THE SCHOCKEN BIBLE

Translated by Everett Fox

Genesis

Chapter 1

Genesis 1:1 At the beginning of God's creating of the heavens and the earth,

Genesis 1:2 when the earth was wild and waste, darkness over the face of Ocean, rushing-spirit of God hovering over the face of the waters- Genesis 1:3 God said: Let there be light! And there was light.

Genesis 1:4 God saw the light: that it was good. God separated the light from the darkness.

Genesis 1:5 God called the light: Day! and the darkness he called: Night! There was setting, there was dawning: one day.

Genesis 1:6 God said: Let there be a dome amid the waters, and let it separate waters from waters!

Genesis 1:7 God made the dome and separated the waters that were below the dome from the waters that were above the dome. It was so.

Genesis 1:8 God called the dome: Heaven! There was setting, there was dawning: second day.

Genesis 1:9 God said: Let the waters under the heavens be gathered to one place, and let the dry land be seen! It was so.

Genesis 1:10 God called the dry land: Earth! and the gathering of the waters he called: Seas! God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:11 God said: Let the earth sprout forth with sprouting-growth, plants that seed forth seeds, fruit trees that yield fruit, after their kind, (and) in which is their seed, upon the earth! It was so.

Genesis 1:12 The earth brought forth sprouting-growth, plants that seed forth seeds, after their kind, trees that yield fruit, in which is their seed, after their kind. God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:13 There was setting, there was dawning: third day.

Genesis 1:14 God said: Let there be lights in the dome of the heavens, to separate the day from the night, that they may be for signs-for set-times, for days and years,

Genesis 1:15 and let them be for lights in the dome of the heavens, to provide light upon the earth! It was so.

Genesis 1:16 God made the two great lights, the greater light for ruling the day and the smaller light for ruling the night, and the stars.

Genesis 1:17 God placed them in the dome of the heavens

Genesis 1:18 to provide light upon the earth, to rule the day and the night, to separate the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:19 There was setting, there was dawning: fourth day.

Genesis 1:20 God said: Let the waters swarm with a swarm of living beings, and let fowl fly above the earth, across the dome of the heavens!

Genesis 1:21 God created the great sea-serpents and all living beings that crawl about, with which the waters swarmed, after their kind, and all winged fowl after their kind. God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:22 And God blessed them, saying: Bear fruit and be many and fill the waters in the seas, and let the fowl be many on earth!

Genesis 1:23 There was setting, there was dawning: fifth day.

Genesis 1:24 God said: Let the earth bring forth living beings after their kind, herd-animals, crawling things, and the wildlife of the earth after their kind! It was so.

Page 2 of 245

Genesis 1:25 God made the wildlife of the earth after their kind, and the herd-animals after their kind, and all crawling things of the soil after their kind. God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:26 God said: Let us make humankind, in our image, according to our likeness! Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, the fowl of the heavens, animals, all the earth, and all crawling things that crawl about upon the earth!

Genesis 1:27 So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God did he create it, male and female he created them.

Genesis 1:28 God blessed them, God said to them: Bear fruit and be many and fill the earth and subdue it! Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the fowl of the heavens, and all living things that crawl about upon the earth!

Genesis 1:29 God said: Here, I give you all plants that bear seeds that are upon the face of all the earth, and all trees in which there is tree fruit that bears seeds, for you shall they be, for eating;

Genesis 1:30 and also for all the living things of the earth, for all the fowl of the heavens, for all that crawls about upon the earth in which there is living being- all green plants for eating. It was so.

Genesis 1:31 Now God saw all that he had made, and here: it was exceedingly good! There was setting, there was dawning: the sixth day.

Chapter 2

Genesis 2:1 Thus were finished the heavens and the earth, with all of their array.

Genesis 2:2 God had finished, on the seventh day, his work that he had made, and then he ceased, on the seventh day, from all his work that he had made.

Genesis 2:3 God gave the seventh day his blessing, and he hallowed it, for on it he ceased from all his work, that by creating, God had made.

Genesis 2:4 These are the begettings of the heavens and the earth: their being created. At the time of YHVH, God's making of earth and heaven,

Genesis 2:5 no bush of the field was yet on earth, no plant of the field had yet sprung up, for YHVH, God, had not made it rain upon earth, and there was no human/adam to till the soil/adama- Genesis 2:6 but a surge would well up from the ground and water all the face of the soil;

Genesis 2:7 and YHVH, God, formed the human, of dust from the soil, he blew into his nostrils the breath of life and the human became a living being.

Genesis 2:8 YHVH, God, planted a garden in Eden/Land-of-pleasure, in the east, and there he placed the human whom he had formed.

Genesis 2:9 YHVH, God, caused to spring up from the soil every type of tree, desirable to look at and good to eat, and the Tree of Life in the midst of the garden and the Tree of the Knowing of Good and Evil.

Genesis 2:10 Now a river goes out from Eden, to water the garden, and from there it divides and becomes four stream-heads.

Genesis 2:11 The name of the first one is Pishon/Spreader-that is the one that circles through all the land of Havila, where gold is;

Genesis 2:12 the gold of that land is good, there too are bdellium and the precious-stone carnelian.

Genesis 2:13 The name of the second river is Gihon/Gusher-that is the one that circles through all the land of Cush.

Genesis 2:14 The name of the third river is Hiddekel/Tigris-that is the one that goes to the east of Assyria. And the fourth river-that is Perat/Euphrates.

Genesis 2:15 YHVH, God, took the human and set him in the garden of Eden, to work it and to watch it.

Genesis 2:16 YHVH, God, commanded concerning the human, saying: From every (other) tree of the garden you may eat, yes, eat, Genesis 2:17 but from the Tree of the Knowing of Good and Evil- you are not to eat from it, for on the day that you eat from it, you must die, yes, die.

Genesis 2:18 Now YHVH, God, said: It is not good for the human to be alone, I will make him a helper corresponding to him.

Genesis 2:19 So YHVH, God, formed from the soil every living-thing of the field and every fowl of the heavens and brought each to the human, to see what he would call it; and whatever the human called it as a living being, that became its name.

Genesis 2:20 The human called out names for every herd-animal and for the fowl of the heavens and for every living-thing of the field, but for the human, there could be found no helper corresponding to him.

Genesis 2:21 So YHVH, God, caused a deep slumber to fall upon the human, so that he slept, he took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh in its place.

Genesis 2:22 YHVH, God, built the rib that he had taken from the human into a woman and brought her to the human.

Genesis 2:23 The human said: This-time, she-is-it! Bone from my bones, flesh from my flesh! She shall be called Woman/Isha, for from Man/Ish she was taken!

Genesis 2:24 Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.

Genesis 2:25 Now the two of them, the human and his wife, were nude, yet they were not ashamed.

Chapter 3

Genesis 3:1 Now the snake was more shrewd than all the living-things of the field that YHVH, God, had made. It said to the woman: Even though God said: You are not to eat from any of the trees in the garden . . . !

Genesis 3:2 The woman said to the snake: From the fruit of the (other) trees in the garden we may eat,

Genesis 3:3 but from the fruit of the tree that is in the midst of the garden, God has said: You are not to eat from it and you are not to touch it, lest you die.

Genesis 3:4 The snake said to the woman: Die, you will not die!

Genesis 3:5 Rather, God knows that on the day that you eat from it, your eyes will be opened and you will become like gods, knowing good and evil.

Genesis 3:6 The woman saw that the tree was good for eating and that it was a delight to the eyes, and the tree was desirable to contemplate. She took from its fruit and ate and gave also to her husband beside her, and he ate.

Genesis 3:7 The eyes of the two of them were opened and they knew then that they were nude. They sewed fig leaves together and made themselves loincloths.

Genesis 3:8 Now they heard the sound of YHVH, God, (who was) walking about in the garden at the breezy-time of the day. And the human and his wife hid themselves from the face of YHVH, God, amid the trees of the garden.

Genesis 3:9 YHVH, God, called to the human and said to him: Where are you?

Genesis 3:10 He said: I heard the sound of you in the garden and I was afraid, because I am nude, and so I hid myself.

Genesis 3:11 He said: Who told you that you are nude? From the tree about which I command you not to eat, have you eaten?

Genesis 3:12 The human said: The woman whom you gave to be beside me, she gave me from the tree, and so I ate.

Genesis 3:13 YHVH, God, said to the woman: What is this that you have done? The woman said: The snake enticed me, and so I ate.

Genesis 3:14 YHVH, God, said to the snake: Because you have done this, damned be you from all the animals and from all the living-things of the field; upon your belly shall you walk and dust shall you eat, all the days of your life.

Genesis 3:15 I put enmity between you and the woman, between your seed and her seed: they will bruise you on the head, you will bruise them in the heel.

Genesis 3:16 To the woman he said: I will multiply, multiply your pain (from) your pregnancy, with pains shall you bear children. Toward your husband will be your lust, yet he will rule over you.

Genesis 3:17 To Adam he said: Because you have hearkened to the voice of your wife and have eaten from the tree about which I commanded you, saying: You are not to eat from it! Damned be the soil on your account, with painstaking-labor shall you eat from it, all the days of your life.

Genesis 3:18 Thorn and sting-shrub let it spring up for you, when you (seek to) eat the plants of the field!

Genesis 3:19 By the sweat of your brow shall you eat bread, until you return to the soil, for from it you were taken. For you are dust, and to dust shall you return.

Genesis 3:20 The human called his wife's name: Havva/Life-giver! For she became the mother of all the living.

Genesis 3:21 Now YHVH, God, made Adam and his wife coats of skins and clothed them.

Genesis 3:22 YHVH, God, said: Here, the human has become like one of us, in knowing good and evil. So now, lest he send forth his hand and take also from the Tree of Life and eat and live throughout the ages . . . !

Genesis 3:23 So YHVH, God, sent him away from the garden of Eden, to work the soil from which he had been taken.

Genesis 3:24 He drove the human out and caused to dwell, eastward of the garden of Eden, the winged- sphinxes and the flashing, ever-turning sword to watch over the way to the Tree of Life.

Chapter 4

Genesis 4:1 The human knew Havva his wife, she became pregnant and bore Kayin. She said: Kaniti/I- have-gotten a man, as has YHVH!

Genesis 4:2 She continued bearing-his brother, Hevel. Now Hevel became a shepherd of flocks, and Kayin became a worker of the soil.

Genesis 4:3 It was, after the passing of days that Kayin brought, from the fruit of the soil, a gift to YHVH,

Genesis 4:4 and as for Hevel, he too brought-from the firstborn of his flock, from their fat-parts. YHVH had regard for Hevel and his gift, Genesis 4:5 for Kayin and his gift he had no regard. Kayin became exceedingly upset and his face fell.

Genesis 4:6 YHVH said to Kayin: Why are you so upset? Why has your face fallen?
 Genesis 4:7 Is it not thus: If you intend good, bear-it-aloft, but if you do not intend good, at the entrance is sin, a crouching-demon, toward you his lust- but you can rule over him.
 Genesis 4:8 Kayin said to Hevel his brother . . . But then it was, when they were out in the field that Kayin rose up against Hevel his brother and he killed him.
 Genesis 4:9 YHVH said to Kayin: Where is Hevel your brother? He said: I do not know. Am I the watcher of my brother?
 Genesis 4:10 Now he said: What have you done! A sound-your brother's blood cries out to me from the soil!
 Genesis 4:11 And now, damned be you from the soil, which opened up its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.
 Genesis 4:12 When you wish to work the soil it will not henceforth give its strength to you; wavering and wandering must you be on earth!
 Genesis 4:13 Kayin said to YHVH: My iniquity is too great to be borne!
 Genesis 4:14 Here, you drive me away today from the face of the soil, and from your face must I conceal myself, I must be wavering and wandering on earth- now it will be that whoever comes upon me will kill me!
 Genesis 4:15 YHVH said to him: No, therefore, whoever kills Kayin, sevenfold will it be avenged! So YHVH set a sign for Kayin, so that whoever came upon him would not strike him down.
 Genesis 4:16 Kayin went out from the face of YHVH and settled in the land of Nod/Wandering, east of Eden.
 Genesis 4:17 Kayin knew his wife; she became pregnant and bore Hanokh. Now he became the builder of a city and called the city's name according to his son's name, Hanokh.

 Genesis 4:18 To Hanokh was born Irad, Irad begot Mehuyael, Mehuyael begot Metushael, Metushael begot Lemekh.
 Genesis 4:19 Lemekh took himself two wives, the name of the (first) one was Ada, the name of the second was Tzilla.
 Genesis 4:20 Ada bore Yaval, he was the father of those who sit amidst tent and herd.
 Genesis 4:21 His brother's name was Yuval, he was the father of all those who play the lyre and the pipe.
 Genesis 4:22 And Tzilla bore as well-Tuval-kayin, burnisher of every blade of bronze and iron. Tuval- kayin's sister was Naama.
 Genesis 4:23 Lemekh said to his wives: Ada and Tzilla, hearken to my voice, wives of Lemekh, give ear to my saying: Aye-a man I kill for wounding me, a lad for only bruising me!
 Genesis 4:24 Aye-if sevenfold vengeance be for Kayin, then for Lemekh, seventy-sevenfold!
 Genesis 4:25 Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son. She called his name: Shet/Granted-one! meaning: God has granted me another seed in place of Hevel, for Kayin killed him.
 Genesis 4:26 To Shet as well a son was born, he called his name: Enosh/Mortal. At that time they first called out the name of YHVH.
 Chapter 5
 Genesis 5:1 This is the record of the begettings of Adam/Humankind. At the time of God's creating humankind, in the likeness of God did he then make it,
 Genesis 5:2 male and female he created them and gave blessing to them and called their name: Humankind! on the day of their being created.
 Genesis 5:3 When Adam had lived thirty and a hundred years, he begot one in his likeness, according to his image, and called his name Shet.
 Genesis 5:4 Adam's days after he begot Shet were eight hundred years, and he begot (other) sons and daughters.
 Genesis 5:5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred years and thirty years, then he died.
 Genesis 5:6 When Shet had lived five years and a hundred years, he begot Enosh, Genesis 5:7 and Shet lived after he begot Enosh seven years and eight hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.
 Genesis 5:8 And all the days of Shet were twelve years and nine hundred years, then he died.
 Genesis 5:9 When Enosh had lived ninety years, he begot Kenan,
 Genesis 5:10 and Enosh lived after he begot Kenan fifteen years and eight hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.
 Genesis 5:11 And all the days of Enosh were five years and nine hundred years, then he died.
 Genesis 5:12 When Kenan had lived seventy years, he begot Mehalalel, Genesis 5:13 and Kenan lived after he begot Mehalalel forty years and eight hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.
 Genesis 5:14 And all the days of Kenan were ten years and nine hundred years, then he died.
 Genesis 5:15 When Mehalalel had lived five years and sixty years, he begot Yered.
 Genesis 5:16 and Mehalalel lived after he begot Yered thirty years and eight hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:17 And all the days of Mehalalel were ninety-five years and eight hundred years, then he died.

Genesis 5:18 When Yered had lived sixty-two years and a hundred years, he begot Hanokh, Genesis 5:19 and Yered lived after he begot Hanokh eight hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:20 And all the days of Yered were sixty-two years and nine hundred years, then he died.

Genesis 5:21 When Hanokh had lived sixty-five years, he begot Metushelah,

Genesis 5:22 and Hanokh walked in accord with God after he begot Metushelah three hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:23 And all the days of Hanokh were sixty-five years and three hundred years.

Genesis 5:24 Now Hanokh walked in accord with God, then he was no more, for God had taken him.

Genesis 5:25 When Metushelah had lived eighty-seven years and a hundred years, he begot Lemekh, Genesis 5:26 and Metushelah lived after he begot Lemekh eighty-two years and seven hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:27 And all the days of Metushelah were sixty-nine years and nine hundred years, then he died.

Genesis 5:28 When Lemekh had lived eighty-two years and a hundred years, he begot a son.

Genesis 5:29 He called his name: Noah! saying: Zeh yenahamenu/May this-one comfort-our-sorrow from our toil, from the pains of our hands coming from the soil, which YHVH has damned.

Genesis 5:30 And Lemekh lived after he begot Noah ninety-five years and five hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:31 And all the days of Lemekh were seventy-seven years and seven hundred years, then he died.

Genesis 5:32 When Noah was five hundred years old, Noah begot Shem, Ham, and Yefet.

Chapter 6

Genesis 6:1 Now it was when humans first became many on the face of the soil and women were born to them,

Genesis 6:2 that the divine beings saw how beautiful the human women were, so they took themselves wives, whomever they chose.

Genesis 6:3 YHVH said: My rushing-spirit shall not remain in humankind for ages, for they too are flesh; let their days be then a hundred and twenty years!

Genesis 6:4 The giants were on earth in those days, and afterward as well, when the divine beings came in to the human women and they bore them (children)- they were the heroes who were of former ages, the men of name.

Genesis 6:5 Now YHVH saw that great was humankind's evildoing on earth and every form of their heart's planning was only evil all the day.

Genesis 6:6 Then YHVH was sorry that he had made humankind on earth, and it pained his heart.

Genesis 6:7 YHVH said: I will blot out humankind, whom I have created, from the face of the soil, from man to beast, to crawling thing and to the fowl of the heavens, for I am sorry that I made them.

Genesis 6:8 But Noah found favor in the eyes of YHVH.

Genesis 6:9 These are the begettings of Noah. Noah was a righteous, wholehearted man in his generation, in accord with God did Noah walk.

Genesis 6:10 Noah begot three sons: Shem, Ham, and Yefet.

Genesis 6:11 Now the earth had gone to ruin before God, the earth was filled with wrongdoing.

Genesis 6:12 God saw the earth, and here: it had gone to ruin, for all flesh had ruined its way upon the earth.

Genesis 6:13 God said to Noah: An end of all flesh has come before me, for the earth is filled with wrongdoing through them; here, I am about to bring ruin upon them, along with the earth.

Genesis 6:14 Make yourself an Ark of gofer wood, with reeds make the Ark, and cover it within and without with a covering-of-pitch.

Genesis 6:15 And this is how you are to make it: Three hundred cubits the length of the Ark, fifty cubits its breadth, and thirty cubits its height.

Genesis 6:16 A skylight you are to make for the Ark, finishing it to a cubit upward. The entrance of the Ark you are to set in its side; with a lower, a second, and a third deck you are to make it.

Genesis 6:17 As for me, here, I am about to bring on the Deluge, water upon the earth, to bring ruin upon all flesh that has rush of life in it, from under the heavens, all that is on earth will perish.

Genesis 6:18 But I will establish my covenant with you: you are to come into the Ark, you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you,

Genesis 6:19 and from all living-things, from all flesh, you are to bring two from all into the Ark, to remain alive with you. They are to be a male and a female (each),

Genesis 6:20 from fowl after their kind, from herd-animals after their kind, from all crawling things of the soil after their kind, two from all are to come to you, to remain alive.

Genesis 6:21 As for you, take for yourself from all edible-things that are eaten and gather it to you, it shall be for you and for them, for eating.

Genesis 6:22 Noah did it, according to all that God commanded him, so he did.

Chapter 7

Genesis 7:1 YHVH said to Noah: Come, you and all your household, into the Ark! For you I have seen as righteous before me in this generation.

Genesis 7:2 From all (ritually) pure animals you are to take seven and seven (each), a male and his mate, and from all the animals that are not pure, two (each), a male and his mate, Genesis 7:3 and also from the fowl of the heavens, seven and seven (each), male and female, to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

Genesis 7:4 For in yet seven days I will make it rain upon the earth for forty days and forty nights and will blot out all existing-things that I have made, from the face of the soil.

Genesis 7:5 Noah did it, according to all that YHVH had commanded him.

Genesis 7:6 Noah was six hundred years old when the Deluge occurred, water upon the earth;

Genesis 7:7 and Noah came, his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him, into the Ark before the waters of the Deluge.

Genesis 7:8 From the pure animals and from the animals that are not pure and from the fowl and all that crawls about on the soil- Genesis 7:9 two and two (each) came to Noah, into the Ark, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.

Genesis 7:10 After the seven days it was that the waters of the Deluge were upon the earth.

Genesis 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second New-moon, on the seventeenth day after the New-moon, on that day: then burst all the well-springs of the great Ocean and the sluices of the heavens opened up.

Genesis 7:12 The torrent was upon the earth for forty days and forty nights.

Genesis 7:13 On that very day came Noah, and Shem, Ham, and Yefet, Noah's sons, and Noah's wife and his three sons' wives with them, into the Ark,

Genesis 7:14 they and all wildlife after their kind, all herd-animals after their kind, all crawling things that crawl upon the earth after their kind, all fowl after their kind, all chirping-things, all winged-things;

Genesis 7:15 they came to Noah, into the Ark, two and two (each) from all flesh in which there is the rush of life.

Genesis 7:16 And those that came, male and female from all flesh they came, as God had commanded him. YHVH closed (the door) upon him.

Genesis 7:17 The Deluge was forty days upon the earth. The waters increased and lifted the Ark, so that it was raised above the earth;

Genesis 7:18 the waters swelled and increased exceedingly upon the earth, so that the Ark floated upon the face of the waters.

Genesis 7:19 When the waters had swelled exceedingly, yes, exceedingly over the earth, all high mountains that were under all the heavens were covered.

Genesis 7:20 Fifteen cubits upward swelled the waters, thus the mountains were covered.

Genesis 7:21 Then expired all flesh that crawls about upon the earth-fowl, herd-animals, wildlife, and all swarming things that swarm upon the earth, and all humans;

Genesis 7:22 all that had the breath of the rush of life in their nostrils, all that were on firm-ground, died.

Genesis 7:23 He blotted out all existing-things that were on the face of the soil, from man to beast, to crawling thing and to fowl of the heavens, they were blotted out from the earth. Noah alone remained, and those who were with him in the Ark.

Page 8 of 245

Genesis 7:24 The waters swelled upon the earth for a hundred and fifty days.

Chapter 8

Genesis 8:1 But God paid mind to Noah and all living-things, all the animals that were with him in the Ark, and God brought a rushing-wind across the earth, so that the waters abated.

Genesis 8:2 The well-springs of Ocean and the sluices of the heavens were dammed up, and the torrent from the heavens was held back.

Genesis 8:3 The waters returned from upon the earth, continually advancing and returning, and the waters diminished at the end of a hundred and fifty days.

Genesis 8:4 And the Ark came to rest in the seventh New-moon, on the seventeenth day after the New- moon, upon the mountains of Ararat.

Genesis 8:5 Now the waters continued to advance and diminish until the tenth New-moon. On the tenth, on the first day of the New-moon, the tops of the mountains could be seen.

Genesis 8:6 At the end of forty days it was: Noah opened the window of Genesis 8:7 the Ark that he had made, and sent out a raven; it went off, going off and returning, until the waters were dried up from upon the earth.

Genesis 8:8 Then he sent out a dove from him, to see whether the waters had subsided from the face of the soil.

Genesis 8:9 But the dove found no resting-place for the sole of her foot, so she returned to him into the Ark, for there was water upon the face of all the earth. He sent forth his hand and took her, and brought her to him into the Ark.

Genesis 8:10 Then he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove yet again from the Ark.

Genesis 8:11 The dove came back to him at eventime, and here-a freshly plucked olive leaf in her beak! So Noah knew that the waters had subsided from upon the earth.

Genesis 8:12 Then he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, but she returned to him again no more.

Genesis 8:13 And so it was in the six hundred and first year, in the beginning-month, on the first day of the New-moon, that the waters left firm ground upon the earth. Noah removed the covering of the Ark and saw: here, the face of the soil was firm.

Genesis 8:14 Now in the second New-moon, on the twenty-seventh day after the New-moon, the earth was (completely) dry.

Genesis 8:15 God spoke to Noah, saying:

Genesis 8:16 Go out of the Ark, you and your wife, your sons and your sons' wives with you.

Genesis 8:17 All living-things that are with you, all flesh-fowl, animals, and all crawling things that crawl about upon the earth, have them go out with you, that they may swarm on earth, that they may bear fruit and become many upon the earth.

Genesis 8:18 So Noah went out, his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives with him, Genesis 8:19 all living-things-all crawling things, and all fowl, all that crawl about upon the earth, according to their clans they went out of the Ark.

Genesis 8:20 Noah built a slaughter-site to YHVH. He took from all pure animals and from all pure fowl and offered up offerings upon the slaughter-site.

Genesis 8:21 Now YHVH smelled the soothing savor and YHVH said in his heart: I will never curse the soil again on humankind's account, since what the human heart forms is evil from its youth; I will never again strike down all living-things, as I have done;

Genesis 8:22 (never) again, all the days of the earth, shall sowing and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night ever cease!

Chapter 9

Genesis 9:1 Now God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them: Bear fruit and be many and fill the earth!

Genesis 9:2 Fear-of-you, dread-of-you shall be upon all the wildlife of the earth and upon all the fowl of the heavens, all that crawls on the soil and all the fish of the sea- into your hand they are given.

Genesis 9:3 All things crawling about that live, for you shall they be, for eating, as with the green plants, I now give you all.

Genesis 9:4 However: flesh with its life, its blood, you are not to eat!

Genesis 9:5 However, too: for your blood, of your own lives, I will demand- satisfaction- from all wild- animals I will demand it, and from humankind, from every man regarding his brother, demand- satisfaction for human life.

Genesis 9:6 Whoever now sheds human blood, for that human shall his blood be shed, for in God's image he made humankind.

Genesis 9:7 As for you-bear fruit and be many, swarm on earth and become many on it!

Genesis 9:8 God said to Noah and to his sons with him, saying:

Genesis 9:9 As for me-here, I am about to establish my covenant with you and with your seed after you,

Genesis 9:10 and with all living beings that are with you: fowl, herd-animals, and all the wildlife of the earth with you; all those going out of the Ark, of all the living-things of the earth.

Genesis 9:11 I will establish my covenant with you: All flesh shall never be cut off again by waters of the Deluge, never again shall there be Deluge, to bring the earth to ruin!

Genesis 9:12 And God said: This is the sign of the covenant which I set between me and you and all living beings that are with you, for ageless generations:

Genesis 9:13 My bow I set in the clouds, so that it may serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

Genesis 9:14 It shall be: when I becloud the earth with clouds and in the clouds the bow is seen,

Genesis 9:15 I will call to mind my covenant that is between me and you and all living beings-all flesh: never again shall the waters become a Deluge, to bring all flesh to ruin!

Genesis 9:16 When the bow is in the clouds, I will look at it, to call to mind the age-old covenant between God and all living beings- all flesh that is upon the earth.

Genesis 9:17 God said to Noah: This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

Genesis 9:18 Noah's sons who went out of the Ark were Shem, Ham, and Yefet. Now Ham is the father of Canaan.

Genesis 9:19 These three were Noah's sons, and from these were scattered abroad all the earth-folk.

Genesis 9:20 Now Noah was the first man of the soil; he planted a vineyard.

Genesis 9:21 When he drank from the wine, he became drunk and exposed himself in the middle of his tent.

Genesis 9:22 Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father's nakedness and told his two brothers outside.

Genesis 9:23 Then Shem and Yefet took a cloak, they put it on the shoulders of the two of them, and walked backward, to cover their father's nakedness. -Their faces were turned backward, their father's nakedness they did not see.

Genesis 9:24 Now when Noah awoke from his wine, it became known (to him) what his littlest son had done to him.

Genesis 9:25 He said: Damned be Canaan, servant of servants may he be to his brothers!

Genesis 9:26 And he said: Blessed be YHVH, God of Shem, but may Canaan be servant to them!

Genesis 9:27 May God extend/yaft Yefet, let him dwell in the tents of Shem, but may Canaan be servant to them!

Genesis 9:28 And Noah lived after the Deluge three hundred years and fifty years.

Genesis 9:29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred years and fifty years, then he died.

Chapter 10

Genesis 10:1 Now these are the begettings of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Yefet. Sons were born to them after the Deluge.

Genesis 10:2 The Sons of Yefet are Gomer and Magog, Madai, Yavan and Tuval, Meshekh and Tiras.

Genesis 10:3 The Sons of Gomer are Ashkenaz, Rifat, and Togarma.

Genesis 10:4 The Sons of Yavan are Elisha and Tarshish, Cittites and Dodanites.

Genesis 10:5 From these the seacoast nations were divided by their lands, each one after its own tongue: according to their clans, by their nations.

Genesis 10:6 The Sons of Ham are Cush and Mitzrayim, Put and Canaan.

Genesis 10:7 The Sons of Cush are Seva and Havila, Savta, Ra'ma, and Savtekha; the Sons of Ra'ma-Sheva and Dedan.

Genesis 10:8 Cush begot Nimrod; he was the first mighty man on earth.

Genesis 10:9 He was a mighty hunter before YHVH, therefore the saying is: Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before YHVH.

Genesis 10:10 His kingdom, at the beginning, was Bavel, and Erekh, Accad and Genesis 10:11 Calne, in the land of Shinar; from this land Ashur went forth and built Nineveh-along with Genesis 10:12 the city squares and Calah,/and Resen between Nineveh and Calah-that is the great city.

Genesis 10:13 Mitzrayim begot the Ludites, the Anamites, the Lehavites, Genesis 10:14 the Naftuhites,/the Patrusites, and the Casluhites, from where the Philistines come, and the Caftorites.

Genesis 10:15 /16 Canaan begot Tzidon his firstborn and Het,/along with the Genesis 10:17 Yevusite, the Amorite and the Gargashite,/ the Hivvite, Genesis 10:18 the Arkite and the Sinite,/the Arvadite, the Tzemarite and the Hamatite. Afterward the Canaanite clans were scattered abroad.

Genesis 10:19 And the Canaanite territory went from Tzidon, then as you come toward Gerar, as far as Gaza, then as you come toward Sedom and Amora, Adma, and Tzevoyim, as far as Lasha.

Genesis 10:20 These are the Sons of Ham after their clans, after their tongues, by their lands, by their nations.

Genesis 10:21 (Children) were also born to Shem, the father of all the Sons of Ever (and) Yefet's older brother.

Genesis 10:22 The Sons of Shem are Elam and Ashur, Arpakhshad, Lud, and Aram.

Genesis 10:23 The Sons of Aram are Utz and Hul, Geter and Mash.

Genesis 10:24 Arpakhshad begot Shelah, Shelah begot Ever.

Genesis 10:25 Two sons were born to Ever: the name of the first one was Peleg/Splitting, for in his days the earth-folk were split up, and his brother's name was Yoktan.

Genesis 10:26 /27 Yoktan begot Almodad and Shelef, Hatzarmavet and Yera,/

Genesis 10:28 /29 Hadoram, Uzal and Dikla,/ Oval, Avimael and Sheva,/ Ofir, Havila, and Yovav-all these are the Sons of Yoktan.

Genesis 10:30 Now their settlements went from Mesha, then as you come toward Sefar, to the mountain- country of the east.

Genesis 10:31 These are the Sons of Shem after their clans, after their tongues, by their lands, after their nations.

Genesis 10:32 These are the clan-groupings of the Sons of Noah, after their begettings, by their nations. From these the nations were divided on earth after the Deluge.

Chapter 11

Genesis 11:1 Now all the earth was of one language and one set-of-words.

Genesis 11:2 And it was when they migrated to the east that they found a valley in the land of Shinar and settled there.

Genesis 11:3 They said, each man to his neighbor: Come-now! Let us bake bricks and let us burn them well-burnt! So for them brick-stone was like building-stone, and raw-bitumen was for them like red- mortar.

Genesis 11:4 Now they said: Come-now! Let us build ourselves a city and a tower, its top in the heavens, and let us make ourselves a name, lest we be scattered over the face of all the earth!

Genesis 11:5 But YHVH came down to look over the city and the tower that the humans were building.

Genesis 11:6 YHVH said: Here, (they are) one people with one language for them all, and this is merely the first of their doings- now there will be no barrier for them in all that they scheme to do!

Genesis 11:7 Come-now! Let us go down and there let us baffle their language, so that no man will understand the language of his neighbor.

Genesis 11:8 So YHVH scattered them from there over the face of all the earth, and they had to stop building the city.

Genesis 11:9 Therefore its name was called Babel/Babble, for there YHVH baffled the language of all the earth-folk, and from there, YHVH scattered them over the face of all the earth.

Genesis 11:10 These are the begettings of Shem: Shem was a hundred years old, then he begot Arpakhshad, two years after the Deluge, Genesis 11:11 and Shem lived after he begot Arpakhshad five hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:12 Arpakhshad lived thirty-five years, then he begot Shelah, Genesis 11:13 and Arpakhshad lived after he begot Shelah three years and four hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:14 Shelah lived thirty years, then he begot Ever,

Genesis 11:15 and Shelah lived after he begot Ever three years and four hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:16 When Ever had lived thirty-four years, he begot Peleg, Genesis 11:17 and Ever lived after he begot Peleg thirty years and four hundred years, and begot other (sons) and daughters.

Genesis 11:18 When Peleg had lived thirty years, he begot Re'u,

Genesis 11:19 and Peleg lived after he begot Re'u nine years and two hundred years, and begot other (sons) and daughters.

Genesis 11:20 When Re'u had lived thirty-two years, he begot Serug, Genesis 11:21 and Re'u lived after he begot Serug seven years and two hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:22 When Serug had lived thirty years, he begot Nahor, Genesis 11:23 and Serug lived after he begot Nahor two hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:24 When Nahor had lived twenty-nine years, he begot Terah, Genesis 11:25 and Nahor lived after he begot Terah nineteen years and a hundred years, and begot (other) sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:26 When Terah had lived seventy years, he begot Avram, Nahor, and Haran.

Genesis 11:27 Now these are the begettings of Terah: Terah begot Avram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begot Lot.

Genesis 11:28 Haran died in the living-presence of Terah his father in the land of his kindred, in Ur of the Chaldeans.

Genesis 11:29 Avram and Nahor took themselves wives; the name of Avram's wife was Sarai, the name of Nahor's wife was Milca-daughter of Haran, father of Milca and father of Yisca.

Genesis 11:30 Now Sarai was barren, she had no child.

Genesis 11:31 Terah took Avram his son and Lot son of Haran, his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, wife of Avram his son, they set out together from Ur of the Chaldeans, to go to the land of Canaan. But when they had come as far as Harran, they settled there.

Genesis 11:32 And the days of Terah were five years and two hundred years, then Terah died, in Harran.

Chapter 12

Genesis 12:1 YHVH said to Avram: Go-you-forth from your land, from your kindred, from your father's house, to the land that I will let you see.

