and fled. And the Philistines came and occupied them.
- 8 The next day the Philistines came to plunder the dead bodies and found Saul and his sons dead on Mount Gilboa.
- 8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.
- 9 They stripped Saul, removed his head and his armor, and put them on exhibit throughout Philistia, reporting the victory news to their idols and the people.
- 9 They stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news among their idols and their people.
- 10 Then they put Saul's armor on display in the temple of their gods and placed his skull as a trophy in the temple of their god Dagon.
- 10 They put his armor in the temple of their gods and hung up his head in the temple of Dagon.
- 11 The people of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul.
- 11 When all the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard of everything the Philistines had done to Saul,
- 12 All of their fighting men went into action--retrieved the bodies of Saul and his sons and brought them to Jabesh, gave them a dignified burial under the oak at Jabesh, and mourned their deaths for seven days.
- 12 all their valiant men went and took the bodies of Saul and his sons and brought them to Jabesh. Then they buried their bones under the great tree in Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.
- 13 Saul died in disobedience, disobedient to GOD. He didn't obey GOD's words. Instead of praying, he went to a witch to seek guidance.
- 13 Saul died because he was unfaithful to the LORD; he did not keep the word of the LORD and even consulted a medium for guidance,
- 14 Because he didn't go to GOD for help, GOD took his life and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

14 and did not inquire of the LORD. So the LORD put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

NIV

- 1 Then all Israel assembled before David at Hebron. "Look at us," they said. "We're your very flesh and blood.
- 1 All Israel came together to David at Hebron and said, "We are your own flesh and blood.
- 2 In the past, yes, even while Saul was king, you were the real leader of Israel. GOD told you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel; you are to be the ruler of my people Israel.'"
- 2 In the past, even while Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns. And the LORD your God said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become their ruler.' "
- 3 When all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, David made a covenant with them in the presence of GOD at Hebron. Then they anointed David king over Israel exactly as GOD had commanded through Samuel.
- 3 When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, he made a compact with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel, as the LORD had promised through Samuel.
- 4 David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (it was the old Jebus, where the Jebusites lived).
- 4 David and all the Israelites marched to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus). The Jebusites who lived there
- 5 The citizens of Jebus told David, "No trespassing--you can't come here." David came on anyway and captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David.
- 5 said to David, "You will not get in here." Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David.
- 6 David had said, "The first person to kill a Jebusite will be commander-in-chief." Joab son of Zeruiah was the first; and he became the chief.

- 6 David had said, "Whoever leads the attack on the Jebusites will become commander-in-chief." Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, and so he received the command.
- 7 David took up residence in the fortress city; that's how it got its name, "City of David."
- 7 David then took up residence in the fortress, and so it was called the City of David.
- 8 David fortified the city all the way around, both the outer bulwarks (the Millo) and the outside wall. Joab rebuilt the city gates.
- 8 He built up the city around it, from the supporting terraces to the surrounding wall, while Joab restored the rest of the city.
- 9 David's stride became longer, his embrace larger--yes, GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies was with him!
- 9 And David became more and more powerful, because the LORD Almighty was with him.
- 10 These are the chiefs of David's Mighty Men, the ones who linked arms with him as he took up his kingship, with all Israel joining in, helping him become king in just the way GOD had spoken regarding Israel.
- 10 These were the chiefs of David's mighty men--they, together with all Israel, gave his kingship strong support to extend it over the whole land, as the LORD had promised--
- 11 The list of David's Mighty Men: Jashobeam son of Hacmoni was chief of the Thirty. Singlehandedly he killed three hundred men, killed them all in one skirmish.
- 11 this is the list of David's mighty men: Jashobeam, a Hacmonite, was chief of the officers; he raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed in one encounter.
- 12 Next was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite, one of the Big Three of the Mighty Men.
- 12 Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men.
- 13 He was with David at Pas Dammim, where the Philistines had mustered their troops for battle. It was an area where there was a field of barley. The army started to flee from the Philistines
- 13 He was with David at Pas Dammim when the Philistines gathered there for battle. At a place where there was a field full of barley, the troops fled from the Philistines.

14 and then took its stand right in that field--and turned the tide! They slaughtered the Philistines, GOD helping them--a huge victory.

14 But they took their stand in the middle of the field. They defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.

15 The Big Three from the Thirty made a rocky descent to David at the Cave of Adullam while a company of Philistines was camped in the Valley of Rephaim.

15 Three of the thirty chiefs came down to David to the rock at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

16 David was holed up in the Cave while the Philistines were prepared for battle at Bethlehem.

16 At that time David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem.

17 David had a sudden craving: "What I wouldn't give for a drink of water from the well in Bethlehem, the one at the gate!"

17 David longed for water and said, "Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!"

18 The Three penetrated the Philistine camp, drew water from the well at the Bethlehem gate, shouldered it, and brought it to David. And then David wouldn't drink it! He poured it out as a sacred offering to GOD,

18 So the Three broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured it out before the LORD.

19 saying, "I'd rather be damned by God than drink this! It would be like drinking the lifeblood of these men--they risked their lives to bring it." So he refused to drink it. These are the kinds of things that the Big Three of the Mighty Men did.

19 God forbid that I should do this! he said. "Should I drink the blood of these men who went at the risk of their lives?" Because they risked their lives to bring it back, David would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the three mighty men.

20 Abishai brother of Joab was the chief of the Thirty. Singlehandedly he fought three hundred men, and killed the lot, but he never made it into the circle of the Three.

- 20 Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of the Three. He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three.
- 21 He was highly honored by the Thirty--he was their chief--still, he didn't measure up to the Three.
- 21 He was doubly honored above the Three and became their commander, even though he was not included among them.
- 22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a Mighty Man from Kabzeel with many exploits to his credit: he killed two famous Moabites; he climbed down into a pit and killed a lion on a snowy day;
- 22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, who performed great exploits. He struck down two of Moab's best men. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.
- 23 and he killed an Egyptian, a giant seven and a half feet tall. The Egyptian had a spear like a ship's boom but Benaiah went at him with a mere club, tore the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with it.
- 23 And he struck down an Egyptian who was seven and a half feet tall. Although the Egyptian had a spear like a weaver's rod in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club. He snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.
- 24 These are some of the things Benaiah son of Jehoiada did. But he was never included with the Three.
- 24 Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty men.
- 25 He was highly honored among the Thirty, but didn't measure up to the Three. David put him in charge of his personal bodyguard.
- 25 He was held in greater honor than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

- 1 These are the men who joined David in Ziklag; it was during the time he was banished by Saul the son of Kish; they were among the Mighty Men, good fighters.
- 1 These were the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish (they were among the warriors who helped him in battle;
- 2 They were armed with bows and could sling stones and shoot arrows either right- or left-handed. They hailed from Saul's tribe, Benjamin.
- 2 they were armed with bows and were able to shoot arrows or to sling stones right-handed or left-handed; they were kinsmen of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin):
- 3 The first was Ahiezer; then Joash son of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah; Jehu the Anathothite;
- 3 Ahiezer their chief and Joash the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite,
- 4 Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a Mighty Man among the Thirty, a leader of the Thirty; Jeremiah; Jahaziel; Johanan; Jozabad the Gederathite;
- 4 and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the Thirty, who was a leader of the Thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the

Gederathite,

- 5 Eluzai; Jerimoth; Bealiah; Shemariah; Shephatiah the Haruphite;
- 5 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah and Shephatiah the Haruphite;
- 6 Elkanah; Isshiah; Azarel; Joezer; Jashobeam; the Korahites;
- 6 Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam the Korahites;
- 7 and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.
- 7 and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.
- 8 There were some Gadites there who had defected to David at his wilderness fortress; they were seasoned and eager fighters who knew how to handle shield and spear. They were wild in appearance, like lions, but as agile as gazelles racing across the hills.
- 8 Some Gadites defected to David at his stronghold in the desert. They were brave warriors, ready for battle and able to handle the shield and spear. Their faces were the faces of lions, and they were as swift as gazelles in the mountains.
- 9 Ezer was the first, then Obadiah, Eliab,
- 9 Ezer was the chief, Obadiah the second in command, Eliab the third,
- 10 Mishmannah, Jeremiah,
- 10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,
- 11 Attai, Eliel,
- 11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,
- 12 Johanan, Elzabad,
- 12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,
- 13 Jeremiah, and Macbannai--eleven of them.
- 13 Jeremiah the tenth and Macbannai the eleventh.
- 14 These Gadites were the cream of the crop--any one of them was worth a hundred lesser men, and the best of them were worth a thousand.
- 14 These Gadites were army commanders; the least was a match for a hundred, and the greatest for a thousand.
- 15 They were the ones who crossed the Jordan when it was at flood stage in the first month, and put everyone in the lowlands to flight, both east and west.
- 15 It was they who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks, and they put to flight everyone living in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

