2 Thessalonians

2 Thessalonians 1

MSG

NIV

- 1 I, Paul, together with Silas and Timothy, greet the church of the Thessalonian Christians in the name of God our Father and our Master, Jesus Christ.
- 1 Paul, Silas and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
- 2 Our God gives you everything you need, makes you everything you're to be.
- 2 Grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 3 You need to know, friends, that thanking God over and over for you is not only a pleasure; it's a must. We have to do it. Your faith is growing phenomenally; your love for each other is developing wonderfully. Why, it's only right that we give thanks.
- 3 We ought always to thank God for you, brothers, and rightly so, because your faith is growing more and more, and the love every one of you has for each other is increasing.
- 4 We're so proud of you; you're so steady and determined in your faith despite all the hard times that have come down on you. We tell everyone we meet in the churches all about you.
- 4 Therefore, among God's churches we boast about your perseverance and faith in all the persecutions and trials you are enduring.
- 5 All this trouble is a clear sign that God has decided to make you fit for the kingdom. You're suffering now,
- 5 All this is evidence that God's judgment is right, and as a result you will be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering.
- 6 but justice is on the way. When the Master Jesus appears out of heaven in a blaze of fire with his strong angels, he'll even up the score by settling accounts with those who gave you such a bad time.

- 6 God is just: He will pay back trouble to those who trouble you
- 7 His coming will be the break we've been waiting for.
- 7 and give relief to you who are troubled, and to us as well. This will happen when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven in blazing fire with his powerful angels.
- 8 Those who refuse to know God and refuse to obey the Message will pay for what they've done.
- 8 He will punish those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.
- 9 Eternal exile from the presence of the Master and his splendid power is their sentence.
- 9 They will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the majesty of his power
- 10 But on that very same day when he comes, he will be exalted by his followers and celebrated by all who believe--and all because you believed what we told you.
- 10 on the day he comes to be glorified in his holy people and to be marveled at among all those who have believed. This includes you, because you believed our testimony to you.
- 11 Because we know that this extraordinary day is just ahead, we pray for you all the time--pray that our God will make you fit for what he's called you to be, pray that he'll fill your good ideas and acts of faith with his own energy so that it all amounts to something.
- 11 With this in mind, we constantly pray for you, that our God may count you worthy of his calling, and that by his power he may fulfill every good purpose of yours and every act prompted by your faith.
- 12 If your life honors the name of Jesus, he will honor you. Grace is behind and through all of this, our God giving himself freely, the Master, Jesus Christ, giving himself freely.
- 12 We pray this so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2

MSG

NIV

- 1 Now, friends, read these next words carefully. Slow down and don't go jumping to conclusions regarding the day when our Master, Jesus Christ, will come back and we assemble to welcome him.
- 1 Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers,
- 2 Don't let anyone shake you up or get you excited over some breathless report or rumored letter from me that the day of the Master's arrival has come and gone.
- 2 not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by some prophecy, report or letter supposed to have come from us, saying that the day of the Lord has already come.
- 3 Don't fall for any line like that. Before that day comes, a couple of things have to happen. First, the Apostasy. Second, the debut of the Anarchist, a real dog of Satan.
- 3 Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for that day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction.
- 4 He'll defy and then take over every so-called god or altar. Having cleared away the opposition, he'll then set himself up in God's Temple as "God Almighty."
- 4 He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God.
- 5 Don't you remember me going over all this in detail when I was with you? Are your memories that short?
- 5 Don't you remember that when I was with you I used to tell you these things?
- 6 You'll also remember that I told you the Anarchist is being held back until just the right time.
- 6 And now you know what is holding him back, so that he may be revealed at the proper time.
- 7 That doesn't mean that the spirit of anarchy is not now at work. It is, secretly and underground.
- 7 For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way.