Genesis 12:2 I will make a great nation of you and will give-you-blessing and will make your name great. Be a blessing!

Genesis 12:3 I will bless those who bless you, he who curses you, I will damn. All the clans of the soil will find blessing through you!

Genesis 12:4 Avram went, as YHVH had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. And Avram was five years and seventy years old when he went out of Harran.

Genesis 12:5 Avram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son, all their property that they had gained, and the persons whom they had made-their-own in Harran, and they went out to go to the land of Canaan. When they came to the land of Canaan, Genesis 12:6 Avram passed through the land, as far as the Place of Shekhem, as far as the Oak of Moreh. Now the Canaanite was then in the land.

Genesis 12:7 YHVH was seen by Avram and said: I give this land to your seed! He built a slaughter-site there to YHVH who had been seen by him.

Genesis 12:8 He moved on from there to the mountain-country, east of Bet-el, and spread his tent, Bet-el toward the sea and Ai toward the east. There he built a slaughter-site to YHVH and called out the name of YHVH.

Genesis 12:9 Then Avram journeyed on, continually journeying to the Negev.

Genesis 12:10 Now there was a famine in the land, and Avram went down to Egypt, to sojourn there, for the famine was heavy in the land.

Genesis 12:11 It was when he came near to Egypt that he said to Sarai his wife: Now here, I know well that you are a woman fair to look at.

Genesis 12:12 It will be, when the Egyptians see you and say: She is his wife, that they will kill me, but you they will allow to live.

Genesis 12:13 Pray say that you are my sister so that it may go well with me on your account, that I myself may live thanks to you.

Genesis 12:14 It was when Avram came to Egypt, that the Egyptians saw how exceedingly fair the woman was;

Genesis 12:15 when Pharaoh's courtiers saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh, and the woman was taken away into Pharaoh's house.

Genesis 12:16 It went well with Avram on her account, sheep and oxen, donkeys, servants and maids, she- asses and camels, became his.

Genesis 12:17 But YHVH plagued Pharaoh with great plagues, and also his household, because of Sarai, Avram's wife.

Genesis 12:18 Pharaoh had Avram called, and said: What is this that you have done to me! Why did you not tell me that she is your wife?

Genesis 12:19 Why did you say: She is my sister? -So I took her for myself as a wife. But now, here is your wife, take her and go!

Genesis 12:20 So Pharaoh put men in charge of him, who escorted him and his wife and all that was his.

Chapter 13

Genesis 13:1 Avram traveled up from Egypt, he and his wife and all that was his, and Lot with him, to the Negev.

Genesis 13:2 And Avram was exceedingly heavily laden with livestock, with silver and with gold.

Genesis 13:3 He went on his journeyings from the Negev as far as Bet-el, as far as the place where his tent had been at the first, between Bet-el and Ai, Genesis 13:4 to the place of the slaughter-site that he had made there at the beginning. There Avram called out the name of YHVH.

Genesis 13:5 Now also Lot, who had gone with Avram, had sheep and oxen and tents.

Genesis 13:6 And the land could not support them, to settle together, for their property was so great that they were not able to settle together.

Genesis 13:7 So there was a quarrel between the herdsmen of Avram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. Now the Canaanite and the Perizzite were then settled in the land.

Genesis 13:8 Avram said to Lot: Pray let there be no quarreling between me and you, between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are brother men!

Genesis 13:9 Is not all the land before you? Pray part from me! If to the left, then I to the right, if to the right, then I to the left.

Genesis 13:10 Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the plain of the Jordan- how well-watered was it all, before YHVH brought ruin upon Sodom and Amora, like YHVH'S garden, like the land of Egypt, as you come toward Tzo'ar.

Genesis 13:11 So Lot chose for himself all the plain of the Jordan. Lot journeyed eastward, and they parted, each man from the other:

Genesis 13:12 Avram settled in the land of Canaan, while Lot settled in the cities of the plain, pitching-his- tent near Sodom.

Genesis 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinful before YHVH.

Genesis 13:14 YHVH said to Avram, after Lot had parted from him: Pray lift up your eyes and see from the place where you are, to the north, to the Negev, to the east, to the Sea:

Genesis 13:15 indeed, all the land that you see, I give it to you and to your seed, for the ages.

Genesis 13:16 I will make your seed like the dust of the ground, so that if a man were able to measure the dust of the ground, so too could your seed be measured.

Genesis 13:17 Up, walk about through the land in its length and in its breadth, for I give it to you.

Genesis 13:18 Avram moved-his-tent and came and settled by the oaks of Mamre, which are by Hebron. There he built a slaughter-site to YHVH.

Chapter 14

Genesis 14:1 Now it was in the days of Amrafel king of Shinar, Aryokh king of Ellasar, Kedorla'omer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goyim:

Genesis 14:2 They prepared for battle against Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Amora, Shinav king of Adma, Shemever king of Tzevoyim, and the king of Bela-that is now Tzo'ar.

Genesis 14:3 All these joined together in the valley of Siddim/Limestone-that is now the Sea of Salt.

Genesis 14:4 For twelve years they had been subservient to Kedorla'omer, and in the thirteenth year they had revolted,

Genesis 14:5 but then in the fourteenth year came Kedorla'omer and the kings who were with him, they struck the Refa'ites in Ashterot-karnayim, the Zuzites

Genesis 14:6 in Ham, the Emities in Shaveh-kiryatayim, /and the Horites in their hill-country of Se'ir near El Paran, which is by the wilderness.

Genesis 14:7 As they returned, they came to En Mishpat/Judgment Spring- that is now Kadesh, and struck all the territory of the Amalekites and also the Amorites, who were settled in Hatzatzon-tamar.

Genesis 14:8 Then out marched the king of Sedom, the king of Amora, the king of Adma, the king of Tzevoyim, and the king of Bela-that is now Tzo'ar; they set-their-ranks against them in war in the valley of Siddim, Genesis 14:9 against Kedorla'omer king of Elam, Tidal king of Goyim, Amrafel king of Shinar, and Aryokh king of Ellasar- four kings against the five.

Genesis 14:10 Now the valley of Siddim is pit after pit of bitumen, and when the kings of Sedom and Amora fled, they flung themselves therein, while those who remained fled to the hill-country.
Genesis 14:11 Now they took all the property of Sedom and Amora and all their food, and went away,
Genesis 14:12 and they took Lot and all his property-the son of Avram's brother-and went away, for he had settled in Sedom.
Genesis 14:13 One who escaped came and told Avram the Hebrew- he was dwelling by the Oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner, they were Avram's covenant-allies.
Genesis 14:14 When Avram heard that his brother had been taken prisoner, he drew out his retainers, his house-born slaves, eighteen and three hundred, and went in pursuit as far as Dan.
Genesis 14:15 He split up (his forces) against them in the night, he and his servants, and struck them and pursued them as far as Hova, which is to the north of Damascus.
Genesis 14:16 But he returned all the property, and he also returned his brother Lot and his property, and also the women and the (other) people.
Genesis 14:17 The king of Sedom went out to meet him upon his return from the strike against Kedorla'omer and against the kings that were with him, to the valley of Shaveh-that is now the King's Valley.
Genesis 14:18 Now Malki-Tzedek, king of Shalem, brought out bread and wine, -for he was priest of God Most-High,
Genesis 14:19 and gave him blessing and said: Blessed be Avram by God Most-High, Founder of Heaven and Earth!
Genesis 14:20 And blessed be God Most-High, who has delivered your oppressors into your hand! He gave him a tenth of everything.
Genesis 14:21 The king of Sedom said to Avram: Give me the persons, and the property take for yourself.
Genesis 14:22 Avram said to the king of Sedom: I raise my hand in the presence of YHVH, God Most-High, Founder of Heaven and Earth, Genesis 14:23 if from a thread to a sandal-strap-if I should take from anything that is yours . . . ! So that you should not say: I made Avram rich.
Genesis 14:24 Nothing for me! Only what the lads have consumed, and the share of the men who went with me-Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre, let them take their share.

Chapter 15

Genesis 15:1 After these events YHVH'S word came to Avram in a vision, saying: Be not afraid, Avram, I am a delivering-shield to you, your reward is exceedingly great.
Genesis 15:2 Avram said: My Lord, YHVH, what would you give me- for I am going (to die) accursed, and the Son Domestic of My House is Damascan Eliezer.
Genesis 15:3 And Avram said further: Here, to me you have not given seed, here, the Son of My House must be my heir.
Genesis 15:4 But here, YHVH'S word (came) to him, saying: This one shall not be heir to you, rather, the one that goes out from your own body, he shall be heir to you.
Genesis 15:5 He brought him outside and said: Pray look toward the heavens and count the stars, can you count them? And he said to him: So shall your seed be.
Genesis 15:6 Now he trusted in YHVH, and he deemed it as righteous-merit on his part.
Genesis 15:7 Now he said to him: I am YHVH who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land, to inherit it.
Genesis 15:8 But he said: My Lord, YHVH, by what shall I know that I will inherit it?
Genesis 15:9 He said to him: Fetch me a calf of three, a she-goat of three, a ram of three, a turtle-dove, and a fledgling.
Genesis 15:10 He fetched him all these. He halved them down the middle, putting each one's half toward its neighbor, but the birds he did not halve.

Genesis 15:11 Vultures descended upon the carcasses, but Avram drove them back.
Genesis 15:12 Now it was, when the sun was coming in , that deep slumber fell upon Avram- and here, fright and great darkness falling upon him!
Genesis 15:13 And he said to Avram: You must know, yes, know that your seed will be sojourners in a land not theirs; they will put them in servitude and afflict them for four hundred years.
Genesis 15:14 But the nation to which they are in servitude-I will bring judgment on them, and after that they will go out with great property.
Genesis 15:15 As for you, you will go to your fathers in peace; you will be buried at a good ripe-age.
Genesis 15:16 But in the fourth generation they will return here, for the iniquity of the Amorite has not reached full-measure heretofore.

Genesis 15:17 Now it was, when the sun had come in, that there was night-blackness, and here, a smoking oven, a fiery torch that crossed between those pieces.

Genesis 15:18 On that day YHVH cut a covenant with Avram, saying: I give this land to your seed, from the River of Egypt to the Great River, the river Euphrates,

Genesis 15:19 the Kenite and the Kenizzite and the Kadmonite,

Genesis 15:20 and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Refa'ites,

Genesis 15:21 and the Amorite and the Canaanite and the Girgashite and the Yevusite.

Chapter 16

Genesis 16:1 Now Sarai, Avram's wife, had not borne him (children). She had an Egyptian maid-her name was Hagar.

Genesis 16:2 Sarai said to Avram: Now here, YHVH has obstructed me from bearing; pray come in to my maid, perhaps I may be built-up-with-sons through her! Avram hearkened to Sarai's voice:

Genesis 16:3 Sarai, Avram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian-woman, her maid, at the end of ten years of Avram's being settled in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Avram as a wife for him.

Genesis 16:4 He came in to Hagar, and she became pregnant. But when she saw that she was pregnant, her mistress became of light-worth in her eyes.

Genesis 16:5 Sarai said to Avram: The wrong done me is upon you! I myself gave my maid into your bosom, but now that she sees that she is pregnant, I have become of light-worth in her eyes. May YHVH see-justice-done between me and you!

Genesis 16:6 Avram said to Sarai: Here, your maid is in your hand, deal with her however seems good in your eyes. Sarai afflicted her, so that she had to flee from her.

Genesis 16:7 But YHVH'S messenger found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to Shur.

Genesis 16:8 He said: Hagar, Sarai's maid, whence do you come, whither are you going? She said: I am fleeing from Sarai my mistress.

Genesis 16:9 YHVH'S messenger said to her: Return to your mistress and let yourself be afflicted under her hand!

Genesis 16:10 And YHVH'S messenger said to her: I will make your seed many, yes, many, it will be too many to count!

Genesis 16:11 And YHVH'S messenger said to her: Here, you are pregnant, you will bear a son; call his name: Yishmael/God Harkens, for God has hearkened to your being afflicted.

Genesis 16:12 He shall be a wild-ass of a man, his hand against all, hand of all against him, yet in the presence of all his brothers shall he dwell.

Genesis 16:13 Now she called the name of YHVH, the one who was speaking to her: You God of Seeing! For she said: Have I actually gone on seeing here after his seeing me?

Genesis 16:14 Therefore the well was called: Well of the Living-one Who-Sees-Me. Here, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

Genesis 16:15 Hagar bore Avram a son, and Avram called the name of the son whom Hagar bore: Yishmael.

Page 16 of 245

Genesis 16:16 Avram was eighty years and six years old when Hagar bore Yishmael to Avram.

Chapter 17

Genesis 17:1 Now when Avram was ninety years and nine years old YHVH was seen by Avram and said to him: I am God Shaddai. Walk in my presence! And be wholehearted!

Genesis 17:2 I set my covenant between me and you, I will make you exceedingly, exceedingly many.

Genesis 17:3 Avram fell upon his face. God spoke with him, saying:

Genesis 17:4 As for me, here, my covenant is with you, so that you will become the father of a throng of nations.

Genesis 17:5 No longer shall your name be called Avram, rather shall your name be Abraham, for I will make you Av Hamon Goyyim/Father of a Throng of Nations!

Genesis 17:6 I will cause you to bear fruit exceedingly, exceedingly, I will make nations of you, (yes,) kings will go out from you!

Genesis 17:7 I establish my covenant between me and you and your seed after you, throughout their generations as a covenant for the ages, to be God to you and to your seed after you.

Genesis 17:8 I will give to you and to your seed after you, the land of your sojournings, all the land of Canaan, as a holding for the ages, and I will be God to them.

Genesis 17:9 God said to Abraham: As for you, you are to keep my covenant, you and your seed after you, throughout their generations.

Genesis 17:10 This is my covenant which you are to keep, between me and you and your seed after you: every male among you shall be circumcised.

Genesis 17:11 You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, so that it may serve as a sign of the covenant between me and you.

Genesis 17:12 At eight days old, every male among you shall be circumcised, throughout your generations, whether house-born or bought with money from any foreigner, who is not your seed.

Genesis 17:13 Circumcised, yes, circumcised shall be your house-born and your money-bought (slaves), so that my covenant may be in your flesh as a covenant for the ages.

Genesis 17:14 But a foreskinned male, who does not have the foreskin of his flesh circumcised, that person shall be cut off from his kinspeople- he has violated my covenant!

Genesis 17:15 God said to Avraham: As for Sarai your wife-you shall not call her name Sarai, for Sara/Princess is her name!

Genesis 17:16 I will bless her, and I will give you a son from her, I will bless her so that she becomes nations, kings of peoples shall come from her!

Genesis 17:17 But Avraham fell on his face and laughed, he said in his heart: To a hundred-year-old man shall there be (children) born ? Or shall ninety-year-old Sara give birth?

Genesis 17:18 Avraham said to God: If only Yishmael might live in your presence!

Genesis 17:19 God said: Nevertheless, Sara your wife is to bear you a son, you shall call his name: Yitzhak/He Laughs. I will establish my covenant with him as a covenant for the ages, for his seed after him.

Genesis 17:20 And as for Yishmael, I hearken to you: Here, I will make him blessed, I will make him bear fruit, I will make him many, exceedingly, exceedingly- he will beget twelve (tribal) leaders, and I will make a great nation of him.

Genesis 17:21 But my covenant I will establish with Yitzhak, whom Sara will bear to you at this set-time, another year hence.

Genesis 17:22 When he had finished speaking with Avraham, God went up, from beside Avraham.

Genesis 17:23 Avraham took Yishmael his son and all those born in his house and all those bought with his money, all the males among Avraham's household people, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins on that same day, as God had spoken to him.

Genesis 17:24 Avraham was ninety-nine years old when he had the flesh of his foreskin circumcised,

Genesis 17:25 and Yishmael his son was thirteen years old when he had the flesh of his foreskin circumcised.

Genesis 17:26 On that same day were circumcised Avraham and Yishmael his son, Genesis 17:27 and all his household people, whether house-born or money-bought from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Chapter 18

Genesis 18:1 Now YHVH was seen by him by the oaks of Mamre as he was sitting at the entrance to his tent at the heat of the day.

Genesis 18:2 He lifted up his eyes and saw: here, three men standing over against him. When he saw them, he ran to meet them from the entrance to his tent and bowed to the earth

Genesis 18:3 and said: My lords, pray if I have found favor in your eyes, pray do not pass by your servant!

Genesis 18:4 Pray let a little water be fetched, then wash your feet and recline under the tree;

Genesis 18:5 let me fetch (you) a bit of bread, that you may refresh your hearts, then afterward you may pass on- for you have, after all, passed your servant's way! They said: Do thus, as you have spoken.

Genesis 18:6 Avraham hastened into his tent to Sara and said: Make haste! Three measures of choice flour! Knead it, make bread-cakes!

Genesis 18:7 Avraham ran to the oxen, he fetched a young ox, tender and fine, and gave it to a serving-lad, that he might hasten to make it ready;

Genesis 18:8 then he fetched cream and milk and the young ox that he had made ready, and placed it before them. Now he stood over against them under the tree while they ate.

Genesis 18:9 They said to him: Where is Sara your wife? He said: Here in the tent. Now he said:

Genesis 18:10 I will return, yes, return to you when time revives, and Sara your wife will have a son! Now Sara was listening at the entrance to the tent, which was behind him.

Genesis 18:11 And Avraham and Sara were old, advanced in days, the way of women had ceased for Sara.

Genesis 18:12 Sara laughed within herself, saying: After I have become worn, is there to be pleasure for me? And my lord is old!

Genesis 18:13 But YHVH said to Avraham: Now why does Sara laugh and say: Shall I really give birth, now that I am old?

Genesis 18:14 Is anything beyond YHVH? At that set-time I will return to you, when time revives, and Sara will have a son.

Genesis 18:15 Sara pretended (otherwise), saying: No, I did not laugh. For she was afraid. But he said: No, indeed you laughed.

Genesis 18:16 The men arose from there, and looked down upon the face of Sodom, and Avraham went with them to escort them.

Genesis 18:17 Now YHVH had said to himself: Shall I cover up from Avraham what I am about to do?

Genesis 18:18 For Avraham is to become, yes, become a nation great and mighty (in number), and all the nations of the earth will find blessing through him.

Genesis 18:19 Indeed, I have known him, in order that he may charge his sons and his household after him: they shall keep the way of YHVH, to do what is right and just, in order that YHVH may bring upon Avraham what he spoke concerning him.

Genesis 18:20 So YHVH said: The outcry in Sodom and Amora-how great it is! And their sin-how exceedingly heavily it weighs!

Genesis 18:21 Now let me go down and see: if they have done according to its cry that has come to me- destruction! And if not- I wish to know.

Genesis 18:22 The men turned from there and went toward Sedom, but Avraham still stood in the presence of YHVH.

Genesis 18:23 Avraham came close and said: Will you really sweep away the innocent along with the guilty?

Genesis 18:24 Perhaps there are fifty innocent within the city, will you really sweep it away? Will you not bear with the place because of the fifty innocent that are in its midst?

Genesis 18:25 Heaven forbid for you to do a thing like this, to deal death to the innocent along with the guilty, that it should come about: like the innocent, like the guilty, Heaven forbid for you! The judge of all the earth-will he not do what is just?

Genesis 18:26 YHVH said: If I find in Sedom fifty innocent within the city, I will bear with the whole place for their sake.

Genesis 18:27 Avraham spoke up, and said: Now pray, I have ventured to speak to my Lord, and I am but earth and ashes:

Genesis 18:28 Perhaps of the fifty innocent, five will be lacking- will you bring ruin upon the whole city because of the five? He said: I will not bring ruin, if I find there forty-five.

Genesis 18:29 But he continued to speak to him and said: Perhaps there will be found there only forty! He said: I will not do it, for the sake of the forty.

Genesis 18:30 But he said: Pray let not my Lord be upset that I speak further: Perhaps there will be found there only thirty! He said: I will not do it, if I find there thirty.

Genesis 18:31 But he said: Now pray, I have ventured to speak to my Lord: Perhaps there will be found there only twenty! He said: I will not bring ruin, for the sake of the twenty.

Genesis 18:32 But he said: Pray let my Lord not be upset that I speak further just this one time: Perhaps there will be found there only ten! He said: I will not bring ruin, for the sake of the ten.

Genesis 18:33 YHVH went, as soon as he had finished speaking to Avraham, and Avraham returned to his place.

Chapter 19

Genesis 19:1 The two messengers came to Sedom at sunset, as Lot was sitting at the gate of Sedom. When Lot saw them, he arose to meet them and bowed low, brow to the ground

Genesis 19:2 and said: Now pray, my lords, pray turn aside to your servant's house, spend the night, wash your feet; (starting-early) you may go on your way. They said: No, rather we will spend the night in the square.

Genesis 19:3 But he pressed them exceedingly hard, so they turned in to him and came into his house. He made them a meal-with-drink and baked flat-cakes, and they ate.

Genesis 19:4 They had not yet lain down, when the men of the city, the men of Sedom, encircled the house, from young lad to old man, all the people (even) from the outskirts.

Genesis 19:5 They called out to Lot and said to him: Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, we want to know them!

Genesis 19:6 Lot went out to them, to the entrance, shutting the door behind him

Genesis 19:7 and said: Pray, brothers, do not be so wicked!

Genesis 19:8 Now pray, I have two daughters who have never known a man, pray let me bring them out to you, and you may deal with them however seems good in your eyes; only to these men do nothing, for they have, after all, come under the shadow of my roof-beam!

Genesis 19:9 But they said: Step aside! and said: This one came to sojourn and (wants to) judge, play-the- judge?! Now we will do worse to you than (to) them! And they pressed exceedingly hard against the man, against Lot, and stepped closer to break down the door.

Genesis 19:10 But the men put out their hand and brought Lot in to them, into the house, and shut the door.

Genesis 19:11 And the men who were at the entrance to the house, they struck with dazzling-light-(all men) great and small, so that they were unable to find the entrance.

Genesis 19:12 The men said to Lot: Whom else have you here-a son-in-law, sons, daughters? Bring anyone whom you have in the city out of the place!

Genesis 19:13 For we are about to bring ruin on this place, for how great is their outcry before YHVH! And YHVH has sent us to bring it to ruin.

Genesis 19:14 Lot went out to speak to his sons-in-law, those who had taken his daughters (in marriage), and said: Up, out of this place, for YHVH is about to bring ruin on the city! But in the eyes of his sons- in-law, he was like one who jests.

Genesis 19:15 Now when the dawn came up, the messengers pushed Lot on, saying: Up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be swept away in the iniquity of the city!

Genesis 19:16 When he lingered, the men seized his hand, his wife's hand, and the hand of his two daughters -because YHVH'S pity was upon him- and, bringing him out, they left him outside the city.

Genesis 19:17 It was, when they had brought him outside, that (one of them) said: Escape for your life, do not gaze behind you, do not stand still anywhere in the plain: to the hill-country escape, lest you be swept away!

Genesis 19:18 Lot said to them: No, pray, my lord!

Genesis 19:19 Now pray, your servant has found favor in your eyes, you have shown great faithfulness in how you have dealt with me, keeping me alive- but I, I am not able to escape to the hill-country, lest the wickedness cling to me, and I die!

Genesis 19:20 Now pray, that town is near enough to flee to, and it is so tiny; pray let me escape there-is it not tiny?-and stay alive!

Genesis 19:21 He said to him: Here then, I lift up your face in this matter as well, by not overturning this town of which you speak.

Genesis 19:22 Make haste, escape there, for I am not able to do anything until you come there. Therefore the name of the town was called: Tzo'ar/Tiny.

Genesis 19:23 (Now) the sun was going out over the earth as Lot came to Tzo'ar.

Genesis 19:24 But YHVH rained down brimstone and fire upon Sodom and Amora, coming from YHVH, from the heavens, Genesis 19:25 he overturned those cities and all of the plain, all those settled in the cities and the vegetation of the soil.

Genesis 19:26 Now his wife gazed behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

Genesis 19:27 Avraham started-early in the morning to the place where he had stood in YHVH'S presence, Genesis 19:28 he looked down upon the face of Sodom and Amora and upon the whole face of the plain- country and saw: here, the dense-smoke of the land went up like the dense-smoke of a furnace!

Genesis 19:29 Thus it was, when God brought ruin on the cities of the plain, that God kept Avraham in mind and sent out Lot from the overturning, when he overturned the cities where Lot had settled.

Genesis 19:30 Lot went up from Tzo'ar and settled in the hill-country, his two daughters with him, for he was afraid to settle in Tzo'ar. So he settled in a cave, he and his two daughters.

Genesis 19:31 Now the firstborn said to the younger: Our father is old, and there is no man in the land to come in to us as befits the way of all the earth!

Genesis 19:32 Come, let us have our father drink wine and lie with him so that we may keep seed alive by our father.

Genesis 19:33 So they had their father drink wine that night, then the firstborn went in and lay with her father- but he knew nothing of her lying down or her rising up.

Genesis 19:34 It was on the morrow that the firstborn said to the younger: Here, yesternight I lay with father. Let us have him drink wine tonight as well, then you go in and lie with him, so that we may keep seed alive by our father.

Genesis 19:35 They had their father drink wine that night as well, then the younger arose and lay with him, but he knew nothing of her lying down or her rising up.

Genesis 19:36 And Lot's two daughters became pregnant by their father.

Genesis 19:37 The firstborn bore a son and called his name: Mo'av/By Father, he is the tribal-father of Mo'av of today.

Genesis 19:38 The younger also bore a son, and called his name: Ben-ammi/Son of My Kinspeople, he is the tribal-father of the children of Ammon of today.

Chapter 20

Genesis 20:1 Avraham traveled from there to the Negev, and settled between Kadesh and Shur, sojourning in Gerar.

Genesis 20:2 Avraham said of Sara his wife: She is my sister. So Avimelekh king of Gerar sent and had Sara taken.

Genesis 20:3 But God came to Avimelekh in a dream of the night and said to him: Here, you must die because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a wedded wife!

Genesis 20:4 Avimelekh had not come near her. He said: My Lord, Would you kill a nation, though it be innocent?

Genesis 20:5 Did he not say to me: She is my sister, and also she, she said: He is my brother! With a whole heart and with clean hands have I done this.

Genesis 20:6 God said to him in the dream: I also know that it was with a whole heart that you did this, and so I also held you back from being at fault against me, therefore I did not let you touch her.

Genesis 20:7 But now, return the man's wife -indeed, he is a prophet, he can intercede for you- and live! But if you do not return her: know that you must die, yes, die, you and all that is yours!

Genesis 20:8 Early in the morning Avimelekh called all his servants, he spoke all these words in their ears, and the men became exceedingly afraid.

Genesis 20:9 Then Avimelekh had Avraham called and said to him: What have you done to us? In what did I fail you, that you have brought me and my kingdom into such great fault? Deeds which are not to be done, you have done to me!

Genesis 20:10 And Avimelekh said to Avraham: What did you foresee, that you did this thing?

Genesis 20:11 Avraham said: Indeed, I said to myself: Surely there is no awe of God in this place, they will kill me on account of my wife!

Genesis 20:12 Then, too, she is truly my sister, my father's daughter, however not my mother's daughter-so she became my wife.

Genesis 20:13 Now it was, when the Power-of-god caused me to roam from my father's house, that I said to her: Let this be the faithfulness that you do me: in every place that we come, say of me: He is my brother.

Genesis 20:14 Avimelekh took sheep and oxen, servants and maids, and gave them to Avraham, and returned Sara his wife to him.

Genesis 20:15 Avimelekh said: Here, my land is before you, settle wherever seems good in your eyes.

Genesis 20:16 And to Sara he said: Here, I have given a thousand pieces of silver to your brother, here, it shall serve you as a covering for the eyes for all who are with you and with everyone, that you have been decided for.

Genesis 20:17 Avraham interceded with God and God healed Avimelekh: his wife and his slave-women, so that they gave birth.

Genesis 20:18 For YHVH had obstructed, obstructed every womb in Avimelekh's household on account of Sara, the wife of Avraham.

Chapter 21

Genesis 21:1 Now YHVH took account of Sara as he had said, YHVH dealt with Sara as he had spoken.

Genesis 21:2 Sara became pregnant and bore Avraham a son in his old age, at the set-time of which God had spoken to him.

Genesis 21:3 And Avraham called the name of his son, who was born to him, whom Sara bore to him:

Yitzhak/He Laughs.

Genesis 21:4 And Avraham circumcised Yitzhak his son at eight days old, as God had commanded him.

Genesis 21:5 Avraham was a hundred years old when Yitzhak his son was born to him.

Genesis 21:6 Now Sara said: God has made laughter for me, all who hear of it will laugh for me.

Genesis 21:7 And she said: Who would have declared to Avraham: Sara will nurse sons? Well, I have borne him a son in his old age!

Genesis 21:8 The child grew and was weaned, and Avraham made a great drinking-feast on the day that Yitzhak was weaned.

Genesis 21:9 Once Sara saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian-woman, whom she had borne to Avraham, laughing. . . .

Genesis 21:10 She said to Avraham: Drive out this slave-woman and her son, for the son of this slave- woman shall not share-inheritance with my son, with Yitzhak!

Genesis 21:11 The matter was exceedingly bad in Avraham's eyes because of his son.

Genesis 21:12 But God said to Avraham: Do not let it be bad in your eyes concerning the lad and concerning your slave-woman; in all that Sara says to you, hearken to her voice, for it is through Yitzhak that seed will be called by your (name).

Genesis 21:13 But also the son of the slave-woman-a nation will I make of him, for he too is your seed.

Genesis 21:14 Avraham started-early in the morning, he took some bread and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar-placing them upon her shoulder- together with the child and sent her away. She went off and roamed in the wilderness of Be'er-sheva.

Genesis 21:15 Now when the water in the skin was at an end, she threw the child under one of the bushes,

Genesis 21:16 and went and sat by herself, at-a-distance, as far away as a bowshot, for she said to herself:

Let me not see the child die! So she sat at-a-distance, and lifted up her voice and wept.

Genesis 21:17 But God heard the voice of the lad, God's messenger called to Hagar from heaven and said to her: What ails you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the lad there where he is.

Genesis 21:18 Arise, lift up the lad and grasp him with your hand, for a great nation will I make of him!

Genesis 21:19 God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; she went, filled the skin with water, and gave the lad to drink.

Genesis 21:20 And God was with the lad as he grew up, he settled in the wilderness, and became an archer, a bowman.

Genesis 21:21 He settled in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took him a wife from the land of Egypt.

Genesis 21:22 It was at about that time that Avimelekh, together with Pikhol the commander of his army, said to Avraham: God is with you in all that you do.

Genesis 21:23 So now, swear to me here by God: If you should ever deal falsely with me, with my progeny and my posterity . . . ! Rather, faithfully, as I have dealt with you, deal with me, and with the land in which you have sojourned.

Genesis 21:24 Avraham said: I so swear.

Genesis 21:25 But Avraham rebuked Avimelekh because of a well of water that Avimelekh's servants had seized.

Genesis 21:26 Avimelekh said: I do not know who did this thing, nor have you ever told me, nor have I heard of it apart from today.

Genesis 21:27 So Avraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Avimelekh, and the two of them cut a covenant.

Genesis 21:28 Then Avraham set seven ewe-lambs of the flock aside.

Genesis 21:29 Avimelekh said to Avraham: What mean these seven ewe-lambs that you have set aside?
Genesis 21:30 He said: Indeed, these seven ewe-lambs you should take from my hand, so that they may be a witness for me that I dug this well.
Genesis 21:31 Therefore that place was called Be'er-sheva/Well of the Seven-swearing, for there the two of them swore (an oath).
Genesis 21:32 Thus they cut a covenant in Be'er-sheva. Then Avimelekh and Pikhoh the commander of his army arose and returned to the land of the Philistines.
Genesis 21:33 Now he planted a tamarisk in Be'er-sheva and there he called out the name: YHVH God of the Ages.
Genesis 21:34 And Avraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines for many days.

Chapter 22

Genesis 22:1 Now after these events it was that God tested Avraham and said to him: Avraham! He said: Here I am.
Genesis 22:2 He said: Pray take your son, your only-one, whom you love, Yitzhak, and go-you-forth to the land of Moriyah/Seeing, and offer him up there as an offering-up upon one of the mountains that I will tell you of.
Genesis 22:3 Avraham started-early in the morning, he saddled his donkey, he took his two serving-lads with him and Yitzhak his son, he split wood for the offering-up and arose and went to the place that God had told him of.
Genesis 22:4 On the third day Avraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from afar.
Genesis 22:5 Avraham said to his lads: You stay here with the donkey, and I and the lad wish to go yonder, we wish to bow down and then return to you.
Genesis 22:6 Avraham took the wood for the offering-up, he placed them upon Yitzhak his son, in his hand he took the fire and the knife. Thus the two of them went together.
Genesis 22:7 Yitzhak said to Avraham his father, he said: Father! He said: Here I am, my son. He said: Here are the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the offering-up?
Genesis 22:8 Avraham said: God will see-for-himself to the lamb for the offering-up, my son. Thus the two of them went together.
Genesis 22:9 They came to the place that God had told him of; there Avraham built the slaughter-site and arranged the wood and bound Yitzhak his son and placed him on the slaughter-site atop the wood.
Genesis 22:10 And Avraham stretched out his hand, he took the knife to slay his son.
Genesis 22:11 But YHVH's messenger called to him from heaven and said: Avraham! Avraham! He said: Here I am.
Genesis 22:12 He said: Do not stretch out your hand against the lad, do not do anything to him! For now I know that you are in awe of God- you have not withheld your son, your only-one, from me.
Genesis 22:13 Avraham lifted up his eyes and saw: here, a ram was caught behind in the thicket by its horns! Avraham went, he took the ram and offered it up as an offering-up in place of his son.
Genesis 22:14 Avraham called the name of that place: YHVH Sees. As the saying is today: On YHVH'S mountain (it) is seen.
Genesis 22:15 Now YHVH'S messenger called to Avraham a second time from heaven
Genesis 22:16 and said: By myself I swear -YHVH'S utterance- indeed, because you have done this thing, have not withheld your son, your only-one,
Genesis 22:17 indeed, I will bless you, bless you, I will make your seed many, yes, many, like the stars of the heavens and like the sand that is on the shore of the sea; your seed shall inherit the gate of their enemies,
Genesis 22:18 all the nations of the earth shall enjoy blessing through your seed, in consequence of your hearkening to my voice.
Genesis 22:19 Avraham returned to his lads, they arose and went together to Be'er-sheva. And Avraham stayed in Be'er-sheva.
Genesis 22:20 Now after these events it was, that it was told to Avraham, saying: Here, Milca too has borne, sons to Nahor your brother:
Genesis 22:21 Utz his firstborn and Buz his brother, Kemuel father of Genesis 22:22 Aram, /and Cesed, Hazo, Pildash, Yidlaf, and Betuel.
Genesis 22:23 Now Betuel begot Rivka.- These eight Milca bore to Nahor, Avraham's brother.
Genesis 22:24 And his concubine-her name was Re'uma-bore too: Tevah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maakha.
Chapter 23
Genesis 23:1 Now Sara's life was one hundred years and twenty years and seven years, (thus) the years of Sara's life.