- 16 There were also men from the tribes of Benjamin and Judah who joined David in his wilderness fortress.
- 16 Other Benjamites and some men from Judah also came to David in his stronghold.
- 17 When David went out to meet them, this is what he said: "If you have come in peace and to help me, you are most welcome to join this company; but if you have come to betray me to my enemies, innocent as I am, the God of our ancestors will see through you and bring judgment on you."
- 17 David went out to meet them and said to them, "If you have come to me in peace, to help me, I am ready to have you unite with me. But if you have come to betray me to my enemies when my hands are free from violence, may the God of our fathers see it and judge you."
- 18 Just then Amasai chief of the Thirty, moved by God's Spirit, said, We're on your side, O David, We're committed, O son of Jesse; All is well, yes, all is well with you, And all's well with whoever helps you. Yes, for your God has helped and does help you. So David took them on and assigned them a place under the chiefs of the raiders.
- 18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the Thirty, and he said: "We are yours, O David! We are with you, O son of Jesse! Success, success to you, and success to those who help you, for your God will help you." So David received them and made them leaders of his raiding bands.
- 19 Some from the tribe of Manasseh also defected to David when he started out with the Philistines to go to war against Saul. In the end, they didn't actually fight because the Philistine leaders, after talking it over, sent them home, saying, "We can't trust them with our lives--they'll betray us to their master Saul."
- 19 Some of the men of Manasseh defected to David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. (He and his men did not help the Philistines because, after consultation, their rulers sent him away. They said, "It will cost us our heads if he deserts to his master Saul.")
- 20 The men from Manasseh who defected to David at Ziklag were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, all leaders among the families of Manasseh.
- 20 When David went to Ziklag, these were the men of Manasseh who defected to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai, leaders of units of a thousand in Manasseh.

21 They helped David in his raids against the desert bandits; they were all stalwart fighters and good leaders among his raiders.

21 They helped David against raiding bands, for all of them were brave warriors, and they were commanders in his army.

22 Hardly a day went by without men showing up to help--it wasn't long before his band seemed as large as God's own army!

22 Day after day men came to help David, until he had a great army, like the army of God.

23 Here are the statistics on the battle-seasoned warriors who came down from the north to David at Hebron to hand over Saul's kingdom, in accord with GOD's word:

23 These are the numbers of the men armed for battle who came to David at Hebron to turn Saul's kingdom over to him, as the LORD had said:

24 from Judah, carrying shield and spear, 6,800 battle-ready;

24 men of Judah, carrying shield and spear--6,800 armed for battle;

25 from Simeon, 7,100 stalwart fighters;

25 men of Simeon, warriors ready for battle--7,100;

26 from Levi, 4,600,

26 men of Levi--4,600,

27 which included Jehoiada leader of the family of Aaron, bringing 3,700 men

27 including Jehoiada, leader of the family of Aaron, with 3,700 men,

28 and the young and stalwart Zadok with twenty-two leaders from his family;

28 and Zadok, a brave young warrior, with 22 officers from his family;

29 from Benjamin, Saul's family, 3,000, most of whom had stuck it out with Saul until now;

29 men of Benjamin, Saul's kinsmen--3,000, most of whom had remained loyal to Saul's house until then;

30 from Ephraim, 20,800, fierce fighters and famous in their hometowns;

30 men of Ephraim, brave warriors, famous in their own clans--20,800;

31 from the half-tribe of Manasseh, 18,000 elected to come and make David king;

31 men of half the tribe of Manasseh, designated by name to come and make David king--18,000;

- 32 from Issachar, men who understood both the times and Israel's duties, 200 leaders with their families;
- 32 men of Issachar, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do--200 chiefs, with all their relatives under their command;
- 33 from Zebulun, 50,000 well-equipped veteran warriors, unswervingly loyal;
- 33 men of Zebulun, experienced soldiers prepared for battle with every type of weapon, to help David with undivided loyalty--50,000;
- 34 from Naphtali, 1,000 chiefs leading 37,000 men heavily armed;
- 34 men of Naphtali--1,000 officers, together with 37,000 men carrying shields and spears;
- 35 from Dan, 28,600 battle-ready men;
- 35 men of Dan, ready for battle--28,600;
- 36 from Asher, 40,000 veterans, battle-ready;
- 36 men of Asher, experienced soldiers prepared for battle--40,000;
- 37 and from East of Jordan, men from Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, heavily armed, 120,000.
- 37 and from east of the Jordan, men of Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, armed with every type of weapon--120,000.
- 38 All these soldiers came to David at Hebron, ready to fight if necessary;
they were both united and determined to make David king over all Israel.
And everyone else in Israel was of the same mind--"Make David king!"
- 38 All these were fighting men who volunteered to serve in the ranks. They came to Hebron fully determined to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of the Israelites were also of one mind to make David king.
- 39 They were with David for three days of feasting celebration, with food and drink supplied by their families.
- 39 The men spent three days there with David, eating and drinking, for their families had supplied provisions for them.
- 40 Neighbors ranging from as far north as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali arrived with donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen loaded down with food for the party: flour, fig cakes, raisin cakes, wine, oil, cattle, and sheep-- joy in Israel!
- 40 Also, their neighbors from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali came bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. There were plentiful supplies of flour, fig cakes, raisin cakes, wine, oil, cattle and sheep, for there was joy in Israel.

NIV

- 1 David consulted with all of his leaders, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds.
- 1 David conferred with each of his officers, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.
- 2 Then David addressed the entire assembly of Israel, "If it seems right to you, and it is GOD's will, let's invite all our relatives wherever they are throughout Israel, along with their relatives, including their priests and Levites from their cities and surrounding pastures, to join us.
- 2 He then said to the whole assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send word far and wide to the rest of our brothers throughout the territories of Israel, and also to the priests and Levites who are with them in their towns and pasturelands, to come and join us.
- 3 And let's bring the Chest of our God back--the Chest that was out of sight, out of mind during the days of Saul."
- 3 Let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we did not inquire of it during the reign of Saul."
- 4 The entire assembly of Israel agreed--everybody agreed that it was the right thing to do.
- 4 The whole assembly agreed to do this, because it seemed right to all the people.
- 5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Egypt's Pond of Horus in the southwest to the Pass of Hamath in the northeast, to go and get the Chest of God from Kiriath Jearim.
- 5 So David assembled all the Israelites, from the Shihor River in Egypt to Lebo Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim.
- 6 Then David and all Israel went to Baalah (Kiriath Jearim) in Judah to bring back the Chest of God, the "Cherubim-Throne-of-GOD," where GOD's Name is invoked.

- 6 David and all the Israelites with him went to Baalah of Judah (Kiriath Jearim) to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who is enthroned between the cherubim--the ark that is called by the Name.
- 7 They moved the Chest of God on a brand-new cart from the house of Abinadab with Uzzah and Ahio in charge.
- 7 They moved the ark of God from Abinadab's house on a new cart, with Uzzah and Ahio guiding it.
- 8 In procession with the Chest of God, David and all Israel worshiped exuberantly in song and dance, with a marching band of all kinds of instruments.
- 8 David and all the Israelites were celebrating with all their might before God, with songs and with harps, lyres, tambourines, cymbals and trumpets.
- 9 When they were at the threshing floor of Kidon, the oxen stumbled and Uzzah grabbed the Chest to keep it from falling off.
- 9 When they came to the threshing floor of Kidon, Uzzah reached out his hand to steady the ark, because the oxen stumbled.
- 10 GOD erupted in anger against Uzzah and killed him because he grabbed the Chest. He died on the spot--in the presence of God.
- 10 The LORD's anger burned against Uzzah, and he struck him down because he had put his hand on the ark. So he died there before God.
- 11 David lost his temper, angry because GOD exploded against Uzzah; the place is still called Perez Uzzah (Exploded Uzzah).
- 11 Then David was angry because the LORD's wrath had broken out against Uzzah, and to this day that place is called Perez Uzzah.
- 12 David was terrified of God that day; he said, "How can I possibly continue this parade with the Chest of God?"
- 12 David was afraid of God that day and asked, "How can I ever bring the ark of God to me?"
- 13 So David called off the parade of the Chest to the City of David; instead he stored it in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.
- 13 He did not take the ark to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.
- 14 The Chest of God was in storage in the house of Obed-Edom for three months. GOD blessed the family of Obed-Edom and everything around him.

- 14 The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house for three months, and the LORD blessed his household and everything he had.

