1 John 1

MSG

NIV

- 1 From the very first day, we were there, taking it all in--we heard it with our own ears, saw it with our own eyes, verified it with our own hands.
- 1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched--this we proclaim concerning the Word of life.
- 2 The Word of Life appeared right before our eyes; we saw it happen! And now we're telling you in most sober prose that what we witnessed was, incredibly, this: The infinite Life of God himself took shape before us.
- 2 The life appeared; we have seen it and testify to it, and we proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and has appeared to us.
- 3 We saw it, we heard it, and now we're telling you so you can experience it along with us, this experience of communion with the Father and his Son, Jesus Christ.
- 3 We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ.
- 4 Our motive for writing is simply this: We want you to enjoy this, too. Your joy will double our joy!
- 4 We write this to make our joy complete.
- 5 This, in essence, is the message we heard from Christ and are passing on to you: God is light, pure light; there's not a trace of darkness in him.
- 5 This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all.
- 6 If we claim that we experience a shared life with him and continue to stumble around in the dark, we're obviously lying through our teeth--we're not living what we claim.

- 6 If we claim to have fellowship with him yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth.
- 7 But if we walk in the light, God himself being the light, we also experience a shared life with one another, as the sacrificed blood of Jesus, God's Son, purges all our sin.
- 7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.
- 8 If we claim that we're free of sin, we're only fooling ourselves. A claim like that is errant nonsense.
- 8 If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.
- 9 On the other hand, if we admit our sins--make a clean breast of them--he won't let us down; he'll be true to himself. He'll forgive our sins and purge us of all wrongdoing.
- 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.
- 10 If we claim that we've never sinned, we out-and-out contradict God--make a liar out of him. A claim like that only shows off our ignorance of God.
- 10 If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word has no place in our lives.

1 John 2

MSG

NIV

- 1 I write this, dear children, to guide you out of sin. But if anyone does sin, we have a Priest-Friend in the presence of the Father: Jesus Christ, righteous Jesus.
- 1 My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defense--Jesus Christ, the Righteous One.
- 2 When he served as a sacrifice for our sins, he solved the sin problem for good--not only ours, but the whole world's.
- 2 He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.

- 3 Here's how we can be sure that we know God in the right way: Keep his commandments.
- 3 We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands.
- 4 If someone claims, "I know him well!" but doesn't keep his commandments, he's obviously a liar. His life doesn't match his words.
- 4 The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
- 5 But the one who keeps God's word is the person in whom we see God's mature love. This is the only way to be sure we're in God.
- 5 But if anyone obeys his word, God's love is truly made complete in him. This is how we know we are in him:
- 6 Anyone who claims to be intimate with God ought to live the same kind of life Jesus lived.
- 6 Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did.
- 7 My dear friends, I'm not writing anything new here. This is the oldest commandment in the book, and you've known it from day one. It's always been implicit in the Message you've heard.
- 7 Dear friends, I am not writing you a new command but an old one, which you have had since the beginning. This old command is the message you have heard.
- 8 On the other hand, perhaps it is new, freshly minted as it is in both Christ and you--the darkness on its way out and the True Light already blazing!
- 8 Yet I am writing you a new command; its truth is seen in him and you, because the darkness is passing and the true light is already shining.
- 9 Anyone who claims to live in God's light and hates a brother or sister is still in the dark.
- 9 Anyone who claims to be in the light but hates his brother is still in the darkness.
- 10 It's the person who loves brother and sister who dwells in God's light and doesn't block the light from others.
- 10 Whoever loves his brother lives in the light, and there is nothing in him to make him stumble.
- 11 But whoever hates is still in the dark, stumbles around in the dark, doesn't know which end is up, blinded by the darkness.
- 11 But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks around in the darkness; he does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded him.

12 I remind you, my dear children: Your sins are forgiven in Jesus' name.

12 I write to you, dear children, because your sins have been forgiven on account of his name.

13 You veterans were in on the ground floor, and know the One who started all this; you newcomers have won a big victory over the Evil One. And a second reminder, dear children: You know the Father from personal experience.

13 I write to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, dear children, because you have known the Father.

14 You veterans know the One who started it all; and you newcomers--such vitality and strength! God's word is so steady in you. Your fellowship with God enables you to gain a victory over the Evil One.

14 I write to you, fathers, because you have known him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God lives in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15 Don't love the world's ways. Don't love the world's goods. Love of the world squeezes out love for the Father.

15 Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 Practically everything that goes on in the world--wanting your own way, wanting everything for yourself, wanting to appear important--has nothing to do with the Father. It just isolates you from him.

16 For everything in the world--the cravings of sinful man, the lust of his eyes and the boasting of what he has and does--comes not from the Father but from the world.

17 The world and all its wanting, wanting, wanting is on the way out--but whoever does what God wants is set for eternity.