Page 23 of 245

Genesis 23:2 Sara died in Arba-town, that is now Hebron, in the land of Canaan. Avraham set about to lament for Sara and to weep over her;
Genesis 23:3 then Avraham arose from the presence of his dead and spoke to the Sons of Het, saying:
Genesis 23:4 I am a sojourner settled among you; give me title to a burial holding among you, so that I may bury my dead from my presence.

Genesis 23:5 The Sons of Het answered Avraham, saying to him:

Genesis 23:6 Hear us, my lord! You are one exalted by God in our midst- in the choicest of our burial-sites you may bury your dead, no man among us will deny you his burial-site for burying your dead!

Genesis 23:7 Avraham arose, he bowed low to the People of the Land, to the Sons of Het,

Genesis 23:8 and spoke with them, saying: If it be then according to your wish that I bury my dead from my presence, hear me and interpose for me to Efron son of Tzohar,

Genesis 23:9 that he may give me title to the cave of Makhpela, that is his, that is at the edge of his field, for the full silver-worth let him give me title in your midst for a burial holding.

Genesis 23:10 Now Efron had a seat amidst the Sons of Het, and Efron the Hittite answered Avraham in the ears of the Sons of Het, of all who had entry to the council-gate of his city, saying:

Genesis 23:11 Not so, my lord, hear me! The field I give to you, and the cave that is therein, to you I give it; before the eyes of the Sons of My People I give it to you- bury your dead!

Genesis 23:12 Avraham bowed before the People of the Land

Genesis 23:13 and spoke to Efron in the ears of the People of the Land, saying: But if you yourself would only hear me out! I will give the silver-payment for the field, accept it from me, so that I may bury my dead there.

Genesis 23:14 Efron answered Avraham, saying to him:

Genesis 23:15 My lord-hear me! A piece of land worth four hundred silver weight, what is that between me and you! You may bury your dead!

Genesis 23:16 Avraham hearkened to Efron: Avraham weighed out to Efron the silver-worth of which he had spoken in the ears of the Sons of Het- four hundred silver weight at the going merchants' rate.

Genesis 23:17 Thus was established the field of Efron, that is in Makhpela, that faces Mamre, the field as well as the cave that is in it, and the trees that were in all the field, that were in all their territory round about,

Genesis 23:18 for Avraham as an acquisition, before the eyes of the Sons of Het, of all who had entry to the council-gate of his city.

Genesis 23:19 Afterward Avraham buried Sara his wife in the cave of the field of Makhpela, facing Mamre, that is now Hebron, in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 23:20 Thus was established the field as well as the cave that is in it for Avraham as a burial holding, from the Sons of Het.

Chapter 24

Genesis 24:1 Now Avraham was old, advanced in days, and YHVH had blessed Avraham in everything.

Genesis 24:2 Avraham said to his servant, the elder of his household, who ruled over all that was his: Pray put your hand under my thigh!

Genesis 24:3 I want you to swear by YHVH, the God of Heaven and the God of Earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the women of the Canaanites, among whom I am settled;

Genesis 24:4 rather, you are to go to my land and to my kindred, and take a wife for my son, for Yitzhak.

Genesis 24:5 The servant said to him: Perhaps the woman will not be willing to go after me to this land; may I then bring your son back there, back to the land from which you once went out?

Genesis 24:6 Avraham said to him: Watch out that you do not ever bring my son back there!

Genesis 24:7 YHVH, the God of Heaven, who took me from my father's house and from my kindred, who spoke to me, who swore to me, saying: I give this land to your seed- he himself will send his messenger on before you, so that you take a wife for my son from there.

Page 24 of 245

Genesis 24:8 Now if the woman is not willing to go after you, you will be clear from this sworn-oath of mine, only: You are not to bring my son back there!

Genesis 24:9 The servant put his hand under the thigh of Avraham his lord, and swore to him (an oath) about this matter.

Genesis 24:10 The servant took ten camels from his lord's camels and went, all kinds of good-things from his lord in his hand. He arose and went to Aram Of-Two-Rivers, to Nahor's town.

Genesis 24:11 He had the camels kneel outside the town at the water well at setting time, at the time when the water-drawers go out, Genesis 24:12 and said: YHVH, God of my lord Avraham, pray let it happen today for me, and deal faithfully with my lord Avraham!

Genesis 24:13 Here, I have stationed myself by the water spring as the women of the town go out to draw water.

Genesis 24:14 May it be that the maiden to whom I say: Pray lower your pitcher that I may drink, and she says: Drink, and I will also give your camels to drink- let her be the one that you have decided on for your servant, for Yitzhak, by means of her may I know that you have dealt faithfully with my lord.

Genesis 24:15 And it was: Not yet had he finished speaking, when here, Rivka came out, -she had been born to Betuel, son of Milca, wife of Nahor, brother of Avraham- her pitcher on her shoulder.

Genesis 24:16 The maiden was exceedingly beautiful to look at, a virgin-no man had known her. Going down to the spring, she filled her pitcher and came up again.

Genesis 24:17 The servant ran to meet her and said: Pray let me sip a little water from your pitcher!

Genesis 24:18 She said: Drink, my lord! And in haste she let down her pitcher on her arm and gave him to drink.

Genesis 24:19 When she had finished giving him to drink, she said: I will also draw for your camels, until they have finished drinking.

Genesis 24:20 In haste she emptied her pitcher into the drinking-trough, then she ran to the well again to draw, and drew for all his camels.

Genesis 24:21 The man kept staring at her, (waiting) silently to find out whether YHVH had granted success to his journey or not.

Genesis 24:22 It was, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a gold nose-ring, a half-coin in weight, and two bracelets for her wrists, ten gold-pieces in weight, Genesis 24:23 and said: Whose daughter are you? Pray tell me! And is there perhaps in your father's house a place for us to spend the night?

Genesis 24:24 She said to him: I am the daughter of Betuel, son of Milca, whom she bore to Nahor.

Genesis 24:25 And she said to him: Yes, there is straw, yes, plenty of fodder with us, (and) yes, a place to spend the night.

Genesis 24:26 In homage the man bowed low before YHVH

Genesis 24:27 and said: Blessed be YHVH, God of my lord Avraham, who has not relinquished his faithfulness and his trustworthiness from my lord! While as for me, YHVH has led me on the journey to the house of my lord's brothers!

Genesis 24:28 The maiden ran and told her mother's household according to these words.

Genesis 24:29 Now Rivka had a brother, his name was Lavan. Lavan ran to the man, outside, to the spring:

Genesis 24:30 and it was, as soon as he saw the nose-ring, and the bracelets on his sister's wrists, and as soon as he heard Rivka his sister's words, saying: Thus the man spoke to me, that he came out to the man-there, he was still standing by the camels, by the spring- Genesis 24:31 and said: Come, you who are blessed by YHVH, why are you standing outside? I myself have cleared out the house and a place for the camels!

Genesis 24:32 The man came into the house and unbridled the camels, they gave straw and fodder to the camels and water for washing his feet and the feet of the men that were with him.

Genesis 24:33 (Food) was put before him to eat, but he said: I will not eat until I have spoken my words. He said: Speak!

Genesis 24:34 He said: I am Avraham's servant.

Genesis 24:35 YHVH has blessed my lord exceedingly, so that he has become great, he has given him sheep and oxen, silver and gold, servants and maids, camels and donkeys.

Genesis 24:36 Sara, my lord's wife, bore my lord a son after she had grown old, and he has given him all that is his.

Genesis 24:37 Now my lord had me swear, saying: You are not to take a wife for my son from the women of the Canaanites, in whose land I am settled!

Genesis 24:38 No! To my father's house you are to go, to my clan, and take a wife for my son.

Genesis 24:39 I said to my lord: Perhaps the woman will not go after me!

Genesis 24:40 He said to me: YHVH, in whose presence I have walked, will send his messenger with you, he will grant success to your journey, so that you take a wife for my son from my clan and from my father's house.

Genesis 24:41 Only then will you be clear from my oath-curse: When you come to my clan, if they do not give her to you, you will be clear from my oath-curse.

Genesis 24:42 Now I came to the well today and said: YHVH, God of my lord Avraham, pray, if you wish to grant success to the journey on which I am going,

Genesis 24:43 here: I have stationed myself by the water spring; may it be that the girl who comes out to draw, to whom I say: Pray give me a little water from your pitcher to drink,

Genesis 24:44 and she says to me: You drink, and I will also draw for your camels- let her be the woman whom YHVH has decided on for the son of my lord.

Genesis 24:45 (And) I, even before I had finished speaking in my heart, here, Rivka came out, her pitcher on her shoulder, she went down to the spring and drew. I said to her: Pray give me to drink!

Genesis 24:46 In haste she let down her pitcher from herself and said: Drink, and I will also give your camels to drink. I drank, and she also gave the camels to drink.

Genesis 24:47 Then I asked her, I said: Whose daughter are you? She said: The daughter of Betuel, son of Nahor, whom Milca bore to him. I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists, Genesis 24:48 and in homage I bowed low before YHVH, and blessed YHVH, God of my lord Avraham, who led me on the true journey to take the daughter of my lord's brother for his son.

Genesis 24:49 So now, if you wish to deal faithfully and truly with my lord, tell me, and if not, tell me, that I may (know to) turn right or left.

Genesis 24:50 Lavan and Betuel answered, they said: The matter has come from YHVH; we cannot speak anything to you evil or good.

Genesis 24:51 Here is Rivka before you, take her and go, that she may be a wife for the son of your lord, as YHVH has spoken.

Genesis 24:52 It was when Avraham's servant heard their words, that he bowed to the ground before YHVH.

Genesis 24:53 And the servant brought out objects of silver and objects of gold and garments, and gave them to Rivka, and he gave presents to her brother and to her mother.

Genesis 24:54 They ate and drank, he and the men that were with him, and spent the night. When they arose at daybreak, he said: Send me off to my lord.

Genesis 24:55 But her brother and her mother said: Let the maiden stay with us a few days, perhaps ten-after that she may go.

Genesis 24:56 He said to them: Do not delay me, for YHVH has granted success to my journey; send me off, that I may go back to my lord.

Genesis 24:57 They said: Let us call the maiden and ask (for an answer from) her own mouth.

Genesis 24:58 They called Rivka and said to her: Will you go with this man? She said: I will go.

Genesis 24:59 They sent off Rivka their sister with her nurse, and Avraham's servant with his men,

Genesis 24:60 and they gave Rivka farewell-blessing and said to her: Our sister, may you become thousandfold myriads! May your seed inherit the gate of those who hate him!

Genesis 24:61 Rivka and her maids arose, they mounted the camels and went after the man. The servant took Rivka and went away.

Genesis 24:62 Now Yitzhak had come from where you come to the Well of the Living-one Who-Sees-Me- for he had settled in the Negev.

Genesis 24:63 And Yitzhak went out to stroll in the field around the turning of sunset. He lifted up his eyes and saw: here, camels coming!

Genesis 24:64 Rivka lifted up her eyes and saw Yitzhak;

Genesis 24:65 she got down from the camel and said to the servant: Who is the man over there that is walking in the field to meet us? The servant said: That is my lord. She took a veil and covered herself.

Genesis 24:66 Now the servant recounted to Yitzhak all the things that he had done.

Genesis 24:67 Yitzhak brought her into the tent of Sara his mother, he took Rivka and she became his wife, and he loved her. Thus was Yitzhak comforted after his mother.

Chapter 25

Genesis 25:1 Now Avraham had taken another wife, her name was Keturah.

Genesis 25:2 She bore him Zimran and Yokshan, Medan and Midyan, Yishbak and Shuah.

Genesis 25:3 Yokshan begot Sheva and Dedan, Dedan's sons were the Ashurites, the Letushites, and the Leummities.

Genesis 25:4 Midyan's sons (were) Efa, Efer, Hanokh, Avida, and Eldaa. All these (were) Keturah's sons.

Genesis 25:5 But Avraham gave over all that was his to Yitzhak.

Genesis 25:6 And to the sons of the concubines that Avraham had, Avraham gave gifts, and he sent them away from Yitzhak his son while he was still alive, eastward, to the Eastland.

Genesis 25:7 Now these are the days and years of the life of Avraham, which he lived:

Genesis 25:8 A hundred years and seventy years and five years, then he expired. Avraham died at a good ripe-age, old and satisfied (in days), and was gathered to his kinspeople.

Genesis 25:9 Yitzhak and Yishmael his sons buried him, in the cave of Makhpela, in the field of Efron son of Tzohar the Hittite, that faces Mamre, Genesis 25:10 the field that Avraham had acquired from the Sons of Het. There were buried Avraham and Sara his wife.

Genesis 25:11 Now it was after Avraham's death, that God blessed Yitzhak his son. And Yitzhak settled by the Well of the Living-one Who-Sees-Me.

Genesis 25:12 Now these are the begettings of Yishmael son of Avraham, whom Hagar the Egyptian- woman, Sara's maid, bore to Avraham.

Genesis 25:13 And these are the names of the sons of Yishmael, by their names after (the order of) their begettings:

Genesis 25:14 Yishmael's firstborn, Nevayot; and Kedar, Adbe'el, Mivsam, Mishma, Duma, Massa, Genesis 25:15 Hadad and Teima, Yetur, Nafish and Kedma.

Genesis 25:16 These are the sons of Yishmael, these their names, in their villages and in their corrals, twelve leaders for their tribes.

Genesis 25:17 And these are the years of the life of Yishmael: a hundred years and thirty years and seven years, then he expired. He died and was gathered to his kinspeople.

Genesis 25:18 Now they dwelt from Havila to Shur, which faces Egypt, back to where you come toward Assyria; in the presence of all his brothers did (his inheritance) fall.

Genesis 25:19 Now these are the begettings of Yitzhak, son of Avraham. Avraham begot Yitzhak.

Genesis 25:20 Yitzhak was forty years old when he took Rivka daughter of Betuel the Aramean, from the country of Aram, sister of Lavan the Aramean, for himself as a wife.

Genesis 25:21 Yitzhak entreated YHVH on behalf of his wife, for she was barren, and YHVH granted-his- entreaty: Rivka his wife became pregnant.

Genesis 25:22 But the children almost crushed one another inside her, so she said: If this be so, why do I exist? And she went to inquire of YHVH.

Genesis 25:23 YHVH said to her: Two nations are in your body, two tribes from your belly shall be divided; tribe shall be mightier than tribe, elder shall be servant to younger!

Genesis 25:24 When her days were fulfilled for bearing, here: twins were in her body!

Genesis 25:25 The first one came out ruddy, like a hairy mantle all over, so they called his name: Esav/Rough-one.

Genesis 25:26 After that his brother came out, his hand grasping Esav's heel, so they called his name: Yaakov/Heel-holder. Yitzhak was sixty years old when she bore them.

Genesis 25:27 The lads grew up: Esav became a man who knew the hunt, a man of the field, but Yaakov was a plain man, staying among the tents.

Genesis 25:28 Yitzhak grew to love Esav, for (he brought) hunted-game for his mouth, but Rivka loved Yaakov.

Genesis 25:29 Once Yaakov was boiling boiled-stew, when Esav came in from the field, and he was weary.

Genesis 25:30 Esav said to Yaakov: Pray give me a gulp of the red-stuff, that red-stuff, for I am so weary! Therefore they called his name: Edom/Red-one.

Genesis 25:31 Yaakov said: Sell me your firstborn-right here-and-now.

Genesis 25:32 Esav said: Here, I am on my way to dying, so what good to me is a firstborn-right?

Genesis 25:33 Yaakov said: Swear to me here-and-now. He swore to him and sold his firstborn-right to Yaakov.

Genesis 25:34 Yaakov gave Esav bread and boiled lentils; he ate and drank and arose and went off. Thus did Esav despise the firstborn-right.

Chapter 26

Genesis 26:1 Now there was a famine in the land, aside from the former famine which there had been in the days of Avraham, so Yitzhak went to Avimelekh, king of the Philistines, to Gerar.

Genesis 26:2 And YHVH was seen by him and said: Do not go down to Egypt; continue to dwell in the land that I tell you of,

Genesis 26:3 sojourn in this land, and I will be with you and will give you blessing- for to you and to your seed I give all these lands and will fulfill the sworn-oath that I swore to Avraham your father:

Genesis 26:4 I will make your seed many, like the stars of the heavens, and to your seed I will give all these lands; all the nations of the earth shall enjoy blessing through your seed- Genesis 26:5 in consequence of Avraham's hearkening to my voice and keeping my charge: my commandments, my laws, and my instructions.

Genesis 26:6 So Yitzhak stayed in Gerar.

Genesis 26:7 Now when the men of the place asked about his wife, he said: She is my sister, for he was afraid to say: my wife- (thinking): Otherwise the people of the place will kill me on account of Rivka, for she is beautiful to look at.

Genesis 26:8 But it was, when he had been there a long time, that Avimelekh, king of the Philistines, looked out through a window and saw: there was Yitzhak laughing-and-loving with Rivka his wife!

Genesis 26:9 Avimelekh had Yitzhak called and said: But here, she must be your wife! Now how could you say: She is my sister? Yitzhak said to him: Indeed, I said to myself: Otherwise I will die on account of her!

Genesis 26:10 Avimelekh said: What is this that you have done to us! One of the people might well have lain with your wife, and then you would have brought guilt upon us!

Genesis 26:11 Avimelekh commanded the entire people, saying: Whoever touches this man or his wife must be put to death, yes, death!

Genesis 26:12 Yitzhak sowed in that land, and reaped in that year a hundred measures; thus did YHVH bless him.

Page 28 of 245

Genesis 26:13 The man became great, and went on, went on becoming greater, until he was exceedingly great:

Genesis 26:14 he had herds of sheep and herds of oxen and a large retinue-of-servants, and the Philistines envied him.

Genesis 26:15 And all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Avraham his father, the Philistines stopped up and filled with earth.

Genesis 26:16 Avimelekh said to Yitzhak: Go away from us, for you have become exceedingly more mighty (in number) than we!

Genesis 26:17 So Yitzhak went from there, he encamped in the wadi of Gerar and settled there.

Genesis 26:18 Yitzhak again dug up the wells of water which had been dug in the days of Avraham his father, the Philistines having stopped them up after Avraham's death, and he called them by the names, the same names, by which his father had called them.

Genesis 26:19 Yitzhak's servants also dug in the wadi, and found there a well of living water.

Genesis 26:20 Now the shepherds of Gerar quarreled with the shepherds of Yitzhak, saying: The water is ours! So he called the name of the well: Esek/Bickering, because they had bickered with him.

Genesis 26:21 They dug another well, and quarreled also over it, so he called its name: Sitna/Animosity.

Genesis 26:22 He moved on from there and dug another well, but they did not quarrel over it, so he called its name: Rehovot/Space, and said: Indeed, now YHVH has made space for us, so that we may bear fruit in the land!

Genesis 26:23 He went up from there to Be'er-sheva.

Genesis 26:24 Now YHVH was seen by him on that night and said: I am the God of Avraham your father. Do not be afraid, for I am with you, I will bless you and will make your seed many, for the sake of Avraham my servant.

Genesis 26:25 He built a slaughter-site there and called out the name of YHVH. He spread his tent there, and Yitzhak's servants excavated a well there.

Genesis 26:26 Now Avimelekh went to him from Gerar, along with Ahuzzat his aide and Pikhoh the commander of his army.

Genesis 26:27 Yitzhak said to them: Why have you come to me? For you hate me and have sent me away from you!

Genesis 26:28 They said: We have seen, yes, seen that YHVH has been with you, so we say: Pray let there be an oath-curse between us, between us and you, we want to cut a covenant with you:

Genesis 26:29 If ever you should deal badly with us . . . ! Just as we have not harmed you and just as we have only dealt well with you and have sent you away in peace- you are now blessed by YHVH!

Genesis 26:30 He made them a drinking-feast, and they ate and drank.

Genesis 26:31 Early in the morning they swore (an oath) to one another; then Yitzhak sent them off, and they went from him in peace.

Genesis 26:32 Now it was on that same day that Yitzhak's servants came and told him about the well that they had been digging, they said to him: We have found water!

Genesis 26:33 So he called it: Shiv'a/Swearing-seven; therefore the name of the city is Be'er-sheva until this day.

Genesis 26:34 When Esav was forty years old, he took to wife Yehudit daughter of B'eri the Hittite and Ba'semat daughter of Elon the Hittite.

Genesis 26:35 And they were a bitterness of spirit to Yitzhak and Rivka.

Chapter 27

Genesis 27:1 Now when Yitzhak was old and his eyes had become too dim for seeing, he called Esav, his elder son, and said to him: My son! He said to him: Here I am.

Genesis 27:2 He said: Now here, I have grown old, and do not know the day of my death.

Genesis 27:3 So now, pray pick up your weapons-your hanging-quiver and your bow, go out into the field and hunt me down some hunted-game,

Genesis 27:4 and make me a delicacy, such as I love; bring it to me, and I will eat it, that I may give you my own blessing before I die.

Genesis 27:5 Now Rivka was listening as Yitzhak spoke to Esav his son, and so when Esav went off into the fields to hunt down hunted-game to bring (to him),

Genesis 27:6 Rivka said to Yaakov her son, saying: Here, I was listening as your father spoke to Esav your brother, saying:

Genesis 27:7 Bring me some hunted-game and make me a delicacy, I will eat it and give you blessing before YHVH, before my death.

Genesis 27:8 So now, my son, listen to my voice, to what I command you:

Genesis 27:9 Pray go to the flock and take me two fine goat kids from there, I will make them into a delicacy for your father, such as he loves;

Genesis 27:10 you bring it to your father, and he will eat, so that he may give you blessing before his death.

Genesis 27:11 Yaakov said to Rivka his mother: Here, Esav my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man, Genesis 27:12 perhaps my father will feel me-then I will be like a trickster in his eyes, and I will bring a curse and not a blessing on myself!

Genesis 27:13 His mother said to him: Let your curse be on me, my son! Only: listen to my voice and go, take them for me.

Genesis 27:14 He went and took and brought them to his mother, and his mother made a delicacy, such as his father loved.

Genesis 27:15 Rivka then took the garments of Esav, her elder son, the choicest ones that were with her in the house, Genesis 27:16 and clothed Yaakov, her younger son; and with the skins of the goat kids, she clothed his hands and the smooth-parts of his neck.

Genesis 27:17 Then she placed the delicacy and the bread that she had made in the hand of Yaakov her son.

Genesis 27:18 He came to his father and said: Father! He said: Here I am. Which one are you, my son?

Genesis 27:19 Yaakov said to his father: I am Esav, your firstborn. I have done as you spoke to me: Pray arise, sit and eat from my hunted-game, that you may give me your own blessing.

Genesis 27:20 Yitzhak said to his son: How did you find it so hastily, my son? He said: Indeed, YHVH your God made it happen for me.

Genesis 27:21 Yitzhak said to Yaakov: Pray come closer, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esav or not.

Genesis 27:22 Yaakov moved closer to Yitzhak his father. He felt him and said: The voice is Yaakov's voice, the hands are Esav's hands- Genesis 27:23 but he did not recognize him, for his hands were like the hands of Esav his brother, hairy.

Now he was about to bless him,

Genesis 27:24 when he said: Are you he, my son Esav? He said: I am.

Genesis 27:25 So he said: Bring it close to me, and I will eat from the hunted-game of my son, in order that I may give you my own blessing. He put it close to him and he ate, he brought him wine and he drank.

Genesis 27:26 Then Yitzhak his father said to him: Pray come close and kiss me, my son.

Genesis 27:27 He came close and kissed him. Now he smelled the smell of his garments and blessed him and said: See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that YHVH has blessed.

Genesis 27:28 So may God give you from the dew of the heavens, from the fat of the earth, (along with) much grain and new-wine!

Genesis 27:29 May peoples serve you, may tribes bow down to you; be master to your brothers, may your mother's sons bow down to you! Those who damn you, damned! Those who bless you, blessed!

Genesis 27:30 Now it was, when Yitzhak had finished blessing Yaakov, yes it was-Yaakov had just gone out, out from the presence of Yitzhak his father- that Esav his brother came back from his hunting.

Page 30 of 245

Genesis 27:31 He too made a delicacy and brought it to his father. He said to his father: Let my father arise and eat from the hunted-game of his son, that you may give me your own blessing.

Genesis 27:32 Yitzhak his father said to him: Which one are you? He said: I am your son, your firstborn, Esav.

Genesis 27:33 Yitzhak trembled with very great trembling and said: Who then was he that hunted down hunted-game and brought it to me-I ate it all before you came and I gave him my blessing! Now blessed he must remain!

Genesis 27:34 When Esav heard the words of his father, he cried out with a very great and bitter cry, and said to his father: Bless me, me also, father!

Genesis 27:35 He said: Your brother came with deceit and took away your blessing.

Genesis 27:36 He said: Is that why his name was called Yaakov/Heel-sneak? For he has now sneaked against me twice: My firstborn-right he took, and now he has taken my blessing! And he said: Haven't you reserved a blessing for me?

Genesis 27:37 Yitzhak answered, saying to Esav: Here, I have made him master to you, and all his brothers I have given him as servants, with grain and new-wine I have invested him- so for you, what then can I do, my son?

Genesis 27:38 Esav said to his father: Have you only a single blessing, father? Bless me, me also, father! And Esav lifted up his voice and wept.

Genesis 27:39 Then Yitzhak his father answered, saying to him: Behold, from the fat of the earth must be your dwelling-place, from the dew of the heavens above.

Genesis 27:40 You will live by your sword, you will serve your brother. But it will be that when you brandish it, you will tear his yoke from your neck.

Genesis 27:41 Now Esav held a grudge against Yaakov because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him. Esav said in his heart: Let the days of mourning for my father draw near and then I will kill Yaakov my brother!

Genesis 27:42 Rivka was told of the words of Esav, her elder son. She sent and called for Yaakov, her younger son, and said to him: Here, Esav your brother is consoling himself about you, with (the thought of) killing you.

Genesis 27:43 So now, my son, listen to my voice: Arise and flee to Lavan my brother in Harran,

Genesis 27:44 and stay with him for some days, until your brother's fury has turned away,

Genesis 27:45 until his anger turns away from you and he forgets what you did to him. Then I will send and have you taken from there- for should I be bereaved of you both in a single day?

Genesis 27:46 So Rivka said to Yitzhak: I loathe my life because of those Hittite women; if Yaakov should take a wife from the Hittite women-like these, from the women of the land, why should I have life?

Chapter 28

Genesis 28:1 So Yitzhak called for Yaakov, he blessed him and commanded him, saying to him: You are not to take a wife from the women of Canaan;

Genesis 28:2 arise, go to the country of Aram, to the house of Betuel, your mother's father, and take yourself a wife from there, from the daughters of Lavan, your mother's brother.

Genesis 28:3 May God Shaddai bless you, may he make you bear fruit and make you many, so that you become a host of peoples.

Genesis 28:4 And may he give you the blessing of Avraham, to you and to your seed with you, for you to inherit the land of your sojournings, which God gave to Avraham.

Genesis 28:5 So Yitzhak sent Yaakov off; he went to the country of Aram, to Lavan son of Betuel the Aramean, the brother of Rivka, the mother of Yaakov and Esav.

Genesis 28:6 Now Esav saw that Yitzhak had given Yaakov farewell-blessing and had sent him to the country of Aram, to take himself a wife from there, (and that) when he had given him blessing, he had commanded him, saying: You are not to take a wife from the women of Canaan!

Genesis 28:7 And Yaakov had listened to his father and his mother and had gone to the country of Aram.

Genesis 28:8 And Esav saw that the women of Canaan were bad in the eyes of Yitzhak his father, Genesis 28:9 so Esav went to Yishmael and took Mahalat daughter of Yishmael son of Avraham, sister of Nevayot, in addition to his wives as a wife.

Genesis 28:10 Yaakov went out from Be'er-sheva and went toward Harran, Genesis 28:11 and encountered a certain place. He had to spend the night there, for the sun had come in.

Now he took one of the stones of the place and set it at his head and lay down in that place.

Genesis 28:12 And he dreamt: Here, a ladder was set up on the earth, its top reaching the heavens, and here: messengers of God were going up and down on it.

Genesis 28:13 And here: YHVH was standing over against him. He said: I am YHVH, the God of Avraham your father and the God of Yitzhak. The land on which you lie I give to you and to your seed.

Genesis 28:14 Your seed will be like the dust of the earth; you will burst forth, to the Sea, to the east, to the north, to the Negev. All the clans of the soil will find blessing through you and through your seed!

Genesis 28:15 Here, I am with you, I will watch over you wherever you go and will bring you back to this soil; indeed, I will not leave you until I have done what I have spoken to you.

Genesis 28:16 Yaakov awoke from his sleep and said: Why, YHVH is in this place, and I, I did not know it!

Genesis 28:17 He was awestruck and said: How awe-inspiring is this place! This is none other than a house of God, and that is the gate of heaven!

Genesis 28:18 Yaakov started-early in the morning, he took the stone that he had set at his head and set it up as a standing-pillar and poured oil on top of it.

Genesis 28:19 And he called the name of the place: Bet-el/House of God- however, Luz was the name of the city in former times.

Genesis 28:20 And Yaakov vowed a vow, saying: If God will be with me and will watch over me on this way that I go and will give me food to eat and a garment to wear,

Genesis 28:21 and if I come back in peace to my father's house- YHVH shall be God to me,

Genesis 28:22 and this stone that I have set up as a standing-pillar shall become a house of God, and everything that you give me I shall tithe, tithe it to you.

Chapter 29

Genesis 29:1 Yaakov lifted his feet and went to the land of the Easterners.

Genesis 29:2 He looked around him, and there: a well in the field, and there were three herds of sheep crouching near it, for from that well they used to give the herds to drink. Now the stone on the mouth of the well was large,

Genesis 29:3 so when all the herds were gathered there, they used to roll the stone from the mouth of the well, give the sheep to drink, and put the stone back on the mouth of the well in its place.

Genesis 29:4 Now Yaakov said to them: Brothers, where are you from? They said: We are from Harran.

Genesis 29:5 He said to them: Do you know Lavan, son of Nahor? They said: We know him.

Genesis 29:6 He said to them: Is all well with him? They said: It is well- and here comes Rahel his daughter with the sheep!

Genesis 29:7 He said: Indeed, it is still broad daylight, it is not time to gather in the livestock, so give the sheep to drink and go back, tend them.

Genesis 29:8 But they said: We cannot, until all the herds have been gathered; only then do they roll the stone from the mouth of the well, and then we give the sheep to drink.

Genesis 29:9 While he was still speaking with them, Rahel came with the sheep that were her father's -for she was a shepherdess.

Genesis 29:10 Now it was when Yaakov saw Rahel, the daughter of Lavan and the sheep of Lavan his mother's brother, that Yaakov came close, he rolled the stone from the mouth of the well and gave drink to the sheep of Lavan his mother's brother.

Genesis 29:11 Then Yaakov kissed Rahel, and lifted up his voice and wept.

Page 32 of 245

Genesis 29:12 And Yaakov told Rahel that he was her father's brother and that he was Rivka's son. She ran and told her father.

Genesis 29:13 Now it was, as soon as Lavan heard the tidings concerning Yaakov, his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, embraced him and kissed him, and brought him into his house. And he recounted all these events to Lavan.

Genesis 29:14 Lavan said to him: Without doubt you are my bone, my flesh! And he stayed with him the days of a Renewing-of-the-moon.

Genesis 29:15 Lavan said to Yaakov: Just because you are my brother, should you serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?

Genesis 29:16 Now Lavan had two daughters: the name of the elder was Lea, the name of the younger was Rahel.

Genesis 29:17 Lea's eyes were delicate, but Rahel was fair of form and fair to look at.

Genesis 29:18 And Yaakov fell in love with Rahel. He said: I will serve you seven years for Rahel, your younger daughter.

Genesis 29:19 Lavan said: My giving her to you is better than my giving her to another man; stay with me.

Genesis 29:20 So Yaakov served seven years for Rahel, yet they were in his eyes as but a few days, because of his love for her.

Genesis 29:21 Then Yaakov said to Lavan: Come-now, (give me) my wife, for my days-of-labor have been fulfilled, so that I may come in to her.

Genesis 29:22 Lavan gathered all the people of the place together and made a drinking-feast.

Genesis 29:23 Now in the evening he took Lea his daughter and brought her to him, and he came in to her.

Genesis 29:24 Lavan also gave her Zilpa his maid, for Lea his daughter as a maid.

Genesis 29:25 Now in the morning: here, she was Lea! He said to Lavan: What is this that you have done to me! Was it not for Rahel that I served you? Why have you deceived me?

Genesis 29:26 Lavan said: Such is not done in our place, giving away the younger before the firstborn;

Genesis 29:27 just fill out the bridal-week for this one, then we shall give you that one also, for the service which you will serve me for yet another seven years.

Genesis 29:28 Yaakov did so-he fulfilled the bridal-week for this one, and then he gave him Rahel his daughter as a wife.

Genesis 29:29 Lavan also gave Rahel his daughter Bilha his maid, for her as a maid.

Genesis 29:30 So he came in to Rahel also, and he loved Rahel also, more than Lea. Then he served him for yet another seven years.

Genesis 29:31 Now when YHVH saw that Lea was hated, he opened her womb, while Rahel was barren.

Genesis 29:32 So Lea became pregnant and bore a son; she called his name: Re'uven/See, a Son! for she said: Indeed, YHVH has seen my being afflicted, indeed, now my husband will love me!

Genesis 29:33 She became pregnant again and bore a son, and said: Indeed, YHVH has heard that I am hated, so he has given me this one as well! And she called his name: Shim'on/Hearing.

