1 Peter

1 Peter 1

MSG

NIV

- 1 I, Peter, am an apostle on assignment by Jesus, the Messiah, writing to exiles scattered to the four winds. Not one is missing, not one forgotten.
- 1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To God's elect, strangers in the world, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,
- 2 God the Father has his eye on each of you, and has determined by the work of the Spirit to keep you obedient through the sacrifice of Jesus. May everything good from God be yours!
- 2 who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and sprinkling by his blood: Grace and peace be yours in abundance.
- 3 What a God we have! And how fortunate we are to have him, this Father of our Master Jesus! Because Jesus was raised from the dead, we've been given a brand-new life and have everything to live for,
- 3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
- 4 including a future in heaven--and the future starts now!
- 4 and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade--kept in heaven for you,
- 5 God is keeping careful watch over us and the future. The Day is coming when you'll have it all--life healed and whole.
- 5 who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time.
- 6 I know how great this makes you feel, even though you have to put up with every kind of aggravation in the meantime.
- 6 In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials.

- 7 Pure gold put in the fire comes out of it proved pure; genuine faith put through this suffering comes out proved genuine. When Jesus wraps this all up, it's your faith, not your gold, that God will have on display as evidence of his victory.
- 7 These have come so that your faith--of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire--may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.
- 8 You never saw him, yet you love him. You still don't see him, yet you trust him--with laughter and singing.
- 8 Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy,
- 9 Because you kept on believing, you'll get what you're looking forward to: total salvation.
- 9 for you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.
- 10 The prophets who told us this was coming asked a lot of questions about this gift of life God was preparing.
- 10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets, who spoke of the grace that was to come to you, searched intently and with the greatest care,
- 11 The Messiah's Spirit let them in on some of it--that the Messiah would experience suffering, followed by glory. They clamored to know who and when.
- 11 trying to find out the time and circumstances to which the Spirit of Christ in them was pointing when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow.
- 12 All they were told was that they were serving you, you who by orders from heaven have now heard for yourselves--through the Holy Spirit--the Message of those prophecies fulfilled. Do you realize how fortunate you are? Angels would have given anything to be in on this!
- 12 It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you, when they spoke of the things that have now been told you by those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even angels long to look into these things.
- 13 So roll up your sleeves, put your mind in gear, be totally ready to receive the gift that's coming when Jesus arrives.

- 13 Therefore, prepare your minds for action; be self-controlled; set your hope fully on the grace to be given you when Jesus Christ is revealed.
- 14 Don't lazily slip back into those old grooves of evil, doing just what you feel like doing. You didn't know any better then; you do now.
- 14 As obedient children, do not conform to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance.
- 15 As obedient children, let yourselves be pulled into a way of life shaped by God's life, a life energetic and blazing with holiness.
- 15 But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do;
- 16 God said, "I am holy; you be holy."
- 16 for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy."
- 17 You call out to God for help and he helps--he's a good Father that way. But don't forget, he's also a responsible Father, and won't let you get by with sloppy living. Your life is a journey you must travel with a deep consciousness of God.
- 17 Since you call on a Father who judges each man's work impartially, live your lives as strangers here in reverent fear.
- 18 It cost God plenty to get you out of that dead-end, empty-headed life you grew up in.
- 18 For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your forefathers,
- 19 He paid with Christ's sacred blood, you know. He died like an unblemished, sacrificial lamb.
- 19 but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect.
- 20 And this was no afterthought. Even though it has only lately--at the end of the ages--become public knowledge, God always knew he was going to do this for you.
- 20 He was chosen before the creation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for your sake.
- 21 It's because of this sacrificed Messiah, whom God then raised from the dead and glorified, that you trust God, that you know you have a future in God.
- 21 Through him you believe in God, who raised him from the dead and glorified him, and so your faith and hope are in God.

- 22 Now that you've cleaned up your lives by following the truth, love one another as if your lives depended on it.
- 22 Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for your brothers, love one another deeply, from the heart.
- 23 Your new life is not like your old life. Your old birth came from mortal sperm; your new birth comes from God's living Word. Just think: a life conceived by God himself!
- 23 For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.
- 24 That's why the prophet said, The old life is a grass life, its beauty as short-lived as wildflowers; Grass dries up, flowers droop,
- 24 For, "All men are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field; the grass withers and the flowers fall,
- 25 God's Word goes on and on forever. This is the Word that conceived the new life in you.
- 25 but the word of the Lord stands forever." And this is the word that was preached to you.

