PREFACE

This JUVENILE BIBLE, or TABLES OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES, being a Metrical Index to the Old and New Testament, has with much Labour been compiled for the Edification of Youth. By means of this little Instructor, the reader is not only made acquainted with the chief Contents of every Chapter, but likewise with the number of chapters in every Book. This methodical arrangement is as follows:

Every Book that exceeds five Chapters is divided into Stanzas, each Stanza, acrostic-like, beginning with A, B, C, &c. the Stanzas contain four lines each, and every line is a Chapter (except otherwise distinguished, as the Chapters are numbered in the margin by figures); thus B, beginning the second Stanza and fifth line, is the fifth Chapter, C the 9th, D the 13th, E the 17th, &c. as far as N, which is the 49th Chapter, no Book containing more than 52, except the PROPHECY of ISAIAH, which runs four letters more, O, P, Q, and R; likewise the Book of PSALMS, being 150, which are divided into three alphabets, not exceeding N, and containing 50 each. Those Books which do not exceed five chapters, viz. RUTH, LAMENTATIONS, JOEL, OBADIAH, &c. are without this method, which do not require it, and are consequently expressed in one Stanza, sometimes exceeding four lines.

In the historical books, the contents of every chapter is as fully expressed as the narrow limits of one line will admit; and the PSALMS, which have letters expressive of the occasions of them, are by those distinguished: but the other PSALMS, as also the PROVERBS, ECCLESIASTES, &c. consisting of various and unconnected Sentences, and not being reducible to any certain head, are only characterized by some remarkable passage in them.

This novel and curious arrangement will, it is presumed, gratify the taste of young readers, and not only give them a relish for the Sacred Volume, but even assist their memories when duly acquainted with it.

Any person desirous of committing this JUVENILE BIBLE to memory (which may be done in a month, or less) should first learn perfectly the name of all the Books, and the numbers of the chapters in each Book, on the back of the title-page; then observe A stands for 1, B 5, C 9, D 13, E 17, F 21, G 25, H 29, I 33, K 37, L 41, M 45, N 49. When it is known what number every letter denotes, the number of the chapter that begins with that letter is known by it; for example, if you know the letter B stands for 5, then when you hear this line, "Before the flood man's life was long," you can soon tell it is the 5th chapter. If it be asked, what are the contents of the 5th chapter of Genesis, you answer with the above line, and so of the rest.

The three last lines of every Stanza depend upon the first line of it; so that if the number of the first line is known, it is easy to know the number of the rest: for instance, if you know that "Each male of Abram circumcis'd" is the 17th of Genesis, then it follows "He angels entertains" is the 18th; "Sees Sodom's flame God's wrath proclaim" is the 19th; "His wife his sister feigns" is the 20th.

This work is designed to promote the knowledge and practice of the Holy Scriptures—and when presents are made by Parents, or promiscuously awarded by Schools, let the JUVENILE BIBLE be always the first gift: but no portion of it should ever be allotted as a Task; the Author of this Work being well convinced, it is owing to the modern and impious mode of Education, compelling Children to learn Collects, chapters in the Bible, Hymns, &c. as occasional Exercises, and frequently by way of Punishment, that the Word of God is not heard and read with that satisfaction it always should be.

GENESIS

1 All things created Moses writes,
2 And Paradise displays,
3 Tells Adam's fall, which ruin'd all:
4 Cain righteous Abel slays

5 Before the flood, Man's life was long,
6 Noah the ark doth frame;
7 The world is drown'd, eight favour found,
8 Out of the ark they came.

9 Covenant of rain-bow; Noah drunk—
10 His family's increase;
11 They Babel rear, confounded are.
12 Abram is call'd in grace;

13 Departs from Lot: again is blessed,
14 'Gainst four kings doth prevail.
15 A numerous feed is promised.
16 Hagar bears Ishmael.

17 Each male of Abram circumcis'd,
18 He angels entertains;
19 Sees Sodom's flame God's wrath proclaim,
20 His wife his sister feigns.

21 Feasting and mirth for Isaac's birth;
22 God claims, but saves his life;
23 Machpelah's cave is Sarah's grave,
24 Rebeckah's Isaac's wife.

25 Good Abraham's death; Rebeckah's twins,
26 Isaac his wife denies;
27 Jacob by wiles Isaac beguiles,
28 To Padan-Aram flies.

29 He Rachel weds, and Leah beds,
30 Grows rich by cunning flight;
31 From Laban he doth quickly flee,
32 Wrestles with God all night.

33 Jacob and Esau friendly meet,
34 Fair Dinah's foul disgrace;
35 Benjamin's birth is Rachel's death,
36 The dukes of Esau's race.

37 Kind Joseph in a pit and fold,
38 To Jude twins Tamar bears;
39 Joseph the chaste in prison cast,
40 To servants dreams declares.