Genesis 29:34 She became pregnant again and bore a son, and said: Now this time my husband will be joined to me, for I have borne him three sons! Therefore they called his name: Levi/Joining.

Genesis 29:35 She became pregnant again and bore a son, and said: This time I will give thanks to YHVH! Therefore she called his name: Yehuda/Giving-thanks. Then she stopped giving birth.

Chapter 30

Genesis 30:1 Now when Rahel saw that she could not bear (children) to Yaakov, Rahel envied her sister. She said to Yaakov: Come-now, (give) me children! If not, I will die!

Genesis 30:2 Yaakov's anger flared up against Rahel, he said: Am I in place of God, who has denied you fruit of the body?

Genesis 30:3 She said: Here is my slave-girl Bilha; come in to her, so that she may give birth upon my knees, so that I too may be built-up-with-sons through her.

Page 33 of 245

Genesis 30:4 She gave him Bilha her maid as a wife, and Yaakov came in to her.

Genesis 30:5 Bilha became pregnant and bore Yaakov a son.

Genesis 30:6 Rahel said: God has done-me-justice; yes, he has heard my voice! He has given me a son! Therefore she called his name: Dan/He-has-done-justice.

Genesis 30:7 And Bilha, Rahel's maid, became pregnant again and bore a second son to Yaakov.

Genesis 30:8 Rahel said: A struggle of God have I struggled with my sister; yes, I have prevailed! So she called his name: Naftali/My Struggle.

Genesis 30:9 Now when Lea saw that she had stopped giving birth, she took Zilpa her maid and gave her to Yaakov as a wife.

Genesis 30:10 Zilpa, Lea's maid, bore Yaakov a son.

Genesis 30:11 Lea said: What fortune! So she called his name: Gad/Fortune.

Genesis 30:12 And Zilpa, Lea's maid, bore a second son to Yaakov.

Genesis 30:13 Lea said: What happiness! For women will deem me happy. So she called his name:

Asher/Happiness.

Genesis 30:14 Now Re'uven went in the days of the wheat-harvest and found some love-apples in the field, and brought them to Lea his mother. Rahel said to Lea: Pray give me (some) of your son's love-apples!

Genesis 30:15 She said to her: Is your taking away my husband such a small thing that you would now take away my son's love-apples? Rahel said: Very well, he may lie with you tonight in exchange for your son's love-apples.

Genesis 30:16 So when Yaakov came home from the fields in the evening, Lea went out to meet him and said: You must come in to me, for I have hired, yes, hired you for my son's love-apples. So he lay with her that night.

Genesis 30:17 And God hearkened to Lea, so that she became pregnant and bore Yaakov a fifth son.

Genesis 30:18 Lea said: God has given me my hired-wages, because I gave my maid to my husband! So she called his name: Yissakhar/There-is-hire.

Genesis 30:19 Once again Lea became pregnant, and she bore a sixth son to Yaakov.

Genesis 30:20 Lea said: God has presented me with a good present, this time my husband will prize me- for I have borne him six sons! So she called his name: Zevulun/Prince.

Genesis 30:21 Afterward she bore a daughter, and called her name Dina.

Genesis 30:22 But God kept Rahel in mind, God hearkened to her and opened her womb, Genesis 30:23 so that she became pregnant and bore a son. She said: God has removed/asaf my reproach!
 Genesis 30:24 So she called his name: Yosef, saying: May YHVH add/yosef another son to me!
 Genesis 30:25 Now it was, once Rahel had borne Yosef, that Yaakov said to Lavan: Send me free, that I may go back to my place, to my land, Genesis 30:26 give over my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, and I will go. Indeed, you yourself know my service that I have served you!
 Genesis 30:27 Lavan said to him: Pray, if I have found favor in your eyes . . . I have become wealthy, and YHVH has blessed me on account of you.
 Genesis 30:28 And he said: Specify the wages due you from me, and I will give you payment.
 Genesis 30:29 He said to him: You yourself know how I have served you, and how it has gone with your livestock in my charge.
 Genesis 30:30 For you had but few before me, and they have since burst out into a multitude. Thus has YHVH blessed you at my every step! But now, when may I too do something for my household?
 Genesis 30:31 He said: What shall I give you? Yaakov said: You are not to give me anything- only do this thing for me, then I will return, I will tend your flock, I will keep watch:
 Genesis 30:32 Let me go over your whole flock today removing from there every speckled and dappled head; and every dark head among the lambs, and each dappled and speckled-one among the goats-they shall be my wages.
 Genesis 30:33 And may my honesty plead for me on a future day: when you come-to-check my wages (that are) before you, whatever is not speckled or dappled among the goats, or dark among the lambs, it will be as though stolen by me.

 Genesis 30:34 Lavan said: Good, let it be according to your words.
 Genesis 30:35 And on that (very) day he removed the streaked and dappled he-goats and every speckled and dappled she-goat, every one that had any white on it, and every dark-one among the lambs, and handed them over to his sons.
 Genesis 30:36 Then he put a three-days' journey between himself and Yaakov. Now Yaakov was tending Lavan's remaining flock.
 Genesis 30:37 Yaakov took himself rods from moist poplar, almond, and plane trees and peeled white peelings in them, exposing the white that was on the rods,
 Genesis 30:38 then he presented the rods that he had peeled in the gutters, in the water troughs where the flock would come to drink, in front of the flock. Now they would be in heat as they came to drink;
 Genesis 30:39 thus the flock came to be in heat by the rods, and the flock bore streaked, speckled, and dappled (young).
 Genesis 30:40 But the sheep, Yaakov set apart, and gave position among the flock to each streaked-one and every dark-one among Lavan's flocks; thus he made special herds for himself, but did not make them for Lavan's flock.
 Genesis 30:41 So it was that whenever the robust flock-animals were in heat, Yaakov would put the rods in sight of the flock-animals, in the gutters, to make them be in heat next to the rods.
 Genesis 30:42 But when the flock-animals were feeble, he would not put them there. And so it was that the feeble-ones became Lavan's, and the robust-ones, Yaakov's.
 Genesis 30:43 The man burst-forth-with-wealth exceedingly, yes, exceedingly, he came to have many flock- animals and maids and servants, and camels and donkeys.
 Chapter 31
 Genesis 31:1 Now he heard the words of Lavan's sons, (that they) said: Yaakov has taken away all that was our father's, and from what was our father's he has made all this weighty-wealth!
 Genesis 31:2 And Yaakov saw by Lavan's face: here, he was no longer with him as yesterday and the day- before.
 Genesis 31:3 And YHVH said to Yaakov: Return to the land of your fathers, to your kindred! I will be with you!
 Genesis 31:4 So Yaakov sent and had Rahel and Lea called to the field, to his animals,
 Genesis 31:5 and said to them: I see by your father's face: indeed, he is no longer toward me as yesterday and the day-before. But the God of my father has been with me!
 Genesis 31:6 You yourselves know that I have served your father with all my might,
 Genesis 31:7 but your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times over, yet God has not allowed him to do me ill.
 Genesis 31:8 If he said thus: The speckled-ones shall be your wages, all the animals would bear speckled- ones, and if he said thus: The streaked-ones shall be your wages, all the animals would bear streaked- ones.
 Genesis 31:9 So God has snatched away your father's livestock and given them to me.
 Genesis 31:10 Now it was at the time of the animals' being in heat that I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream: here, the he-goats that mount the animals-streaked, speckled, and spotted!
 Genesis 31:11 And God's messenger said to me in the dream: Yaakov! I said: Here I am.
 Genesis 31:12 He said: Pray lift up your eyes and see: All the he-goats that mount the animals-streaked, speckled, and spotted! For I have seen all that Lavan is doing to you.
 Genesis 31:13 I am the God of Bet-el, where you anointed the pillar, where you vowed a vow to me. So now, arise, get out of this land, return to the land of your kindred!

Genesis 31:14 Rahel and Lea answered him, they said to him: Do we still have a share, an inheritance in our father's house?

Genesis 31:15 Is it not as strangers that we are thought of by him? For he has sold us and eaten up, yes, eaten up our purchase-price!

Genesis 31:16 Indeed, all the riches that God has snatched away from our father- they belong to us and to our children. So now, whatever God has said to you, do!

Genesis 31:17 So Yaakov arose, he lifted his children and his wives onto the camels

Genesis 31:18 and led away all his livestock, all his property that he had gained, the acquired-livestock of his own acquiring which he had gained in the country of Aram, to come home to Yitzhak his father in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 31:19 Now Lavan had gone to shear his flock; Rahel, meanwhile, stole the terafim that belonged to her father.

Genesis 31:20 Now Yaakov stole the wits of Lavan the Aramean, by not telling him that he was about to flee.

Genesis 31:21 And flee he did, he and all that was his; he arose and crossed the River, setting his face toward the hill-country of Gil'ad.

Genesis 31:22 Lavan was told on the third day that Yaakov had fled;

Genesis 31:23 he took his tribal-brothers with him and pursued him, a seven-days' journey, and caught up with him in the hill-country of Gil'ad.

Genesis 31:24 But God came to Lavan the Aramean in a dream of the night and said to him: Be on your watch lest you speak to Yaakov, be it good or ill!

Genesis 31:25 When Lavan caught up with Yaakov, -Yaakov had pegged his tent in the mountains, and Lavan along with his brothers had pegged (his tent) in the hill-country of Gil'ad- Genesis 31:26 Lavan said to Yaakov: What did you mean to do by stealing my wits and leading my daughters away like captives of the sword?

Genesis 31:27 Why did you secretly flee and steal away on me, without even telling me, -for I would have sent you off with joy and with song, with drum and with lyre- Genesis 31:28 and you did not even allow me to kiss my grandchildren and my daughters? You have done foolishly now!

Genesis 31:29 It lies in my hand's power to do (all of) you ill! But yesterday night the God of your father said to me, saying: Be on your watch from speaking to Yaakov, be it good or ill!

Genesis 31:30 Well now, you had to go, yes, go, since you longed, longed for your father's house- Why did you steal my gods?

Genesis 31:31 Yaakov answered and said to Lavan: Indeed, I was afraid, for I said to myself: Perhaps you will even rob me of your daughters!

Genesis 31:32 With whomever you find your gods-he shall not live; here in front of our brothers, (see if) you recognize anything of yours with me, and take it! Yaakov did not know that Rahel had stolen them.

Genesis 31:33 Lavan came into Yaakov's tent and into Lea's tent and into the tents of the two maids, but he did not find anything. Then he went out of Lea's tent and came into Rahel's tent.

Genesis 31:34 Now Rahel had taken the terafim and had put them in the basket-saddle of the camels, and had sat down upon them. Lavan felt all around the tent, but he did not find anything.

Genesis 31:35 She said to her father: Do not let upset be in my lord's eyes that I am not able to rise in your presence, for the manner of women is upon me. So he searched, but he did not find the terafim.

Genesis 31:36 Now Yaakov became upset and took up quarrel with Lavan, Yaakov spoke up, saying to

Lavan: What is my offense, what is my sin, that you have dashed hotly after me,

Genesis 31:37 that you have felt all through my wares? What have you found from all your household- wares? Set it here in front of your brothers and my brothers, that they may decide between us two!

Genesis 31:38 It is twenty years now that I have been under you: your ewes and your she-goats have never miscarried, the rams from your flock I never have eaten,

Genesis 31:39 none torn-by-beasts have I ever brought you- I would make good the loss, at my hand you would seek it, stolen by day or stolen by night.

Genesis 31:40 (Thus) I was: by day, parching-heat consumed me, and cold by night, and my sleep eluded my eyes.

Genesis 31:41 It is twenty years for me now in your house: I have served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your animals, yet you have changed my wages ten times over.

Genesis 31:42 Had not the God of my father, the God of Avraham and the Terror of Yitzhak, been-there for me, indeed, you would have sent me off now, empty-handed! But God has seen my being afflicted and the toil of my hands, and yesterday night he decided.

Genesis 31:43 Lavan gave answer, he said to Yaakov: The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the animals are my animals- all that you see, it is mine! But to my daughters-what can I do to them today, or to their children whom they have borne?

Genesis 31:44 So now, come, let us cut a covenant, I and you, and let (something here) serve as a witness between me and you.

Genesis 31:45 Yaakov took a stone and erected it as a standing-pillar.

Genesis 31:46 And Yaakov said to his brothers: Collect stones! They fetched stones and made a mound. And they ate there by the mound.

Genesis 31:47 Now Lavan called it: Yegar Sahaduta, while Yaakov called it: Gal-ed.

Genesis 31:48 Lavan said: This mound is witness between me and you from today. Therefore they called its name: Gal-ed/Mound-witness, Genesis 31:49 and also: Mitzpa/Guardpost, because he said: May YHVH keep guard between me and you, when we are hidden from one another!

Genesis 31:50 If you should ever afflict my daughters, if you should ever take wives besides my daughters . . . ! No man is here with us, (but) see, God is witness between me and you!

Genesis 31:51 And Lavan said to Yaakov: Here is this mound, here is the pillar that I have sunk between me and you:

Genesis 31:52 witness is this mound, witness is the pillar that I will not cross over this mound to you and you will not cross over this mound and this pillar to me, for ill!

Genesis 31:53 May the God of Avraham and the God of Nahor keep-justice between us-the God of their father. And Yaakov swore by the Terror of his father Yitzhak.

Genesis 31:54 Then Yaakov slaughtered a slaughter-meal on the mountain and called his brothers to eat bread. They ate bread and spent the night on the mountain.

Chapter 32

Genesis 32:1 Lavan started-early in the morning, kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them, and Lavan went to return to his place.

Genesis 32:2 As Yaakov went on his way, messengers of God encountered him.

Genesis 32:3 Yaakov said when he saw them: This is a camp of God! And he called the name of that place: Mahanayim/Double-camp.

Genesis 32:4 Now Yaakov sent messengers on ahead of him to Esav his brother in the land of Se'ir, in the territory of Edom, Genesis 32:5 and commanded them, saying: Thus say to my lord, to Esav: Thus says your servant Yaakov: I have sojourned with Lavan and have tarried until now.

Genesis 32:6 Ox and donkey, sheep and servant and maid have become mine. I have sent to tell my lord, to find favor in your eyes.

Genesis 32:7 The messengers returned to Yaakov, saying: We came to your brother, to Esav- but he is already coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him!

Genesis 32:8 Yaakov became exceedingly afraid and was distressed. He divided the people that were with him and the sheep and the oxen and the camels into two camps,

Genesis 32:9 saying to himself: Should Esav come against the one camp and strike it, the camp that is left will escape.

Genesis 32:10 Then Yaakov said: God of my father Avraham, God of my father Yitzhak, O YHVH, who said to me: Return to your land, to your kindred, and I will deal well with you!-

Genesis 32:11 Too small am I for all the faithfulness and trust that you have shown your servant. For with only my rod did I cross this Jordan, and now I have become two camps.

Genesis 32:12 Pray save me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esav! For I am in fear of him, lest he come and strike me down, mothers and children alike!

Genesis 32:13 But you, you have said: I will deal well, well with you, I will make your seed like the sand of the sea, which is too much to count!

Genesis 32:14 Spending the night there that night, he took a gift from what was at hand, for Esav his brother:

Genesis 32:15 she-goats, two hundred, and kids, twenty, ewes, two hundred, and rams, twenty,

Genesis 32:16 nursing camels and their young, thirty, cows, forty, and bulls, ten, she-asses, twenty, and colts, ten;

Genesis 32:17 he handed them over to his servants, herd by herd separately, and said to his servants: Cross on ahead of me, and leave room between herd and herd.

Genesis 32:18 He charged the first group, saying: When Esav my brother meets you and asks you, saying: To whom do you belong, where are you going, and to whom do these ahead of you belong?

Genesis 32:19 Then say: -to your servant, to Yaakov, it is a gift sent to my lord, to Esav, and here, he himself is also behind us.

Genesis 32:20 Thus he charged the second, and thus the third, and thus all that were walking behind the herds, saying: According to this word shall you speak to Esav when you come upon him:

Genesis 32:21 You shall say: Also-here, your servant Yaakov is behind us. For he said to himself: I will wipe (the anger from) his face with the gift that goes ahead of my face; afterward, when I see his face, perhaps he will lift up my face!

Genesis 32:22 The gift crossed over ahead of his face, but he spent the night on that night in the camp.

Genesis 32:23 He arose during that night, took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children to cross the Yabbok crossing.

Genesis 32:24 He took them and brought them across the river; he brought across what belonged to him.

Genesis 32:25 And Yaakov was left alone- Now a man wrestled with him until the coming up of dawn.

Genesis 32:26 When he saw that he could not prevail against him, he touched the socket of his thigh; the socket of Yaakov's thigh had been dislocated as he wrestled with him.

Genesis 32:27 Then he said: Let me go, for dawn has come up! But he said: I will not let you go unless you bless me.

Genesis 32:28 He said to him: What is your name? And he said: Yaakov.

Genesis 32:29 Then he said: Not as Yaakov/Heel-sneak shall your name be henceforth uttered, but rather as Yisrael/God-fighter, for you have fought with God and men and have prevailed.

Genesis 32:30 Then Yaakov asked and said: Pray tell me your name! But he said: Now why do you ask after my name? And he gave him farewell-blessing there.

Genesis 32:31 Yaakov called the name of the place: Peniel/Face of God, for: I have seen God, face to face, and my life has been saved.

Genesis 32:32 The sun rose on him as he crossed by Penuel, and he was limping on his thigh.

Genesis 32:33 -Therefore the Children of Israel do not eat the sinew that is on the socket of the thigh until this day, for he had touched the socket of Yaakov's thigh at the sinew.

Chapter 33

Genesis 33:1 Yaakov lifted up his eyes and saw: there was Esav coming, and with him, four hundred men!

He divided the children among Lea, Rahel, and the two maids:

Genesis 33:2 he put the maids and their children first, Lea and her children behind them, and Rahel and

Yosef behind them,

Genesis 33:3 while he himself advanced ahead of them. And he bowed low to the ground seven times, until he had come close to him, to his brother.

Genesis 33:4 Esav ran to meet him, he embraced him, flung himself upon his neck, and kissed him. And they wept.

Genesis 33:5 Then he lifted up his eyes and saw the women and the children, and said: What are these to you? He said: -the children with whom God has favored your servant.

Genesis 33:6 Then the maids came close, they and their children, and bowed low.

Genesis 33:7 Then Lea and her children came close and bowed low. Afterward Yosef and Rahel came close and bowed low.

Genesis 33:8 He said: What to you is all this camp that I have met? He said: -to find favor in my lord's eyes.

Genesis 33:9 Esav said: I have plenty, my brother, let what is yours remain yours.

Genesis 33:10 Yaakov said: No, I pray! Pray, if I have found favor in your eyes, then take this gift from my hand. For I have, after all, seen your face, as one sees the face of God, and you have been gracious to me.

Genesis 33:11 Pray take my token-of-blessing that is brought to you, for God has shown me favor-for I have everything. And he pressed him, so he took it.

Genesis 33:12 Then he said: Let us travel on, and I will go on at your side.

Genesis 33:13 But he said to him: My lord knows that the children are frail, and the sheep and the oxen are suckling in my care; if we were to push them for a single day, all the animals would die!

Genesis 33:14 Pray let my lord cross on ahead of his servant, while as for me, I will travel slowly, at the pace of the gear ahead of me and at the pace of the children, until I come to my lord, at Se'ir.

Genesis 33:15 Esav said: Pray let me leave with you some of the people who are mine. But he said: For what reason? May I only find favor in my lord's eyes!

Genesis 33:16 So Esav started back that same day on his journey to Se'ir, Genesis 33:17 while Yaakov traveled to Succot. He built himself a house there, and for his livestock he made sheds. Therefore they called the name of the place: Succot/Sheds.

Genesis 33:18 Yaakov came home in peace to the city of Shekhem, which is in the land of Canaan, on his homecoming from the country of Aram, and he encamped facing the city.

Genesis 33:19 And he acquired the piece of territory where he had spread out his tent, from the Sons of Hamor, Shekhem's father, for a hundred lambs'-worth.

Genesis 33:20 There he set up a slaughter-site and called it: El/God, the God of Yisrael!

Chapter 34

Genesis 34:1 Now Dina, Lea's daughter, whom she had borne to Yaakov, went out to see the women of the land.

Genesis 34:2 And Shekhem son of Hamor the Hivvite, the prince of the land, saw her: he took her and lay with her, forcing her.

Genesis 34:3 But his emotions clung to Dina, Yaakov's daughter-he loved the girl, and he spoke to the heart of the girl.

Genesis 34:4 So Shekhem said to Hamor his father, saying: Take me this girl as a wife!

Genesis 34:5 Now Yaakov had heard that he had defiled Dina his daughter, but since his sons were with his livestock in the fields, Yaakov kept silent until they came home.

Genesis 34:6 Hamor, Shekhem's father, went out to Yaakov, to speak with him.

Genesis 34:7 But Yaakov's sons came back from the fields when they heard, and the men were pained, they were exceedingly upset, for he had done a disgrace in Israel by lying with Yaakov's daughter, such (a thing) is not to be done!

Genesis 34:8 Hamor spoke with them, saying: My son Shekhem- his emotions are so attached to your daughter, (so) pray give her to him as a wife!

Genesis 34:9 And make marriage-alliances with us: give us your daughters, and our daughters take for yourselves,

Genesis 34:10 and settle among us! The land shall be before you: settle down, travel about it, obtain holdings in it!

Genesis 34:11 And Shekhem said to her father and to her brothers: May I only find favor in your eyes!

However much you say to me, I will give-in-payment,

Genesis 34:12 to whatever extreme you multiply the bride-price and the marriage-gift, I will give however much you say to me- only give me the girl as a wife!

Genesis 34:13 Now Yaakov's sons answered Shekhem and Hamor his father with deceit, speaking (thus) because he had defiled Dina their sister, Genesis 34:14 they said to them: We cannot do this thing, give our sister to a man who has a foreskin, for that would be a reproach for us!

Genesis 34:15 Only on this (condition) will we comply with you: if you become like us, by having every male among you circumcised.

Genesis 34:16 Then we will give you our daughters, and your daughters we will take for ourselves, and we will settle among you, so that we become a single people.

Genesis 34:17 But if you do not hearken to us, to be circumcised, we will take our daughter and go.

Genesis 34:18 Their words seemed good in the eyes of Hamor and in the eyes of Shekhem son of Hamor, Genesis 34:19 and the young man did not hesitate to do the thing, for he desired Yaakov's daughter. Now he carried more weight than anyone in his father's house.

Genesis 34:20 When Hamor and Shekhem his son came back to the gate of their city, they spoke to the men of their city, saying:

Genesis 34:21 These men are peaceably disposed toward us; let them settle in the land and travel about in it, for the land is certainly wide-reaching enough for them! Let us take their daughters as wives for ourselves, and let us give them our daughters.

Genesis 34:22 But only on this (condition) will the men comply with us, to settle among us, to become a single people: that every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

Genesis 34:23 Their acquired livestock, their acquired property and all their beasts-will they not then become ours?! Let us only comply with them, that they may settle among us!

Genesis 34:24 So they hearkened to Hamor and to Shekhem his son, all who go out (to war) from the gate of his city: all the males were circumcised, all who go out (to war) from the gate of his city.

Genesis 34:25 But on the third day it was, when they were still hurting, that two of Yaakov's sons, Shim'on and Levi, Dina's full-brothers, took each man his sword, they came upon the city (feeling) secure, and killed all the males, Genesis 34:26 and Hamor and Shekhem his son they killed by the sword. Then they took Dina from Shekhem's house and went off.

Genesis 34:27 Yaakov's (other) sons came up upon the corpses and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister.

Genesis 34:28 Their sheep, their oxen, their donkeys-whatever was inside the city and out in the field, they took,

Genesis 34:29 all their riches, all their little-ones and their wives they captured and plundered, as well as all that was in the houses.

Genesis 34:30 But Yaakov said to Shim'on and to Levi: You have stirred-up-trouble for me, making me reek among the settled-folk of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites! For I have menfolk few in number; they will band together against me and strike me, and I will be destroyed, I and my household!

Genesis 34:31 But they said: Should our sister then be treated like a whore?

Chapter 35

Genesis 35:1 Now God said to Yaakov: Arise, go up to Bet-el and stay there, and construct a slaughter-site

there to the God/El who was seen by you when you fled from Esav your brother.

Genesis 35:2 Yaakov said to his household and to all who were with him: Put away the foreign gods that are in your midst! Purify yourselves! Change your garments!

Genesis 35:3 Let us arise and go up to Bet-el, there I will construct a slaughter-site to the God who answered me on the day of my distress -he was with me on the way that I went!

Genesis 35:4 So they gave Yaakov all the foreign gods that were in their hand, along with the sacred-rings that were in their ears, and Yaakov concealed them under the oak/ela that is near Shekhem.

Genesis 35:5 Then they moved on. Now a dread from God lay upon the towns that were around them, so that they did not pursue Yaakov's sons.

Genesis 35:6 So Yaakov came back to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan-that is now Bet-el-he and all the people that were with him.

Genesis 35:7 There he built a slaughter-site and called the place: Godhead/El of Bet-el! For there had the Power-of-god been revealed to him, when he fled from his brother.

Genesis 35:8 Now Devora, Rivka's nurse, died. She was buried below Bet-el, beneath the oak; they called its name: Allon Bakhut/Oak of Weeping.

Genesis 35:9 God was seen by Yaakov again, when he came back from the country of Aram, and he gave him blessing:

Genesis 35:10 God said to him: Yaakov is your name, Yaakov shall your name be called no more, for your name shall be Yisrael! And he called his name: Yisrael!

Genesis 35:11 God said further to him: I am God Shaddai. Bear fruit and be many! Nation, yes, a host of nations shall come from you, kings shall go out from your loins!

Genesis 35:12 The land that I gave to Avraham and to Yitzhak, to you I give it, and to your seed after you I give the land.

Genesis 35:13 God went up from beside him, at the place where he had spoken with him.

Genesis 35:14 And Yaakov set up a standing-pillar at the place where he had spoken with him, a pillar of stone, he poured out a poured-offering on it and cast oil upon it.

Genesis 35:15 And Yaakov called the name of the place where God had spoken with him: Bet-el/House of God!

Genesis 35:16 They departed from Bet-el. But when there was still a stretch of land to come to Efrat, Rahel began to give birth, and she had a very hard birthing.

Genesis 35:17 It was, when her birthing was at its hardest, that the midwife said to her: Do not be afraid, for this one too is a son for you!

Genesis 35:18 It was, as her life was slipping away -for she was dying- that she called his name: Ben- oni/Son-of-my-woe. But his father called him: Binyamin/Son-of-the-right-hand.

Genesis 35:19 So Rahel died; she was buried along the way to Efrat-that is now Bet-lehem.

Genesis 35:20 Yaakov set up a standing-pillar over her burial-place, that is Rahel's burial pillar of today.

Genesis 35:21 Now Yisrael departed and spread his tent beyond Migdal-eder/Herd-tower.

Genesis 35:22 And it was when Yisrael was dwelling in that land: Re'uven went and lay with Bilha, his father's concubine. And Yisrael heard- Now the sons of Yaakov were twelve:

Genesis 35:23 The sons of Lea: Yaakov's firstborn, Re'uven; Shim'on, Levi and Yehuda, Yissakhar and Zevulun.

Genesis 35:24 The sons of Rahel: Yosef and Binyamin.

Genesis 35:25 The sons of Bilha, Rahel's maid: Dan and Naftali.

Genesis 35:26 The sons of Zilpa, Lea's maid: Gad and Asher. These (were) Yaakov's sons, who were born to him in the country of Aram.

Genesis 35:27 Yaakov came home to Yitzhak his father at Mamre, in the city of Arba-that is now Hevron, where Avraham and Yitzhak had sojourned.

Genesis 35:28 And the days of Yitzhak were a hundred years and eighty Genesis 35:29 years,/ then Yitzhak expired. He died and was gathered to his kinspeople, old and satisfied in days. Esav and Yaakov his sons buried him.

Chapter 36

Genesis 36:1 And these are the begettings of Esav-that is Edom.

Genesis 36:2 Esav took his wives from the women of Canaan: Ada, daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholivama, daughter Genesis 36:3 of Ana (and) granddaughter of Tziv'on the Hivvite,/ and Ba'semat, daughter of Yishmael and sister of Nevayot.

Genesis 36:4 Ada bore Elifaz to Esav, Ba'semat bore Re'uel, Genesis 36:5 Oholivama bore Ye'ush, Ya'lam, and Korah. These are Esav's sons, who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 36:6 Esav took his wives, his sons and his daughters, and all the persons in his household, as well as his acquired-livestock, all his animals, and all his acquisitions that he had gained in the land of Canaan, and went to (another) land, away from Yaakov his brother;

Genesis 36:7 for their property was too much for them to settle together, the land of their sojourning could not support them, on account of their acquired-livestock.

Genesis 36:8 So Esav settled in the hill-country of Se'ir-Esav, that is Edom.

Genesis 36:9 And these are the begettings of Esav, the tribal-father of Edom, in the hill-country of Se'ir:

Genesis 36:10 These are the names of the sons of Esav: Elifaz son of Ada, Esav's wife, Re'uel, son of Ba'semat, Esav's wife.

Genesis 36:11 The sons of Elifaz were Teiman, Omar, Tzezo, Ga'tam, and Kenaz.

Genesis 36:12 Now Timna was concubine to Elifaz son of Esav, and she bore Amalek to Elifaz. These are the sons of Ada, Esav's wife.

Genesis 36:13 And these are the sons of Re'uel: Nahat and Zerah, Shamma and Mizza. These were the sons of Ba'semat, Esav's wife.

Genesis 36:14 And these were the sons of Oholivama, daughter of Ana, (and) granddaughter of Tziv'on (and) Esav's wife: She bore Ye'ush and Ya'lam and Korah to Esav.

Genesis 36:15 These are the families of Esav's sons: From the sons of Elifaz, Esav's firstborn, are: the Family Teiman, the Family Omar, the Family Tzefo, the Family

Genesis 36:16 Kenaz,/ the Family Korah, the Family Ga'tam, the Family Amalek; these are the families from Elifaz in the land of Edom, these are the sons of Ada.

Genesis 36:17 And these are the Children of Re'uel, Esav's son: the Family Nahat, the Family Zerah, the Family Shamma, the Family Mizza; these are the families from Re'uel in the land of Edom, these the Children of Ba'semat, Esav's wife.

Genesis 36:18 And these are the Children of Oholivama, Esav's wife: the Family Ye'ush, the Family Ya'lam, the Family Korah; these are the families from Oholivama, daughter of Ana, Esav's wife.

Genesis 36:19 These are the Children of Esav and these are their families. -That is Edom.

Genesis 36:20 These are the sons of Se'ir the Horite, the settled-folk of the land:

Genesis 36:21 Lotan and Shoval and Tziv'on and Ana and Dishon and Etzer and Dishan. These are the Horite families, the Children of Se'ir in the land of Edom.

Genesis 36:22 The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam, and Lotan's sister was Timna.

Genesis 36:23 And these are the sons of Shoval: Alvan and Manahat and Eval, Shefo and Onam.

Genesis 36:24 And these are the sons of Tziv'on: Ayya and Ana. -That is the Ana who found the yemim in the wilderness, as he was tending the donkeys of Tziv'on his father.

Genesis 36:25 And these are the sons of Ana: Dishon-and Oholivama was Ana's daughter.

Genesis 36:26 And these are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan and Eshban and Yitran and Ceran.

Genesis 36:27 These are the sons of Etzer: Bilhan and Zaavan and Akan.

Genesis 36:28 These are the sons of Dishan: Utz and Aran.

Genesis 36:29 These are the Horite families: the Family Lotan, the Family

Genesis 36:30 Shoval, the Family Tziv'on, the Family Ana,/ the Family Dishon, the Family Etzer, the Family Dishan. These are the families of the Horites, according to their families in the land of Se'ir.

Genesis 36:31 Now these are the kings who served as king in the land of Edom, before any king of the Children of Israel served as king:

Genesis 36:32 In Edom, Bela son of Be'or was king; the name of his city was Din hava.

Genesis 36:33 When Bela died, Yovav son of Zerah of Botzra became king in his stead.

Genesis 36:34 When Yovav died, Husham from the land of the Teimanites became king in his stead.

Genesis 36:35 When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad became king in his stead-who struck Midyan in the territory of Mo'av, and the name of his city was Avit.

Genesis 36:36 When Hadad died, Samla of Masreka became king in his stead.

Genesis 36:37 When Samla died, Sha'ul of Rehovot-by-the-river became king in his stead.

Genesis 36:38 When Sha'ul died, Baal-hanan son of Akhbor became king in his stead.

Genesis 36:39 When Baal-Hanan son of Akhbor died, Hadar became king in his stead; the name of his city was Pa'u, and the name of his wife, Mehetavel daughter of Matred, daughter of Mei-zahav.

Genesis 36:40 Now these are the names of the families from Esav, according to their clans, according to their local-places, by their names:

Genesis 36:41 The Family Timna, the Family Alvan, the Family Yetet,/ the Family Oholivama, the Family Ela, the Family

Genesis 36:42 Pinon,/ the Family Kenaz, the Family Teiman, the Family

Genesis 36:43 Mivtzar,/ the Family Magdiel, the Family Iram. These are the families of Edom according to their settlements in the land of their holdings. That is Esav, the tribal-father of Edom.

Chapter 37

Genesis 37:1 Yaakov settled in the land of his father's sojournings, in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 37:2 These are the begettings of Yaakov. Yosef, seventeen years old, used to tend the sheep along with his brothers, for he was serving-lad with the sons of Bilha and the sons of Zilpa, his father's wives. And Yosef brought a report of them, an ill one, to their father.

Genesis 37:3 Now Yisrael loved Yosef above all his sons, for he was a son of old age to him, so he made him an ornamented coat.

Genesis 37:4 When his brothers saw that it was he whom their father loved above all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak to him in peace.

Genesis 37:5 Now Yosef dreamt a dream, and told it to his brothers -from then on they hated him still more-

Genesis 37:6 he said to them: Pray hear this dream that I have dreamt:

Genesis 37:7 Here, we were binding sheaf-bundles out in the field, and here, my sheaf arose, it was standing upright, and here, your sheaves were circling round and bowing down to my sheaf!

