2 Peter

2 Peter 1

MSG

NIV

- 1 I, Simon Peter, am a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ. I write this to you whose experience with God is as life-changing as ours, all due to our God's straight dealing and the intervention of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ.
- 1 Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ have received a faith as precious as ours:
- 2 Grace and peace to you many times over as you deepen in your experience with God and Jesus, our Master.
- 2 Grace and peace be yours in abundance through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.
- 3 Everything that goes into a life of pleasing God has been miraculously given to us by getting to know, personally and intimately, the One who invited us to God. The best invitation we ever received!
- 3 His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness.
- 4 We were also given absolutely terrific promises to pass on to you--your tickets to participation in the life of God after you turned your back on a world corrupted by lust.
- 4 Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.
- 5 So don't lose a minute in building on what you've been given, complementing your basic faith with good character, spiritual understanding,

- 5 For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge;
- 6 alert discipline, passionate patience, reverent wonder,
- 6 and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness;
- 7 warm friendliness, and generous love, each dimension fitting into and developing the others.
- 7 and to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, love.
- 8 With these qualities active and growing in your lives, no grass will grow under your feet, no day will pass without its reward as you mature in your experience of our Master Jesus.
- 8 For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 9 Without these qualities you can't see what's right before you, oblivious that your old sinful life has been wiped off the books.
- 9 But if anyone does not have them, he is nearsighted and blind, and has forgotten that he has been cleansed from his past sins.
- 10 So, friends, confirm God's invitation to you, his choice of you. Don't put it off; do it now. Do this, and you'll have your life on a firm footing,
- 10 Therefore, my brothers, be all the more eager to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never fall,
- 11 the streets paved and the way wide open into the eternal kingdom of our Master and Savior, Jesus Christ.
- 11 and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
- 12 Because the stakes are so high, even though you're up-to-date on all this truth and practice it inside and out, I'm not going to let up for a minute in calling you to attention before it.
- 12 So I will always remind you of these things, even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth you now have.
- 13 This is the post to which I've been assigned--keeping you alert with frequent reminders--and I'm sticking to it as long as I live.
- 13 I think it is right to refresh your memory as long as I live in the tent of this body,
- 14 I know that I'm to die soon; the Master has made that quite clear to me.

- 14 because I know that I will soon put it aside, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.
- 15 And so I am especially eager that you have all this down in black and white so that after I die, you'll have it for ready reference.
- 15 And I will make every effort to see that after my departure you will always be able to remember these things.
- 16 We weren't, you know, just wishing on a star when we laid the facts out before you regarding the powerful return of our Master, Jesus Christ. We were there for the preview! We saw it with our own eyes:
- 16 We did not follow cleverly invented stories when we told you about the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.
- 17 Jesus resplendent with light from God the Father as the voice of Majestic Glory spoke: "This is my Son, marked by my love, focus of all my delight."
- 17 For he received honor and glory from God the Father when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased."
- 18 We were there on the holy mountain with him. We heard the voice out of heaven with our very own ears.
- 18 We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven when we were with him on the sacred mountain.
- 19 We couldn't be more sure of what we saw and heard--God's glory, God's voice. The prophetic Word was confirmed to us. You'll do well to keep focusing on it. It's the one light you have in a dark time as you wait for daybreak and the rising of the Morning Star in your hearts.
- 19 And we have the word of the prophets made more certain, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.
- 20 The main thing to keep in mind here is that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of private opinion.
- 20 Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation.
- 21 And why? Because it's not something concocted in the human heart. Prophecy resulted when the Holy Spirit prompted men and women to speak God's Word.