- 8 But the time will come when the Anarchist will no longer be held back, but will be let loose. But don't worry. The Master Jesus will be right on his heels and blow him away. The Master appears and--puff!--the Anarchist is out of there.
- 8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with the breath of his mouth and destroy by the splendor of his coming.
- 9 The Anarchist's coming is all Satan's work. All his power and signs and miracles are fake,
- 9 The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with the work of Satan displayed in all kinds of counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders,
- 10 evil sleight of hand that plays to the gallery of those who hate the truth that could save them.
- 10 and in every sort of evil that deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.
- 11 And since they're so obsessed with evil, God rubs their noses in it--gives them what they want.
- 11 For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie
- 12 Since they refuse to trust truth, they're banished to their chosen world of lies and illusions.
- 12 and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness.
- 13 Meanwhile, we've got our hands full continually thanking God for you, our good friends--so loved by God! God picked you out as his from the very start. Think of it: included in God's original plan of salvation by the bond of faith in the living truth.
- 13 But we ought always to thank God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because from the beginning God chose you to be saved through the sanctifying work of the Spirit and through belief in the truth.
- 14 This is the life of the Spirit he invited you to through the Message we delivered, in which you get in on the glory of our Master, Jesus Christ.
- 14 He called you to this through our gospel, that you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

- 15 So, friends, take a firm stand, feet on the ground and head high. Keep a tight grip on what you were taught, whether in personal conversation or by our letter.
- 15 So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the teachings we passed on to you, whether by word of mouth or by letter.
- 16 May Jesus himself and God our Father, who reached out in love and surprised you with gifts of unending help and confidence,
- 16 May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope,
- 17 put a fresh heart in you, invigorate your work, enliven your speech.
- 17 encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good deed and word.

2 Thessalonians 3

MSG

NIV

- 1 One more thing, friends: Pray for us. Pray that the Master's Word will simply take off and race through the country to a groundswell of response, just as it did among you.
- 1 Finally, brothers, pray for us that the message of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honored, just as it was with you.
- 2 And pray that we'll be rescued from these scoundrels who are trying to do us in. I'm finding that not all "believers" are believers.
- 2 And pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men, for not everyone has faith.
- 3 But the Master never lets us down. He'll stick by you and protect you from evil.
- 3 But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen and protect you from the evil one.
- 4 Because of the Master, we have great confidence in you. We know you're doing everything we told you and will continue doing it.
- 4 We have confidence in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we command.
- 5 May the Master take you by the hand and lead you along the path of God's love and Christ's endurance.

- 5 May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love and Christ's perseverance.
- 6 Our orders--backed up by the Master, Jesus--are to refuse to have anything to do with those among you who are lazy and refuse to work the way we taught you. Don't permit them to freeload on the rest.
- 6 In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, we command you, brothers, to keep away from every brother who is idle and does not live according to the teaching you received from us.
- 7 We showed you how to pull your weight when we were with you, so get on with it.
- 7 For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example. We were not idle when we were with you,
- 8 We didn't sit around on our hands expecting others to take care of us. In fact, we worked our fingers to the bone, up half the night moonlighting so you wouldn't be burdened with taking care of us.
- 8 nor did we eat anyone's food without paying for it. On the contrary, we worked night and day, laboring and toiling so that we would not be a burden to any of you.
- 9 And it wasn't because we didn't have a right to your support; we did. We simply wanted to provide an example of diligence, hoping it would prove contagious.
- 9 We did this, not because we do not have the right to such help, but in order to make ourselves a model for you to follow.
- 10 Don't you remember the rule we had when we lived with you? "If you don't work, you don't eat."
- 10 For even when we were with you, we gave you this rule: "If a man will not work, he shall not eat."
- 11 And now we're getting reports that a bunch of lazy good-for-nothings are taking advantage of you.
- 11 We hear that some among you are idle. They are not busy; they are busybodies.
- 12 This must not be tolerated. We command them to get to work immediately--no excuses, no arguments--and earn their own keep.
- 12 Such people we command and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to settle down and earn the bread they eat.
- 13 Friends, don't slack off in doing your duty.

- 13 And as for you, brothers, never tire of doing what is right.
- 14 If anyone refuses to obey our clear command written in this letter, don't let him get by with it. Point out such a person and refuse to subsidize his freeloading. Maybe then he'll think twice.
- 14 If anyone does not obey our instruction in this letter, take special note of him. Do not associate with him, in order that he may feel ashamed.
- 15 But don't treat him as an enemy. Sit him down and talk about the problem as someone who cares.
- 15 Yet do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.
- 16 May the Master of Peace himself give you the gift of getting along with each other at all times, in all ways. May the Master be truly among you!
- 16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.
- 17 I, Paul, bid you good-bye in my own handwriting. I do this in all my letters, so examine my signature as proof that the letter is genuine.
- 17 I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand, which is the distinguishing mark in all my letters. This is how I write.
- 18 The incredible grace of our Master, Jesus Christ, be with all of you!
- 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