Genesis 37:8 His brothers said to him: Would you be king, yes, king over us? Or would you really rule, yes, rule us? From then on they hated him still more-for his dreams, for his words.

Genesis 37:9 But he dreamt still another dream, and recounted it to his brothers, he said: Here, I have dreamt still (another) dream: Here, the sun and the moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me!

Genesis 37:10 When he recounted it to his father and his brothers, his father rebuked him and said to him:

What kind of dream is this that you have dreamt! Shall we come, yes, come, I, your mother and your brothers, to bow down to you to the ground?

Genesis 37:11 His brothers envied him, while his father kept the matter in mind.

Genesis 37:12 Now his brothers went to tend their father's sheep in Shekhem.

Genesis 37:13 Yisrael said to Yosef: Are not your brothers tending sheep in Shekhem? Come, I will send you to them! He said to him: Here I am.

Genesis 37:14 And he said to him: Come, pray, look into the well-being of your brothers and into the well-being of the sheep, and bring me back word. So he sent him out from the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shekhem.

Genesis 37:15 And a man came upon him-here, he was roaming in the field; the man asked him, saying: What do you seek?

Genesis 37:16 He said: I seek my brothers, pray tell me where they are tending-sheep.

Genesis 37:17 The man said: They have moved on from here, indeed, I heard them say: Let us go to Dotan.

Yosef went after his brothers and came upon them in Dotan.

Genesis 37:18 They saw him from afar, and before he had gotten near them, they plotted-cunningly against him to cause his death.

Genesis 37:19 They said each man to his brother: Here comes the master dreamer!

Genesis 37:20 So now, come, let us kill him and throw him into one of these pits and say: An ill-tempered beast has devoured him! Then we will see what becomes of his dreams!

Genesis 37:21 When Re'uven heard it he tried to rescue him from their hand, he said: Let us not take his life!

Genesis 37:22 And Re'uven said to them: Do not shed blood! Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand upon him! -in order that he might save him from their hand, to return him to his father.

Genesis 37:23 So it was, when Yosef came to his brothers, that they stripped Yosef of his coat, the ornamented coat that he had on,

Genesis 37:24 and took him and cast him into the pit. Now the pit was empty-no water in it.

Genesis 37:25 And they sat down to eat bread. They lifted up their eyes and saw: there was a caravan of Yishmaelites coming from Gil'ad, their camels carrying balm, balsam, and ladanum, traveling to take them down to Egypt.

Genesis 37:26 Now Yehuda said to his brothers: What gain is there if we kill our brother and cover up his blood?

Genesis 37:27 Come, let us sell him to the Yishmaelites- but let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother, our flesh! And his brothers listened to him.

Genesis 37:28 Meanwhile, some Midyanite men, merchants, passed by; they hauled up Yosef from the pit and sold Yosef to the Yishmaelites, for twenty pieces-of-silver. They brought Yosef to Egypt.

Genesis 37:29 When Re'uven returned to the pit: here, Yosef was no more in the pit! He rent his garments Genesis 37:30 and returned to his brothers and said: The child is no more! And I-where am I to go?

Genesis 37:31 But they took Yosef's coat, they slew a hairy goat and dipped the coat in the blood.

Genesis 37:32 They had the ornamented coat sent out and had it brought to their father and said: We found this; pray recognize whether it is your son's coat or not!

Genesis 37:33 He recognized it and said: My son's coat! An ill-tempered beast has devoured him! Yosef is torn, torn-to-pieces!

Genesis 37:34 Yaakov rent his clothes, he put sackcloth on his loins and mourned his son for many days.

Genesis 37:35 All his sons and daughters arose to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. He said: No, I will go down to my son in mourning, to Sheol! Thus his father wept for him.

Genesis 37:36 Meanwhile, the Midyanites had sold him into Egypt to Potifar, Pharaoh's court-official, Chief of the (palace) Guard.

Chapter 38

Genesis 38:1 Now it was at about that time that Yehuda went down, away from his brothers and turned aside to an Adullamite man-his name was Hira.

Genesis 38:2 There Yehuda saw the daughter of a Canaanite man-his name was Shua, he took her (as his wife) and came in to her.

Genesis 38:3 She became pregnant and bore a son, and he called his name: Er.

Genesis 38:4 She became pregnant again and bore a son, and she called his name: Onan.

Genesis 38:5 Once again she bore a son, and she called his name: Shela. Now he was in Ceziv when she bore him.

Genesis 38:6 Yehuda took a wife for Er, his firstborn-her name was Tamar.

Genesis 38:7 But Er, Yehuda's firstborn, died ill in the eyes of YHVH, and YHVH caused him to die.

Genesis 38:8 Yehuda said to Onan: Come in to your brother's wife, do a brother-in-law's duty by her, to preserve seed for your brother!

Genesis 38:9 But Onan knew that the seed would not be his, so it was, whenever he came in to his brother's wife, he let it go to ruin on the ground, so as not to provide seed for his brother.

Genesis 38:10 What he did was ill in the eyes of YHVH, and he caused him to die as well.

Genesis 38:11 Now Yehuda said to Tamar his daughter-in-law: Sit as a widow in your father's house until Shela my son has grown up. For he said to himself: Otherwise he will die as well, like his brothers! So Tamar went and stayed in her father's house.

Genesis 38:12 And many days passed. Now Shua's daughter, Yehuda's wife, died. When Yehuda had been comforted, he went up to his sheep-shearers, he and his friend Hira the Adullamite, to Timna.

Genesis 38:13 Tamar was told, saying: Here, your father-in-law is going up to Timna to shear his sheep.

Genesis 38:14 She removed her widow's garments from her, covered herself with a veil and wrapped herself, and sat down by the entrance to Enayim/Two-wells, which is on the way to Timna, for she saw that Shela had grown up, yet she had not been given to him as a wife.

Genesis 38:15 When Yehuda saw her, he took her for a whore, for she had covered her face.

Genesis 38:16 So he turned aside to her by the road and said: Come-now, pray let me come in to you- for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. She said: What will you give me for coming in to me?

Genesis 38:17 He said: I myself will send out a goat kid from the flock. She said: Only if you give me a pledge, until you send it.

Genesis 38:18 He said: What is the pledge that I am to give you? She said: Your seal, your cord, and your staff that is in your hand. He gave them to her and then he came in to her-and she became pregnant by him.

Genesis 38:19 She arose and went away, then she put off her veil from her and clothed herself in her widow's garments.

Genesis 38:20 Now when Yehuda sent the goat kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to fetch the pledge from the woman's hand, he could not find her.

Genesis 38:21 He asked the people of her place, saying: Where is that holy-prostitute, the one in Two-wells by the road? They said: There has been no holy-prostitute here!

Genesis 38:22 So he returned to Yehuda and said: I could not find her; moreover, the people of the place said: There has been no holy-prostitute here!

Genesis 38:23 Yehuda said: Let her keep them for herself, lest we become a laughing-stock. Here, I sent her this kid, but you, you could not find her.

Genesis 38:24 Now it was, after almost three New-moons that Yehuda was told, saying: Tamar your daughter-in-law has played-the-whore, in fact, she has become pregnant from whoring! Yehuda said: Bring her out and let her be burned!

Genesis 38:25 (But) as she was being brought out, she sent a message to her father-in-law, saying: By the man to whom these belong I am pregnant. And she said: Pray recognize- whose seal and cords and staff are these?

Genesis 38:26 Yehuda recognized them and said: She is in-the-right more than I! For after all, I did not give her to Shela my son! And he did not know her again.

Genesis 38:27 Now it was, at the time of her birthing, that here: twins were in her body!

Genesis 38:28 And it was, as she was giving birth, that (one of them) put out a hand; the midwife took and tied a scarlet thread on his hand, saying: This one came out first.

Genesis 38:29 But it was, as he pulled back his hand, here, his brother came out! So she said: What a breach you have breached for yourself! So they called his name: Peretz/Breach.

Genesis 38:30 Afterward his brother came out, on whose hand was the scarlet thread. They called his name:

Zerah.

Chapter 39

Genesis 39:1 Now when Yosef was brought down to Egypt, Potifar, an official of Pharaoh, and chief of the guard, an Egyptian man, acquired him from the hand of the Yishmaelites who brought him down there.

Genesis 39:2 But YHVH was with Yosef, so that he became a man of success: while he was in the house of his lord the Egyptian, Genesis 39:3 his lord saw that YHVH was with him, so that whatever he did, YHVH made succeed in his hands.

Genesis 39:4 Yosef found favor in his eyes, and he waited upon him; he appointed him over his house, and everything belonging to him he placed in his hands.

Genesis 39:5 And it was, from when he had appointed him over his house and over everything that belonged to him, that YHVH blessed the Egyptian's house because of Yosef; YHVH'S blessing was upon everything that belonged to him, in the house and in the fields.

Genesis 39:6 So he left everything that was his in Yosef's hands, not concerning himself about anything with him there, except for the bread that he ate. Now Yosef was fair of form and fair to look at.

Genesis 39:7 Now after these events it was that his lord's wife fixed her eyes upon Yosef and said: Lie with me!

Genesis 39:8 But he refused, he said to his lord's wife: Look, my lord need not concern himself with anything in the house, with me here, and everything that belongs to him, he has placed in my hands.

Genesis 39:9 He is no greater in this house than I and has withheld nothing from me except for yourself, since you are his wife. So how could I do this great ill? I would be sinning against God!

Genesis 39:10 Now it was, as she would speak to Yosef day after day, that he would not hearken to her, to lie beside her, to be with her- Genesis 39:11 so it was, on such a day, when he came into the house to do his work, and none of the house-people was there in the house- Genesis 39:12 that she grabbed him by his garment, saying: Lie with me! But he left his garment in her hand and fled, escaping outside.

Genesis 39:13 Now it was, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled outside, Genesis 39:14 that she called in her house-people and said to them, saying: See! He has brought to us a Hebrew man to play around with us! He came to me, to lie with me, but I called out with a loud voice, Genesis 39:15 and it was, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and called out that he left his garment beside me and fled, escaping outside!

Genesis 39:16 Now she kept his garment beside her, until his lord came back to the house.

Genesis 39:17 Then she spoke to him according to these words, saying: There came to me the Hebrew servant whom you brought to us, to play around with me;

Genesis 39:18 but it was, when I lifted up my voice and called out, that he left his garment beside me and fled outside.

Genesis 39:19 Now it was, when his lord heard his wife's words which she spoke to him, saying: According to these words, your servant did to me!- that his anger flared up;

Genesis 39:20 Yosef's lord took him and put him in the dungeon house, in the place where the king's prisoners are imprisoned. But while he was there in the dungeon house, Genesis 39:21 YHVH was with Yosef and extended kindness to him: he put his favor in the eyes of the dungeon warden.

Genesis 39:22 And the dungeon warden put in Yosef's hands all the prisoners that were in the dungeon house; whatever had to be done there, it was he that did it.

Genesis 39:23 The dungeon warden did not need to see to anything at all in his hands, since YHVH was with him, and whatever he did, YHVH made succeed.

Chapter 40

Genesis 40:1 Now after these events it was that the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt fell afoul of their lord, the king of Egypt.

Genesis 40:2 Pharaoh became infuriated with his two officials, with the chief cupbearer and the chief baker, Genesis 40:3 and he placed them in custody in the house of the chief of the guard, in the dungeon house, the place where Yosef was imprisoned.

Genesis 40:4 The chief of the guard appointed Yosef for them, that he should wait upon them. They were in custody for many days.

Genesis 40:5 And then the two of them dreamt a dream, each man his own dream, in a single night, each man according to his dream's interpretation, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were imprisoned in the dungeon house.

Genesis 40:6 When Yosef came to them in the morning and saw them, here, they were dejected!

Genesis 40:7 So he asked Pharaoh's officials who were with him in custody in the house of his lord, saying:

Why are your faces in such ill-humor today?

Genesis 40:8 They said to him: We have dreamt a dream, and there is no interpreter for it! Yosef said to them: Are not interpretations from God? Pray recount them to me!

Genesis 40:9 The chief cupbearer recounted his dream to Yosef, he said to him: In my dream- here, a vine was in front of me,

Genesis 40:10 and on the vine, three winding-tendrils, and just as it was budding, the blossom came up, (and) its clusters ripened into grapes.

Genesis 40:11 Now Pharaoh's cup was in my hand- I picked the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup and put the cup in Pharaoh's palm.

Genesis 40:12 Yosef said to him: This is its interpretation: The three windings are three days- Genesis 40:13 in another three days

Pharaoh will lift up your head, he will restore you to your position so that you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand (once more), according to the former practice, when you were his cupbearer.

Genesis 40:14 But keep me in mind with you, when it goes well for you, pray deal kindly with me and call me to mind to Pharaoh, so that you have me brought out of this house.

Genesis 40:15 For I was stolen, yes, stolen from the land of the Hebrews, and here too I have done nothing that they should have put me in the pit.

Genesis 40:16 Now when the chief baker saw that he had interpreted for good, he said to Yosef: I too, in my dream- here, three baskets of white-bread were on my head, Genesis 40:17 and in the uppermost basket, all sorts of edibles for Pharaoh, baker's work, and birds were eating them from the basket, from off my head.

Genesis 40:18 Yosef gave answer, he said: This is its interpretation: The three baskets are three days- Genesis 40:19 in another three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you, he will hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh from off you.

Genesis 40:20 And thus it was, on the third day, Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a great drinking-feast for all his servants, and he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker amidst his servants:

Genesis 40:21 he restored the chief cupbearer to his cupbearership, so that he put the cup in Pharaoh's palm (once more),

Genesis 40:22 but the chief baker he hanged, just as Yosef had interpreted to them.

Genesis 40:23 But the chief cupbearer did not keep Yosef in mind, he forgot him.

Chapter 41

Genesis 41:1 Now at the end of two years'-time it was that Pharaoh dreamt: here, he was standing by the Nile-stream,

Genesis 41:2 and here, out of the Nile, seven cows were coming up, fair to look at and fat of flesh, and they grazed in the reed-grass.

Genesis 41:3 And here, seven other cows were coming up after them out of the Nile, ill to look at and lean of flesh, and they stood beside the other cows on the bank of the Nile.

Genesis 41:4 Then the cows ill to look at and lean of flesh ate up the seven cows fair to look at, the fat-ones. Pharaoh awoke.

Genesis 41:5 He fell asleep and dreamt a second time: here, seven ears-of-grain were going up on a single stalk, fat and good,

Genesis 41:6 and here, seven ears, lean and scorched by the east wind, were springing up after them.

Genesis 41:7 Then the lean ears swallowed up the seven ears fat and full. Pharaoh awoke, and here: (it was) a dream!

Genesis 41:8 But in the morning it was, that his spirit was agitated, so he sent and had all of Egypt's magicians and all of its wise-men called. Pharaoh recounted his dream to them, but no one could interpret them to Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:9 Then the chief cupbearer spoke up to Pharaoh, saying: I must call my faults to mind today!

Genesis 41:10 Pharaoh was once infuriated with his servants and placed me in custody, in the house of the chief of the guard, myself and the chief baker.

Genesis 41:11 And we dreamt a dream in a single night, I and he, we dreamt each-man according to the interpretation of his dream.

Genesis 41:12 Now there was a Hebrew lad there with us, a servant of the chief of the guard; we recounted them to him, and he interpreted our dreams to us, for each-man according to his dream he interpreted.

Genesis 41:13 And thus it was: As he interpreted to us, so it was- I was restored to my position, and he was hanged.

Genesis 41:14 Pharaoh sent and had Yosef called. They hurriedly brought him out of the pit; he shaved, changed his clothes, and came before Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:15 Pharaoh said to Yosef: I have dreamt a dream, and there is no interpreter for it! But I have heard it said of you that you but need to hear a dream in order to interpret it!

Genesis 41:16 Yosef answered Pharaoh, saying: Not I! God will answer what is for Pharaoh's welfare.

Genesis 41:17 Pharaoh spoke to Yosef: In my dream- here, I was standing on the bank of the Nile, Genesis 41:18 and here, out of the Nile were coming up seven cows, fat of flesh and fair of form, and they grazed in the reed-grass.

Genesis 41:19 And here, seven other cows were coming up after them, wretched and exceedingly ill of form and lank of flesh, in all the land of Egypt I have never seen their like for ill-condition!

Genesis 41:20 Then the seven lank and ill-looking cows ate up the first seven cows, the fat-ones.

Genesis 41:21 They entered their body, but you would not know that they had entered their body, for they were as ill-looking as at the beginning! Then I awoke.

Genesis 41:22 And I saw (again) in my dream: here, seven ears were going up on a single stalk, full and good, Genesis 41:23 and here, seven ears, hardened, lean, and scorched by the east wind, were springing up after them.

Genesis 41:24 Then the lean ears swallowed up the seven good ears! Now I have spoken with the magicians, but there is no one that can tell me the answer!

Genesis 41:25 Yosef said to Pharaoh: Pharaoh's dream is one. What God is about to do, he has told Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:26 The seven good cows are seven years, the seven good ears are seven years, the dream is one.

Genesis 41:27 And the seven lank and ill-looking cows that were coming up after them are seven years, and the seven ears, hollow and scorched by the east wind, will be seven years of famine!

Genesis 41:28 That is the word that I spoke to Pharaoh: what God is about to do, he has let Pharaoh see.

Genesis 41:29 Here, seven years are coming of great abundance in all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:30 But seven years of famine will arise after them, when all the abundance in the land of Egypt will be forgotten. The famine will destroy the land,

Page 48 of 245

Genesis 41:31 and you will not know of that abundance in the land because of that famine afterward, for it will be exceedingly heavy.

Genesis 41:32 Now as for the twofold repetition of the dream to Pharaoh: it means that the matter is determined by God, and God is hastening to do it.

Genesis 41:33 So now, let Pharaoh select a discerning and wise man, and set him over the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:34 Let Pharaoh do this: let him appoint appointed-overseers for the land, dividing the land of Egypt into five parts during the seven years of abundance.

Genesis 41:35 Let them collect all kinds of food from these good years that are coming, and let them pile up grain under Pharaoh's hand as food- provisions in the cities, and keep it under guard.

Genesis 41:36 So the provisions will be an appointed-reserve for the land for the seven years of famine that will occur in the land of Egypt, so that the land will not be cut off by the famine.

Genesis 41:37 The words seemed good in Pharaoh's eyes and in the eyes of all his servants, Genesis 41:38 and Pharaoh said to his servants: Could we find another like him, a man in whom is the spirit of a god?

Genesis 41:39 Pharaoh said to Yosef: Since a god has made you know all this, there is none as wise and discerning as you;

Genesis 41:40 you shall be the One Over My House! To your orders shall all my people submit; only by the throne will I be greater than you!

Genesis 41:41 Pharaoh said further to Yosef: See, I place you over all the land of Egypt!

Genesis 41:42 And Pharaoh removed his signet-ring from his hand and placed it on Yosef's hand, he had him clothed in linen garments and put the gold chain upon his neck;

Genesis 41:43 he had him mount the chariot of his second-in-rank, and they called out before him: Avrekhl!/Attention! Thus he placed him over all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:44 Pharaoh said to Yosef: I am Pharaoh, but without you, no man shall raise hand or foot in all the land of Egypt!

Genesis 41:45 Pharaoh called Yosef's name: Tzafanat Pane'ah/The God Speaks and He Lives. He gave him Asenat, daughter of Poti Fera, priest of On, as a wife. And Yosef's (influence) went out over all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:46 Now Yosef was thirty years old when he stood in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Yosef went out from Pharaoh's presence and passed through all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:47 In the seven years of abundance the land produced in handfuls.

Genesis 41:48 And he collected all kinds of provisions from those seven years that occurred in the land of Egypt, and placed provisions in the towns. The provisions from the fields of a town, surrounding it, he placed in it (as well).

Genesis 41:49 So Yosef piled up grain like the sand of the sea, exceedingly much, until they had to stop counting, for it was uncountable.

Genesis 41:50 Now two sons were born to Yosef, before the year of famine came, whom Asenat, daughter of Poti Fera, priest of On, bore to him.

Genesis 41:51 Yosef called the name of the firstborn: Menashe/He-who-makes-forget, meaning: God has made-me-forget all my hardships, all my father's house.

Genesis 41:52 And the name of the second he called: Efrayim/Double-fruit, meaning: God has made me bear fruit in the land of my affliction.

Genesis 41:53 There came to an end the seven years of abundance that had occurred in the land of Egypt,

Genesis 41:54 and there started to come the seven years of famine, as Yosef had said. Famine occurred in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

Genesis 41:55 But when all the land of Egypt felt the famine, and the people cried out to Pharaoh for bread, Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians: Go to Yosef, whatever he says to you, do!

Genesis 41:56 Now the famine was over all the surface of the earth. Yosef opened up all (storehouses) in which there was (grain), and gave-out-rations to the Egyptians, since the famine was becoming stronger in the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:57 And all lands came to Egypt to buy rations, to Yosef, for the famine was strong in all lands.

Chapter 42

Genesis 42:1 Now when Yaakov saw that there were rations in Egypt, Yaakov said to his sons: Why do you keep looking at one another?

Genesis 42:2 And he said: Here, I have heard that there are rations in Egypt, go down there and buy us rations from there, that we may live and not die.

Genesis 42:3 So Yosef's brothers went down, ten (of them), to buy some rationed grain from Egypt.

Genesis 42:4 But Binyamin, Yosef's brother, Yaakov would not send with his brothers, for he said: Lest harm befall him!

Genesis 42:5 The sons of Yisrael came to buy rations among those that came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 42:6 Now Yosef was the governor over the land, it was he who supplied rations to all the people of the land. And Yosef's brothers came and bowed low to him, brow to the ground.

Genesis 42:7 When Yosef saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he pretended-no-recognition of them and spoke harshly with them. He said to them: From where do you come? They said: From the land of Canaan, to buy food-rations.

Genesis 42:8 Now although Yosef recognized his brothers, for their part, they did not recognize him.

Genesis 42:9 And Yosef was reminded of the dreams that he had dreamt of them. He said to them: You are spies! It is to see the nakedness of the land that you have come!

Genesis 42:10 They said to him: No, my lord! Rather, your servants have come to buy food-rations.

Genesis 42:11 We are all of us the sons of a single man, we are honest, your servants have never been spies!

Genesis 42:12 But he said to them: No! For it is the nakedness of the land that you have come to see!

Genesis 42:13 They said: Your servants are twelve, we are brothers, sons of a single man in the land of Canaan: the youngest is with our father now, and one is no more.

Genesis 42:14 Yosef said to them: It is just as I spoke to you, saying: You are spies!

Genesis 42:15 Hereby shall you be tested: As Pharaoh lives! You shall not depart from this (place) unless your youngest brother comes here!

Genesis 42:16 Send one of you to fetch your brother, while (the rest of) you remain as prisoners. Thus will your words be tested, whether there is truth in you or not- as Pharaoh lives, indeed, you are spies!

Genesis 42:17 He removed them into custody for three days.

Genesis 42:18 Yosef said to them on the third day: Do this, and stay alive, for I hold God in awe:

Genesis 42:19 if you are honest, let one of your brothers be held prisoner in the house of your custody, and as for you, go, bring back rations for the famine-supply of your households.

Genesis 42:20 Then bring your youngest brother back to me, so that your words will be proven truthful, and you will not die. They (prepared to) do so.

Genesis 42:21 But they said, each man to his brother: Truly, we are guilty: concerning our brother! -that we saw his heart's distress when he implored us, and we did not listen. Therefore this distress has come upon us!

Genesis 42:22 Re'uven answered them, saying: Did I not say to you, say: Do not sin against the child! But you would not listen, so for his blood-now, (satisfaction) is demanded!

Genesis 42:23 Now they did not know that Yosef was listening, for a translator was between them.

Genesis 42:24 But he turned away from them and wept. When he was able to return to them, he spoke to them and had Shim'on taken away from them, imprisoning him before their eyes.

Genesis 42:25 Then Yosef commanded that they fill their vessels with grain and return their silver-pieces into each man's sack, and give them victuals for the journey. They did so for them.

Genesis 42:26 Then they loaded their rations onto their donkeys and went from there.

Genesis 42:27 But as one opened his sack to give his donkey fodder at the night-camp, he saw his silver-there it was in the mouth of his pack!

Genesis 42:28 He said to his brothers: My silver has been returned-yes, here in my pack! Their hearts gave way, and they trembled to one another, saying: What is this that God has done to us?

Genesis 42:29 They came home to Yaakov their father, in the land of Canaan, and told him all that had befallen them, saying:

Genesis 42:30 The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly with us, he took us for those that spy on the land!

Genesis 42:31 Now we said to him: We are honest, we have never been spies!

Genesis 42:32 We are twelve, brothers all, sons of our father: one is no more, and the youngest is now with our father in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 42:33 Then the man, the lord of the land, said to us: Hereby shall I know whether you are honest: Leave one of your brothers with me, and as for the famine-supply of your households, take it and go.

Genesis 42:34 But bring your youngest brother back to me, so that I may know that you are not spies, that you are honest. (Then) I will give your brother back to you, and you may travel about the land.

Genesis 42:35 But it was, when they emptied their sacks: there was each man's silver pouch in his sack! They looked at their silver pouches, they and their father, and became frightened.

Genesis 42:36 Yaakov their father said to them: It is I that you bereave! Yosef is no more, Shim'on is no more, now you would take Binyamin- upon me has all this come!

Genesis 42:37 Re'uven said to his father, saying: My two sons you may put to death if I do not bring him back to you! Place him in my hands, and I myself will return him to you.

Genesis 42:38 But he said: My son is not to go down with you! For his brother is dead, and he alone is left! Should harm befall him on the journey on which you are going, you will bring down my gray hair in grief to Sheol!

Chapter 43

Genesis 43:1 But the famine was heavy in the land.

Genesis 43:2 And so it was, when they had finished eating the rations that they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them: Return, buy us some food-rations.

Genesis 43:3 But Yehuda said to him, saying: The man warned, yes, warned us, saying: You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.

Genesis 43:4 If you wish to send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you some food-rations.

Genesis 43:5 But if you do not wish to send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us: You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.

Genesis 43:6 Yisrael said: Why did you deal so ill with me, by telling the man that you have another brother?

Genesis 43:7 They said: The man asked, he asked about us and about our kindred, saying: Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother? So we told him, according to these words. Could we know, know that he would say: Bring your brother down?

 Genesis 43:8 Yehuda said to Yisrael his father: Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, so we, so you, so our little-ones!
 Genesis 43:9 I will act as his pledge, at my hand you may seek him! If I do not bring him back to you and set him in your presence, I will be culpable-for-sin against you all the days (to come).
 Genesis 43:10 Indeed, had we not lingered, we would indeed have been back twice already!
 Genesis 43:11 Yisrael their father said to them: If it must be so, then, do this: Take some of the produce of the land in your vessels and bring them down to the man as a gift: a little balsam, a little honey, balm and ladanum, pistachio nuts and almonds.
 Genesis 43:12 And silver two times over take in your hand; and the silver that was returned in the mouth of your packs, return in your hand, perhaps it was an oversight.
 Genesis 43:13 And as for your brother, take him! Arise, return to the man,

Genesis 43:14 and may God Shaddai give you mercy before the man, so that he releases your other brother to you, and Binyamin as well. And as for me-if I must be bereaved, I must be bereaved!
 Genesis 43:15 The men took this gift, silver two times over they took in their hand and Binyamin as well. They arose and went down to Egypt and stood in Yosef's presence.
 Genesis 43:16 When Yosef saw Binyamin with them, he said to the steward of his house: Bring the men into the house, slaughter some slaughter-animals and prepare them, for it is with me that these men shall eat at noon.
 Genesis 43:17 The man did as Yosef had said, the man brought the men into Yosef's house.
 Genesis 43:18 But the men were frightened that they had been brought into Yosef's house, and said: It is because of the silver that was returned in our packs before that we have been brought here, for (them to) roll upon us, and fall upon us, and take us into servitude, along with our donkeys!
 Genesis 43:19 They came close to the man, to the steward of Yosef's house, and spoke to him at the entrance to the house,
 Genesis 43:20 they said: Please, my lord! We came down, came down before to buy food-rations,
 Genesis 43:21 but it was, when we came to the night camp and opened our packs, there was each man's silver in the mouth of his pack, our silver by its (exact) weight- but (here) we have returned it in our hand!
 Genesis 43:22 And other silver as well we have brought down in our hand, to buy food. We do not know who put back our silver in our packs!
 Genesis 43:23 He said: It is well with you, do not be afraid! Your God, the God of your father, placed a treasure in your packs for you-(for) your silver has come in to me. And he brought Shim'on out to them.
 Genesis 43:24 Then the man had the men come into Yosef's house and gave them water so that they might wash their feet and gave them fodder for their donkeys.
 Genesis 43:25 They prepared the gift, until Yosef came back at noon, for they understood that they were to eat bread there.
 Genesis 43:26 When Yosef came into the house, they brought him the gift that was in their hand, into the house, and bowed down to him, to the ground.
 Genesis 43:27 He asked after their welfare and said: Is your old father well, of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?
 Genesis 43:28 They said: Your servant, our father, is well, he is still alive- and in homage they bowed low.
 Genesis 43:29 He lifted up his eyes and saw Binyamin his brother, his mother's son, and he said: Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me? And he said: May God show you favor, my son!
 Genesis 43:30 And in haste-for his feelings were so kindled toward his brother that he had to weep- Yosef entered a chamber and wept there.
 Genesis 43:31 Then he washed his face and came out, he restrained himself, and said: Serve bread!
 Genesis 43:32 They served him by himself and them by themselves and the Egyptians who were eating with him by themselves, for Egyptians will not eat bread with Hebrews-for that is an abomination for Egyptians.
 Genesis 43:33 But they were seated in his presence: the firstborn according to his rank-as-firstborn and the youngest according to his rank-as-youngest. And the men stared at each other in astonishment over it.
 Genesis 43:34 He had courses taken to them from his presence, and Binyamin's course was five times greater than all their courses. Then they drank and became drunk with him.
 Chapter 44
 Genesis 44:1 Now he commanded the steward of his house, saying: Fill the men's packs with food, as much as they are able to carry, and put each man's silver in the mouth of his pack.
 Genesis 44:2 And my goblet, the silver goblet, put in the mouth of the youngest's pack, along with the silver for his rations. He did according to Yosef's word which he had spoken.

Genesis 44:3 At the light of daybreak, the men were sent off, they and their donkeys;

Genesis 44:4 they were just outside the city-they had not yet gone far-when Yosef said to the steward of his house: Up, pursue the men, and when you have caught up with them, say to them: Why have you paid back ill for good?

Genesis 44:5 Is not this (goblet) the one that my lord drinks with? And he also divines, yes, divines with it! You have wrought ill in what you have done!

Genesis 44:6 When he caught up with them, he spoke those words to them.

Genesis 44:7 They said to him: Why does my lord speak such words as these? Heaven forbid for your servants to do such a thing!

Genesis 44:8 Here, the silver that we found in the mouth of our packs, we returned to you from the land of Canaan; so how could we steal silver or gold from the house of your lord?

Genesis 44:9 He with whom it is found among your servants, he shall die, and we also will become my lord's servants!

Genesis 44:10 He said: Now as well, according to your words, so be it: he with whom it is found shall become my servant, but you shall be clear.

Genesis 44:11 With haste each-man let down his pack to the ground, each-man opened his pack.

Genesis 44:12 and then he searched: with the eldest he started and with the youngest he finished- and the goblet was found in Binyamin's pack!

Genesis 44:13 They rent their clothes, each-man loaded up his donkey, and they returned to the city.

Genesis 44:14 Yehuda and his brothers came into Yosef's house -he was still there- and flung themselves down before him to the ground.

Genesis 44:15 Yosef said to them: What kind of deed is this that you have done! Do you not know that a man like me can divine, yes, divine?

Genesis 44:16 Yehuda said: What can we say to my lord? What can we speak, by what can we show ourselves innocent? God has found out your servants' crime! Here we are, servants to my lord, so we, so the one in whose hand the goblet was found.

Genesis 44:17 But he said: Heaven forbid that I should do this! The man in whose hand the goblet was found-he shall become my servant, but you-go up in peace to your father!

Genesis 44:18 Now Yehuda came closer to him and said: Please, my lord, pray let your servant speak a word in the ears of my lord, and do not let your anger flare up against your servant, for you are like Pharaoh!

Genesis 44:19 My lord asked his servants, saying: Do you have a father or (another) brother?

Genesis 44:20 And we said to my lord: We have an old father and a young child of his old age, whose brother is dead, so that he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.

Genesis 44:21 And you said to your servants: Bring him down to me, I wish to set my eyes upon him.

Genesis 44:22 But we said to my lord: The lad cannot leave his father, were he to leave his father, he would die.

Genesis 44:23 But you said to your servants: If your youngest brother does not come down with you, you shall not see my face again.

Genesis 44:24 Now it was, when we went up to your servant, my father, we told him my lord's words, Genesis 44:25 and our father said: Return, buy us some food-rations.

Genesis 44:26 But we said: We cannot go down; if our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down, for we cannot see the man's face if our youngest brother is not with us.

Genesis 44:27 Now your servant, my father, said to us: You yourselves know that my wife bore two to me.

Genesis 44:28 One went away from me, I said: For sure he is torn, torn-to-pieces! And I have not seen him again thus far.

Genesis 44:29 Now should you take away this one as well from before my face, should harm befall him, you will bring down my gray hair in ill-fortune to Sheol!

Genesis 44:30 So now, when I come back to your servant, my father, and the lad is not with us, -with whose life his own life is bound up!-

Genesis 44:31 it will be, that when he sees that the lad is no more, he will die, and your servant will have brought down the gray hair of your servant, our father, in grief to Sheol!

Genesis 44:32 For your servant pledged himself for the lad to my father, saying: If I do not bring him back to you, I will be culpable-for-sin against my father all the days (to come).

Genesis 44:33 So now, pray let your servant stay instead of the lad, as servant to my lord, but let the lad go up with his brothers!

Genesis 44:34 For how can I go up to my father, when the lad is not with me? Then would I see the ill- fortune that would come upon my father!

Chapter 45

Genesis 45:1 Yosef could no longer restrain himself in the presence of all who were stationed around him, he called out: Have everyone leave me! So no one stood (in attendance upon) him when Yosef made himself known to his brothers.

Genesis 45:2 He put forth his voice in weeping: the Egyptians heard, Pharaoh's household heard.