1 Peter 2

MSG

NIV

- 1 So clean house! Make a clean sweep of malice and pretense, envy and hurtful talk.
- 1 Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind.
- 2 Now, like infants at the breast, drink deep of God's pure kindness. Then you'll grow up mature and whole in God.
- 2 Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation,
- 3 You've had a taste of God.
- 3 now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.
- 4 Welcome to the living Stone, the source of life. The workmen took one look and threw it out; God set it in the place of honor.

- 4 As you come to him, the living Stone--rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him--
- 5 Present yourselves as building stones for the construction of a sanctuary vibrant with life, in which you'll serve as holy priests offering Christ-approved lives up to God.
- 5 you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.
- 6 The Scriptures provide precedent: Look! I'm setting a stone in Zion, a cornerstone in the place of honor. Whoever trusts in this stone as a foundation will never have cause to regret it.
- 6 For in Scripture it says: "See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame."
- 7 To you who trust him, he's a Stone to be proud of, but to those who refuse to trust him, The stone the workmen threw out is now the chief foundation stone.
- 7 Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe, "The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone, "
- 8 For the untrusting it's . . . a stone to trip over, a boulder blocking the way. They trip and fall because they refuse to obey, just as predicted.
- 8 and, "A stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall." They stumble because they disobey the message--which is also what they were destined for.
- 9 But you are the ones chosen by God, chosen for the high calling of priestly work, chosen to be a holy people, God's instruments to do his work and speak out for him, to tell others of the night-and-day difference he made for you--
- 9 But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.
- 10 from nothing to something, from rejected to accepted.
- 10 Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.
- 11 Friends, this world is not your home, so don't make yourselves cozy in it. Don't indulge your ego at the expense of your soul.

- 11 Dear friends, I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul.
- 12 Live an exemplary life among the natives so that your actions will refute their prejudices. Then they'll be won over to God's side and be there to join in the celebration when he arrives.
- 12 Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us.
- 13 Make the Master proud of you by being good citizens. Respect the authorities, whatever their level;
- 13 Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every authority instituted among men: whether to the king, as the supreme authority,
- 14 they are God's emissaries for keeping order.
- 14 or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to commend those who do right.
- 15 It is God's will that by doing good, you might cure the ignorance of the fools who think you're a danger to society.
- 15 For it is God's will that by doing good you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish men.
- 16 Exercise your freedom by serving God, not by breaking the rules.
- 16 Live as free men, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as servants of God.
- 17 Treat everyone you meet with dignity. Love your spiritual family. Revere God. Respect the government.
- 17 Show proper respect to everyone: Love the brotherhood of believers, fear God, honor the king.
- 18 You who are servants, be good servants to your masters--not just to good masters, but also to bad ones.
- 18 Slaves, submit yourselves to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and considerate, but also to those who are harsh.
- 19 What counts is that you put up with it for God's sake when you're treated badly for no good reason.
- 19 For it is commendable if a man bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because he is conscious of God.
- 20 There's no particular virtue in accepting punishment that you well deserve. But if you're treated badly for good behavior and continue in - spite of it to be a good servant, that is what counts with God.

- 20 But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God.
- 21 This is the kind of life you've been invited into, the kind of life Christ lived. He suffered everything that came his way so you would know that it could be done, and also know how to do it, step-by-step.
- 21 To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.
- 22 He never did one thing wrong, Not once said anything amiss.
- 22 He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.
- 23 They called him every name in the book and he said nothing back. He suffered in silence, content to let God set things right.
- 23 When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly.
- 24 He used his servant body to carry our sins to the Cross so we could be rid of sin, free to live the right way. His wounds became your healing.
- 24 He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed.
- 25 You were lost sheep with no idea who you were or where you were going. Now you're named and kept for good by the Shepherd of your souls.
- 25 For you were like sheep going astray, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

1 Peter 3

MSG

NIV

- 1 The same goes for you wives: Be good wives to your husbands, responsive to their needs. There are husbands who, indifferent as they are to any words about God, will be captivated
- 1 Wives, in the same way be submissive to your husbands so that, if any of them do not believe the word, they may be won over without words by the behavior of their wives,