17 The world and its desires pass away, but the man who does the will of God lives forever.

18 Children, time is just about up. You heard that Antichrist is coming. Well, they're all over the place, antichrists everywhere you look. That's how we know that we're close to the end.

- 18 Dear children, this is the last hour; and as you have heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come. This is how we know it is the last hour.
- 19 They left us, but they were never really with us. If they had been, they would have stuck it out with us, loyal to the end. In leaving, they showed their true colors, showed they never did belong.
- 19 They went out from us, but they did not really belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us; but their going showed that none of them belonged to us.
- 20 But you belong. The Holy One anointed you, and you all know it.
- 20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of you know the truth.
- 21 I haven't been writing this to tell you something you don't know, but to confirm the truth you do know, and to remind you that the truth doesn't breed lies.
- 21 I do not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it and because no lie comes from the truth.
- 22 So who is lying here? It's the person who denies that Jesus is the Divine Christ, that's who. This is what makes an antichrist: denying the Father, denying the Son.
- 22 Who is the liar? It is the man who denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a man is the antichrist--he denies the Father and the Son.
- 23 No one who denies the Son has any part with the Father, but affirming the Son is an embrace of the Father as well.
- 23 No one who denies the Son has the Father; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.
- 24 Stay with what you heard from the beginning, the original message. Let it sink into your life. If what you heard from the beginning lives deeply in you, you will live deeply in both Son and Father.
- 24 See that what you have heard from the beginning remains in you. If it does, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father.
- 25 This is exactly what Christ promised: eternal life, real life!
- 25 And this is what he promised us--even eternal life.
- 26 I've written to warn you about those who are trying to deceive you.
- 26 I am writing these things to you about those who are trying to lead you astray.

- 27 But they're no match for what is embedded deeply within you--Christ's anointing, no less! You don't need any of their so-called teaching. Christ's anointing teaches you the truth on everything you need to know about yourself and him, uncontaminated by a single lie. Live deeply in what you were taught.
- 27 As for you, the anointing you received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and as that anointing is real, not counterfeit--just as it has taught you, remain in him.
- 28 And now, children, stay with Christ. Live deeply in Christ. Then we'll be ready for him when he appears, ready to receive him with open arms, with no cause for red-faced guilt or lame excuses when he arrives.
- 28 And now, dear children, continue in him, so that when he appears we may be confident and unashamed before him at his coming.
- 29 Once you're convinced that he is right and righteous, you'll recognize that all who practice righteousness are God's true children.
- 29 If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who does what is right has been born of him.

1 John 3

MSG

NIV

- 1 What marvelous love the Father has extended to us! Just look at it--we're called children of God! That's who we really are. But that's also why the world doesn't recognize us or take us seriously, because it has no idea who he is or what he's up to.
- 1 How great is the love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.
- 2 But friends, that's exactly who we are: children of God. And that's only the beginning. Who knows how we'll end up! What we know is that when Christ is openly revealed, we'll see him--and in seeing him, become like him.
- 2 Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when he appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

- 3 All of us who look forward to his Coming stay ready, with the glistening purity of Jesus' life as a model for our own.
- 3 Everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself, just as he is pure.
- 4 All who indulge in a sinful life are dangerously lawless, for sin is a major disruption of God's order.
- 4 Everyone who sins breaks the law; in fact, sin is lawlessness.
- 5 Surely you know that Christ showed up in order to get rid of sin. There is no sin in him, and sin is not part of his program.
- 5 But you know that he appeared so that he might take away our sins. And in him is no sin.
- 6 No one who lives deeply in Christ makes a practice of sin. None of those who do practice sin have taken a good look at Christ. They've got him all backwards.
- 6 No one who lives in him keeps on sinning. No one who continues to sin has either seen him or known him.
- 7 So, my dear children, don't let anyone divert you from the truth. It's the person who acts right who is right, just as we see it lived out in our righteous Messiah.
- 7 Dear children, do not let anyone lead you astray. He who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.
- 8 Those who make a practice of sin are straight from the Devil, the pioneer in the practice of sin. The Son of God entered the scene to abolish the Devil's ways.
- 8 He who does what is sinful is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work.
- 9 People conceived and brought into life by God don't make a practice of sin. How could they? God's seed is deep within them, making them who they are. It's not in the nature of the God-begotten to practice and parade sin.
- 9 No one who is born of God will continue to sin, because God's seed remains in him; he cannot go on sinning, because he has been born of God.
- 10 Here's how you tell the difference between God's children and the Devil's children: The one who won't practice righteous ways isn't from