- 6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,
- 7 Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.
- 7 Elishama, Beeliada and Eliphelet.
- 8 The minute the Philistines heard that David had been made king over a united Israel, they went out in force to capture David. When David got the report, he marched out to confront them.
- 8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about

- it and went out to meet them.
- 9 On their way, the Philistines stopped off to plunder the Valley of Rephaim.
- 9 Now the Philistines had come and raided the Valley of Rephaim;
- 10 David prayed to God: "Is this the right time to attack the Philistines? Will you give me the victory?" GOD answered, "Attack; I'll give you the victory."
- 10 so David inquired of God: "Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?" The LORD answered him, "Go, I will hand them over to you."
- 11 David attacked at Baal Perazim and slaughtered them. David said, "God exploded my enemies, as water explodes from a burst pipe." That's how the place got its name, Baal Perazim (Baal-Explosion).
- 11 So David and his men went up to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He said, "As waters break out, God has broken out against my enemies by my hand." So that place was called Baal Perazim.
- 12 The Philistines left their gods behind and David ordered that they be burned up.
- 12 The Philistines had abandoned their gods there, and David gave orders to burn them in the fire.
- 13 And then the Philistines were back at it again, plundering in the valley.
- 13 Once more the Philistines raided the valley;
- 14 David again prayed to God. God answered, "This time don't attack head-on; circle around and come at them out of the balsam grove.
- 14 so David inquired of God again, and God answered him, "Do not go straight up, but circle around them and attack them in front of the balsam trees.
- 15 When you hear a sound like shuffling feet in the tops of the balsams, attack; God will be two steps ahead of you, slaughtering the Philistines."
- 15 As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move out to battle, because that will mean God has gone out in front of you to strike the Philistine army."
- 16 David did exactly as God commanded, slaughtering Philistines all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.
- 16 So David did as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army, all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

17 David was soon famous all over the place, far and near; and GOD put the fear of God into the godless nations.

17 So David's fame spread throughout every land, and the LORD made all the nations fear him.

1 Chronicles 15

MSG

NIV

1 After David built houses for himself in the City of David, he cleared a place for the Chest and pitched a tent for it.

1 After David had constructed buildings for himself in the City of David, he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

2 Then David gave orders: "No one carries the Chest of God except the Levites; GOD designated them and them only to carry the Chest of GOD and be available full time for service in the work of worship."

2 Then David said, "No one but the Levites may carry the ark of God, because the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister before him forever."

3 David then called everyone in Israel to assemble in Jerusalem to bring up the Chest of GOD to its specially prepared place.

3 David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to the place he had prepared for it.

4 David also called in the family of Aaron and the Levites.

4 He called together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites:

5 From the family of Kohath, Uriel the head with 120 relatives;

5 From the descendants of Kohath, Uriel the leader and 120 relatives;

6 from the family of Merari, Asaiah the head with 220 relatives;

6 from the descendants of Merari, Asaiah the leader and 220 relatives;

7 from the family of Gershon, Joel the head with 130 relatives;

7 from the descendants of Gershon, Joel the leader and 130 relatives;

8 from the family of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the head with 200 relatives;

8 from the descendants of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the leader and 200 relatives;

9 from the family of Hebron, Eliel the head with 80 relatives;

9 from the descendants of Hebron, Eliel the leader and 80 relatives;

- 10 from the family of Uzziel, Amminadab the head with 112 relatives.
- 10 from the descendants of Uzziel, Amminadab the leader and 112 relatives.
- 11 Then David called in Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab the Levites.
- 11 Then David summoned Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab the Levites.
- 12 He said, "You are responsible for the Levitical families; now consecrate yourselves, both you and your relatives, and bring up the Chest of the GOD of Israel to the place I have set aside for it.
- 12 He said to them, "You are the heads of the Levitical families; you and your fellow Levites are to consecrate yourselves and bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared for it.
- 13 The first time we did this, you Levites did not carry it properly, and GOD exploded in anger at us because we didn't make proper preparation and follow instructions."
- 13 It was because you, the Levites, did not bring it up the first time that the LORD our God broke out in anger against us. We did not inquire of him about how to do it in the prescribed way."
- 14 So the priests and Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the Chest of the GOD of Israel.
- 14 So the priests and Levites consecrated themselves in order to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel.
- 15 The Levites carried the Chest of God exactly as Moses, instructed by GOD, commanded--carried it with poles on their shoulders, careful not to touch it with their hands.
- 15 And the Levites carried the ark of God with the poles on their shoulders, as Moses had commanded in accordance with the word of the LORD.
- 16 David ordered the heads of the Levites to assign their relatives to sing in the choir, accompanied by a well-equipped marching band, and fill the air with joyful sound.
- 16 David told the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brothers as singers to sing joyful songs, accompanied by musical instruments: lyres, harps and cymbals.
- 17 The Levites assigned Heman son of Joel, and from his family, Asaph son of Berekiah, then Ethan son of Kushaiah from the family of Merari,

- 17 So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his brothers, Asaph son of Berekiah; and from their brothers the Merarites, Ethan son of Kushaiah;
- 18 and after them in the second rank their brothers Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel as security guards.
- 18 and with them their brothers next in rank: Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel, the gatekeepers.
- 19 The members of the choir and marching band were: Heman, Asaph, and Ethan with bronze cymbals;
- 19 The musicians Heman, Asaph and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals;
- 20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah with lyres carrying the melody;
- 20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah were to play the lyres according to alamothe,
- 21 Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah with harps filling in the harmony;
- 21 and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel and Azaziah were to play the harps, directing according to sheminith.
- 22 Kenaniah, the Levite in charge of music, a very gifted musician, was music director.
- 22 Kenaniah the head Levite was in charge of the singing; that was his responsibility because he was skillful at it.
- 23 Berekiah and Elkanah were porters for the Chest.
- 23 Berekiah and Elkanah were to be doorkeepers for the ark.
- 24 The priests Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer blew the trumpets before the Chest of God. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were also porters for the Chest.
- 24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer the priests were to blow trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were also to be doorkeepers for the ark.
- 25 Now they were ready. David, the elders of Israel, and the commanders of thousands started out to get the Chest of the Covenant of GOD and bring it up from the house of Obed-Edom. And they went rejoicing.

- 25 So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of units of a thousand went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom, with rejoicing.
- 26 Because God helped the Levites, strengthening them as they carried the Chest of the Covenant of GOD, they paused to worship by sacrificing seven bulls and seven rams.
- 26 Because God had helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams were sacrificed.
- 27 They were all dressed in elegant linen--David, the Levites carrying the Chest, the choir and band, and Kenaniah who was directing the music. David also wore a linen prayer shawl (called an ephod).
- 27 Now David was clothed in a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and as were the singers, and Kenaniah, who was in charge of the singing of the choirs. David also wore a linen ephod.
- 28 On they came, all Israel on parade bringing up the Chest of the Covenant of GOD, shouting and cheering, playing every kind of brass and percussion and string instrument.
- 28 So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouts, with the sounding of rams' horns and trumpets, and of cymbals, and the playing of lyres and harps.
- 29 When the Chest of the Covenant of GOD entered the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, was watching from a window. When she saw King David dancing ecstatically she was filled with contempt.
- 29 As the ark of the covenant of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul watched from a window. And when she saw King David dancing and celebrating, she despised him in her heart.

1 Chronicles 16

MSG

NIV

- 1 They brought the Chest of God and placed it right in the center of the tent that David had pitched for it; then they worshiped by presenting burnt offerings and peace offerings to God.

- 1 They brought the ark of God and set it inside the tent that David had pitched for it, and they presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before God.
- 2 When David had completed the offerings of worship, he blessed the people in the name of GOD.
- 2 After David had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.
- 3 Then he passed around to every one there, men and women alike, a loaf of bread, a slice of barbecue, and a raisin cake.
- 3 Then he gave a loaf of bread, a cake of dates and a cake of raisins to each Israelite man and woman.
- 4 Then David assigned some of the Levites to the Chest of GOD to lead worship--to intercede, give thanks, and praise the GOD of Israel.
- 4 He appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to make petition, to give thanks, and to praise the LORD, the God of Israel:
- 5 Asaph was in charge; under him were Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, who played the musical instruments. Asaph was on percussion.
- 5 Asaph was the chief, Zechariah second, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel. They were to play the lyres and harps, Asaph was to sound the cymbals,
- 6 The priests Benaiah and Jahaziel blew the trumpets before the Chest of the Covenant of God at set times through the day.
- 6 and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests were to blow the trumpets regularly before the ark of the covenant of God.
- 7 That was the day that David inaugurated regular worship of praise to GOD, led by Asaph and his company.
- 7 That day David first committed to Asaph and his associates this psalm of thanks to the LORD:
- 8 Thank GOD! Call out his Name! Tell the whole world who he is and what he's done!
- 8 Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done.
- 9 Sing to him! Play songs for him! Broadcast all his wonders!
- 9 Sing to him, sing praise to him; tell of all his wonderful acts.