- 21 For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

2 Peter 2

MSG

NIV

- 1 But there were also lying prophets among the people then, just as there will be lying religious teachers among you. They'll smuggle in destructive divisions, pitting you against each other--biting the hand of the One who gave them a chance to have their lives back! They've put themselves on a fast downhill slide to destruction,
- 1 But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the sovereign Lord who bought them--bringing swift destruction on themselves.
- 2 but not before they recruit a crowd of mixed-up followers who can't tell right from wrong. They give the way of truth a bad name.
- 2 Many will follow their shameful ways and will bring the way of truth into disrepute.
- 3 They're only out for themselves. They'll say anything, anything, that sounds good to exploit you. They won't, of course, get by with it. They'll come to a bad end, for God has never just stood by and let that kind of thing go on.
- 3 In their greed these teachers will exploit you with stories they have made up. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction has not been sleeping.
- 4 God didn't let the rebel angels off the hook, but jailed them in hell till Judgment Day.
- 4 For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but sent them to hell, putting them into gloomy dungeons to be held for judgment;
- 5 Neither did he let the ancient ungodly world off. He wiped it out with a flood, rescuing only eight people--Noah, the sole voice of righteousness, was one of them.
- 5 if he did not spare the ancient world when he brought the flood on its ungodly people, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and

- seven others;
- 6 God decreed destruction for the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. A mound of ashes was all that was left--grim warning to anyone bent on an ungodly life.
- 6 if he condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by burning them to ashes, and made them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly;
- 7 But that good man Lot, driven nearly out of his mind by the sexual filth and perversity, was rescued.
- 7 and if he rescued Lot, a righteous man, who was distressed by the filthy lives of lawless men
- 8 Surrounded by moral rot day after day after day, that righteous man was in constant torment.
- 8 (for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard)--
- 9 So God knows how to rescue the godly from evil trials. And he knows how to hold the feet of the wicked to the fire until Judgment Day.
- 9 if this is so, then the Lord knows how to rescue godly men from trials and to hold the unrighteous for the day of judgment, while continuing their punishment.
- 10 God is especially incensed against these "teachers" who live by lust, addicted to a filthy existence. They despise interference from true authority, preferring to indulge in self-rule. Insolent egotists, they don't hesitate to speak evil against the most splendid of creatures.
- 10 This is especially true of those who follow the corrupt desire of the sinful nature and despise authority. Bold and arrogant, these men are not afraid to slander celestial beings;
- 11 Even angels, their superiors in every way, wouldn't think of throwing their weight around like that, trying to slander others before God.
- 11 yet even angels, although they are stronger and more powerful, do not bring slanderous accusations against such beings in the presence of the Lord.
- 12 These people are nothing but brute beasts, born in the wild, predators on the prowl. In the very act of bringing down others with their ignorant blasphemies, they themselves will be brought down, losers in the end.

- 12 But these men blaspheme in matters they do not understand. They are like brute beasts, creatures of instinct, born only to be caught and destroyed, and like beasts they too will perish.
- 13 Their evil will boomerang on them. They're so despicable and addicted to pleasure that they indulge in wild parties, carousing in broad daylight.
- 13 They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. Their idea of pleasure is to carouse in broad daylight. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their pleasures while they feast with you.
- 14 They're obsessed with adultery, compulsive in sin, seducing every vulnerable soul they come upon. Their specialty is greed, and they're experts at it. Dead souls!
- 14 With eyes full of adultery, they never stop sinning; they seduce the unstable; they are experts in greed--an accursed brood!
- 15 They've left the main road and are directionless, having taken the way of Balaam, son of Beor, the prophet who turned profiteer, a connoisseur of evil.
- 15 They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam son of Beor, who loved the wages of wickedness.
- 16 But Balaam was stopped in his wayward tracks: A dumb animal spoke in a human voice and prevented the prophet's craziness.
- 16 But he was rebuked for his wrongdoing by a donkey--a beast without speech-- who spoke with a man's voice and restrained the prophet's madness.
- 17 There's nothing to these people--they're dried-up fountains, storm-scattered clouds, headed for a black hole in hell.
- 17 These men are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them.
- 18 They are loudmouths, full of hot air, but still they're dangerous. Men and women who have recently escaped from a deviant life are most susceptible to their brand of seduction.
- 18 For they mouth empty, boastful words and, by appealing to the lustful desires of sinful human nature, they entice people who are just escaping from those who live in error.
- 19 They promise these newcomers freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption, for if they're addicted to corruption--and they are--they're enslaved.