Genesis 45:3 Then Yosef said to his brothers: I am Yosef. Is my father still alive? But his brothers were not able to answer him, for they were confounded in his presence.

Genesis 45:4 Yosef said to his brothers: Pray come close to me! They came close. He said: I am Yosef your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.

Genesis 45:5 But now, do not be pained, and do not let upset be in your eyes that you sold me here! For it was to save life that God sent me on before you.

Genesis 45:6 For it is two years now that the famine has been in the midst of the land, and there are still another five years in which there shall be no plowing or harvest.

Genesis 45:7 So God sent me on before you to make you a remnant on earth, to keep you alive as a great body-of-survivors.

Genesis 45:8 So now, it was not you that sent me here, but God! He has made me Father to Pharaoh and lord of all his household and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 45:9 Make haste, go up to my father and say to him: Thus says your son, Yosef: God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not remain!

Genesis 45:10 You shall stay in the region of Goshen, you shall be near me, you and your sons and the sons of your sons, your sheep, your oxen, and all that is yours.

Genesis 45:11 I will sustain you there, for there are still five years of famine left -lest you be as disinherited, you and your household and all that is yours.

Genesis 45:12 Here, your eyes see, as well as my brother Binyamin's eyes, that it is my mouth that speaks to you!

Genesis 45:13 So tell my father of all the weight I carry in Egypt, and of all that you have seen, and make haste, bring my father down here!

Genesis 45:14 He flung himself upon his brother Binyamin's neck and wept, and Binyamin wept upon his neck.

Genesis 45:15 Then he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them. After this his brothers spoke with him.

Genesis 45:16 The news was heard in Pharaoh's household, they said: Yosef's brothers have come! It was good in Pharaoh's eyes and in the eyes of his servants.

Genesis 45:17 And Pharaoh said to Yosef: Say to your brothers: Do this- load your animals and go, come back to the land of Canaan;

Genesis 45:18 fetch your father and your households and come to me! I will give you the good-things of the land of Egypt, so that you will eat of the fat of the land!

Genesis 45:19 And you, you have been commanded: Do this- take you wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives, and carry your father down and come!

Genesis 45:20 Let not your eyes look-with-regret on your household-wares, for the good-things of all the land of Egypt-they are yours!

Genesis 45:21 The sons of Yisrael did so, Yosef gave them wagons in accordance with Pharaoh's orders and gave them victuals for the journey.

Genesis 45:22 To all of them, each man, he gave changes of clothes, but to Binyamin he gave three hundred pieces-of-silver and five changes of clothes,

Genesis 45:23 and to his father he sent in like manner: ten donkeys, carrying the good-things of Egypt, and ten she-asses, carrying grain and bread, and food for his father, for the journey.

Genesis 45:24 Then he sent off his brothers, and they went; he said to them: Do not be agitated on the journey!

Genesis 45:25 They went up from Egypt and came to the land of Canaan, to Yaakov their father, Genesis 45:26 and they told him, saying: Yosef is still alive! Indeed, he is ruler of all the land of Egypt! His heart failed, for he did not believe them.

Genesis 45:27 But when they spoke to him all of Yosef's words which he had spoken to them, and when he saw the wagons that Yosef had sent to carry him down, their father Yaakov's spirit came to life.

Genesis 45:28 Yisrael said: Enough! Yosef my son is still alive; I must go and see him before I die!

Chapter 46

Genesis 46:1 Yisrael traveled with all that was his and came to Be'er-sheva, and he slaughtered slaughter- offerings to the God of his father Yitzhak.

Genesis 46:2 And God said to Yisrael in visions of the night, he said: Yaakov! Yaakov! He said: Here I am.

Genesis 46:3 Now he said: I am El/God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid of going down to Egypt, for a great nation will I make of you there.

Genesis 46:4 I myself will go down with you to Egypt, and I myself will bring you up, yes, up again. And Yosef will lay his hand on your eyes.

Genesis 46:5 Yaakov departed from Be'er-sheva. Yisrael's sons carried Yaakov their father, their little-ones and their wives in the wagons that Pharaoh had sent for carrying him,

Genesis 46:6 and they took their acquired-livestock and their property that they had gained in the land of Canaan and came to Egypt, Yaakov and all his seed with him,

Genesis 46:7 his sons and the sons of his sons with him, his daughters and the daughters of his sons; all his seed he brought with him to Egypt.

Genesis 46:8 Now these are the names of the Sons of Israel who came to Egypt: Yaakov and his sons: Yaakov's firstborn was Re'uven.

Genesis 46:9 Re'uven's sons: Hanokh, Pallu, Hetzron, and Carmi.

Genesis 46:10 Shim'on's sons: Yemuel, Yamin, Ohad, Yakhin, and Tzohar, and Sha'ul the son of the Canaanite-woman.

Genesis 46:11 Levi's sons: Gershon, Kehat, and Merari.

Genesis 46:12 Yehuda's sons: Er, Onan, Shela, Peretz, and Zerah, but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan. And Peretz's sons were Hetzron and Hamul.

Genesis 46:13 Yissakhar's sons: Tola, Puvva, Yov, and Shimron.

Genesis 46:14 Zevulun's sons: Sered, Elon, and Yahl'el.

Genesis 46:15 These are the sons of Lea, whom she bore to Yaakov in the country of Aram, and also Dina his daughter; all the persons among his sons and daughters were thirty-three.

Genesis 46:16 Gad's sons: Tzifyon and Haggi, Shuni and Etzbon, Eri, Arodi, and Ar'eli.

Genesis 46:17 Asher's sons: Yimna, Yishva, Yishvi, and Beri'a, and Serah their sister. And Beri'a's sons: Hever and Malkiel.

Genesis 46:18 These are the sons of Zilpa, whom Lavan had given to Lea his daughter, she bore these to Yaakov: sixteen persons.

Genesis 46:19 The sons of Rahel, Yaakov's wife: Yosef and Binyamin.

Genesis 46:20 To Yosef there were born in the land of Egypt-whom Asenat, daughter of Poti Fera, priest of

Page 55 of 245

On, bore to him: Menashe and Efrayim.

Genesis 46:21 Binyamin's sons: Bela, Bekher and Ashbel, Gera and Naaman, Ahi and Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.

Genesis 46:22 These are the sons of Rahel, who were born to Yaakov, all the persons were fourteen.

Genesis 46:23 Dan's sons: Hushim.

Genesis 46:24 Naftali's sons: Yahtze'el, Guni, Yetzer, and Shillem.

Genesis 46:25 These are the sons of Bilha, whom Lavan had given to Rahel his daughter, she bore these to Yaakov: all the persons were seven.

Genesis 46:26 All the persons who came with Yaakov to Egypt, those going out from his loins, aside from the wives of Yaakov's sons: all the persons were sixty-six.

Genesis 46:27 Now Yosef's sons, who had been born to him in Egypt: the persons were two. (Thus) all the persons of Yaakov's household who came to Egypt were seventy.

Genesis 46:28 Now Yehuda he had sent on ahead of him, to Yosef, to give directions ahead of him to Goshen. When they came to the region of Goshen, Genesis 46:29 Yosef had his chariot harnessed and went up to meet Yisrael his father, to Goshen. When he caught sight of him he flung himself upon his neck and wept upon his neck continually.

Genesis 46:30 Yisrael said to Yosef: Now I can die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive!

Genesis 46:31 Yosef said to his brothers and to his father's household: I will go up, so that I may tell Pharaoh and say to him: My brothers and my father's household, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me.

Genesis 46:32 The men are shepherds of flocks, indeed, they have always been livestock men, and their sheep and their oxen, all that is theirs, they have brought along.

Genesis 46:33 Now it will be, when Pharaoh has you called and says: What is it that you do?

Genesis 46:34 Then say: Your servants have always been livestock men, from our youth until now, so we, so our fathers- in order that you may settle in the region of Goshen. For every shepherd of flocks is an abomination to the Egyptians.

Chapter 47

Genesis 47:1 So Yosef came and told Pharaoh, he said: My father and my brothers, their sheep and their oxen and all that is theirs, have come from the land of Canaan, and here, they are in the region of Goshen!

Genesis 47:2 Now from the circle of his brothers he had picked out five men and had set them in Pharaoh's presence.

Genesis 47:3 Pharaoh said to his brothers: What is it that you do? They said to Pharaoh: Your servants are shepherds of flocks, so we, so our fathers.

Genesis 47:4 And they said to Pharaoh: It is to sojourn in the land that we have come, for there is no grazing for the flocks that are your servants', for the famine is heavy in the land of Canaan. So now, pray let your servants settle in the region of Goshen!

Genesis 47:5 Pharaoh said to Yosef, saying: (So) your father and your brothers have come to you:

Genesis 47:6 the land of Egypt is before you; in the goodliest-part of the land, settle your father and your brothers, let them settle in the region of Goshen. And if you know that there are able men among them, make them chiefs of livestock over what is mine.

Genesis 47:7 Yosef brought Yaakov his father and had him stand in Pharaoh's presence. And Yaakov gave Pharaoh a blessing-of-greeting.

Genesis 47:8 Pharaoh said to Yaakov: How many are the days and years of your life?

Genesis 47:9 Yaakov said to Pharaoh: The days and years of my sojourn are thirty and a hundred years; few and ill-fated have been the days and years of my life, they have not attained the days and years of my fathers' lives in the days of their sojourn.

Genesis 47:10 Yaakov gave Pharaoh a blessing-of-farewell and went out from Pharaoh's presence.

Genesis 47:11 So Yosef settled his father and his brothers, giving them holdings in the land of Egypt, in the goodliest-part of the land, in the region of Ra'meses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

Genesis 47:12 Yosef sustained his father, his brothers, and his father's entire household with bread, in proportion to the little-ones.

Genesis 47:13 But bread there was none in all the land, for the famine was exceedingly heavy, and the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan were exhausted by the famine.

Genesis 47:14 Yosef had collected all the silver that was to be found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, from the rations that they had bought, and Yosef had brought the silver into Pharaoh's house.

Genesis 47:15 When the silver in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan had run out, all the Egyptians came to Yosef, saying: Come-now, (let us have) bread! Why should we die in front of you, because the silver is gone?

Genesis 47:16 Yosef said: Come-now, (let me have) your livestock, and I will give you (bread) for your livestock, since the silver is gone.

Genesis 47:17 So they brought their livestock to Yosef, and Yosef gave them bread (in exchange) for the horses, the sheep-livestock, the oxen-livestock, and the donkeys; he got-them-through with bread (in exchange) for all their livestock in that year.

Genesis 47:18 But when that year had run out, they came back to him in the second year and said to him: We cannot hide from my lord that if the silver has run out and the animal-stocks are my lord's, nothing remains for my lord except for our bodies and our soil!

Genesis 47:19 Why should we die before your eyes, so we, so our soil? Acquire us and our soil for bread, and we and our soil will become servants to Pharaoh. Give (us) seed-for-sowing that we may live and not die, that the soil may not become desolate!

Genesis 47:20 So Yosef acquired all the soil of Egypt for Pharaoh -for each of the Egyptians sold his field, for the famine was strong upon them- and the land went over to Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:21 As for the people, he transferred them into the cities, from one edge of Egypt's border to its other edge.

Genesis 47:22 Only the soil of the priests he did not acquire, for the priests had a prescribed-allocation from Pharaoh, and they ate from their allocation which Pharaoh had given them, therefore they did not sell their soil.

Genesis 47:23 Yosef said to the people: Now that I have acquired you and your soil today for Pharaoh, here, you have seed, sow the soil!

Genesis 47:24 But it shall be at the ingatherings, that you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, the four other parts being for you as seed for the field and for your eating-needs, for those in your households, and for feeding your little-ones.

Genesis 47:25 They said: You have saved our lives! May we find favor in my lord's eyes: we will become servants to Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:26 And Yosef made it a prescribed-law until this day, concerning the soil of Egypt: For Pharaoh every fifth part! Only the soil of the priests, that alone did not go over to Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:27 Now Yisrael stayed in the land of Egypt, in the region of Goshen; they obtained holdings in it, bore fruit, and became exceedingly many.

Genesis 47:28 And Yaakov lived in the land of Egypt for seventeen years. And the days of Yaakov, the years of his life, were seven years and a hundred and forty years.

Genesis 47:29 Now when Yisrael's days drew near to death, he called his son Yosef and said to him: Pray, if I have found favor in your eyes, pray put your hand under my thigh- deal with me faithfully and truly: pray do not bury me in Egypt!

Genesis 47:30 When I lie down with my fathers, carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burial-site! He said: I will do according to your words.

Genesis 47:31 But he said: Swear to me! So he swore to him. Then Yisrael bowed, at the head of the bed.

Page 57 of 245

Chapter 48

Genesis 48:1 Now after these events it was that they said to Yosef: Here, your father has taken sick! So he took his two sons with him, Menashe and Efrayim. . . .

Genesis 48:2 When they told Yaakov, saying: Here, your son Yosef is coming to you, Yisrael gathered his strength and sat up in the bed.

Genesis 48:3 Yaakov said to Yosef: God Shaddai was seen by me in Luz, in the land of Canaan; he blessed me

Genesis 48:4 and he said to me: Here, I will make you bear fruit and will make you many, and will make you into a host of peoples; I will give this land to your seed after you, as a holding for the ages!

Genesis 48:5 So now, your two sons who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, they are mine, Efrayim and Menashe, like Re'uven and Shim'on, let them be mine!

Genesis 48:6 But your begotten sons, whom you will beget after them, let them be yours; by their brothers' names let them be called, respecting their inheritance.

Genesis 48:7 While I- when I came back from that country, Rachel died on me, in the land of Canaan, on the way, with still a stretch of land left to come to Efrat. There I buried her, on the way to Efrat-that is now Bet-lehem.

Genesis 48:8 When Yisrael saw Yosef's sons, he said: Who are these?

Genesis 48:9 Yosef said to his father: They are my sons, whom God has given me here. He said: Pray take them over to me, that I may give-them-blessing.

Genesis 48:10 Now Yisrael's eyes were heavy with age, he was not able to see. He brought them close to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

Genesis 48:11 Yisrael said to Yosef: I never thought to see your face (again), and here, God has let me see your seed as well!

Genesis 48:12 Yosef took them from between his knees and they bowed low, their brows to the ground.

Genesis 48:14 But Yisrael stretched out his right-hand and put it on the head of Efrayim-yet he was the younger!- and his left-hand on the head of Menashe; he crossed his arms, although Menashe was the firstborn.

Genesis 48:15 Then he blessed Yosef and said: The God in whose presence my fathers walked, Avraham and Yitzhak, the God who has tended me ever since I was (born), until this day- Genesis 48:16 the messenger who has redeemed me from all ill-fortune, may he bless the lads! May my name continue to be called through them and the name of my fathers, Avraham and Yitzhak! May they teem-like-fish to (become) many in the midst of the land!

Genesis 48:17 Now when Yosef saw that his father had put his right hand on Efrayim's head, it sat ill in his eyes, and he laid hold of his father's hand, to turn it from Efrayim's head to Menashe's head.

Genesis 48:18 Yosef said to his father: Not so, father, indeed, this one is the firstborn, place your hand on his head!

Genesis 48:19 But his father refused and said: I know, my son, I know- he too will be a people, he too will be great, yet his younger brother will be greater than he, and his seed will become a full-measure of nations!

Genesis 48:20 So he blessed them on that day, saying: By you shall Israel give-blessings, saying: God make you like Efrayim and Menashe! Thus he made Efrayim go before Menashe.

Genesis 48:21 Then Yisrael said to Yosef: Here, I am dying, but God will be with you, he will have you return to the land of your fathers.

Genesis 48:22 And I, I give you one portion over and above your brothers, which I took away from the Amorite, with my sword, with my bow.

Page 58 of 245

Chapter 49

Genesis 49:1 Now Yaakov called his sons and said: Gather round, that I may tell you what will befall you in the aftertime of days.

Genesis 49:2 Come together and hearken, sons of Yaakov, hearken to Yisrael your father.

Genesis 49:3 Re'uven, my firstborn, you, my might, first-fruit of my vigor! Surpassing in loftiness, surpassing in force!

Genesis 49:4 Headlong like water-surpass no more! For when you mounted your father's bed, then you defiled it-he mounted the couch!

Genesis 49:5 Shim'on and Levi, such brothers, wronging weapons are their ties-of-kinship!

Genesis 49:6 To their council may my being never come, in their assembly may my person never unite! For in their anger they kill men, in their self-will they maim bulls.

Genesis 49:7 Damned be their anger, that it is so fierce! Their fury, that it is so harsh! I will split them up in Yaakov, I will scatter them in Yisrael.

Genesis 49:8 Yehuda, you-your brothers will praise you, your hand on the neck of your enemies! Your father's sons will bow down to you.

Genesis 49:9 A lion's whelp, Yehuda- from torn-prey, my son, you have gone up! He squats, he crouches, like the lion, like the king-of-beasts, who dares rouse him up?

Genesis 49:10 The scepter shall not depart from Yehuda, nor the staff-of-command from between his legs, until they bring him tribute, -the obedience of peoples is his.

Genesis 49:11 He ties up his foal to a vine, his young colt to a crimson tendril; he washes his raiment in wine, his mantle in the blood of grapes;

Genesis 49:12 his eyes, darker than wine, his teeth, whiter than milk.

Genesis 49:13 Zevulun, on the shore of the sea he dwells; he is a haven-shore for boats, his flank upon Tzidon.

Genesis 49:14 Yissakhar, a bone-strong donkey, crouching among the fire-places.

Genesis 49:15 When he saw how good the resting-place was, and how pleasant was the land, he bent his shoulder to bearing and so became a laboring serf.

Genesis 49:16 Dan, his people will mete-out-judgment, (to all) of Israel's branches together.

Genesis 49:17 May Dan be a snake on the wayside, a horned-viper on the path, who bites the horse's heels so that his rider tumbles backward.

Genesis 49:18 I wait-in-hope for your deliverance, O YHVH!

Genesis 49:19 Gad, goading robber-band will goad him, yet he will goad at their heel.
 Genesis 49:20 Asher, his nourishment is rich, he gives forth king's dainties.
 Genesis 49:21 Naftali, a hind let loose, he who gives forth lovely fawns.
 Genesis 49:22 Young wild-ass, Yosef, young wild-ass along a spring, donkeys along a wall.
 Genesis 49:23 Bitterly they shot at him, the archers assailed him,
 Genesis 49:24 yet firm remained his bow, and agile stayed his arms and hands- by means of the hands of Yaakov's Champion, up there, the Shepherd, the Stone of Yisrael.
 Genesis 49:25 By your father's God- may he help you, and Shaddai, may he give-you-blessing: Blessings of the heavens, from above, blessings of Ocean crouching below, blessings of breasts and womb!
 Genesis 49:26 May the blessings of your father transcend the blessings of mountains eternal, the bounds of hills without age. May they fall upon the head of Yosef, on the crown of the consecrated-one among his brothers.
 Genesis 49:27 Binyamin, a wolf that tears-to-pieces! In the morning he devours prey, and then, in the evening, divides up the spoil.
 Genesis 49:28 All these are the tribes of Israel, twelve, and this is what their father spoke to them; he blessed them, according to what belonged to each as blessing, he blessed them.
 Genesis 49:29 And he commanded them, saying to them: I am now about to be gathered to my kinspeople; bury me by my fathers, in the cave that is in the field of Efron the Hittite,

Genesis 49:30 at the cave that is in the field of Makhpela, that faces Mamre, in the land of Canaan. - Avraham had acquired that field from Efron the Hittite, as a burial holding.
 Genesis 49:31 There they buried Avraham and Sara his wife, there they buried Yitzhak and Rivka his wife, there I buried Lea- Genesis 49:32 an acquisition, the field and the cave that is in it, from the Sons of Het.
 Genesis 49:33 When Yaakov had finished commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet onto the bed and expired, and was gathered to his kinspeople.
 Chapter 50
 Genesis 50:1 Yosef flung himself on his father's face, he wept over him and kissed him.
 Genesis 50:2 Then Yosef charged his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father, and the physicians embalmed Yisrael.
 Genesis 50:3 A full forty days were required for him, for thus are fulfilled the days of embalming. And the Egyptians wept for him for seventy days.
 Genesis 50:4 Now when the days of weeping for him had passed, Yosef spoke to Pharaoh's household, saying: Pray, if I have found favor in your eyes, pray speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying:
 Genesis 50:5 My father had me swear, saying: Here, I am dying- in my burial-site which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you are to bury me! So now, pray let me go up, bury my father, and return.
 Genesis 50:6 Pharaoh said: Go up and bury your father, as he had you swear.
 Genesis 50:7 So Yosef went up to bury his father; and with him went up all of Pharaoh's servants, the elders of his household and all the elders of the land of Egypt,
 Genesis 50:8 all of Yosef's household, his brothers and his father's household. Only their little-ones, their sheep, and their oxen did they leave behind in the region of Goshen.
 Genesis 50:9 And along with him went up chariots as well, and horsemen as well- the company was an exceedingly heavy one.
 Genesis 50:10 They came as far as Goren Ha-Atad/Bramble Threshing-Floor, which is in (the country) across the Jordan, and there they took up lament, an exceedingly great and heavy lament, and he held mourning for his father, for seven days.
 Genesis 50:11 Now when the settled-folk of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at Bramble Threshing-Floor, they said: This is such a heavy mourning/evil for Egypt! Therefore its name was called: Meadow/evil of Egypt, which is in (the country) across the Jordan.
 Genesis 50:12 So his sons did thus for him, as he had commanded them:
 Genesis 50:13 his sons carried him back to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Makhpela. -Avraham had acquired that field as a burial holding from Efron the Hittite, (the field) facing Mamre.
 Genesis 50:14 Then Yosef returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.
 Genesis 50:15 When Yosef's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said: What if Yosef holds a grudge against us and repays, yes, repays us for all the ill that we caused him!
 Genesis 50:16 So they charged Yosef, saying: Your father commanded before his death, saying:
 Genesis 50:17 Say thus to Yosef: Ah, pray forgive your brothers' offense and their sin, that they caused you ill! Now, pray forgive the offense of the servants of your father's God! Yosef wept as they spoke to him.
 Genesis 50:18 And his brothers themselves came, they flung themselves down before him and said: Here we are, servants to you!
 Genesis 50:19 But Yosef said to them: Do not be afraid! For am I in place of God?
 Genesis 50:20 Now you, you planned ill against me, (but) God planned-it-over for good, in order to do (as is) this very day- to keep many people alive.

Genesis 50:21 So now, do not be afraid! I myself will sustain you and your little-ones! And he comforted them and spoke to their hearts.

Genesis 50:22 So Yosef stayed in Egypt, he and his father's household. Yosef lived a hundred and ten years;

Genesis 50:23 Yosef saw from Efrayim sons of the third generation, and also the sons of Makhir son of Menashe were born on Yosef's knees.

Genesis 50:24 Yosef said to his brothers: I am dying, but God will take account, yes, account of you, he will bring you up from this land to the land about which he swore to Avraham, to Yitzhak, and to Yaakov.

Genesis 50:25 Yosef had the Sons of Israel swear, saying: When God takes account, yes, account of you, bring my bones up from here!

Genesis 50:26 And Yosef died, a hundred and ten years old. They embalmed him and they put him in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

Chapter 1

Exodus 1:1 Now these are the names of the children of Israel coming to Egypt, with Yaakov, each-man and his household they came:

Exodus 1:2 Re'uven, Shim'on, Levi and Yehuda,

Exodus 1:3 Yissakhar, Zevulun and Binyamin,

Exodus 1:4 Dan and Naftali, Gad and Asher.

Exodus 1:5 So all the persons, those issuing from Yaakov's loins, were seventy persons, -Yosef was (already) in Egypt.

Exodus 1:6 Now Yosef died, and all his brothers, and all that generation.

Exodus 1:7 Yet the Children of Israel bore fruit, they swarmed, they became many, they grew mighty (in number)-exceedingly, yes, exceedingly; the land filled up with them.

Exodus 1:8 Now a new king arose over Egypt, who had not known Yosef.

Exodus 1:9 He said to his people: Here, (this) people, the Children of Israel, is many-more and mightier (in number) than we!

Exodus 1:10 Come-now, let us use-our-wits against it, lest it become many-more, and then, if war should occur, it too be added to our enemies and make war upon us or go up away from the land!

Exodus 1:11 So they set gang-captains over it, to afflict it with their burdens. It built storage-cities for Pharaoh-Pitom and Ra'amses.

Exodus 1:12 But as they afflicted it, so did it become many, so did it burst forth. And they felt dread before the Children of Israel.

Exodus 1:13 So they, Egypt, made the Children of Israel subservient with crushing-labor;

Exodus 1:14 they embittered their lives with hard servitude in loam and in bricks and with all kinds of servitude in the field- all their service in which they made them subservient with crushing-labor.

Exodus 1:15 Now the king of Egypt said to the midwives of the Hebrews -the name of the first one was

Shifra, the name of the second was Pu'a- Exodus 1:16 he said: When you help the Hebrew women give birth, see the supporting-stones: if he be a son, put him to death, but if she be a daughter, she may live.

Exodus 1:17 But the midwives held God in awe, and they did not do as the king of Egypt had spoken to them, they let the (male) children live.

Exodus 1:18 The king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them: Why have you done this thing, you have let the children live!

Exodus 1:19 The midwives said to Pharaoh: Indeed, not like the Egyptian (women) are the Hebrew (women), indeed, they are lively: before the midwife comes to them, they have given birth!

Exodus 1:20 God dealt well with the midwives. And the people became many and grew exceedingly mighty

(in number).

Exodus 1:21 It was, since the midwives held God in awe, that he made them households.

Exodus 1:22 Now Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying: Every son that is born, throw him into the Nile, but let every daughter live.

Chapter 2

Exodus 2:1 Now a man from the house of Levi went and took (to wife) a daughter of Levi.

Exodus 2:2 The woman became pregnant and bore a son. When she saw him-that he was goodly, she hid him, for three months.

Exodus 2:3 And when she was no longer able to hide him, she took for him a little-ark of papyrus, she loamed it with loam and with pitch, placed the child in it, and placed it in the reeds by the shore of the Nile.

Exodus 2:4 Now his sister stationed herself far off, to know what would be done to him.

Exodus 2:5 Now Pharaoh's daughter went down to bathe at the Nile, and her girls were walking along the Nile. She saw the little-ark among the reeds and sent her maid, and she fetched it.

Exodus 2:6 She opened (it) and saw him, the child- here, a boy weeping! She pitied him, and she said: One of the Hebrews' children is this!

Exodus 2:7 Now his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter: Shall I go and call a nursing woman from the Hebrews for you, that she may nurse the child for you?

Exodus 2:8 Pharaoh's daughter said to her: Go! The maiden went and called the child's mother.

Exodus 2:9 Pharaoh's daughter said to her: Have this child go with you and nurse him for me, and I myself will give you your wages. So the woman took the child and she nursed him.

Exodus 2:10 The child grew, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She called his name: Moshe/He-who-pulls-out; she said: For out of the water meshitihu/I-pulled-him.

Exodus 2:11 Now it was some years later, Moshe grew up; he went out to his brothers and saw their burdens. He saw an Egyptian man striking a Hebrew man, (one) of his brothers.

Exodus 2:12 He turned this-way and that-way, and seeing that there was no man (there), he struck down the Egyptian and buried him in the sand.

Exodus 2:13 He went out again on the next day, and here: two Hebrew men scuffling! He said to the guilty- one: For-what-reason do you strike your fellow?

Exodus 2:14 He said: Who made you prince and judge over us? Do you mean to kill me as you killed the Egyptian? Moshe became afraid and said: Surely the matter is known!

Exodus 2:15 Pharaoh heard of this matter and sought to kill Moshe. But Moshe fled from Pharaoh's face and settled in the land of Midyan; he sat down by a well.

Exodus 2:16 Now the priest of Midyan had seven daughters; they came, they drew (water) and they filled the troughs, to give-drink to their father's sheep.

Exodus 2:17 Shepherds came and drove them away. But Moshe rose up, he delivered them and gave-drink to their sheep.

Exodus 2:18 When they came (home) to Re'uel their father, he said: Why have you come (home) so quickly today?

Exodus 2:19 They said: An Egyptian man rescued us from the hand of the shepherds, and also he drew, yes, drew for us and watered the sheep!

Exodus 2:20 He said to his daughters: So-where-is-he? For-what-reason then have you left the man behind? Call him, that he may eat bread (with us)!

Exodus 2:21 Moshe agreed to settle down with the man, and he gave Tziphora his daughter to Moshe.

Exodus 2:22 She gave birth to a son, and he called his name: Gershom/Sojourner There, for he said: A sojourner have I become in a foreign land.

Exodus 2:23 It was, many years later, the king of Egypt died. The Children of Israel groaned from the servitude, and they cried out; and their plea-for-help went up to God, from the servitude.

Exodus 2:24 God hearkened to their moaning, God called-to-mind his covenant with Avraham, with Yitzhak, and with Yaakov, Exodus 2:25 God saw the Children of Israel, God knew.

Chapter 3

Exodus 3:1 Now Moshe was shepherding the flock of Yitro his father- in-law, priest of Midyan. He led the flock behind the wilderness- and he came to the mountain of God, to Horev.

Exodus 3:2 And YHVH'S messenger was seen by him in the flame of a fire out of the midst of a bush. He saw: here, the bush is burning with fire, and the bush is not consumed!

Exodus 3:3 Moshe said: Now let me turn aside that I may see this great sight- why the bush does not burn up!

Exodus 3:4 When YHVH saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the midst of the bush, he said: Moshe! Moshe! He said: Here I am.

Exodus 3:5 He said: Do not come near to here, put off your sandal from your foot, for the place on which you stand-it is holy ground!

Exodus 3:6 And he said: I am the God of your father, the God of Avraham, the God of Yitzhak, and the God of Yaakov. Moshe concealed his face, for he was afraid to gaze upon God.

Exodus 3:7 Now YHVH said: I have seen, yes, seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, their cry I have heard in the face of their slave-drivers; indeed, I have known their sufferings!

Exodus 3:8 So I have come down to rescue it from the hand of Egypt, to bring it up from that land to a land, goodly and spacious, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanite and the Hittite, of the Amorite and the Perizzite, of the Hivvite and the Yevusite.

Exodus 3:9 So now, here, the cry of the Children of Israel has come to me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them.

Exodus 3:10 So now, go, for I send you to Pharaoh- bring my people, the Children of Israel, out of Egypt!

Exodus 3:11 Moshe said to God: Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, that I should bring the Children of Israel out of Egypt?

Exodus 3:12 He said: Indeed, I will be-there with you, and this is the sign for you that I myself have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will (all) serve God by this mountain.

Exodus 3:13 Moshe said to God: Here, I will come to the Children of Israel and I will say to them: The God of your fathers has sent me to you, and they will say to me: What is his name?- what shall I say to them?

Exodus 3:14 God said to Moshe: EHYEH ASHER EHYEH/I will be-there howsoever I will be-there. And he said: Thus shall you say to the Children of Israel: EHYEH/I-WILL-BE-THERE sends me to you.

Exodus 3:15 And God said further to Moshe: Thus shall you say to the Children of Israel: YHVH, the God of your fathers, the God of Avraham, the God of Yitzhak, and the God of Yaakov, sends me to you.
That is my name for the ages, that is my title (from) generation to generation.
Exodus 3:16 Go, gather the elders of Israel and say to them: YHVH, the God of your fathers, has been seen by me, the God of Avraham, of Yitzhak, and of Yaakov, saying: I have taken account, yes, account of you and of what is being done to you in Egypt,
Exodus 3:17 and I have declared: I will bring you up from the affliction of Egypt, to the land of the Canaanite and of the Hittite, of the Amorite and of the Perizzite, of the Hivvite and of the Yevusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey.
Exodus 3:18 They will hearken to your voice, and you will come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt and say to him: YHVH, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us- so now, pray let us go a three days' journey into the wilderness and let us slaughter (offerings) to YHVH our God!
Exodus 3:19 But I, I know that the king of Egypt will not give you leave to go, not (even) under a strong hand.
Exodus 3:20 So I will send forth my hand and I will strike Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in its midst- after that he will send you free!

Exodus 3:21 And I will give this people favor in the eyes of Egypt; it will be that when you go, you shall not go empty-handed:
Exodus 3:22 each woman shall ask of her neighbor and of the sojourner in her house objects of silver and objects of gold, and clothing, you shall put (them) on your sons and on your daughters- so shall you strip Egypt!
Chapter 4
Exodus 4:1 Moshe spoke up, he said: But they will not trust me, and will not hearken to my voice, indeed, they will say: YHVH has not been seen by you. . . !
Exodus 4:2 YHVH said to him: What is that in your hand? He said: A staff.
Exodus 4:3 He said: Throw it to the ground! He threw it to the ground, and it became a snake, and Moshe fled from its face.
Exodus 4:4 YHVH said to Moshe: Send forth your hand! Seize it by its tail! -He sent forth his hand, took hold of it, and it became a staff in his fist- Exodus 4:5 so that they may trust that YHVH, the God of their fathers, the God of Avraham, the God of Yitzhak, and the God of Yaakov, has been seen by you.
Exodus 4:6 YHVH said further to him: Pray put your hand in your bosom! He put his hand in his bosom, then he took it out, and here: his hand had tzaraat, like snow!
Exodus 4:7 Now he said: Return your hand to your bosom! -He returned his hand to his bosom, then he took it out of his bosom, and here: it had returned (to be) like his (other) flesh.
Exodus 4:8 So it shall be, if they do not trust you, and do not hearken to the voice of the former sign, that they will put their trust in the voice of the latter sign.
Exodus 4:9 And it shall be, if they do not put their trust in even these two signs, and do not hearken to your voice: then take some of the water of the Nile and pour it out on the dry-land, and the water that you take from the Nile will become blood on the dry-land.
Exodus 4:10 Moshe said to YHVH: Please, my Lord, no man of words am I, not from yesterday, not from the day-before, not (even) since you have spoken to your servant, for heavy of mouth and heavy of tongue am I!
Exodus 4:11 YHVH said to him: Who placed a mouth in human beings or who (is it that) makes one mute or deaf or open-eyed or blind? Is it not I, YHVH?
Exodus 4:12 So now, go! I myself will be-there with your mouth and will instruct you as to what you are to speak.
Exodus 4:13 But he said: Please, my Lord, pray send by whose hand you will send!
Exodus 4:14 YHVH'S anger flared up against Moshe, he said: Is there not Aharon your brother, the Levite- I know that he can speak, yes, speak well, and here, he is even going out to meet you; when he sees you, he will rejoice in his heart.
Exodus 4:15 You shall speak to him, you shall put the words in his mouth! I myself will be-there with your mouth and with his mouth, and will instruct you as to what you shall do.
Exodus 4:16 He shall speak for you to the people, he, he shall be for you a mouth, and you, you shall be for him a god.
Exodus 4:17 And this staff, take in your hand, with which you shall do the signs.
Exodus 4:18 Moshe went and returned to Yitro his father-in-law and said to him: Pray let me go and return to my brothers that are in Egypt, that I may see whether they are still alive. Yitro said to Moshe: Go in peace!
Exodus 4:19 Now YHVH said to Moshe in Midyan: Go, return to Egypt, for all the men who sought (to take) your life have died.
Exodus 4:20 So Moshe took his wife and his sons and mounted them upon a donkey, to return to the land of Egypt, and Moshe took the staff of God in his hand.