- God, nor is the one who won't love brother or sister. A simple test.
- 10 This is how we know who the children of God are and who the children of the devil are: Anyone who does not do what is right is not a child of God; nor is anyone who does not love his brother.
- 11 For this is the original message we heard: We should love each other.
- 11 This is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another.
- 12 We must not be like Cain, who joined the Evil One and then killed his brother. And why did he kill him? Because he was deep in the practice of evil, while the acts of his brother were righteous.
- 12 Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous.
- 13 So don't be surprised, friends, when the world hates you. This has been going on a long time.
- 13 Do not be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you.
- 14 The way we know we've been transferred from death to life is that we love our brothers and sisters. Anyone who doesn't love is as good as dead.
- 14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers. Anyone who does not love remains in death.
- 15 Anyone who hates a brother or sister is a murderer, and you know very well that eternal life and murder don't go together.
- 15 Anyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life in him.
- 16 This is how we've come to understand and experience love: Christ sacrificed his life for us. This is why we ought to live sacrificially for our fellow believers, and not just be out for ourselves.
- 16 This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.
- 17 If you see some brother or sister in need and have the means to do something about it but turn a cold shoulder and do nothing, what happens to God's love? It disappears. And you made it disappear.
- 17 If anyone has material possessions and sees his brother in need but has no pity on him, how can the love of God be in him?
- 18 My dear children, let's not just talk about love; let's practice real love.

- 18 Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth.
- 19 This is the only way we'll know we're living truly, living in God's reality.
- 19 This then is how we know that we belong to the truth, and how we set our hearts at rest in his presence
- 20 It's also the way to shut down debilitating self-criticism, even when there is something to it. For God is greater than our worried hearts and knows more about us than we do ourselves.
- 20 whenever our hearts condemn us. For God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.
- 21 And friends, once that's taken care of and we're no longer accusing or condemning ourselves, we're bold and free before God!
- 21 Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God
- 22 We're able to stretch our hands out and receive what we asked for because we're doing what he said, doing what pleases him.
- 22 and receive from him anything we ask, because we obey his commands and do what pleases him.
- 23 Again, this is God's command: to believe in his personally named Son, Jesus Christ. He told us to love each other, in line with the original command.
- 23 And this is his command: to believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and to love one another as he commanded us.
- 24 As we keep his commands, we live deeply and surely in him, and he lives in us. And this is how we experience his deep and abiding presence in us: by the Spirit he gave us.
- 24 Those who obey his commands live in him, and he in them. And this is how we know that he lives in us: We know it by the Spirit he gave us.

1 John 4

MSG

NIV

- 1 My dear friends, don't believe everything you hear. Carefully weigh and examine what people tell you. Not everyone who talks about God comes from God. There are a lot of lying preachers loose in the world.

- 1 Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.
- 2 Here's how you test for the genuine Spirit of God. Everyone who confesses openly his faith in Jesus Christ--the Son of God, who came as an actual flesh-and-blood person--comes from God and belongs to God.
- 2 This is how you can recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God,
- 3 And everyone who refuses to confess faith in Jesus has nothing in common with God. This is the spirit of antichrist that you heard was coming. Well, here it is, sooner than we thought!
- 3 but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and even now is already in the world.
- 4 My dear children, you come from God and belong to God. You have already won a big victory over those false teachers, for the Spirit in you is far stronger than anything in the world.
- 4 You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.
- 5 These people belong to the Christ-denying world. They talk the world's language and the world eats it up.
- 5 They are from the world and therefore speak from the viewpoint of the world, and the world listens to them.
- 6 But we come from God and belong to God. Anyone who knows God understands us and listens. The person who has nothing to do with God will, of course, not listen to us. This is another test for telling the Spirit of Truth from the spirit of deception.
- 6 We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood.
- 7 My beloved friends, let us continue to love each other since love comes from God. Everyone who loves is born of God and experiences a relationship with God.
- 7 Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.

- 8 The person who refuses to love doesn't know the first thing about God, because God is love--so you can't know him if you don't love.
- 8 Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.
- 9 This is how God showed his love for us: God sent his only Son into the world so we might live through him.
- 9 This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him.
- 10 This is the kind of love we are talking about--not that we once upon a time loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to clear away our sins and the damage they've done to our relationship with God.
- 10 This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.
- 11 My dear, dear friends, if God loved us like this, we certainly ought to love each other.
- 11 Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.
- 12 No one has seen God, ever. But if we love one another, God dwells deeply within us, and his love becomes complete in us--perfect love!
- 12 No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.
- 13 This is how we know we're living steadily and deeply in him, and he in us: He's given us life from his life, from his very own Spirit.
- 13 We know that we live in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.
- 14 Also, we've seen for ourselves and continue to state openly that the Father sent his Son as Savior of the world.
- 14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world.
- 15 Everyone who confesses that Jesus is God's Son participates continuously in an intimate relationship with God.
- 15 If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in him and he in God.
- 16 We know it so well, we've embraced it heart and soul, this love that comes from God. God is love. When we take up permanent residence in a life of love, we live in God and God lives in us.