10 Revel in his holy Name, GOD-seekers, be jubilant!
10 Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
11 Study GOD and his strength, seek his presence day and night;
11 Look to the LORD and his strength; seek his face always.
12 Remember all the wonders he performed, the miracles and judgments that came out of his mouth.
12 Remember the wonders he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he pronounced,
13 Seed of Israel his servant! Children of Jacob, his first choice!
13 O descendants of Israel his servant, O sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.
14 He is GOD, our God; wherever you go you come on his judgments and decisions.
14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.
15 He keeps his commitments across thousands of generations, the covenant he commanded,
15 He remembers his covenant forever, the word he commanded, for a thousand generations,
16 The same one he made with Abraham, the very one he swore to Isaac;
16 the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac.
17 He posted it in big block letters to Jacob, this eternal covenant with Israel:
17 He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant:
18 "I give you the land of Canaan, this is your inheritance;
18 To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion you will inherit.
19 Even though you're not much to look at, a few straggling strangers."
19 When they were but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it,
20 They wandered from country to country, camped out in one kingdom after another;
20 they wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.
21 But he didn't let anyone push them around, he stood up for them against bully-kings:
21 He allowed no man to oppress them; for their sake he rebuked kings:
22 "Don't you dare touch my anointed ones, don't lay a hand on my prophets."

22 Do not touch my anointed ones; do my prophets no harm.

23 Sing to GOD, everyone and everything! Get out his salvation news every day!

23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth; proclaim his salvation day after day.

24 Publish his glory among the godless nations, his wonders to all races and religions.

24 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous deeds among all peoples.

25 And why? Because GOD is great--well worth praising! No god or goddess comes close in honor.

25 For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; he is to be feared above all gods.

26 All the popular gods are stuff and nonsense, but GOD made the cosmos!

26 For all the gods of the nations are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

27 Splendor and majesty flow out of him, strength and joy fill his place.

27 Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and joy in his dwelling place.

28 Shout Bravo! to GOD, families of the peoples, in awe of the Glory, in awe of the Strength: Bravo!

28 Ascribe to the LORD, O families of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength, 29 Shout Bravo! to his famous Name, lift high an offering and enter his presence! Stand resplendent in his robes of holiness!

29 ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name. Bring an offering and come before him; worship the LORD in the splendor of his holiness.

30 God is serious business, take him seriously; he's put the earth in place and it's not moving.

30 Tremble before him, all the earth! The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.

31 So let heaven rejoice, let earth be jubilant, and pass the word among the nations, "GOD reigns!"

31 Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad; let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns!"

32 Let Ocean, all teeming with life, bellow, let Field and all its creatures shake the rafters;

- 32 Let the sea resound, and all that is in it; let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them!
- 33 Then the trees in the forest will add their applause to all who are pleased and present before GOD --he's on his way to set things right!
- 33 Then the trees of the forest will sing, they will sing for joy before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth.
- 34 Give thanks to GOD--he is good and his love never quits.
- 34 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever.
- 35 Say, "Save us, Savior God, round us up and get us out of these godless places, So we can give thanks to your holy Name, and bask in your life of praise."
- 35 Cry out, "Save us, O God our Savior; gather us and deliver us from the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name, that we may glory in your praise."
- 36 Blessed be GOD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Then everybody said, "Yes! Amen!" and "Praise GOD!"
- 36 Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Then all the people said "Amen" and "Praise the LORD."
- 37 David left Asaph and his coworkers with the Chest of the Covenant of GOD and in charge of the work of worship; they were responsible for the needs of worship around the clock.
- 37 David left Asaph and his associates before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister there regularly, according to each day's requirements.
- 38 He also assigned Obed-Edom and his sixty-eight relatives to help them. Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun and Hosah were in charge of the security guards.
- 38 He also left Obed-Edom and his sixty-eight associates to minister with them. Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun, and also Hosah, were gatekeepers.
- 39 The priest Zadok and his family of priests were assigned to the Tent of GOD at the sacred mound at Gibeon
- 39 David left Zadok the priest and his fellow priests before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place in Gibeon
- 40 to make sure that the services of morning and evening worship were conducted daily, complete with Whole-Burnt-Offerings offered on the Altar of Burnt Offering, as ordered in the Law of GOD, which was the norm for Israel.

- 40 to present burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly, morning and evening, in accordance with everything written in the Law of the LORD, which he had given Israel.
- 41 With them were Heman, Jeduthun, and others specifically named, with the job description: "Give thanks to GOD, for his love never quits!"
- 41 With them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest of those chosen and designated by name to give thanks to the LORD, "for his love endures forever."
- 42 Heman and Jeduthun were also well equipped with trumpets, cymbals, and other instruments for accompanying sacred songs. The sons of Jeduthun formed the security guard.
- 42 Heman and Jeduthun were responsible for the sounding of the trumpets and cymbals and for the playing of the other instruments for sacred song. The sons of Jeduthun were stationed at the gate.
- 43 Arrangements completed, the people all left for home. And David went home to bless his family.
- 43 Then all the people left, each for his own home, and David returned home to bless his family.

1 Chronicles 17

MSG

NIV

- 1 After the king had made himself at home, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Look at this: Here I am comfortable in a luxurious palace of cedar and the Chest of the Covenant of GOD sits under a tent."
- 1 After David was settled in his palace, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am, living in a palace of cedar, while the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent."
- 2 Nathan told David, "Whatever is on your heart, go and do it; God is with you."
- 2 Nathan replied to David, "Whatever you have in mind, do it, for God is with you."
- 3 But that night, the word of God came to Nathan, saying,
- 3 That night the word of God came to Nathan, saying:

- 4 "Go and tell my servant David, This is GOD's word on the matter: You will not build me a 'house' to live in.
- 4 Go and tell my servant David, 'This is what the LORD says: You are not the one to build me a house to dwell in.
- 5 Why, I haven't lived in a 'house' from the time I brought up the children of Israel from Egypt till now; I've gone from one tent and makeshift shelter to another.
- 5 I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought Israel up out of Egypt to this day. I have moved from one tent site to another, from one dwelling place to another.
- 6 In all my travels with all Israel, did I ever say to any of the leaders I commanded to shepherd Israel, 'Why haven't you built me a house of cedar?'
- 6 Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their leaders whom I commanded to shepherd my people, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?" '
- 7 "So here is what you are to tell my servant David: The GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies has this word for you: I took you from the pasture, tagging after sheep, and made you prince over my people Israel.
- 7 Now then, tell my servant David, 'This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture and from following the flock, to be ruler over my people Israel.
- 8 I was with you everywhere you went and mowed your enemies down before you; and now I'm about to make you famous, ranked with the great names on earth.
- 8 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name like the names of the greatest men of the earth.
- 9 I'm going to set aside a place for my people Israel and plant them there so they'll have their own home and not be knocked around anymore; nor will evil nations afflict them as they always have,
- 9 And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning

- 10 even during the days I set judges over my people Israel. And finally, I'm going to conquer all your enemies. "And now I'm telling you this: GOD himself will build you a house!
- 10 and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders over my people Israel. I will also subdue all your enemies. " I declare to you that the LORD will build a house for you:
- 11 When your life is complete and you're buried with your ancestors, then I'll raise up your child to succeed you, a child from your own body, and I'll firmly establish his rule.
- 11 When your days are over and you go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom.
- 12 He will build a house to honor me, and I will guarantee his kingdom's rule forever.
- 12 He is the one who will build a house for me, and I will establish his throne forever.
- 13 I'll be a father to him, and he'll be a son to me. I will never remove my gracious love from him as I did from the one who preceded you.
- 13 I will be his father, and he will be my son. I will never take my love away from him, as I took it away from your predecessor.
- 14 I will set him over my house and my kingdom forever; his throne will always be there, rock solid."
- 14 I will set him over my house and my kingdom forever; his throne will be established forever.' "
- 15 Nathan gave David a complete and accurate report of everything he heard and saw in the vision.
- 15 Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation.
- 16 King David went in, took his place before GOD, and prayed: Who am I, my Master GOD, and what is my family, that you have brought me to this place in life?
- 16 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said: "Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far?
- 17 But that's nothing compared to what's coming, for you've also spoken of my family far into the future, given me a glimpse into tomorrow and looked on me, Master GOD, as a Somebody.

- 17 And as if this were not enough in your sight, O God, you have spoken about the future of the house of your servant. You have looked on me as though I were the most exalted of men, O LORD God.
- 18 What's left for David to say to this--to your honoring your servant, even though you know me, just as I am?
- 18 What more can David say to you for honoring your servant? For you know your servant,
- 19 O GOD, out of the goodness of your heart, you've taken your servant to do this great thing and put your great work on display.
- 19 O LORD. For the sake of your servant and according to your will, you have done this great thing and made known all these great promises.
- 20 There's none like you, GOD, no God but you, nothing to compare with what we've heard with our own ears.
- 20 There is no one like you, O LORD, and there is no God but you, as we have heard with our own ears.
- 21 And who is like your people, like Israel, a nation unique on earth, whom God set out to redeem as his own people (and became most famous for it), performing great and fearsome acts, throwing out nations and their gods left and right as you saved your people from Egypt?
- 21 And who is like your people Israel--the one nation on earth whose God went out to redeem a people for himself, and to make a name for yourself, and to perform great and awesome wonders by driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt?
- 22 You established for yourself a people--your very own Israel!--your people forever. And you, GOD, became their God.
- 22 You made your people Israel your very own forever, and you, O LORD, have become their God.
- 23 So now, great GOD, this word that you have spoken to me and my family, guarantee it forever! Do exactly what you've promised!
- 23 And now, LORD, let the promise you have made concerning your servant and his house be established forever. Do as you promised,
- 24 Then your reputation will be confirmed and flourish always as people exclaim, "The GOD-of-the-Angel-Armies, the God over Israel, is Israel's God!" And the house of your servant David will remain rock solid under your watchful presence.