Exodus 4:21 YHVH said to Moshe: When you go to return to Egypt, see: All the portents that I have put in your hand, you are to do before Pharaoh, but I will make his heart strong-willed, so that he will not send the people free.

Exodus 4:22 Then you are to say to Pharaoh: Thus says YHVH: My son, my firstborn, is Israel!

Exodus 4:23 I said to you: Send free my son, that he may serve me, but you have refused to send him free, (so) here: I will kill your son, your firstborn!

Exodus 4:24 Now it was on the journey, at the night-camp, that YHVH encountered him and sought to make him die.

Exodus 4:25 Tziphora took a flint and cut off her son's foreskin, she touched it to his legs and said: Indeed, a bridegroom of blood are you to me!

Exodus 4:26 Thereupon he released him. Then she said, "a bridegroom of blood" upon the circumcision- cuttings.

Exodus 4:27 Now YHVH said to Aharon: Go to meet Moshe in the wilderness! He went, he encountered him at the mountain of God and he kissed him.

Exodus 4:28 And Moshe told Aharon all YHVH'S words with which he had sent him and all the signs with which he had charged him.

Exodus 4:29 Moshe and Aharon went, they gathered all the elders of the Children of Israel, Exodus 4:30 and Aharon spoke all the words which YHVH had spoken to Moshe, he did the signs before the people's eyes.

Exodus 4:31 The people trusted, they hearkened that YHVH had taken account of the Children of Israel, that he had seen their affliction. And they bowed low and did homage.

Chapter 5

Exodus 5:1 Afterward Moshe and Aharon came and said to Pharaoh: Thus says YHVH, the God of Israel: Send free my people, that they may hold-a-festival to me in the wilderness!

Exodus 5:2 Pharaoh said: Who is YHVH, that I should hearken to his voice to send Israel free? I do not know YHVH, moreover, Israel I will not send free!

Exodus 5:3 They said: The God of the Hebrews has met with us; pray let us go a three days' journey into the wilderness, and let us slaughter (offerings) to YHVH our God, lest he confront us with the pestilence or the sword!

Exodus 5:4 The king of Egypt said to them: For-what-reason, Moshe and Aharon, would you let the people loose from their tasks? Go back to your burdens!

Exodus 5:5 Pharaoh said: Here, too many now are the people of the land, and you would have them cease from their burdens!

Exodus 5:6 So that day Pharaoh commanded the slave-drivers of the people and its officers, saying:

Exodus 5:7 You are no longer to give straw to the people to make the bricks as yesterday and the day- before; let it be them that go and gather straw for themselves!

Exodus 5:8 But the (same) measure of bricks that they have been making, yesterday and the day-before. you are to impose on them, you are not to subtract from it! For they are lax- therefore they cry out, saying: Let us go, let us slaughter (offerings) to our God!

Exodus 5:9 Let the servitude weigh-heavily on the men! They shall have to do it, so that they pay no more regard to false words!

Exodus 5:10 The slave-drivers of the people and its officers went out and said to the people, saying: Thus says Pharaoh: I will not give you straw:

Exodus 5:11 You go, get yourselves straw, wherever you can find (it), indeed, not one (load) is to be subtracted from your servitude!

Exodus 5:12 The people scattered throughout all the land of Egypt, gathering stubble-gatherings for straw.

Exodus 5:13 But the slave-drivers pressed them hard, saying: Finish your tasks, each-day's work-load in its day, as when there was straw!

Exodus 5:14 And the officers of the Children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's slave-drivers had set over them, were beaten, they said (to them): For-what-reason have you not finished baking your allocation as yesterday and the day-before, so yesterday, so today?

Exodus 5:15 The officers of the Children of Israel came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying: Why do you do thus to your servants?

Exodus 5:16 No straw is being given to your servants, and as for bricks-they say to us, Make (them)! Here, your servants are being beaten, and the fault is your people's!

Exodus 5:17 But he said: Lax you are, lax, therefore you say: Let us go, let us slaughter (offerings) to YHVH- Exodus 5:18 so now, go-serve; no straw will be given to you, and the full-measure in bricks you must give back!

Exodus 5:19 The officers of the Children of Israel saw that they were in an ill-plight, having to say: Do not subtract from your bricks each-day's work-load in its day!

Exodus 5:20 They confronted Moshe and Aharon, stationing themselves to meet them when they came out from Pharaoh,

Exodus 5:21 they said to them: May YHVH see you and judge, for having made our smell reek in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants, giving a sword into their hand, to kill us!

Exodus 5:22 Moshe returned to YHVH and said: My Lord, for-what-reason have you dealt so ill with this people? For-what-reason have you sent me?

Exodus 5:23 Since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has dealt only ill with this people, and rescued-you have not rescued your people!

Chapter 6

Exodus 6:1 YHVH said to Moshe: Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand he will send them free, and with a strong hand he will drive them out of his land.

Exodus 6:2 God spoke to Moshe, he said to him: I am YHVH.

Exodus 6:3 I was seen by Avraham, by Yitzhak, and by Yaakov as God Shaddai, but (by) my name YHVH I was not known to them.

Exodus 6:4 I also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their sojournings, where they had sojourned.

Exodus 6:5 And I have also heard the moaning of the Children of Israel, whom Egypt is holding-in- servitude, and I have called-to-mind my covenant.

Exodus 6:6 Therefore, say to the Children of Israel: I am YHVH; I will bring you out from beneath the burdens of Egypt, I will rescue you from servitude to them, I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, with great (acts of) judgment;

Exodus 6:7 I will take you for me as a people, and I will be for you as a God; and you shall know that I am YHVH your God, who brings you out from beneath the burdens of Egypt.

Exodus 6:8 I will bring you into the land (over) which I lifted my hand (in an oath) to give to Avraham, to Yitzhak, and to Yaakov. I will give it to you as a possession, I, YHVH.

Exodus 6:9 Moshe spoke thus to the Children of Israel. But they did not hearken to Moshe, out of shortness of spirit and out of hard servitude.

Exodus 6:10 YHVH spoke to Moshe, saying:

Exodus 6:11 Go in, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he may send free the Children of Israel from his land.

Exodus 6:12 Moshe spoke before YHVH, saying: Here, (if) the Children of Israel do not hearken to me, how will Pharaoh hearken to me? -and I am of foreskinned lips!

Exodus 6:13 YHVH spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, and charged them to the Children of Israel and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the Children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

Exodus 6:14 These are the heads of their Fathers' Houses: The sons of Re'uven, firstborn of Israel: Hanokh and Pallu, Hetzron and Karmi, these are the clans of Re'uven.

Exodus 6:15 And the sons of Shim'on: Yemuel, Yamin, Ohad, Yakhin and Tzohar, and Sha'ul the son of the Canaanite-woman, these are the clans of Shim'on.

Exodus 6:16 Now these are the names of the Sons of Levi according to their begettings: Gershon, Kehat and Merari. Now the years of Levi's life were seven and thirty and a hundred years.

Exodus 6:17 The sons of Gershon: Livni and Shim'i, according to their clans.

Exodus 6:18 And the sons of Kehat: Amram, Yitzhar, Hevron and Uzziel. Now the years of Kehat's life were three and thirty and a hundred years.

Exodus 6:19 And the sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the Levite clans, according to their begettings.

Exodus 6:20 Amram took himself Yokheved his aunt as a wife, she bore him Aharon and Moshe. Now the years of Amram's life were seven and thirty and a hundred years.

Exodus 6:21 Now the sons of Yitzhar: Korah, Nefeg and Zikhri.

Exodus 6:22 And the sons of Uzziel: Mishael, Eltzafan and Sitri.

Exodus 6:23 Aharon took himself Elisheva daughter of Amminadav, Nahshon's sister, as a wife. She bore him Nadav and Avihu, Elazar and Itamar.

Exodus 6:24 Now the sons of Korah: Assir, Elkana and Aviasaf; these are the Korahite clans.

Exodus 6:25 Elazar son of Aharon took himself one of Putiel's daughters for himself as a wife, she bore him Pin'has. These are the heads of the Levite father-groupings according to their clans.

Exodus 6:26 That is (the) Aharon and Moshe to whom YHVH said: Bring the Children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their forces;

Exodus 6:27 those (were they) who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the Children of Israel out of Egypt, that Moshe and Aharon.

Exodus 6:28 So it was on the day that YHVH spoke to Moshe in the land of Egypt,

Exodus 6:29 YHVH spoke to Moshe, saying: I am YHVH; speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I speak to you.

Exodus 6:30 Moshe said before YHVH: If I am of foreskinned lips, how will Pharaoh hearken to me?

Chapter 7

Exodus 7:1 YHVH said to Moshe: See, I will make you as a god for Pharaoh, and Aharon your brother will be your prophet.

Exodus 7:2 You are to speak all that I command you, And Aharon your brother is to speak to Pharaoh so that he may send free the Children of Israel from his land.

Exodus 7:3 But I, I will harden Pharaoh's heart, I will make my signs and my portents many in the land of Egypt:

Exodus 7:4 Pharaoh will not hearken to you, so I will set my hand against Egypt, and I will bring out my forces, my people, the Children of Israel, from the land of Egypt, with great (acts of) judgment;

Exodus 7:5 the Egyptians will know that I am YHVH, when I stretch out my hand over Egypt and bring the Children of Israel out from their midst.

Exodus 7:6 Moshe and Aharon did as YHVH had commanded them, thus they did.

Exodus 7:7 Now Moshe was eighty years old, and Aharon was eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Exodus 7:8 YHVH said to Moshe and to Aharon, saying:

Exodus 7:9 When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying: Give, you, a portent, then say to Aharon: Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh: Let it become a serpent.

Exodus 7:10 Moshe and Aharon came to Pharaoh, they did thus, as YHVH had commanded, Aharon threw down his staff before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

Exodus 7:11 Pharaoh too called for the wise men and for the sorcerers, that they too, the magicians of Egypt, should do thus with their occult-arts,

Exodus 7:12 they threw down, each-man, his staff, and these became serpents. But Aharon's staff swallowed up their staffs.

Exodus 7:13 Yet Pharaoh's heart remained strong-willed, and he did not hearken to them, as YHVH had spoken.

Exodus 7:14 YHVH said to Moshe: Pharaoh's heart is heavy-with-stubbornness-he refuses to send the people free.

Exodus 7:15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning, here, he goes out to the Nile, station yourself to meet him by the shore of the Nile, and the staff that changed into a snake, take in your hand,

Exodus 7:16 and say to him: YHVH, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying: Send free my people, that they may serve me in the wilderness! But here, you have not hearkened thus far.

Exodus 7:17 Thus says YHVH: By this shall you know that I am YHVH: here, I will strike-with the staff that is in my hand-upon the water that is in the Nile, and it will change into blood.

Exodus 7:18 The fish that are in the Nile will die, and the Nile will reek, and the Egyptians will be unable to drink water from the Nile.

Exodus 7:19 YHVH said to Moshe: Say to Aharon: Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their tributaries, over their Nile-canals, over their ponds and over all their bodies of water, and let them become blood! There will be blood throughout all the land of Egypt-in the wooden-containers, in the stoneware.

Exodus 7:20 Moshe and Aharon did thus, as YHVH had commanded them. He raised the staff and struck the water in the Nile, before the eyes of Pharaoh and before the eyes of his servants, and all the water that was in the Nile changed into blood.

Exodus 7:21 The fish that were in the Nile died, and the Nile reeked, and the Egyptians could not drink water from the Nile; the blood was throughout all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 7:22 But the magicians of Egypt did thus with their occult-arts, and Pharaoh's heart remained strong-willed, and he did not hearken to them, as YHVH had spoken.

Exodus 7:23 So Pharaoh turned and came into his house, neither did he pay any mind to this.

Exodus 7:24 But all Egypt had to dig around the Nile to drink water, for they could not drink from the waters of the Nile.

Exodus 7:25 Seven days were fulfilled, after YHVH had struck the Nile.

Exodus 7:26 YHVH said to Moshe: Come to Pharaoh and say to him: Thus says YHVH: Send free my people, that they may serve me!

Exodus 7:27 Now if you refuse to send them free, here, I will smite your entire territory with frogs.

Exodus 7:28 The Nile will swarm with frogs; they will ascend, they will come into your house, into your bedroom, upon your couch, into your servants' houses, in among your people, into your ovens and into your dough-pans;

Exodus 7:29 onto you, onto your people, onto all your servants will the frogs ascend!

Chapter 8

Exodus 8:1 YHVH said to Moshe: Say to Aharon: Stretch out your hand with your staff, over the tributaries, over the Nile-canals, and over the ponds, make the frogs ascend upon the land of Egypt!

Exodus 8:2 Aharon stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, the frog-horde ascended and covered the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:3 Now the magicians did thus with their occult-arts- they made frogs ascend upon the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:4 Pharaoh had Moshe and Aharon called and said: Plead with YHVH, that he may remove the frogs from me and from my people, and I will send the people free, that they may slaughter (offerings) to YHVH!

Exodus 8:5 Moshe said to Pharaoh: Be praised over me: For when shall I plead for you, for your servants, for your people, to cut off the frogs from you and from your houses, (so that) only in the Nile will they remain?

Exodus 8:6 He said: For the morrow. He said: According to your words, (then)! In order that you may know that there is none like YHVH our God.

Exodus 8:7 The frogs shall remove from you, from your houses, from your servants, from your people, - only in the Nile shall they remain.

Exodus 8:8 Moshe and Aharon went out from Pharaoh, Moshe cried out to YHVH on account of the frogs that he had imposed upon Pharaoh.

Exodus 8:9 And YHVH did according to Moshe's words: the frogs died away, from the houses, from the courtyards, and from the fields.

Exodus 8:10 They piled them up, heaps upon heaps, and the land reeked.

Exodus 8:11 But when Pharaoh saw that there was breathing-room, he made his heart heavy-with- stubbornness, and did not hearken to them, as YHVH had spoken.

Exodus 8:12 YHVH said to Moshe: Say to Aharon: Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the land, it will become gnats throughout all the land of Egypt!

Exodus 8:13 They did thus, Aharon stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the ground, and gnats were on man and on beast; all the dust of the ground became gnats throughout all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:14 Now the magicians did thus with their occult-arts, to bring forth the gnats, but they could not, the gnats were on man and on beast.

Exodus 8:15 The magicians said to Pharaoh: This is the finger of a god! But Pharaoh's heart remained strong-willed, and he did not hearken to them, as YHVH had spoken.

Exodus 8:16 YHVH said to Moshe: Start-early in the morning, station yourself before Pharaoh-here, he goes out to the water, and say to him: Thus says YHVH: Send free my people, that they may serve me!

Exodus 8:17 Indeed, if you do not send my people free, here, I will send upon you, upon your servants, upon your people, upon your houses- insects, the houses of Egypt will be full of the insects, as well as the ground upon which they are!

Exodus 8:18 But I will make distinct, on that day, the region of Goshen, where my people is situated, so that there will be no insects there, in order that you may know that I am YHVH in the land;

Exodus 8:19 I will put a ransom between my people and your people- on the morrow will this sign occur.

Exodus 8:20 YHVH did thus, heavy insect (swarms) came into Pharaoh's house, into the houses of his servants, throughout all the land of Egypt, the land was in ruins in the face of the insects.

Exodus 8:21 Pharaoh had Moshe and Aharon called and said: Go, slaughter (offerings) to your god in the land!

Exodus 8:22 Moshe said: It would not be wise to do thuswise: for Egypt's abomination is what we slaughter for our God; if we were to slaughter Egypt's abomination before their eyes, would they not stone us?

Exodus 8:23 Let us go a three days' journey into the wilderness, and we shall slaughter (offerings) to YHVH our God, as he has said to us.

Exodus 8:24 Pharaoh said: I will send you free, that you may slaughter (offerings) to YHVH your God in the wilderness, only: you are not to go far, too far! Plead for me!

Exodus 8:25 Moshe said: Here, when I go out from you, I will plead with YHVH, and the insects will remove from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, on the morrow, only: let not Pharaoh continue to trifle (with us), by not sending the people free to slaughter (offerings) to YHVH!

Exodus 8:26 Moshe went out from before Pharaoh and pleaded with YHVH.

Exodus 8:27 And YHVH did according to Moshe's words, he removed the insects from Pharaoh, from his servants and from his people, not one remained.

Exodus 8:28 But Pharaoh made his heart heavy-with-stubbornness this time as well, and he did not send the people free.

Chapter 9

Exodus 9:1 YHVH said to Moshe: Come to Pharaoh and speak to him: Thus says YHVH, the God of the Hebrews: Send free my people, that they may serve me!

Exodus 9:2 If you refuse to send (them) free, and continue to hold-on-strongly to them,

Exodus 9:3 here, YHVH'S hand will be on your livestock in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the oxen, (and) on the sheep- an exceedingly heavy pestilence!

Exodus 9:4 And YHVH will make-a-distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt: there will not die among all that belong to the Children of Israel a thing!

Exodus 9:5 YHVH set an appointed-time, saying: On the morrow, YHVH will do this thing in the land.

Exodus 9:6 YHVH did that thing on the morrow- all the livestock of Egypt died, but of the livestock of the Children of Israel, there died not one.

Exodus 9:7 Pharaoh sent to inquire, and here: there had not died of the livestock of the Children of Israel even one. But Pharaoh's heart remained heavy-with-stubbornness, and he did not send the people free.

Exodus 9:8 YHVH said to Moshe and to Aharon: Take yourselves fistfuls of soot from a furnace and let Moshe toss it heavenward before Pharaoh's eyes,

Exodus 9:9 it will become fine-dust on all the land of Egypt, and on man and on beast, it will become boils sprouting into blisters, throughout all the land of Egypt!

Exodus 9:10 They took the soot from a furnace and stood before Pharaoh, and Moshe tossed it heavenward, and it became boil-blisters, sprouting on man and on beast.

Exodus 9:11 Now the magicians could not stand before Moshe because of the boils, for the boils were upon the magicians and upon all Egypt.

Exodus 9:12 But YHVH made Pharaoh's heart strong-willed, and he did not hearken to them, as YHVH had said to Moshe.

Exodus 9:13 YHVH said to Moshe: Start-early in the morning, station yourself before Pharaoh and say to him: Thus says YHVH, the God of the Hebrews: Send free my people, that they may serve me!

Exodus 9:14 Indeed, this time I will send all my blows upon your heart, and against your servants, and against your people, so that you may know that there is none like me throughout all the land;

Exodus 9:15 indeed, by now I could have sent out my hand and struck you and your people with the pestilence, and you would have vanished from the land;

Exodus 9:16 however, just on account of this I have allowed you to withstand, to make you see my power. and in order that they might recount my name throughout all the land.

Exodus 9:17 (But) still you set yourself up over my people, by not sending them free- Exodus 9:18 here, around this time tomorrow I will cause to rain down an exceedingly heavy hail, the like of which has never been in Egypt from the days of its founding until now!

Exodus 9:19 So now: send (word): give refuge to your livestock and to all that is yours in the field; all men and beasts who are found in the field and who have not been gathered into the house- the hail will come down upon them, and they will die!

Exodus 9:20 Whoever had awe for the word of YHVH among Pharaoh's servants had his servants and his livestock flee into the houses, Exodus 9:21 but whoever did not pay any mind to the word of YHVH left his servants and his livestock out in the field.

Exodus 9:22 YHVH said to Moshe: Stretch out your hand over the heavens: Let there be hail throughout all the land of Egypt, on man and on beast and on all the plants of the field, throughout the land of Egypt!

Exodus 9:23 Moshe stretched out his staff over the heavens, and YHVH gave forth thunder-sounds and hail, and fire went toward the earth, and YHVH caused hail to rain down upon the land of Egypt.

Exodus 9:24 There was hail and a fire taking-hold-of-itself amidst the hail, exceedingly heavy, the like of which had never been throughout all the land of Egypt since it had become a nation.

Exodus 9:25 The hail struck, throughout all the land of Egypt, all that was in the field, from man to beast; all the plants of the field the hail struck, and all the trees of the field it broke down;

Page 70 of 245

Exodus 9:26 only in the region of Goshen, where the Children of Israel were, was there no hail.

Exodus 9:27 Pharaoh sent and had Moshe and Aharon called and said to them: This-time I have sinned! YHVH is the one-in-the-right, I and my people are the ones-in-the-wrong!

Exodus 9:28 Plead with YHVH! For enough is the God-thunder and this hail! Let me send you free-do not continue staying here!

Exodus 9:29 Moshe said to him: As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands to YHVH, the thunder will stop and the hail will be no more- in order that you may know that the land belongs to YHVH.

Exodus 9:30 But as for you and your servants, I know well that you do not yet stand-in-fear before the face of YHVH, God!

Exodus 9:31 -Now the flax and the barley were stricken, for the barley was in ears and the flax was in buds,

Exodus 9:32 but the wheat and the spelt were not stricken, for late (-ripening) are they.-

Exodus 9:33 Moshe went from Pharaoh, outside the city, and spread out his hands to YHVH: the thunder and the hail stopped, and the rain no longer poured down to earth.

Exodus 9:34 But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had stopped, he continued to sin: he made his heart heavy-with-stubbornness, his and his servants'.

Exodus 9:35 Pharaoh's heart remained strong-willed, and he did not send the Children of Israel free, as YHVH had spoken through Moshe.

Chapter 10

Exodus 10:1 YHVH said to Moshe: Come to Pharaoh! For I have made his heart and the heart of his servants heavy-with-stubbornness, in order that I may put these my signs among them

Exodus 10:2 and in order that you may recount in the ears of your child and of your child's child how I have been capricious with Egypt, and my signs, which I have placed upon them- that you may know that I am YHVH.

Exodus 10:3 Moshe and Aharon came to Pharaoh, they said to him: Thus says YHVH, the God of the Hebrews: How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Send free my people, that they may serve me!

Exodus 10:4 But if you refuse to send my people free, here, on the morrow I will bring the locust-horde into your territory!

Exodus 10:5 They will cover the aspect of the ground, so that one will not be able to see the ground, they will consume what is left of what escaped, of what remains for you from the hail, they will consume all the trees that spring up for you from the field,

Exodus 10:6 they will fill your houses, the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all Egypt, as neither your fathers nor your fathers' fathers have seen from the day of their being upon the soil until this day. He turned and went out from Pharaoh.
Exodus 10:7 Pharaoh's servants said to him: How long shall this one be a snare to us? Send the men free, that they may serve YHVH their God! Do you not yet know that Egypt is lost?
Exodus 10:8 Moshe and Aharon were returned to Pharaoh, and he said to them: Go, serve YHVH your God! -Who is it, who is it that would go?
Exodus 10:9 Moshe said: With our young ones, with our elders we will go, with our sons and with our daughters, with our sheep and with our oxen we will go- for it is YHVH'S pilgrimage-festival for us.
Exodus 10:10 He said to them: May YHVH be thus with you, the same as I mean to send you free along with your little-ones! You see-yes, your faces are set toward ill!
Exodus 10:11 Not thus-go now, O males, and serve YHVH, for that is what you (really) seek! And they were driven out from Pharaoh's face.
Exodus 10:12 YHVH said to Moshe: Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locust-horde, and it will ascend over the land of Egypt, consuming all the plants of the land, all that the hail allowed to remain.

Exodus 10:13 Moshe stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and YHVH led in an east wind against the land all that day and all night; when it was morning, the east wind had borne in the locust-horde.
Exodus 10:14 The locust-horde ascended over all the land of Egypt, it came to rest upon all the territory of Egypt, exceedingly heavy; before it there was no such locust-horde as it, and after it will be no such again.
Exodus 10:15 It covered the aspect of all the ground, and the ground became dark, it consumed all the plants of the land, and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left; nothing at all green was left of the trees and of the plants of the field, throughout all the land of Egypt.
Exodus 10:16 Quickly Pharaoh had Moshe and Aharon called and said: I have sinned against YHVH your God, and against you!
Exodus 10:17 So now, pray bear my sin just this one time! And plead with YHVH your God, that he may only remove this death from me!
Exodus 10:18 He went out from Pharaoh and pleaded with YHVH.
Exodus 10:19 YHVH reversed an exceedingly strong sea wind which bore the locusts away and dashed them into the Sea of Reeds, not one locust remained throughout all the territory of Egypt.
Exodus 10:20 But YHVH made Pharaoh's heart strong-willed, and he did not send the Children of Israel free.
Exodus 10:21 YHVH said to Moshe: Stretch out your hand over the heavens, and let there be darkness over the land of Egypt; they will feel darkness!
Exodus 10:22 Moshe stretched out his hand over the heavens, and there was gloomy darkness throughout all the land of Egypt, for three days,
Exodus 10:23 a man could not see his brother, and a man could not arise from his spot, for three days. But for all the Children of Israel, there was light in their settlements.
Exodus 10:24 Pharaoh had Moshe called and said: Go, serve YHVH, only your sheep and your oxen shall be kept back, even your little-ones may go with you!
Exodus 10:25 Moshe said: You must also give slaughter-offerings and offerings-up into our hand, so that we may sacrifice them for YHVH our God!
Exodus 10:26 Even our livestock must go with us, not a hoof may remain behind: for some of them we must take to serve YHVH our God; we-we do not know how we are to serve YHVH until we come there.
Exodus 10:27 But YHVH made Pharaoh's heart strong-willed, so that he would not consent to send them free.
Exodus 10:28 Pharaoh said to him: Go from me! Be on your watch: You are not to see my face again, for on the day that you see my face, you shall die!
Exodus 10:29 Moshe said: You have spoken well, I will not henceforth see your face again.
Chapter 11
Exodus 11:1 YHVH said to Moshe: I will cause one more blow to come upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt; afterward he will send you free from here. When he sends you free, it is finished-he will drive, yes, drive you out from here.
Exodus 11:2 Pray speak in the ears of the people: They shall ask, each man of his neighbor, each woman of her neighbor, objects of silver and objects of gold.
Exodus 11:3 And YHVH gave the people favor in the eyes of Egypt, while the man Moshe was (considered) exceedingly great in the land of Egypt, in the eyes of Pharaoh's servants and in the eyes of the people.
Exodus 11:4 Moshe said: Thus says YHVH: In the middle of the night I will go forth throughout the midst of Egypt, Exodus 11:5 and every firstborn shall die throughout the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne to the firstborn of the maid who is behind the handmill, and every firstborn of beast.

Exodus 11:6 Then shall there be a cry throughout all the land of Egypt, the like of which has never been, the like of which will never be again.

Exodus 11:7 But against all the Children of Israel, no dog shall even sharpen its tongue, against either man or beast, in order that you may know that YHVH makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.

Exodus 11:8 Then all these your servants shall go down to me, they shall bow to me, saying: Go out, you and all the people who walk in your footsteps! And afterward I will go out. He went out from Pharaoh in flaming anger.

Exodus 11:9 YHVH said to Moshe: Pharaoh will not hearken to you, in order that my portents may be many in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 11:10 Now Moshe and Aharon had done all the portents in Pharaoh's presence, but YHVH had made Pharaoh's heart strong-willed, and he had not sent the Children of Israel free from his land.

Chapter 12

Exodus 12:1 YHVH said to Moshe and to Aharon in the land of Egypt, saying:

Exodus 12:2 Let this New-moon be for you the beginning of New-moons, the beginning-one let it be for you of the New-moons of the year.

Exodus 12:3 Speak to the entire community of Israel, saying: On the tenth day after this New-moon they are to take them, each-man, a lamb, according to their Fathers' House, a lamb per household.

Exodus 12:4 Now if there be too few in the house for a lamb, he is to take (it), he and his neighbor who is near his house, by the computation according to the (total number of) persons; each-man according to what he can eat you are to compute for the lamb.

Exodus 12:5 A wholly-sound male, year-old lamb shall be yours, from the sheep and from the goats are you to take it.

Exodus 12:6 It shall be for you in safekeeping, until the fourteenth day after this New-moon, and they are to slay it-the entire assembly of the community of Israel-between the setting-times.

Exodus 12:7 They are to take some of the blood and put it onto the two posts and onto the lintel, onto the houses in which they eat it.

Exodus 12:8 They are to eat the flesh on that night, roasted in fire, and matzot, with bitter-herbs they are to eat it.

Exodus 12:9 Do not eat any of it raw, or boiled, boiled in water, but rather roasted in fire, its head along with its legs, along with its innards.

Exodus 12:10 You are not to leave any of it until morning; what is left of it until morning, with fire you are to burn.

Exodus 12:11 And thus you are to eat it: your hips girded, your sandals on your feet, your sticks in your hand; you are to eat it in trepidation- it is a Passover-meal to YHVH.

Exodus 12:12 I will proceed through the land of Egypt on this night and strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from man to beast, and on all the gods of Egypt I will render judgment, I, YHVH.

Exodus 12:13 Now the blood will be a sign for you upon the houses where you are: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, the blow will not become a bringer-of-ruin to you, when I strike down the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:14 This day shall be for you a memorial, you are to celebrate it as a pilgrimage-celebration for YHVH, throughout your generations, as a law for the ages you are to celebrate it!

Exodus 12:15 For seven days, matzot you are to eat, already on the first day you are to get rid of leaven from your houses, for anyone who eats what is fermented-from the first day until the seventh day-: that person shall be cut off from Israel!

Exodus 12:16 And on the first day, a proclamation of holiness, and on the seventh day, a proclamation of holiness shall there be for you, no kind of work is to be made on them, only what belongs to every person to eat, that alone may be made-ready by you.

Exodus 12:17 And keep the (Festival of) matzot! For on this same day I have brought out your forces from the land of Egypt. Keep this day throughout your generations as a law for the ages.

Exodus 12:18 In the first (month), on the fourteenth day after the New-moon, at sunset, you are to eat matzot, until the twenty-first day of the month, at sunset.

Exodus 12:19 For seven days, no leaven is to be found in your houses, for whoever eats what ferments, that person shall be cut off from the community of Israel, whether sojourner or native of the land.

Exodus 12:20 Anything that ferments you are not to eat; in all your settlements, you are to eat matzot.

Exodus 12:21 Moshe had all the elders of Israel called and said to them: Pick out, take yourselves a sheep for your clans, and slay the Passover-animal.

Exodus 12:22 Then take a band of hyssop, dip (it) in the blood which is in the basin, and touch the lintel and the two posts with some of the blood which is in the basin. Now you-you are not to go out, any man from the entrance to his house, until daybreak.

Exodus 12:23 YHVH will proceed to deal-blows to Egypt, and when he sees the blood on the lintel and on the two posts, YHVH will pass over the entrance, and will not give the bringer-of-ruin (leave) to come into your houses to deal-the-blow.

Exodus 12:24 You are to keep this word as a law for you and for your children, into the ages!

Exodus 12:25 Now it will be, when you come to the land which YHVH will give you, as he has spoken, you are to keep this service!

Exodus 12:26 And it will be, when your children say to you: What does this service (mean) to you?

Exodus 12:27 then say: It is the slaughter-meal of Passover to YHVH, who passed over the houses of the Children of Israel in Egypt, when he dealt-the-blow to Egypt and our houses he rescued. The people did homage and bowed low.

Exodus 12:28 And the Children of Israel went and did as YHVH had commanded Moshe and Aharon, thus they did.

Exodus 12:29 Now it was in the middle of the night: YHVH struck down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne to the firstborn of the captive in the dungeon, and every firstborn of beast.

Exodus 12:30 Pharaoh arose at night, he and all his servants and all Egypt, and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there is not a house in which there is not a dead man.

Exodus 12:31 He had Moshe and Aharon called in the night and said: Arise, go out from amidst my people, even you, even the Children of Israel! Go, serve YHVH according to your words, Exodus 12:32 even your sheep, even your oxen, take, as you have spoken, and go! And bring-a-blessing even on me!

Exodus 12:33 Egypt pressed the people strongly, to send them out quickly from the land, for they said: We are all dead-men!

Exodus 12:34 So the people loaded their dough before it had fermented, their kneading-troughs bound in their clothing, upon their shoulders.

Exodus 12:35 Now the Children of Israel had done according to Moshe's words: they had asked of the Egyptians objects of silver and objects of gold, and clothing;

Exodus 12:36 YHVH had given the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians, and they let themselves be asked of. So did they strip Egypt.

Exodus 12:37 The Children of Israel moved on from Ra'amses to Sukkot, about six hundred thousand on foot, menfolk apart from little-ones, Exodus 12:38 and also a mixed multitude went up with them, along with sheep and oxen, an exceedingly heavy (amount of) livestock.

Exodus 12:39 Now they baked the dough which they had brought out of Egypt into matzot cakes, for it had not fermented, for they had been driven out of Egypt, and were not able to linger, neither had they made provisions for themselves.

Exodus 12:40 And the settlement of the Children of Israel which they had settled in Egypt was thirty years and four hundred years.

Exodus 12:41 It was at the end of thirty years and four hundred years, it was on that same day: All of

YHVH'S forces went out from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:42 It is a night of keeping-watch for YHVH, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; that is this night for YHVH, a keeping-watch of all the Children of Israel, throughout their generations.

Exodus 12:43 YHVH said to Moshe and Aharon: This is the law of the Passover-meal: Any foreign son is not to eat of it.

Exodus 12:44 But any man's serf who is acquired by money-if you have circumcised him, then he may eat of it.

Exodus 12:45 Settler and hired-hand are not to eat of it.

Exodus 12:46 In one house it is to be eaten, you are not to bring out of the house any of the flesh, outside. And you are not to break a bone of it.