41 Learns Pharaoh's dreams, and is advanc'd,
42 He takes his brethren up;
43 Them come again, doth entertain,
44 But stops them with his cup;

45 Makes himself known: for Jacob sends,
46 He with his house comes down;
47 In Goshen has a dwelling place,
48 Makes Joseph's sons his own.

49 Next blesseth all his sons and dies;
50 To Canaan is convey'd:
And thus in this book Genesis,
You fifty chapters read.

8 God's justice Bildad shews.

9 Contend with God, Job will not dare;
10 Though sorely he complains.
11 But Zophar meant, Job should repent,
12 Yet Job himself maintains.

13 Dares trust in God tho' slaying him.
14 Man's frailty he declares.
15 El'phaz again does him arraign:

16 No friend has he that spares.

17 Enters appeal from man to God;
18 But Bildad blames him still,
19 Job of his pains and friends complains,
20 And Zophar takes it all.

21 For God's wife providence Job speaks,
22 Still Eliphaz upbraids.
23 Unto God's bar Job would refer,
24 And his deep counsel pleads.

25 Guilty, says Bildad, is mankind.
26 Job God's great power sets forth;
27 And doth declare himself sincere,
28 Proclaiming Wisdom's worth.

29 His former great renown asserts,
30 Tho' now despis'd and weak;
31 Integrity proves solidly.
32 Elihu comes to speak.

33 Instead of God he sets himself,
34 God cannot be unjust;
35 We good or ill, He's happy still.
36 Submit to him we must.

37 Known by his works his wisdom is,
38 God speaks, and them recounts;
39 Goats, hinds, and hawk, ostrich, and stork,
40 But Behemoth surmounts.

41 Lastly the great Leviathan,
God's power doth relate;
42 Job then submits: God him acquits,
And doubles his estate.

16 Christ's resurrection shews.

17 Entreats defense against his foes,
18 Sings praise for mercies great;
19 Christ like the sun his course shall run,
20 On God the pious wait.

21 For victories he gives God thanks,
22 Christ's sufferings foretels;
23 His sheep are we: our shepherd he,
24 Christ in his temple dwells.

25 God's grace and mercy David asks,
26 Calls God to judge his case;
27 His faith sustains and courage gains,
28 Prays for his foes' disgrace.

29 He magnifies God's thund'ring voice,
30 His dedication song;
31 Trusts in God's name, prays against shame,
32 To whom doth bliss belong.

33 In God's pow'r, goodness, truth, he boasts,
34 As mad from Achish sent;
35 To God he cries 'gainst enemies,
36 Doth wicked times lament.

37 Known faints and sinners he compares,
38 Of miseries complains;
39 Shews life of man short as a span,
40 Foretels our Saviour's pains.

41 Long life the merciful shall have,
42 For God the Psalmist pants;
43 God's house he fain would see again,
44 The church makes sore complaints.

45 Melodious song of Christ and spouse,
46 The saints on God rely;
47 All nations sing to God their king,
48 The churches majesty.

49 No trust in wealth is to be put,
50 Christ shall as judge appear;
Now the first set of alphabet,
May fitly break off here.

The Second Alphabet

51 At Nathan's word David repents,

52 Read Doeg's destiny,
53 Proves athiests fools: God sees and rules;
54 At Ziph betray'd is he.

55 Because of foes prays thrice a day,
56 At Gath in God doth trust;
57 His help doth crave 'gainst Saul in cave,
58 Dooms Judges when unjust.

59 Close, Saul to kill him, watch'd his house,
60 Edom by Joab slain;
61 David to Christ his high rock flies,
62 On that rock trusts again.

63 Dry deserts make him thirst for God,
64 Who did him safely hide;
65 Praise him who hears his people's pray'rs,
66 The saints by him are try'd.

67 Extol God nations, let the ark
68 'Midst gen'ral joy proceed;
69 Christ crucify'd is typify'd,
70 His speedy help in need.

71 From youth to old age God sustains,
72 A psalm for Solomon;
73 Fool's prosp'rous state provokes his hate,
74 He doth the church bemoan.

75 God putteth down and raiseth up,
76 In Judah known is he;
77 Asaph's relief 'gainst unbelief,
78 Israel's strange history.

79 He for Jerusalem laments,
80 The church's doleful state;
81 In solemn feasts what rites were best,
82 With judges doth debate.

83 Israel's confed'rate foes describes,
84 Longs for God's courts alone;
85 Truth, Mercy meets: Peace, Justice greets,
86 Like God's Works there are none.

87 Known is no place, like Zion's gates,
88 Good Haman's deep dismay:
89 God's cov'nant shown with Christ the Son,
90 Moses shews Man's decay.

91 Long life and safety in God's shade,
92 A song for Sabbath day.
93 Christ's glorious throne of old made known,
94 Vengeance will he repay.