- 2 by your life of holy beauty.
- 2 when they see the purity and reverence of your lives.
- 3 What matters is not your outer appearance--the styling of your hair, the jewelry you wear, the cut of your clothes--
- 3 Your beauty should not come from outward adornment, such as braided hair and the wearing of gold jewelry and fine clothes.
- 4 but your inner disposition. Cultivate inner beauty, the gentle, gracious kind that God delights in.
- 4 Instead, it should be that of your inner self, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God's sight.
- 5 The holy women of old were beautiful before God that way, and were good, loyal wives to their husbands.
- 5 For this is the way the holy women of the past who put their hope in God used to make themselves beautiful. They were submissive to their own husbands,
- 6 Sarah, for instance, taking care of Abraham, would address him as "my dear husband." You'll be true daughters of Sarah if you do the same, unanxious and unintimidated.
- 6 like Sarah, who obeyed Abraham and called him her master. You are her daughters if you do what is right and do not give way to fear.
- 7 The same goes for you husbands: Be good husbands to your wives. Honor them, delight in them. As women they lack some of your advantages. But in the new life of God's grace, you're equals. Treat your wives, then, as equals so your prayers don't run aground.
- 7 Husbands, in the same way be considerate as you live with your wives, and treat them with respect as the weaker partner and as heirs with you of the gracious gift of life, so that nothing will hinder your prayers.
- 8 Summing up: Be agreeable, be sympathetic, be loving, be compassionate, be humble.
- 8 Finally, all of you, live in harmony with one another; be sympathetic, love as brothers, be compassionate and humble.
- 9 That goes for all of you, no exceptions. No retaliation. No sharp-tongued sarcasm. Instead, bless--that's your job, to bless. You'll be a blessing and also get a blessing.
- 9 Do not repay evil with evil or insult with insult, but with blessing, because to this you were called so that you may inherit a blessing.

- 10 Whoever wants to embrace life and see the day fill up with good, Here's what you do: Say nothing evil or hurtful;
- 10 For, "Whoever would love life and see good days must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from deceitful speech.
- 11 Snub evil and cultivate good; run after peace for all you're worth.
- 11 He must turn from evil and do good; he must seek peace and pursue it.
- 12 God looks on all this with approval, listening and responding well to what he's asked; But he turns his back on those who do evil things.
- 12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their prayer, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."
- 13 If with heart and soul you're doing good, do you think you can be stopped?
- 13 Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good?
- 14 Even if you suffer for it, you're still better off. Don't give the opposition a second thought.
- 14 But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. "Do not fear what they fear; do not be frightened."
- 15 Through thick and thin, keep your hearts at attention, in adoration before Christ, your Master. Be ready to speak up and tell anyone who asks why you're living the way you are, and always with the utmost courtesy.
- 15 But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect,
- 16 Keep a clear conscience before God so that when people throw mud at you, none of it will stick. They'll end up realizing that they're the ones who need a bath.
- 16 keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander.
- 17 It's better to suffer for doing good, if that's what God wants, than to be punished for doing bad.
- 17 It is better, if it is God's will, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.
- 18 That's what Christ did definitively: suffered because of others' sins, the Righteous One for the unrighteous ones. He went through it all--was put to death and then made alive--to bring us to God.

- 18 For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive by the Spirit,
- 19 He went and proclaimed God's salvation to earlier generations who ended up in the prison of judgment
- 19 through whom also he went and preached to the spirits in prison
- 20 because they wouldn't listen. You know, even though God waited patiently all the days that Noah built his ship, only a few were saved then, eight to be exact--saved from the water by the water.
- 20 who disobeyed long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built. In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved through water,
- 21 The waters of baptism do that for you, not by washing away dirt from your skin but by presenting you through Jesus' resurrection before God with a clear conscience.
- 21 and this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you also--not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a good conscience toward God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ,
- 22 Jesus has the last word on everything and everyone, from angels to armies. He's standing right alongside God, and what he says goes.
- 22 who has gone into heaven and is at God's right hand--with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.

1 Peter 4

MSG

NIV

- 1 Since Jesus went through everything you're going through and more, learn to think like him. Think of your sufferings as a weaning from that old sinful habit of always expecting to get your own way.
- 1 Therefore, since Christ suffered in his body, arm yourselves also with the same attitude, because he who has suffered in his body is done with sin.
- 2 Then you'll be able to live out your days free to pursue what God wants instead of being tyrannized by what you want.
- 2 As a result, he does not live the rest of his earthly life for evil human desires, but rather for the will of God.