- 19 They promise them freedom, while they themselves are slaves of depravity--for a man is a slave to whatever has mastered him.
- 20 If they've escaped from the slum of sin by experiencing our Master and Savior, Jesus Christ, and then slid back into that same old life again, they're worse than if they had never left.
- 20 If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and are again entangled in it and overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning.
- 21 Better not to have started out on the straight road to God than to start out and then turn back, repudiating the experience and the holy command.
- 21 It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them.
- 22 They prove the point of the proverbs, "A dog goes back to its own vomit," and, "A scrubbed-up pig heads for the mud."
- 22 Of them the proverbs are true: "A dog returns to its vomit," and, "A sow that is washed goes back to her wallowing in the mud."

2 Peter 3

MSG

NIV

- 1 My dear friends, this is now the second time I've written to you, both letters reminders to hold your minds in a state of undistracted attention.
- 1 Dear friends, this is now my second letter to you. I have written both of them as reminders to stimulate you to wholesome thinking.
- 2 Keep in mind what the holy prophets said, and the command of our Master and Savior that was passed on by your apostles.
- 2 I want you to recall the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets and the command given by our Lord and Savior through your apostles.
- 3 First off, you need to know that in the last days, mockers are going to have a heyday. Reducing everything to the level of their puny feelings,
- 3 First of all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires.

- 4 they'll mock, "So what's happened to the promise of his Coming? Our ancestors are dead and buried, and everything's going on just as it has from the first day of creation. Nothing's changed."
- 4 They will say, "Where is this 'coming' he promised? Ever since our fathers died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation."
- 5 They conveniently forget that long ago all the galaxies and this very planet were brought into existence out of watery chaos by God's word.
- 5 But they deliberately forget that long ago by God's word the heavens existed and the earth was formed out of water and by water.
- 6 Then God's word brought the chaos back in a flood that destroyed the world.
- 6 By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed.
- 7 The current galaxies and earth are fuel for the final fire. God is poised, ready to speak his word again, ready to give the signal for the judgment and destruction of the desecrating skeptics.
- 7 By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.
- 8 Don't overlook the obvious here, friends. With God, one day is as good as a thousand years, a thousand years as a day.
- 8 But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.
- 9 God isn't late with his promise as some measure lateness. He is restraining himself on account of you, holding back the End because he doesn't want anyone lost. He's giving everyone space and time to change.
- 9 The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.
- 10 But when the Day of God's Judgment does come, it will be unannounced, like a thief. The sky will collapse with a thunderous bang, everything disintegrating in a huge conflagration, earth and all its works exposed to the scrutiny of Judgment.
- 10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.

- 11 Since everything here today might well be gone tomorrow, do you see how essential it is to live a holy life?
- 11 Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives
- 12 Daily expect the Day of God, eager for its arrival. The galaxies will burn up and the elements melt down that day--
- 12 as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat.
- 13 but we'll hardly notice. We'll be looking the other way, ready for the promised new heavens and the promised new earth, all landscaped with righteousness.
- 13 But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness.
- 14 So, my dear friends, since this is what you have to look forward to, do your very best to be found living at your best, in purity and peace.
- 14 So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this, make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with him.
- 15 Interpret our Master's patient restraint for what it is: salvation. Our good brother Paul, who was given much wisdom in these matters,
- 15 Bear in mind that our Lord's patience means salvation, just as our dear brother Paul also wrote you with the wisdom that God gave him.
- 16 refers to this in all his letters, and has written you essentially the same thing. Some things Paul writes are difficult to understand. Irresponsible people who don't know what they are talking about twist them every which way. They do it to the rest of the Scriptures, too, destroying themselves as they do it.
- 16 He writes the same way in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters. His letters contain some things that are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable people distort, as they do the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.
- 17 But you, friends, are well-warned. Be on guard lest you lose your footing and get swept off your feet by these lawless and loose-talking teachers.
- 17 Therefore, dear friends, since you already know this, be on your guard so that you may not be carried away by the error of lawless men and fall from your secure position.

18 Grow in grace and understanding of our Master and Savior, Jesus Christ. Glory to the Master, now and forever! Yes!

18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and forever! Amen.