- 24 so that it will be established and that your name will be great forever. Then men will say, 'The LORD Almighty, the God over Israel, is Israel's God!' And the house of your servant David will be established before you.
- 25 You, my God, have told me plainly, "I will build you a house." That's how I was able to find the courage to pray this prayer to you.
- 25 You, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him. So your servant has found courage to pray to you.
- 26 GOD, being the God you are, you have spoken all these wonderful words to me.
- 26 O LORD, you are God! You have promised these good things to your servant.
- 27 As if that weren't enough, you've blessed my family so that it will continue in your presence always. Because you have blessed it, GOD, it's really blessed--blessed for good!
- 27 Now you have been pleased to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever in your sight; for you, O LORD, have blessed it, and it will be blessed forever."

- 9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer king of Zobah,
- 10 He sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet and congratulate him for fighting and defeating Hadadezer. Tou and Hadadezer were old enemies. Hadoram brought David various things made of silver, gold, and bronze.

- 10 he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and congratulate him on his victory in battle over Hadadezer, who had been at war with Tou. Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze.
- 11 King David consecrated these things along with the silver and gold that he had plundered from other nations: Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek.
- 11 King David dedicated these articles to the LORD, as he had done with the silver and gold he had taken from all these nations: Edom and Moab, the Ammonites and the Philistines, and Amalek.
- 12 Abishai son of Zeruiah fought and defeated the Edomites in the Valley of Salt--18,000 of them.
- 12 Abishai son of Zeruiah struck down eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.
- 13 He set up a puppet government in Edom and the Edomites became subjects under David. GOD gave David victory wherever he marched.
- 13 He put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became subject to David. The LORD gave David victory everywhere he went.
- 14 Thus David ruled over all of Israel. He ruled well, fair and evenhanded in all his duties and relationships.
- 14 David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people.
- 15 Joab son of Zeruiah was head of the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was in charge of public records;
- 15 Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;
- 16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Abimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary;
- 16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary;
- 17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the special forces, the Kerethites and Pelethites; And David's sons held high positions, close to the king.
- 17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites; and David's sons were chief officials at the king's side.

- 1 Some time after this Nahash king of the Ammonites died and his son succeeded him as king.
- 1 In the course of time, Nahash king of the Ammonites died, and his son succeeded him as king.
- 2 David said, "I'd like to show some kindness to Hanun son of Nahash--treat him as well and as kindly as his father treated me." So David sent condolences about his father's death. But when David's servants arrived in Ammonite country and came to Hanun to bring condolences,
- 2 David thought, "I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent a delegation to express his sympathy to Hanun concerning his father. When David's men came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to express sympathy to him,
- 3 the Ammonite leaders warned Hanun, "Do you for a minute suppose that David is honoring your father by sending you comforters? Don't you know that he's sent these men to snoop around the city and size it up so that he can capture it?"
- 3 the Ammonite nobles said to Hanun, "Do you think David is honoring your father by sending men to you to express sympathy? Haven't his men come to you to explore and spy out the country and overthrow it?"
- 4 So Hanun seized David's men, shaved them clean, cut off their robes half way up their buttocks, and sent them packing.
- 4 So Hanun seized David's men, shaved them, cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks, and sent them away.
- 5 When this was all reported to David, he sent someone to meet them, for they were seriously humiliated. The king told them, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow out; only then come back."
- 5 When someone came and told David about the men, he sent messengers to meet them, for they were greatly humiliated. The king said, "Stay at Jericho till your beards have grown, and then come back."
- 6 When it dawned on the Ammonites that as far as David was concerned, they stank to high heaven,
- 6 When the Ammonites realized that they had become a stench in David's nostrils, Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram Naharaim, Aram Maacah and Zobah.

- 7 they hired, at a cost of a thousand talents of silver (thirty-seven and a half tons!), chariots and horsemen from the Arameans of Naharaim, Maacah, and Zobah--32,000 chariots and drivers; plus the king of Maacah with his troops who came and set up camp at Medeba; the Ammonites, too, were mobilized from their cities and got ready for battle.
- 7 They hired thirty-two thousand chariots and charioteers, as well as the king of Maacah with his troops, who came and camped near Medeba, while the Ammonites were mustered from their towns and moved out for battle.
- 8 When David heard this, he dispatched Joab with his strongest fighters in full force.
- 8 On hearing this, David sent Joab out with the entire army of fighting men.
- 9 The Ammonites marched out and spread out in battle formation at the city gate; the kings who had come as allies took up a position in the open fields.
- 9 The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance to their city, while the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.
- 10 When Joab saw that he had two fronts to fight, before and behind, he took his pick of the best of Israel and deployed them to confront the Arameans.
- 10 Joab saw that there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he selected some of the best troops in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans.
- 11 The rest of the army he put under the command of Abishai, his brother, and deployed them to deal with the Ammonites.
- 11 He put the rest of the men under the command of Abishai his brother, and they were deployed against the Ammonites.
- 12 Then he said, "If the Arameans are too much for me, you help me; and if the Ammonites prove too much for you, I'll come and help you.
- 12 Joab said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to rescue me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will rescue you.

- 13 Courage! We'll fight might and main for our people and for the cities of our God. And GOD will do whatever he sees needs doing!"
- 13 Be strong and let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what is good in his sight."
- 14 But when Joab and his soldiers moved in to fight the Arameans, they ran off in full retreat.
- 14 Then Joab and the troops with him advanced to fight the Arameans, and they fled before him.
- 15 Then the Ammonites, seeing the Arameans run for dear life, took to their heels and ran from Abishai into the city. So Joab withdrew from the Ammonites and returned to Jerusalem.
- 15 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they too fled before his brother Abishai and went inside the city. So Joab went back to Jerusalem.
- 16 When the Arameans saw how badly they'd been beaten by Israel, they picked up the pieces and regrouped; they sent for the Arameans who were across the river; Shophach, commander of Hadadezer's army, led them.
- 16 After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they sent messengers and had Arameans brought from beyond the River, with Shophach the commander of Hadadezer's army leading them.
- 17 When all this was reported to David, he mustered all Israel, crossed the Jordan, advanced, and prepared to fight. The Arameans went into battle formation, ready for David, and the fight was on.
- 17 When David was told of this, he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan; he advanced against them and formed his battle lines opposite them. David formed his lines to meet the Arameans in battle, and they fought against him.
- 18 But the Arameans again scattered before Israel. David killed 7,000 chariot drivers and 40,000 infantry. He also killed Shophach, the army commander.
- 18 But they fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand of their charioteers and forty thousand of their foot soldiers. He also killed Shophach the commander of their army.
- 19 When all the kings who were vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been routed by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. The Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites ever again.

- 19 When the vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became subject to him. So the Arameans were not willing to help the Ammonites anymore.

NIV

- 1 Now Satan entered the scene and seduced David into taking a census of Israel.
- 1 Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel.
- 2 David gave orders to Joab and the army officers under him, "Canvass all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and get a count of the population. I want to know the number."
- 2 So David said to Joab and the commanders of the troops, "Go and count the Israelites from Beersheba to Dan. Then report back to me so that I may know how many there are."
- 3 Joab resisted: "May GOD multiply his people by hundreds! Don't they all belong to my master the king? But why on earth would you do a thing like this--why risk getting Israel into trouble with God?"