- 3 You've already put in your time in that God-ignorant way of life, partying night after night, a drunken and profligate life. Now it's time to be done with it for good.
- 3 For you have spent enough time in the past doing what pagans choose to do--living in debauchery, lust, drunkenness, orgies, carousing and detestable idolatry.
- 4 Of course, your old friends don't understand why you don't join in with the old gang anymore. But you don't have to give an account to them.
- 4 They think it strange that you do not plunge with them into the same flood of dissipation, and they heap abuse on you.
- 5 They're the ones who will be called on the carpet--and before God himself.
- 5 But they will have to give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.
- 6 Listen to the Message. It was preached to those believers who are now dead, and yet even though they died (just as all people must), they will still get in on the life that God has given in Jesus.
- 6 For this is the reason the gospel was preached even to those who are now dead, so that they might be judged according to men in regard to the body, but live according to God in regard to the spirit.
- 7 Everything in the world is about to be wrapped up, so take nothing for granted. Stay wide-awake in prayer.
- 7 The end of all things is near. Therefore be clear minded and self-controlled so that you can pray.
- 8 Most of all, love each other as if your life depended on it. Love makes up for practically anything.
- 8 Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins.
- 9 Be quick to give a meal to the hungry, a bed to the homeless--cheerfully.
- 9 Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling.
- 10 Be generous with the different things God gave you, passing them around so all get in on it:
- 10 Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms.
- 11 if words, let it be God's words; if help, let it be God's hearty help. That way, God's bright presence will be evident in everything through Jesus, and he'll get all the credit as the One mighty in everything--encores to the end of time. Oh, yes!

11 If anyone speaks, he should do it as one speaking the very words of God. If anyone serves, he should do it with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Friends, when life gets really difficult, don't jump to the conclusion that God isn't on the job.

12 Dear friends, do not be surprised at the painful trial you are suffering, as though something strange were happening to you.

13 Instead, be glad that you are in the very thick of what Christ experienced. This is a spiritual refining process, with glory just around the corner.

13 But rejoice that you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when his glory is revealed.

14 If you're abused because of Christ, count yourself fortunate. It's the Spirit of God and his glory in you that brought you to the notice of others.

14 If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you.

15 If they're on you because you broke the law or disturbed the peace, that's a different matter.

15 If you suffer, it should not be as a murderer or thief or any other kind of criminal, or even as a meddler.

16 But if it's because you're a Christian, don't give it a second thought. Be proud of the distinguished status reflected in that name!

16 However, if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name.

17 It's judgment time for Christians. We're first in line. If it starts with us, think what it's going to be like for those who refuse God's Message!

17 For it is time for judgment to begin with the family of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God?

18 If good people barely make it, What's in store for the bad?

18 And, "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?"

- 19 So if you find life difficult because you're doing what God said, take it in stride. Trust him. He knows what he's doing, and he'll keep on doing it.
- 19 So then, those who suffer according to God's will should commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

1 Peter 5

MSG

NIV

- 1 I have a special concern for you church leaders. I know what it's like to be a leader, in on Christ's sufferings as well as the coming glory.
- 1 To the elders among you, I appeal as a fellow elder, a witness of Christ's sufferings and one who also will share in the glory to be revealed:
- 2 Here's my concern: that you care for God's flock with all the diligence of a shepherd. Not because you have to, but because you want to please God. Not calculating what you can get out of it, but acting spontaneously.[]
- 2 Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, serving as overseers--not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not greedy for money, but eager to serve;
- 3 Not bossily telling others what to do, but tenderly showing them the way.
- 3 not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock.
- 4 When God, who is the best shepherd of all, comes out in the open with his rule, he'll see that you've done it right and commend you lavishly.
- 4 And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away.
- 5 And you who are younger must follow your leaders. But all of you, leaders and followers alike, are to be down to earth with each other, for--God has had it with the proud, But takes delight in just plain people.
- 5 Young men, in the same way be submissive to those who are older. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because, "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."
- 6 So be content with who you are, and don't put on airs. God's strong hand is on you; he'll promote you at the right time.

- 6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time.
- 7 Live carefree before God; he is most careful with you.
- 7 Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.
- 8 Keep a cool head. Stay alert. The Devil is poised to pounce, and would like nothing better than to catch you napping.
- 8 Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.
- 9 Keep your guard up. You're not the only ones plunged into these hard times. It's the same with Christians all over the world. So keep a firm grip on the faith.
- 9 Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings.
- 10 The suffering won't last forever. It won't be long before this generous God who has great plans for us in Christ--eternal and glorious plans they are!--will have you put together and on your feet for good.
- 10 And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast.
- 11 He gets the last word; yes, he does.
- 11 To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.
- 12 I'm sending this brief letter to you by Silas, a most dependable brother. I have the highest regard for him. I've written as urgently and accurately as I know how. This is God's generous truth; embrace it with both arms!
- 12 With the help of Silas, whom I regard as a faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, encouraging you and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.
- 13 The church in exile here with me--but not for a moment forgotten by God--wants to be remembered to you. Mark, who is like a son to me, says hello.
- 13 She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you her greetings, and so does my son Mark.
- 14 Give holy embraces all around! Peace to you--to all who walk in Christ's ways.

14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.