- 16 And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in him.
- 17 This way, love has the run of the house, becomes at home and mature in us, so that we're free of worry on Judgment Day--our standing in the world is identical with Christ's.
- 17 In this way, love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment, because in this world we are like him.
- 18 There is no room in love for fear. Well-formed love banishes fear. Since fear is crippling, a fearful life--fear of death, fear of judgment--is one not yet fully formed in love.
- 18 There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.
- 19 We, though, are going to love--love and be loved. First we were loved, now we love. He loved us first.
- 19 We love because he first loved us.
- 20 If anyone boasts, "I love God," and goes right on hating his brother or sister, thinking nothing of it, he is a liar. If he won't love the person he can see, how can he love the God he can't see?
- 20 If anyone says, "I love God," yet hates his brother, he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen.
- 21 The command we have from Christ is blunt: Loving God includes loving people. You've got to love both.
- 21 And he has given us this command: Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

1 John 5

MSG

NIV

- 1 Every person who believes that Jesus is, in fact, the Messiah, is God-begotten. If we love the One who conceives the child, we'll surely love the child who was conceived.

- 1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves the father loves his child as well.
- 2 The reality test on whether or not we love God's children is this: Do we love God? Do we keep his commands?
- 2 This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out his commands.
- 3 The proof that we love God comes when we keep his commandments and they are not at all troublesome.
- 3 This is love for God: to obey his commands. And his commands are not burdensome,
- 4 Every God-begotten person conquers the world's ways. The conquering power that brings the world to its knees is our faith.
- 4 for everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith.
- 5 The person who wins out over the world's ways is simply the one who believes Jesus is the Son of God.
- 5 Who is it that overcomes the world? Only he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.
- 6 Jesus--the Divine Christ! He experienced a life-giving birth and a death-killing death. Not only birth from the womb, but baptismal birth of his ministry and sacrificial death. And all the while the Spirit is confirming the truth, the reality of God's presence at Jesus' baptism and crucifixion, bringing those occasions alive for us.
- 6 This is the one who came by water and blood--Jesus Christ. He did not come by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.
- 7 A triple testimony:
- 7 For there are three that testify:
- 8 the Spirit, the Baptism, the Crucifixion. And the three in perfect agreement.
- 8 the Spirit, the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement.
- 9 If we take human testimony at face value, how much more should we be reassured when God gives testimony as he does here, testifying concerning his Son.
- 9 We accept man's testimony, but God's testimony is greater because it is the testimony of God, which he has given about his Son.

- 10 Whoever believes in the Son of God inwardly confirms God's testimony. Whoever refuses to believe in effect calls God a liar, refusing to believe God's own testimony regarding his Son.
- 10 Anyone who believes in the Son of God has this testimony in his heart. Anyone who does not believe God has made him out to be a liar, because he has not believed the testimony God has given about his Son.
- 11 This is the testimony in essence: God gave us eternal life; the life is in his Son.
- 11 And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.
- 12 So, whoever has the Son, has life; whoever rejects the Son, rejects life.
- 12 He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.
- 13 My purpose in writing is simply this: that you who believe in God's Son will know beyond the shadow of a doubt that you have eternal life, the reality and not the illusion.
- 13 I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life.
- 14 And how bold and free we then become in his presence, freely asking according to his will, sure that he's listening.
- 14 This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.
- 15 And if we're confident that he's listening, we know that what we've asked for is as good as ours.
- 15 And if we know that he hears us--whatever we ask--we know that we have what we asked of him.
- 16 For instance, if we see a Christian believer sinning (clearly I'm not talking about those who make a practice of sin in a way that is "fatal," leading to eternal death), we ask for God's help and he gladly gives it, gives life to the sinner whose sin is not fatal. There is such a thing as a fatal sin, and I'm not urging you to pray about that.
- 16 If anyone sees his brother commit a sin that does not lead to death, he should pray and God will give him life. I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I am not saying that he should pray about that.
- 17 Everything we do wrong is sin, but not all sin is fatal.

- 17 All wrongdoing is sin, and there is sin that does not lead to death.
- 18 We know that none of the God-begotten makes a practice of sin--fatal sin. The God-begotten are also the God-protected. The Evil One can't lay a hand on them.
- 18 We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot harm him.
- 19 We know that we are held firm by God; it's only the people of the world who continue in the grip of the Evil One.
- 19 We know that we are children of God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one.
- 20 And we know that the Son of God came so we could recognize and understand the truth of God--what a gift!--and we are living in the Truth itself, in God's Son, Jesus Christ. This Jesus is both True God and Real Life.
- 20 We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true--even in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.
- 21 Dear children, be on guard against all clever facsimiles.
- 21 Dear children, keep yourselves from idols.