95 Make joyful noise to God with Psalms,
96 He'll all to Judgment bring;

97 His Judgments made mount Zion glad,
98 Both Jews and Gentiles sing.

99 Next Moses, Aaron, Samuel,
100 And all Lands joyful be;
This second set of Alphabet,
Concludes the Century.

The Third Alphabet

101 A plan of household government,
102 Afflicted person's prayer;
103 A song of praise for joyful days,
104 God's providences rare.

105 Both Egypt plagu'd and Israel sav'd,
106 They murmur and complain;
107 He represents God's providence,
108 And that man's help is vain.

109 Cursed is Judas in a type,
110 Christ king and priest declar'd;
111 God's works ace pure, commandments sure,
112 The righteous man's reward.

113 Due praise to God must Gentiles give,
114 The hills like lambs did play;
115 The Idols weak, nor see nor speak.
116 To God we vows must pay.

117 Extol God's name must nations all,
118 The corner stone is laid:
119 Next comes the great Jews alphabet.
120 A false tongue justly paid.

121 Full safe they sleep whom God doth keep;
122 Pray for Jerus'lem's peace;
123 Lift up your eye to God on high.
124 He breaks the snare with ease.

125 Guarded they are who trust in God.
126 How Zion's captives come;
127 Unless God keep, the watch may sleep,
128 God blesseth house and home.

129 Haters of Zion cursed are,
130 From God all mercies spring;
131 David was mild as wean'd child,
132 The ark with joy they bring.

133 It's good to see brethren agree,
134 We God by night must bless;
135 Who idols make, their likeness take.
136 God's Mercies never cease.

137 Keen scoffs drew tears from captive Jews.
138 All Kings shall choose God's ways.
139 God's piercing sight is infinite,
140 For Saul's destruction prays.

141 Like incense must our prayers ascend.
142 David doth now complain.
143 To God he flies from enemies.
144 Man's life is short and vain.

145 Mark David's special Psalm of praise,
146 None must in man confide;
147 Let Zion praise God's holy ways,
148 And all the World beside.

149 New Songs Saints on their beds shall sing,
And nobles bind in chains;
150 Whatever thing hath breath to sing,
Praise God while breath remains.

FINIS.

An Hymn on the Holy Scriptures,

By Dr. WATTS.

Laden with guilt, and full of fears,
I fly to thee my Lord,
And not a glimpse of hope appears,
But in thy written word.

The volume of my Father's grace;
Does all my griefs assuage;
Here I behold my Saviour's face
Almost in every page.

This is the field where hidden lies,
The pearl of price unknown,
That Merchant is divinely wise
Who makes the pearl his own.

Here consecrated water flows
To quench my thirst of sin;
Here the fair tree of knowledge grows,
Nor danger dwells therein.

This is the Judge that ends the strife
Where wit and reason fail;
My guide to everlasting life,
Through all this gloomy vale.

O may thy counsels, mighty God,
My roving feet command,
Nor I forsake the happy road,
That leads to thy right-hand.

The UNIVERSAL PRAYER,

By Mr. POPE.

FATHER of All! in ev'ry Age,
In ev'ry Clime ador'd,
By Saint, by Savage, and by Sage,
Jehovah, Jove, or Lord!

Thou Great First Cause, least understood:
Who all my Sense confin'd
To know but this, that Thou art Good,
And that myself am blind;

Yet gave me, in this dark Estate,
To see the Good from Ill;
And binding Nature fast in Fate,
Left free the human Will.

What Conscience dictates to be done,

Or warns me not to do,
This, teach me more than hell to shun,
That, more than heav'n pursue.

What Blessings thy free Bounty gives,
Let me not cast away;
For God is paid when Man receives,
T'enjoy is to obey.

Yet not to Earth's contracted Span
Thy goodness let me bound,
Or think Thee Lord alone of Man,
When thousand Worlds are round:

Let not this weak, unknowing hand
Presume thy bolts to throw,
And deal damnation round the land,
On each I judge thy Foe.

If I am right, thy grace impart,
Still in the right to stay;
If I am wrong, oh teach my heart
To find that better way.

Save me alike from foolish Pride,
Or impious Discontent,
At aught thy wisdom has deny'd,
Or aught thy Goodness lent.

Teach me to feel another's Woe,
To hide the Fault I see;
That Mercy I to others show,
That Mercy show to me.

Mean tho' I am, not wholly so,
Since quick'ned by thy Breath:
Oh lead me wheresoe'er I go,
Thro' this day's Life or Death.

This day, be Bread and Peace my Lot:
All else beneath the Sun,
Thou know'st if best bestow'd or not,
And let Thy Will be done.

To thee, whose Temple is all Space,
Whose Altar, Earth, Sea, Skies!
One Chorus let all Being raise!
All Nature's Incense rise!

THE END.