- 3 But Joab replied, "May the LORD multiply his troops a hundred times over. My lord the king, are they not all my lord's subjects? Why does my lord want to do this? Why should he bring guilt on Israel?"
- 4 But David wouldn't take no for an answer, so Joab went off and did it--canvassed the country and then came back to Jerusalem
- 4 The king's word, however, overruled Joab; so Joab left and went throughout Israel and then came back to Jerusalem.
- 5 and reported the results of the census: There were 1,100,000 fighting men; of that total, Judah accounted for 470,000.
- 5 Joab reported the number of the fighting men to David: In all Israel there were one million one hundred thousand men who could handle a sword, including four hundred and seventy thousand in Judah.
- 6 Joab, disgusted by the command--it, in fact, turned his stomach!--protested by leaving Levi and Benjamin out of the census-taking.
- 6 But Joab did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, because the king's command was repulsive to him.
- 7 And God, offended by the whole thing, punished Israel.
- 7 This command was also evil in the sight of God; so he punished Israel.
- 8 Then David prayed, "I have sinned badly in what I have just done, substituting statistics for trust; forgive my sin--I've been really stupid."
- 8 Then David said to God, "I have sinned greatly by doing this. Now, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing."
- 9 GOD answered by speaking to Gad, David's pastor:
- 9 The LORD said to Gad, David's seer,
- 10 "Go and give David this message: 'GOD's word: You have your choice of three punishments; choose one and I'll do the rest.'"
- 10 Go and tell David, "This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you."
- 11 Gad delivered the message to David:
- 11 So Gad went to David and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Take your choice:
- 12 "Do you want three years of famine, three months of running from your enemies while they chase you down, or three days of the sword of GOD--an epidemic unleashed on the country by an angel of GOD? Think it over and make up your mind. What shall I tell the One who sent me?"

- 12 three years of famine, three months of being swept away before your enemies, with their swords overtaking you, or three days of the sword of the LORD--days of plague in the land, with the angel of the LORD ravaging every part of Israel.' Now then, decide how I should answer the one who sent me."
- 13 David told Gad, "They're all terrible! But I'd rather be punished by GOD whose mercy is great, than fall into human hands."
- 13 David said to Gad, "I am in deep distress. Let me fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is very great; but do not let me fall into the hands of men."
- 14 So GOD unleashed an epidemic in Israel--70,000 Israelites died.
- 14 So the LORD sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell dead.
- 15 God then sent the angel to Jerusalem but when he saw the destruction about to begin, he compassionately changed his mind and ordered the death angel, "Enough's enough! Pull back!" The angel of GOD had just reached the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
- 15 And God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But as the angel was doing so, the LORD saw it and was grieved because of the calamity and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "Enough! Withdraw your hand." The angel of the LORD was then standing at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
- 16 David looked up and saw the angel hovering between earth and sky, sword drawn and about to strike Jerusalem. David and the elders bowed in prayer and covered themselves with rough burlap.
- 16 David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between heaven and earth, with a drawn sword in his hand extended over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell facedown.
- 17 David prayed, "Please! I'm the one who sinned; I'm the one at fault. But these sheep, what did they do wrong? Punish me, not them, me and my family; don't take it out on them."
- 17 David said to God, "Was it not I who ordered the fighting men to be counted? I am the one who has sinned and done wrong. These are but sheep. What have they done? O LORD my God, let your hand fall upon me and my family, but do not let this plague remain on your people."

- 18 The angel of GOD ordered Gad to tell David to go and build an altar to GOD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
- 18 Then the angel of the LORD ordered Gad to tell David to go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
- 19 David did what Gad told him in obedience to GOD's command.
- 19 So David went up in obedience to the word that Gad had spoken in the name of the LORD.
- 20 Meanwhile Araunah had quit threshing the wheat and was watching the angel; his four sons took cover and hid.
- 20 While Araunah was threshing wheat, he turned and saw the angel; his four sons who were with him hid themselves.
- 21 David came up to Araunah. When Araunah saw David, he left the threshing floor and bowed deeply before David, honoring the king.
- 21 Then David approached, and when Araunah looked and saw him, he left the threshing floor and bowed down before David with his face to the ground.
- 22 David said to Araunah, "Give me the site of the threshing floor so I can build an altar to GOD. Charge me the market price; we're going to put an end to this disaster."
- 22 David said to him, "Let me have the site of your threshing floor so I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped. Sell it to me at the full price."
- 23 "O master, my king," said Araunah, "just take it; do whatever you want with it! Look, here's an ox for the burnt offering and threshing paddles for the fuel and wheat for the meal offering--it's all yours!"
- 23 Araunah said to David, "Take it! Let my lord the king do whatever pleases him. Look, I will give the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for the wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this."
- 24 David replied to Araunah, "No. I'm buying it from you, and at the full market price. I'm not going to offer GOD sacrifices that are no sacrifice."
- 24 But King David replied to Araunah, "No, I insist on paying the full price. I will not take for the LORD what is yours, or sacrifice a burnt offering that costs me nothing."
- 25 So David bought the place from Araunah for 600 shekels of gold.

- 25 So David paid Araunah six hundred shekels of gold for the site.
- 26 He built an altar to GOD there and sacrificed Whole-Burnt-Offerings and Peace-Offerings. He called out to GOD and GOD answered by striking the altar of Whole-Burnt-Offering with lightning.
- 26 David built an altar to the LORD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. He called on the LORD, and the LORD answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.
- 27 Then GOD told the angel to put his sword back into its scabbard.
- 27 Then the LORD spoke to the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath.
- 28 And that's the story of what happened when David saw that GOD answered him on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite at the time he offered the sacrifice.
- 28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite, he offered sacrifices there.
- 29 At this time the Tabernacle that Moses had constructed in the desert, and with it the Altar of Burnt Offering, were set up at the worship center at Gibeon.
- 29 The tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the desert, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gibeon.
- 30 But David, terrified by the angel's sword, wouldn't go there to pray to God anymore.
- 30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God, because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

NIV

- 1 So David declared, "From now on, this is the site for the worship of GOD; this is the place for Israel's Altar of Burnt Offering."
- 1 Then David said, "The house of the LORD God is to be here, and also the altar of burnt offering for Israel."
- 2 David ordered all the resident aliens in the land to come together; he sent them to the stone quarries to cut dressed stone to build The Temple of God.

- 2 So David gave orders to assemble the aliens living in Israel, and from among them he appointed stonecutters to prepare dressed stone for building the house of God.
- 3 He also stockpiled a huge quantity of iron for nails and bracings for the doors of the gates, more bronze than could be weighed,
- 3 He provided a large amount of iron to make nails for the doors of the gateways and for the fittings, and more bronze than could be weighed.
- 4 and cedar logs past counting (the Sidonians and Tyrians shipped in huge loads of cedar logs for David).
- 4 He also provided more cedar logs than could be counted, for the Sidonians and Tyrians had brought large numbers of them to David.
- 5 David was thinking, "My son Solomon is too young to plan ahead for this. But the sanctuary that is to be built for GOD has to be the greatest, the talk of all the nations; so I'll get the construction materials together." That's why David prepared this huge stockpile of building materials before he died.
- 5 David said, "My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD should be of great magnificence and fame and splendor in the sight of all the nations. Therefore I will make preparations for it." So David made extensive preparations before his death.
- 6 Then he called in Solomon his son and commanded him to build a sanctuary for the GOD of Israel.
- 6 Then he called for his son Solomon and charged him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel.
- 7 David said to Solomon, "I wanted in the worst way to build a sanctuary to honor my GOD.
- 7 David said to Solomon: "My son, I had it in my heart to build a house for the Name of the LORD my God.
- 8 But GOD prevented me, saying, 'You've killed too many people, fought too many wars. You are not the one to honor me by building a sanctuary--you've been responsible for too much killing, too much bloodshed.
- 8 But this word of the LORD came to me: 'You have shed much blood and have fought many wars. You are not to build a house for my Name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight.

- 9 But you are going to have a son and he will be a quiet and peaceful man, and I will calm his enemies down on all sides. His very name will speak peace--that is, Solomon, which means Peace--and I'll give peace and rest under his rule.
- 9 But you will have a son who will be a man of peace and rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon, and I will grant Israel peace and quiet during his reign.
- 10 He will be the one to build a sanctuary in my honor. He'll be my royal adopted son and I'll be his father; and I'll make sure that the authority of his kingdom over Israel lasts forever.'
- 10 He is the one who will build a house for my Name. He will be my son, and I will be his father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'
- 11 "So now, son, GOD be with you. GOD-speed as you build the sanctuary for your GOD, the job God has given you.
- 11 Now, my son, the LORD be with you, and may you have success and build the house of the LORD your God, as he said you would.
- 12 And may GOD also give you discernment and understanding when he puts you in charge of Israel so that you will rule in reverent obedience under GOD's Revelation.
- 12 May the LORD give you discretion and understanding when he puts you in command over Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.
- 13 That's what will make you successful, following the directions and doing the things that GOD commanded Moses for Israel. Courage! Take charge! Don't be timid; don't hold back.
- 13 Then you will have success if you are careful to observe the decrees and laws that the LORD gave Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged.
- 14 Look at this--I've gone to a lot of trouble to stockpile materials for the sanctuary of GOD: 100,000 talents (3,775 tons) of gold, a million talents (37,750 tons) of silver, tons of bronze and iron--too much to weigh--and all this timber and stone. And you're free to add more.
- 14 I have taken great pains to provide for the temple of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, a million talents of silver, quantities of

- bronze and iron too great to be weighed, and wood and stone. And you may add to them.
- 15 And workers both plentiful and prepared: stonecutters, masons, carpenters, artisans in
- 15 You have many workmen: stonecutters, masons and carpenters, as well as men skilled in every kind of work
- 16 gold and silver, bronze and iron. You're all set--get to work! And GOD-speed!"
- 16 in gold and silver, bronze and iron--craftsmen beyond number. Now begin the work, and the LORD be with you."
- 17 David gave orders to all of Israel's leaders to help his son Solomon,
- 17 Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon,
- 18 saying, "Isn't it obvious that your GOD is present with you; that he has given you peaceful relations with everyone around? My part in this was to put down the enemies, subdue the land to GOD and his people;
- 18 He said to them, "Is not the LORD your God with you? And has he not granted you rest on every side? For he has handed the inhabitants of the land over to me, and the land is subject to the LORD and to his people.
- 19 your part is to give yourselves, heart and soul, to praying to your GOD. So get moving--build the sacred house of worship to GOD! Then bring the Chest of the Covenant of GOD and all the holy furnishings for the worship of God into the sanctuary built in honor of GOD."
- 19 Now devote your heart and soul to seeking the LORD your God. Begin to build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the sacred articles belonging to God into the temple that will be built for the Name of the LORD."

- 20 The sons of Uzziel: Micah the first and Isshiah the second.
- 21 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.
- 21 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.
- 22 Eleazar died without any sons, only daughters. Their cousins, the sons of Kish, married the daughters.
- 22 Eleazar died without having sons: he had only daughters. Their cousins, the sons of Kish, married them.
- 23 Mushi had three sons: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth.

- 23 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth--three in all.
- 24 These are the sons of Levi twenty years and older, divided up according to families and heads of families and listed in the work groups that took care of the worship in the sanctuary of GOD.
- 24 These were the descendants of Levi by their families-- the heads of families as they were registered under their names and counted individually, that is, the workers twenty years old or more who served in the temple of the LORD.
- 25 David said, "Now that the GOD of Israel has given rest to his people and made Jerusalem his permanent home,
- 25 For David had said, "Since the LORD, the God of Israel, has granted rest to his people and has come to dwell in Jerusalem forever,
- 26 the Levites no longer have to carry the Tabernacle and all the furniture required for the work of worship."
- 26 the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the articles used in its service."
- 27 These last words of David referred only to Levites twenty years old and above.
- 27 According to the last instructions of David, the Levites were counted from those twenty years old or more.
- 28 From now on the assigned work of the Levites was to assist Aaron's sons in the work of worship in GOD's house: maintain courtyards and closets, keep the furniture and utensils of worship clean, take care of any extra work needed in the work of worship,
- 28 The duty of the Levites was to help Aaron's descendants in the service of the temple of the LORD: to be in charge of the courtyards, the side rooms, the purification of all sacred things and the performance of other duties at the house of God.
- 29 and provide bread for the table and flour for the Meal Offerings and the unraised wafers--all baking and mixing, all measuring and weighing.
- 29 They were in charge of the bread set out on the table, the flour for the grain offerings, the unleavened wafers, the baking and the mixing, and all measurements of quantity and size.
- 30 Also they were to be present for morning prayers, thanking and praising GOD, for evening prayers,

- 30 They were also to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD.
They were to do the same in the evening
- 31 and at the service of Whole-Burnt-Offerings to GOD on Sabbath, at
New Moons, and at all festivals. They were on regular duty to serve GOD according to their assignment and the required number.
- 31 and whenever burnt offerings were presented to the LORD on Sabbaths and at New Moon festivals and at appointed feasts. They were to serve before the LORD regularly in the proper number and in the way prescribed for them.
- 32 In short, the Levites, with the sons of Aaron as their companions in the ministry of holy worship, were responsible for everything that had to do with worship: the place and times and ordering of worship.
- 32 And so the Levites carried out their responsibilities for the Tent of Meeting, for the Holy Place and, under their brothers the descendants of Aaron, for the service of the temple of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 24

NIV

- 1 The family of Aaron was grouped as follows: Aaron's sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
- 1 These were the divisions of the sons of Aaron: The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
- 2 Nadab and Abihu died before their father and left no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar filled the office of priest.
- 2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did, and they had no sons;
so Eleazar and Ithamar served as the priests.
- 3 David assigned Zadok from the family of Eleazar and Ahimelech from the family of Ithamar and assigned them to separate divisions for carrying out their appointed ministries.
- 3 With the help of Zadok a descendant of Eleazar and Ahimelech a descendant of Ithamar, David separated them into divisions for their appointed order of ministering.
- 4 It turned out that there were more leaders in Eleazar's family than in Ithamar's and so they divided them proportionately: sixteen clan leaders from Eleazar's family and eight clan leaders from Ithamar's family.

- 4 A larger number of leaders were found among Eleazar's descendants than among Ithamar's, and they were divided accordingly: sixteen heads of families from Eleazar's descendants and eight heads of families from Ithamar's descendants.
- 5 They assigned the leaders by lot, treating both families alike, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of God among both the Eleazar and Ithamar families.
- 5 They divided them impartially by drawing lots, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of God among the descendants of both Eleazar and Ithamar.
- 6 The secretary Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, wrote down their names in the presence of the king, the officials, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the leaders of the priestly and Levitical families. They took turns: One family was selected from Eleazar and then one from Ithamar.
- 6 The scribe Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded their names in the presence of the king and of the officials: Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites--one family being taken from Eleazar and then one from Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 28

MSG

NIV

- 1 David called together all the leaders of Israel--tribal administrators, heads of various governmental operations, military commanders and captains, stewards in charge of the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons--everyone who held responsible positions in the kingdom.
- 1 David summoned all the officials of Israel to assemble at Jerusalem: the officers over the tribes, the commanders of the divisions in the service of the king, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, together with the palace officials, the mighty men and all the brave warriors.

- 2 King David stood tall and spoke: "Listen to me, my people: I fully intended to build a permanent structure for the Chest of the Covenant of GOD, God's footstool. But when I got ready to build it,
- 2 King David rose to his feet and said: "Listen to me, my brothers and my people. I had it in my heart to build a house as a place of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, for the footstool of our God, and I made plans to build it.
- 3 God said to me, 'You may not build a house to honor me--you've done too much fighting--killed too many people.'
- 3 But God said to me, 'You are not to build a house for my Name, because you are a warrior and have shed blood.'
- 4 GOD chose me out of my family to be king over Israel forever. First he chose Judah as the lead tribe, then he narrowed it down to my family, and finally he picked me from my father's sons, pleased to make me the king over all Israel.
- 4 Yet the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me from my whole family to be king over Israel forever. He chose Judah as leader, and from the house of Judah he chose my family, and from my father's sons he was pleased to make me king over all Israel.
- 5 And then from all my sons--and GOD gave me many!--he chose my son Solomon to sit on the throne of GOD's rule over Israel.
- 5 Of all my sons--and the LORD has given me many--he has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.
- 6 He went on to say, 'Your son Solomon will build my house and my courts: I have chosen him to be my royal adopted son; and I will be to him a father.
- 6 He said to me: 'Solomon your son is the one who will build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.
- 7 I will guarantee that his kingdom will last if he continues to be as strong-minded in doing what I command and carrying out my decisions as he is doing now.'

- 7 I will establish his kingdom forever if he is unswerving in carrying out my commands and laws, as is being done at this time.'
- 8 "And now, in this public place, all Israel looking on and God listening in, as GOD's people, obey and study every last one of the commandments of your GOD so that you can make the most of living in this good land and pass it on intact to your children, insuring a good future.
- 8 So now I charge you in the sight of all Israel and of the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God: Be careful to follow all the commands of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land and pass it on as an inheritance to your descendants forever.
- 9 "And you, Solomon my son, get to know well your father's God; serve him with a whole heart and eager mind, for GOD examines every heart and sees through every motive. If you seek him, he'll make sure you find him, but if you abandon him, he'll leave you for good.
- 9 And you, my son Solomon, acknowledge the God of your father, and serve him with wholehearted devotion and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches every heart and understands every motive behind the thoughts. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will reject you forever.
- 10 Look sharp now! GOD has chosen you to build his holy house. Be brave, determined! And do it!"
- 10 Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a temple as a sanctuary. Be strong and do the work."
- 11 Then David presented his son Solomon with the plans for The Temple complex: porch, storerooms, meeting rooms, and the place for atoning sacrifice.
- 11 Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the portico of the temple, its buildings, its storerooms, its upper parts, its inner rooms and the place of atonement.
- 12 He turned over the plans for everything that God's Spirit had brought to his mind: the design of the courtyards, the arrangements of rooms, and the closets for storing all the holy things.
- 12 He gave him the plans of all that the Spirit had put in his mind for the courts of the temple of the LORD and all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of the temple of God and for the treasuries for the dedicated things.

- 13 He gave him his plan for organizing the Levites and priests in their work of leading and ordering worship in the house of God, and for caring for the liturgical furnishings.
- 13 He gave him instructions for the divisions of the priests and Levites, and for all the work of serving in the temple of the LORD, as well as for all the articles to be used in its service.
- 14 He provided exact specifications for how much gold and silver was needed for each article used in the services of worship:
- 14 He designated the weight of gold for all the gold articles to be used in various kinds of service, and the weight of silver for all the silver articles to be used in various kinds of service:
- 15 the gold and silver Lampstands and lamps,
- 15 the weight of gold for the gold lampstands and their lamps, with the weight for each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for each silver lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand;
- 16 the gold tables for consecrated bread, the silver tables,
- 16 the weight of gold for each table for consecrated bread; the weight of silver for the silver tables;
- 17 the gold forks, the bowls and the jars,
- 17 the weight of pure gold for the forks, sprinkling bowls and pitchers; the weight of gold for each gold dish; the weight of silver for each silver dish;
- 18 and the incense altar. And he gave him the plan for sculpting the cherubs with their wings outstretched over the Chest of the Covenant of GOD--the cherubim throne.
- 18 and the weight of the refined gold for the altar of incense. He also gave him the plan for the chariot, that is, the cherubim of gold that spread their wings and shelter the ark of the covenant of the LORD.
- 19 "Here are the blueprints for the whole project as GOD gave me to understand it," David said.
- 19 All this, David said, "I have in writing from the hand of the LORD upon me, and he gave me understanding in all the details of the plan."
- 20 David continued to address Solomon: "Take charge! Take heart! Don't be anxious or get discouraged. GOD, my God, is with you in this; he won't walk off and leave you in the lurch. He's at your side until every last detail is completed for conducting the worship of GOD.

- 20 David also said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you until all the work for the service of the temple of the LORD is finished.
- 21 You have all the priests and Levites standing ready to pitch in, and skillful craftsmen and artisans of every kind ready to go to work. Both leaders and people are ready. Just say the word."
- 21 The divisions of the priests and Levites are ready for all the work on the temple of God, and every willing man skilled in any craft will help you in all the work. The officials and all the people will obey your every command."

1 Chronicles 29

MSG

NIV

- 1 Then David the king addressed the congregation: "My son Solomon was singled out and chosen by God to do this. But he's young and untested and the work is huge--this is not just a place for people to meet each other, but a house for GOD to meet us.
- 1 Then King David said to the whole assembly: "My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is young and inexperienced. The task is great, because this palatial structure is not for man but for the LORD God.
- 2 I've done my best to get everything together for building this house for my God, all the materials necessary: gold, silver, bronze, iron, lumber, precious and varicolored stones, and building stones--vast stockpiles.
- 2 With all my resources I have provided for the temple of my God--gold for the gold work, silver for the silver, bronze for the bronze, iron for the iron and wood for the wood, as well as onyx for the settings, turquoise, stones of various colors, and all kinds of fine stone and marble--all of these in large quantities.
- 3 Furthermore, because my heart is in this, in addition to and beyond what I have gathered, I'm turning over my personal fortune of gold and silver for making this place of worship for my God:

- 3 Besides, in my devotion to the temple of my God I now give my personal treasures of gold and silver for the temple of my God, over and above everything I have provided for this holy temple:
- 4 3,000 talents (about 113 tons) of gold--all from Ophir, the best--and 7,000 talents (214 tons) of silver for covering the walls of the buildings,
- 4 three thousand talents of gold (gold of Ophir) and seven thousand talents of refined silver, for the overlaying of the walls of the buildings,
- 5 and for the gold and silver work by craftsmen and artisans. "And now, how about you? Who among you is ready and willing to join in the giving?"
- 5 for the gold work and the silver work, and for all the work to be done by the craftsmen. Now, who is willing to consecrate himself today to the LORD?"
- 6 Ready and willing, the heads of families, leaders of the tribes of Israel, commanders and captains in the army, stewards of the king's affairs, stepped forward and gave willingly.
- 6 Then the leaders of families, the officers of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of the king's work gave willingly.
- 7 They gave 5,000 talents (188 tons) and 10,000 darics (185 pounds) of gold, 10,000 talents of silver (377 tons), 18,000 talents of bronze (679 tons), and 100,000 talents (3,775 tons) of iron.
- 7 They gave toward the work on the temple of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze and a hundred thousand talents of iron.
- 8 Anyone who had precious jewels put them in the treasury for the building of The Temple of GOD in the custody of Jehiel the Gershonite.
- 8 Any who had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the temple of the LORD in the custody of Jehiel the Gershonite.
- 9 And the people were full of a sense of celebration--all that giving! And all given willingly, freely! King David was exuberant.
- 9 The people rejoiced at the willing response of their leaders, for they had given freely and wholeheartedly to the LORD. David the king also rejoiced greatly.
- 10 David blessed GOD in full view of the entire congregation: Blessed are you, GOD of Israel, our father from of old and forever.

- 10 David praised the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly, saying,
"Praise be to you, O LORD, God of our father Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.
- 11 To you, O GOD, belong the greatness and the might, the glory, the victory, the majesty, the splendor; Yes! Everything in heaven, everything on earth; the kingdom all yours! You've raised yourself high over all.
- 11 Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, O LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all.
- 12 Riches and glory come from you, you're ruler over all; You hold strength and power in the palm of your hand to build up and strengthen all.
- 12 Wealth and honor come from you; you are the ruler of all things. In your hands are strength and power to exalt and give strength to all.
- 13 And here we are, O God, our God, giving thanks to you, praising your splendid Name.
- 13 Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name.
- 14 "But me--who am I, and who are these my people, that we should presume to be giving something to you? Everything comes from you; all we're doing is giving back what we've been given from your generous hand.
- 14 But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? Everything comes from you, and we have given you only what comes from your hand.
- 15 As far as you're concerned, we're homeless, shiftless wanderers like our ancestors, our lives mere shadows, hardly anything to us.
- 15 We are aliens and strangers in your sight, as were all our forefathers. Our days on earth are like a shadow, without hope.
- 16 GOD, our God, all these materials--these piles of stuff for building a house of worship for you, honoring your Holy Name--it all came from you! It was all yours in the first place!
- 16 O LORD our God, as for all this abundance that we have provided for building you a temple for your Holy Name, it comes from your hand, and all of it belongs to you.
- 17 I know, dear God, that you care nothing for the surface--you want us, our true selves--and so I have given from the heart, honestly and happily.

And now see all these people doing the same, giving freely, willingly-- what a joy!

- 17 I know, my God, that you test the heart and are pleased with integrity. All these things have I given willingly and with honest intent. And now I have seen with joy how willingly your people who are here have given to you.
- 18 O GOD, God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, keep this generous spirit alive forever in these people always, keep their hearts set firmly in you.
- 18 O LORD, God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Israel, keep this desire in the hearts of your people forever, and keep their hearts loyal to you.
- 19 And give my son Solomon an uncluttered and focused heart so that he can obey what you command, live by your directions and counsel, and carry through with building The Temple for which I have provided."
- 19 And give my son Solomon the wholehearted devotion to keep your commands, requirements and decrees and to do everything to build the palatial structure for which I have provided."
- 20 David then addressed the congregation: "Bless GOD, your God!" And they did it, blessed GOD, the God of their ancestors, and worshiped reverently in the presence of GOD and the king.
- 20 Then David said to the whole assembly, "Praise the LORD your God." So they all praised the LORD, the God of their fathers; they bowed low and fell prostrate before the LORD and the king.
- 21 The very next day they butchered the sacrificial animals and offered in the worship of Israel to GOD a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand sheep, and in addition drink offerings and many other sacrifices.
- 21 The next day they made sacrifices to the LORD and presented burnt offerings to him: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams and a thousand male lambs, together with their drink offerings, and other sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.
- 22 They feasted all day, eating and drinking before GOD, exuberant with joy. Then they ceremonially reenacted Solomon's coronation, anointing David's son before GOD as their leader, and Zadok as priest.
- 22 They ate and drank with great joy in the presence of the LORD that day. Then they acknowledged Solomon son of David as king a second time,

- anointing him before the LORD to be ruler and Zadok to be priest.
- 23 Solomon sat on the throne of GOD as king in place of David his father. And everything went well; all Israel obeyed him.
- 23 So Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king in place of his father David. He prospered and all Israel obeyed him.
- 24 All the leaders of the people, including all the sons of King David, accepted Solomon as their king and promised their loyalty.
- 24 All the officers and mighty men, as well as all of King David's sons, pledged their submission to King Solomon.
- 25 Solomon rode high on a crest of popular acclaim--it was all GOD's doing. GOD gave him position and honor beyond any king in Israel before him.
- 25 The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him royal splendor such as no king over Israel ever had before.

- 27 He was king for forty years. He ruled from Hebron seven years and from Jerusalem thirty-three.