Exodus 12:47 The entire community of Israel is to do it.

Exodus 12:48 Now when a sojourner sojourns with you, and would make the Passover-meal to YHVH, every male with him must be circumcised, then he may come-near to make it, and will be (regarded) as a native of the land. But any foreskinned-man is not to eat of it.

Exodus 12:49 One Instruction shall there be for the native and for the sojourner that sojourns in your midst.

Exodus 12:50 All the Children of Israel did as YHVH commanded Moshe and Aharon, thus they did.

Exodus 12:51 It was on that same day, (when) YHVH brought the Children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their forces,

Chapter 13

Exodus 13:1 YHVH spoke to Moshe, saying:

Exodus 13:2 Hallow to me every firstborn, breacher of every womb among the Children of Israel, of man or of beast, it is mine.

Exodus 13:3 Moshe said to the people: Remember this day, on which you went out from Egypt, from a house of serfs, for by strength of hand YHVH brought you out from here: no fermentation is to be eaten.

Exodus 13:4 Today you are going out, in the New-moon of Ripe-grain.

Exodus 13:5 And it shall be, when YHVH brings you to the land of the Canaanite, of the Hittite, of the

Amorite, of the Hivvite and of the Yevusite, which he swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you are to serve this service, in this New-moon:
Exodus 13:6 For seven days you are to eat matzot, and on the seventh day (there is): a pilgrimage-festival to YHVH.

Exodus 13:7 Matzot are to be eaten for the seven days, nothing fermented is to be seen with you, no leaven is to be seen with you, throughout all your territory.

Exodus 13:8 And you are to tell your child on that day, saying: It is because of what YHVH did for me, when I went out of Egypt.

Exodus 13:9 It shall be for you for a sign on your hand and for a reminder between your eyes, in order that YHVH'S Instruction may be in your mouth, that by a strong hand did YHVH bring you out of Egypt.

Exodus 13:10 You are to keep this law at its appointed-time from year-day to year-day!

Exodus 13:11 It shall be, when YHVH brings you to the land of the Canaanite, as he swore to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you, Exodus 13:12 you are to transfer every breacher of a womb to YHVH, every breacher, offspring of a beast that belongs to you, the males (are) for YHVH.

Exodus 13:13 Every breacher of a donkey you are to redeem with a lamb; if you do not redeem (it), you are to break-its-neck. And every firstborn of men, among your sons, you are to redeem.

Exodus 13:14 It shall be when your child asks you on the morrow, saying: What does this mean? You are to say to him: By strength of hand YHVH brought us out of Egypt, out of a house of serfs.

Exodus 13:15 And it was when Pharaoh hardened (his heart) against sending us free, that YHVH killed every firstborn throughout the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of man to the firstborn of beast.

Therefore I myself slaughter-offer to YHVH every breacher of a womb, the males, and every firstborn among my sons I redeem.

Exodus 13:16 It shall be for a sign on your hand and for headbands between your eyes, for by strength of hand YHVH brought us out of Egypt.

Exodus 13:17 Now it was, when Pharaoh had sent the people free, that God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, which indeed is nearer, for God said to himself: Lest the people regret it, when they see war, and return to Egypt!

Exodus 13:18 So God had the people swing about by way of the wilderness at the Sea of Reeds. And the Children of Israel went up armed from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 13:19 Now Moshe had taken Yosef's bones with him, for he had made the Children of Israel swear, yes, swear, saying: God will take account, yes, account of you-so bring my bones up from here with you!

Exodus 13:20 They moved on from Sukkot and encamped in Etam at the edge of the wilderness.

Exodus 13:21 Now YHVH goes before them, by day in a column of cloud, to lead them the way, by night in a column of fire, to give light to them, to (be able to) go by day and by night.

Exodus 13:22 There does not retire the column of cloud by day or the column of fire by night from before the people!

Chapter 14

Exodus 14:1 YHVH spoke to Moshe, saying:

Exodus 14:2 Speak to the Children of Israel, that they may turn back and encamp before Pi Ha-Hirot, between Migdol and the sea, before Baal-tzefon, opposite it, you are to encamp by the sea.

Exodus 14:3 Now Pharaoh will say of the Children of Israel: They are confused in the land! The wilderness has closed them in!

Exodus 14:4 I will make Pharaoh's heart strong-willed, so that he pursues them, and I will be glorified through Pharaoh and all his army, so that the Egyptians may know that I am YHVH. They did thus.

Exodus 14:5 Now the king of Egypt was told that the people fled, and Pharaoh's heart and (that of) his servants changed regarding the people, they said: What is this that we have done, that we have sent free Israel from serving us?

Exodus 14:6 He had his chariot harnessed, his (fighting-) people he took with him,

Exodus 14:7 and he took six hundred selected chariots and every (kind of) chariot of Egypt, teams-of-three upon them all.

Exodus 14:8 Now YHVH made the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt strong-willed, so that he pursued the Children of Israel, while the Children of Israel were going out with a high hand.

Exodus 14:9 The Egyptians pursued them and overtook them encamped by the sea, all of Pharaoh's chariot- horses, his riders, and his army, by Pi Ha-Hirot, before Baal-tzefon.

Exodus 14:10 As Pharaoh drew near, the Children of Israel lifted up their eyes: Here, Egypt marching after them! They were exceedingly afraid. And the Children of Israel cried out to YHVH, Exodus 14:11 they said to Moshe: Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you have taken us out to die in the wilderness? What is this that you have done to us, bringing us out of Egypt?

Exodus 14:12 Is this not the very word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying: Let us alone, that we may serve Egypt! Indeed, better for us serving Egypt than our dying in the wilderness!

Exodus 14:13 Moshe said to the people: Do not be afraid! Stand fast and see YHVH'S deliverance which he will work for you today, for as you see Egypt today, you will never see it again for the ages!

Exodus 14:14 YHVH will make war for you, and you-be still!

Exodus 14:15 YHVH said to Moshe: Why do you cry out to me? Speak to the Children of Israel, and let- them-march-forward!

Exodus 14:16 And you- hold your staff high, stretch out your hand over the sea and split it, so that the Children of Israel may come through the midst of the sea upon the dry-land.

Page 76 of 245

Exodus 14:17 But I, here, I will make Egypt's heart strong-willed, so that they come in after them, and I will be glorified through Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots and his riders;

Exodus 14:18 the Egyptians shall know that I am YHVH, when I am glorified through Pharaoh, his chariots and his riders.

Exodus 14:19 The messenger of God that was going before the camp of Israel moved on and went behind them, the column of cloud moved ahead of them and stood behind them,

Exodus 14:20 coming between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. Here were the cloud and the darkness, and (there) it lit up the night; the-one did not come near the-other all night.

Exodus 14:21 Moshe stretched out his hand over the sea, and YHVH caused the sea to go back with a fierce east wind all night, and made the sea into firm-ground; thus the waters split.

Exodus 14:22 The Children of Israel came through the midst of the sea upon the dry-land, the waters a wall for them on their right and on their left.

Exodus 14:23 But the Egyptians pursued and came in after them, all of Pharaoh's horses, his chariots and his riders, into the midst of the sea.

Exodus 14:24 Now it was at the daybreak-watch: YHVH looked out against the camp of Egypt in the column of fire and cloud, and he panicked the camp of Egypt, Exodus 14:25 he loosened the wheels of his chariots and made them to drive with heaviness. Egypt said: I must flee before Israel, for YHVH makes war for them against Egypt!

Exodus 14:26 Then YHVH said to Moshe: Stretch out your hand over the sea, and the waters shall return upon Egypt-upon its chariots and upon its riders.

Exodus 14:27 Moshe stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned, at the face of dawn, to its original-place, as the Egyptians were fleeing toward it. And YHVH shook the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

Exodus 14:28 The waters returned, they covered the chariots and the riders of all of Pharaoh's army that had come after them into the sea, not even one of them remained.

Exodus 14:29 But the Children of Israel had gone upon dry-land, through the midst of the sea, the waters a wall for them on their right and on their left.

Exodus 14:30 So YHVH delivered Israel on that day from the hand of Egypt; Israel saw Egypt dead by the shore of the sea,

Exodus 14:31 and Israel saw the great hand that YHVH had wrought against Egypt, the people held YHVH in awe, they trusted in YHVH and in Moshe his servant.

Chapter 15

Exodus 15:1 Then sang Moshe and the Children of Israel this song to YHVH, they uttered (this) utterance: I will sing to YHVH, for he has triumphed, yes, triumphed, the horse and its charioteer he flung into the sea!

Exodus 15:2 My fierce-might and strength is YAH, he has become deliverance for me. This is my God-I honor him, the God of my father-I exalt him.

Exodus 15:3 YHVH is a man of war, YHVH is his name!

Exodus 15:4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army he hurled into the sea, his choicest teams-of-three sank in the Sea of Reeds.

Exodus 15:5 Oceans covered them, they went down in the depths like a stone.

Exodus 15:6 Your right-hand, O YHVH, majestic in power, your right-hand, O YHVH, shattered the enemy.

Exodus 15:7 In your great triumph you smashed your foes, you sent forth your fury, consumed them like chaff.

Exodus 15:8 By the breath of your nostrils the waters piled up, the gushing-streams stood up like a dam, the oceans congealed in the heart of the sea.

Exodus 15:9 Uttered the enemy: I will pursue, overtake, and apportion the plunder, my greed will be filled on them, my sword I will draw, my hand-dispossess them!

Exodus 15:10 You blew with your breath, the sea covered them, they plunged down like lead in majestic waters.

Exodus 15:11 Who is like you among the gods, O YHVH! who is like you, majestic among the holy-ones, Feared-one of praises, Doer of Wonders!

Exodus 15:12 You stretched out your right-hand, the Underworld swallowed them.

Exodus 15:13 You led in your faithfulness your people redeemed, guided (them) in your fierce-might to your holy pasture.

Exodus 15:14 The peoples heard, they shuddered; writhing seized Philistia's settlers,

Exodus 15:15 and then, terrified, Edom's chieftains, Moav's "rams"- trembling did seize them; then melted away all Canaan's settlers.

Exodus 15:16 There fell upon them dread and anguish; before your arm's greatness they grew dumb like stone.

Exodus 15:17 Until they crossed-your people, O YHVH, until they crossed-the people you fashioned. You brought them, you planted them on the mount of your heritage, foundation of your (royal) seat which you prepared, O YHVH, the Holy-shrine, O Lord, founded by your hands.

Exodus 15:18 Let YHVH be king for the ages, eternity!

Exodus 15:19 For Pharaoh's horses came with (their) chariots and riders into the sea, but YHVH turned back the sea's waters upon them, and the Children of Israel went upon the dry-land through the midst of the sea.

Exodus 15:20 Now Miryam the prophetess, Aharon's sister, took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her, with timbrels and with dancing.

Exodus 15:21 Miryam chanted to them: Sing to YHVH, for he has triumphed, yes, triumphed, the horse and its charioteer he flung into the sea!

Exodus 15:22 Moshe had Israel move on from the Sea of Reeds, and they went out to the Wilderness of Shur. They traveled through the wilderness for three days, and found no water.

Exodus 15:23 They came to Mara, but they could not drink water from Mara, because it was mar/bitter. Therefore they called its name Mara.

Exodus 15:24 The people grumbled against Moshe, saying: What are we to drink?

Exodus 15:25 He cried out to YHVH, and YHVH directed him (to some) wood which he threw into the water, and the water became sweet.- There he imposed law and judgment for them, and there he tested them.

Exodus 15:26 He said: If you will hearken, yes, hearken to the voice of YHVH your God, and what is right in his eyes will do, giving-ear to his commandments and keeping all his laws: all the sicknesses which I have imposed upon Egypt, I will not impose upon you; for I am YHVH, your healer.

Exodus 15:27 They came to Elim; there were twelve springs of water and seventy palms, and they camped there by the water.

Chapter 16

Exodus 16:1 They moved on from Elim, and they came, the entire community of the Children of Israel, to the Wilderness of Syn, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day after the second New- moon after their going-out from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 16:2 And they grumbled, the entire community of the Children of Israel, against Moshe and against Aharon in the wilderness.

Exodus 16:3 The Children of Israel said to them: Would that we had died by the hand of YHVH in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, when we ate bread till (we were) satisfied! For you have brought us into this wilderness to bring death to this whole assembly by starvation!

Exodus 16:4 YHVH said to Moshe: Here, I will make rain down upon you bread from the heavens, the people shall go out and glean, each day's amount in its day, in order that I may test them, whether they will walk according to my Instruction or not.

Exodus 16:5 But it shall be on the sixth day: when they prepare what they have brought in, it shall be a double-portion compared to what they glean day after day.

Exodus 16:6 Moshe and Aharon said to all the Children of Israel: At sunset you will know that it is YHVH who brought you out of the land of Egypt;

Exodus 16:7 at daybreak you will see the Glory of YHVH: when he hearkens to your grumblings against YHVH- what are we, that you grumble against us?

Exodus 16:8 Moshe said: Since YHVH gives you flesh to eat at sunset, and at daybreak, bread to satisfy (yourselves); since YHVH hearkens to your grumblings which you grumble against him- what are we: not against us are your grumblings, but against YHVH!

Exodus 16:9 Moshe said to Aharon: Say to the entire community of the Children of Israel: Come-near, in the presence of YHVH, for he has hearkened to your grumblings!

Exodus 16:10 Now it was, when Aharon spoke to the entire community of the Children of Israel, they faced the wilderness, and here: the Glory of YHVH could be seen in the cloud.

Exodus 16:11 YHVH spoke to Moshe, saying:

Exodus 16:12 I have hearkened to the grumblings of the Children of Israel- speak to them, and say: Between the setting-times you shall eat flesh, and at daybreak you shall be satisfied with bread, and you shall know that I am YHVH your God.

Exodus 16:13 Now it was at sunset a horde-of-quail came up and covered the camp. And at daybreak there was a layer of dew around the camp;

Exodus 16:14 and when the layer of dew went up, here, upon the surface of the wilderness, something fine, scaly, fine as hoar-frost upon the land.

Exodus 16:15 When the Children of Israel saw it they said each-man to his brother: Mahn hu/what is it? For they did not know what it was. Moshe said to them: It is the bread that YHVH has given you for eating.

Exodus 16:16 This is the word that YHVH has commanded: Glean from it, each-man according to what he can eat, an omer per capita, according to the number of your persons, each-man, for those in his tent, you are to take.

Exodus 16:17 The Children of Israel did thus, they gleaned, the-one-more and the-one-less,

Exodus 16:18 but when they measured by the omer, no surplus had the-one-more, and the-one-less had no shortage; each-man had gleaned according to what he could eat.

Exodus 16:19 Moshe said to them: No man shall leave any of it until morning.

Exodus 16:20 But they did not hearken to Moshe, and (several) men left some of it until morning; it became wormy with maggots and reeked. And Moshe became furious with them.

Exodus 16:21 They gleaned it in the morning, (every) morning, each-man in accordance with what he could eat, but when the sun heated up, it melted.

Exodus 16:22 Now it was on the sixth day that they gleaned a double-portion of bread, two omers for (each) one. All the exalted-leaders of the community came and told it to Moshe.

Exodus 16:23 He said to them: It is what YHVH spoke about: tomorrow is a Sabbath/Ceasing, a Sabbath of Holiness for YHVH. Whatever you wish to bake-bake, and whatever you wish to boil-boil; and all the surplus, put aside for yourselves in safekeeping until morning.

Exodus 16:24 They put it aside until morning, as Moshe had commanded, and it did not reek, neither were there any maggots in it.

Exodus 16:25 Moshe said: Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath for YHVH, today you will not find it in the field.

Exodus 16:26 For six days you are to glean, but on the seventh day is Sabbath, there will not be (any) on it.

Exodus 16:27 But it was on the seventh day that some of the people went out to glean, and they did not find.

Exodus 16:28 YHVH said to Moshe: Until when will you refuse to keep my commandments and my instructions?

Exodus 16:29 (You) see that YHVH has given you the Sabbath, therefore on the sixth day, he gives you bread for two days. Stay, each-man, in his spot; no man shall go out from his place on the seventh day!

Exodus 16:30 So the people ceased on the seventh day.

Exodus 16:31 Now the House of Israel called its name: Mahn. -It is like coriander seed, whitish, and its taste is like (that of) a wafer with honey.-

Exodus 16:32 Moshe said: This is the word that YHVH has commanded: An omer of it for safekeeping throughout your generations, in order that they may see the bread that I had you eat in the wilderness when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Exodus 16:33 Moshe said to Aharon: Take a vat and put an omer of mahn in it, and put it aside in the presence of YHVH, in safekeeping throughout your generations.

Exodus 16:34 As YHVH had commanded Moshe, Aharon put it aside before the Testimony, in safekeeping.

Exodus 16:35 And the Children of Israel ate the mahn for the forty years, until they came to settled land, the mahn they ate, until they came to the edge of the land of Canaan.

Exodus 16:36 Now an omer-it is a tenth of an efa.

Chapter 17

Exodus 17:1 They moved on, the whole community of the Children of Israel, from the Wilderness of Syn, by their moving-stages, at YHVH'S bidding. They encamped at Refidim, and there is no water for the people to drink!

Exodus 17:2 -The people quarreled with Moshe, they said: Give us water, that we may drink! Moshe said to them: For-what do you quarrel with me? For-what do you test YHVH?

Exodus 17:3 The people thirsted for water there, and the people grumbled against Moshe, and said: For- what-reason then did you bring us up from Egypt, to bring death to me, to my children and to my livestock by thirst?

Exodus 17:4 Moshe cried out to YHVH, saying: What shall I do with this people? A little more and they will stone me!

Exodus 17:5 YHVH said to Moshe: Proceed before the people, take some of the elders of Israel with you, and your staff with which you struck the Nile, take in your hand, and go!

Exodus 17:6 Here, I stand before you there on the rock at Horev, you are to strike the rock, and water shall come out of it, and the people shall drink. Moshe did thus, before the eyes of the elders of Israel.

Exodus 17:7 And he called the name of the place: Massa/Testing, and Meriva/Quarreling, because of the quarreling of the Children of Israel, and because of their testing of YHVH, saying: Is YHVH among us, or not?

Exodus 17:8 Now Amalek came and made-war upon Israel in Refidim.

Exodus 17:9 Moshe said to Yehoshua: Choose us men, and go out, make-war upon Amalek! On the morrow I will station myself on top of the hill, with the staff of God in my hand.

Exodus 17:10 Yehoshua did as Moshe had said to him, to make-war against Amalek. Now Moshe, Aharon and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

Exodus 17:11 And it was, whenever Moshe raised his hand, Israel prevailed, and whenever he set down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

Exodus 17:12 Now Moshe's hands are heavy; so they took a stone and placed it under him, and he sat down on it, while Aharon and Hur supported his hands, one on this-side and one on that-side. So his hands remained steadfast, until the sun came in.

Exodus 17:13 And Yehoshua weakened Amalek and his people, with the edge of the sword.
Exodus 17:14 YHVH said to Moshe: Write this as a memorial in an account and put it in Yehoshua's hearing: Yes, I will wipe out, wipe out the memory of Amalek from under the heavens!
Exodus 17:15 Moshe built a slaughter-site and called its name: YHVH My Banner.
Exodus 17:16 He said: Yes, Hand on YAH'S throne! War for YHVH against Amalek generation after generation!

Chapter 18

Exodus 18:1 Now Yitro, the priest of Midyan, Moshe's father-in-law, heard about all that God had done for Moshe and for Israel his people, that YHVH had brought Israel out of Egypt.
Exodus 18:2 Yitro, Moshe's father-in-law, took Tziphora, Moshe's wife-after she had been sent home- Exodus 18:3 and her two sons, of whom the first-one's name was Gershom/Sojourner There, for he had said: I have become a sojourner in a foreign land,
Exodus 18:4 and the name of the other was Eliezer/God's-help, for: the God of my father is my help, he rescued me from Pharaoh's sword;
Exodus 18:5 Yitro, Moshe's father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moshe, to the wilderness, where he was encamped, at the mountain of God.
Exodus 18:6 He (had it) said to Moshe: I, your father-in-law Yitro, am coming to you, and your wife and her two sons with her.
Exodus 18:7 Moshe went out to meet his father-in-law, he bowed and kissed him, and each-man asked after the other's welfare; then they came into the tent.
Exodus 18:8 Moshe related to his father-in-law all that YHVH had done to Pharaoh and to Egypt on Israel's account, all the hardships that had befallen them on the journey, and how YHVH had rescued them.
Exodus 18:9 And Yitro was jubilant because of all the good that YHVH had done for Israel, that he had rescued him from the land of Egypt.
Exodus 18:10 Yitro said: Blessed be YHVH, who has rescued you from the hand of Egypt and from the hand of Pharaoh, who has rescued the people from under the hand of Egypt!
Exodus 18:11 (So) now I know: yes, YHVH is greater than all gods- yes, in just that matter in which they were presumptuous against them!
Exodus 18:12 Yitro, Moshe's father-in-law, took an offering-up and slaughter- animals for God, and Aharon and all the elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moshe's father-in-law, before the presence of God.
Exodus 18:13 Now it was on the morrow: Moshe sat to judge the people, and the people stood before Moshe from daybreak until sunset.
Exodus 18:14 When Moshe's father-in-law saw all that he had to do for the people, he said: What kind of matter is this that you do for the people- why do you sit alone, while the entire people stations itself around you from daybreak until sunset?
Exodus 18:15 Moshe said to his father-in-law: When the people comes to me to inquire of God,
Exodus 18:16 -when it has some legal-matter, it comes to me- I judge between a man and his fellow and make known God's laws and his instructions.
Exodus 18:17 Then Moshe's father-in-law said to him: Not good is this matter, as you do it!
Exodus 18:18 You will become worn out, yes, worn out, so you, so this people that are with you, for this matter is too heavy for you, you cannot do it alone.
Exodus 18:19 So now, hearken to my voice, I will advise you, so that God may be-there with you: Be-there, yourself, for the people in relation to God. You yourself should have the matters come to God;
Exodus 18:20 You should make clear to them the laws and the instructions, you should make known to them the way they should go, and the deeds that they should do;
Exodus 18:21 but you-you are to have the vision (to select) from all the people men of caliber, holding God in awe, men of truth, hating gain, you should set (them) over them as chiefs of thousands, chiefs of hundreds, chiefs of fifties, and chiefs of tens,
Exodus 18:22 so that they may judge the people at all times. So shall it be: every great matter they shall bring before you, but every small matter they shall judge by themselves. Make (it) light upon you, and let them bear (it) with you.
Exodus 18:23 If you do (thus in) this matter when God commands you (further), you will be able to stand, and also this people will come to its place in peace.
Exodus 18:24 Moshe hearkened to the voice of his father-in-law, he did it all as he had said:
Exodus 18:25 Moshe chose men of caliber from all Israel, he placed them as heads over the people, as chiefs of thousands, chiefs of hundreds, chiefs of fifties, and chiefs of tens.

Exodus 18:26 They would judge the people at all times: the difficult matters they would bring before Moshe, but every small matter they would judge by themselves.
Exodus 18:27 Moshe sent his father-in-law off, and he went home to his land.
Chapter 19
Exodus 19:1 On the third New-moon after the going-out of the Children of Israel from the land of Egypt, on that (very) day they came to the Wilderness of Sinai.

Exodus 19:2 They moved on from Refidim and came to the Wilderness of Sinai, and encamped in the wilderness. There Israel encamped, opposite the mountain.

Exodus 19:3 Now Moshe went up to God, and YHVH called out to him from the mountain, saying: Say thus to the House of Yaakov, (yes,) tell the Children of Israel:

Exodus 19:4 You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt, how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to me.

Exodus 19:5 So now, if you will hearken, yes, hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be to me a special-treasure from among all peoples. Indeed, all the earth is mine, Exodus 19:6 but you, you shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation. These are the words that you are to speak to the Children of Israel.

Exodus 19:7 Moshe came, and had the elders of the people called, and set before them these words, with which YHVH had commanded him.

Exodus 19:8 And all the people answered together, they said: All that YHVH has spoken, we will do. And Moshe reported the words of the people to YHVH.

Exodus 19:9 YHVH said to Moshe: Here, I am coming to you in a thick cloud, so that the people may hear when I speak with you, and also that they may have trust in you for ever. And Moshe told the words of the people to YHVH.

Exodus 19:10 YHVH said to Moshe: Go to the people, make them holy, today and tomorrow, let them scrub their clothes,

Exodus 19:11 that they may be ready for the third day, for on the third day YHVH will come down before the eyes of all the people, upon Mount Sinai.

Exodus 19:12 Fix-boundaries for the people round about, saying: Be on your watch against going up the mountain or against touching its border! Whoever touches the mountain-he is to be put-to-death, yes, death;

Exodus 19:13 no hand is to touch him, but he is to be stoned, yes, stoned, or shot, yes, shot, whether beast or man, he is not to live! When the (sound of the) ram's-horn is drawn out, they may go up on the mountain.

Exodus 19:14 Moshe went down from the mountain to the people, he made the people holy, and they washed their clothes,

Exodus 19:15 then he said to the people: Be ready for three days; do not approach a woman!

Exodus 19:16 Now it was on the third day, when it was daybreak: There were thunder-sounds, and lightning, a heavy cloud on the mountain and an exceedingly strong shofar sound. And all of the people that were in the camp trembled.

Exodus 19:17 Moshe brought the people out toward God, from the camp, and they stationed themselves beneath the mountain.

Exodus 19:18 Now Mount Sinai smoked all over, since YHVH had come down upon it in fire; its smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace, and all of the mountain trembled exceedingly.

Exodus 19:19 Now the shofar sound was growing exceedingly stronger -Moshe kept speaking, and God kept answering him in the sound (of a voice)-

Exodus 19:20 and YHVH came down upon Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. YHVH called Moshe to the top of the mountain, and Moshe went up.

Page 82 of 245

Exodus 19:21 YHVH said to Moshe: Go down, warn the people lest they break through to YHVH to see, and many of them fall;

Exodus 19:22 even the priests who approach YHVH must make themselves holy, lest YHVH burst out against them.

Exodus 19:23 But Moshe said to YHVH: The people are not able to go up to Mount Sinai, for you yourself warned us, saying: Fix boundaries for the mountain and make it holy!

Exodus 19:24 YHVH said to him: Go, get down, and then come up, you and Aharon with you, but the priests and the people must not break through to go up to YHVH, lest he burst out against them.

Exodus 19:25 Moshe went down to the people and said to them

Chapter 20

Exodus 20:1 God spoke all these words, saying:

Exodus 20:2 I am YHVH your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, from a house of serfs.

Exodus 20:3 You are not to have any other gods before my presence.

Exodus 20:4 You are not to make yourself a carved-image or any figure that is in the heavens above, that is on the earth beneath, that is in the waters beneath the earth;

Exodus 20:5 you are not to bow down to them, you are not to serve them, for I, YHVH your God, am a jealous God, calling-to-account the iniquity of the fathers upon the sons, to the third and the fourth (generation) of those that hate me,

Exodus 20:6 but showing loyalty to the thousandth of those that love me, of those that keep my commandments.

Exodus 20:7 You are not to take up the name of YHVH your God for emptiness, for YHVH will not clear him that takes up his name for emptiness.

Exodus 20:8 Remember the Sabbath day, to hallow it.

Exodus 20:9 For six days, you are to serve, and are to make all your work,
 Exodus 20:10 but the seventh day is Sabbath for YHVH your God: you are not to make any kind of work, (not) you, nor your son, nor your daughter, (not) your servant, nor your maid, nor your beast, nor your sojourner that is within your gates.
 Exodus 20:11 For in six days YHVH made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in it, and he rested on the seventh day; therefore YHVH gave the Sabbath day his blessing, and he hallowed it.
 Exodus 20:12 Honor your father and your mother, in order that your days may be prolonged on the soil that YHVH your God is giving you.
 Exodus 20:13 You are not to murder. You are not to adulter. You are not to steal. You are not to testify against your fellow as a false witness.
 Exodus 20:14 You are not to desire the house of your neighbor, you are not to desire the wife of your neighbor, or his servant, or his maid, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor's.
 Exodus 20:15 Now all of the people were seeing the thunder-sounds, the flashing-torches, the shofar sound, and the mountain smoking; when the people saw, they faltered and stood far off.
 Exodus 20:16 They said to Moshe: You speak with us, and we will hearken, but let not God speak with us, lest we die!
 Exodus 20:17 Moshe said to the people: Do not be afraid! For it is to test you that God has come, to have awe of him be upon you, so that you do not sin.
 Exodus 20:18 The people stood far off, and Moshe approached the fog where God was.
 Exodus 20:19 YHVH said to Moshe: Say thus to the Children of Israel: You yourselves have seen that it was from the heavens that I spoke with you.
 Exodus 20:20 You are not to make beside me gods of silver, gods of gold you are not to make for yourselves!
 Exodus 20:21 A slaughter-site of soil, you are to make for me, you are to slaughter upon it your offerings- up, your sacrifices of shalom, your sheep and your oxen! At every place where I cause my name to be recalled I will come to you and bless you.

Exodus 20:22 But if a slaughter-site of stones you make for me, you are not to build it smooth-hewn, for if you hold-high your iron-tool over it, you will have profaned it.

Exodus 20:23 And you are not to ascend my slaughter-site by ascending-steps, that your nakedness not be laid-bare upon it.

Chapter 21

Exodus 21:1 Now these are the regulations that you are to set before them:

Exodus 21:2 When you acquire a Hebrew serf, he is to serve for six years, but in the seventh he is to go out at liberty, for nothing.

Exodus 21:3 If he came by himself, he is to go out by himself; if he was the spouse of a wife, his wife is to go out with him.

Exodus 21:4 If his lord gives him a wife, and she bore him sons or daughters, the wife and those she bore are to remain her lord's, and he is to go out by himself.

Exodus 21:5 But if the serf should say, yes, say: I love my lord, my wife and my children, I will not go out at liberty!,

Exodus 21:6 his lord is to have him approach God's-oracle, and then he is to have him approach the door or the post; his lord is to pierce his ear with a piercer, and he is to serve him forever.

Exodus 21:7 When a man sells his daughter as a handmaid, she is not to go out as serfs go out.

Exodus 21:8 If she is displeasing in the eyes of her lord, who designated her for himself, he is to have her redeemed; to a foreign people he has not the power to sell her, since he has betrayed her.

Exodus 21:9 But if it is for his son that he designates her, according to the just-rights of women he is to deal with her.

Exodus 21:10 If another he takes for himself, (then) her board, her clothing, or her oil he is not to diminish.

Exodus 21:11 If these three (things) he does not do for her, she is to go out for nothing, with no money.

Exodus 21:12 He that strikes a man, so that he dies, is to be put-to-death, yes, death.

Exodus 21:13 Now should he not have lain in wait (for him), but should God have brought him opportunely into his hand: I will set aside for you a place where he may flee.

Exodus 21:14 But when a man schemes against his neighbor, to kill him with cunning, from my very slaughter-site you are to take him away, to die!

Exodus 21:15 And he that strikes his father or his mother, is to be put-to-death, yes, death.

Exodus 21:16 And he that steals a man, whether he sells him or whether he is found in his hand, is to be put- to-death, yes, death.

Exodus 21:17 And he that insults his father or his mother, is to be put-to-death, yes, death.

Exodus 21:18 When men quarrel, and a man strikes his neighbor with a stone or with (his) fist, yet he does not die, but rather takes to his bed:

Exodus 21:19 If he can rise and walk about outside upon his crutch, he that struck (him) is to go clear, only: he is to make good for his resting-time, and provide-that-he-be-healed, yes, healed.

Exodus 21:20 When a man strikes his serf or his handmaid with a rod, so that he dies under his hand, it is to be avenged, yes, avenged;

Exodus 21:21 nonetheless, if for a day or two-days he endures, it is not to be avenged, for he is his own "money."

Exodus 21:22 When two men scuffle and deal a blow to a pregnant woman, so that her children abort-forth, but (other) harm does not occur, he is to be fined, yes, fined, as the woman's spouse imposes for him, but he is to give it (only) according to assessment.

Exodus 21:23 But if harm should occur, then you are to give life in place of life- Exodus 21:24 eye in place of eye, tooth in place of tooth, hand in place of Exodus 21:25 hand, foot in place of foot,/burnt-scar in place of burnt-scar, wound in place of wound, bruise in place of bruise.

Exodus 21:26 When a man strikes the eye of his serf or the eye of his handmaid, and ruins it, he is to send him free at liberty for (the sake of) his eye;

Exodus 21:27 if the tooth of his serf or the tooth of his handmaid he breaks off, he is to send him free at liberty for (the sake of) his tooth.

Exodus 21:28 When an ox gores a man or a woman, so that one dies, the ox is to be stoned, yes, stoned, and its flesh is not to be eaten, and the owner of the ox is to be clear.

Exodus 21:29 But if the ox was (known as) a gorer from yesterday and the day-before, and it was so designated to its owner, and he did not guard it, and it causes the death of a man or of a woman, the ox is to be stoned, and its owner as well is to be put-to-death.

Exodus 21:30 If a ransom is established for him, he is to give it as a redemption for his life, all that is imposed for him.

Exodus 21:31 Whether it is a son it gores or a daughter it gores, according to this (same) judgment it is to be done to him.

Exodus 21:32 If (it is) a serf the ox gores, or a handmaid, silver-thirty shekels-he is to give to his lord, and the ox is to be stoned.

Exodus 21:33 When a man opens up a pit, or when a man digs a pit, and does not cover it up, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

Exodus 21:34 the owner of the pit is to pay, the worth-in-silver he is to restore to its owner, and the dead- animal is to remain his.

Exodus 21:35 When a man's ox deals-a-blow to his neighbor's ox, so that it dies, they are to sell the live ox and split its worth-in-silver, and the dead-animal they are also to split.

Exodus 21:36 Yet if it was known that it was a goring ox from yesterday and the day-before, and its owner did not guard it, he is to pay, yes, pay, an ox in place of the ox, and the dead-animal is to remain his.

Exodus 21:37 (Now) when a man steals an ox or a lamb, and slaughters it or sells it, five cattle he is to pay in place of the ox, and four sheep in place of the lamb;

Chapter 22

Exodus 22:1 if in (the act of) digging through, the stealer is caught and is struck down, so that he dies, there is to be on his account no bloodguilt;

Exodus 22:2 (but) if the sun rose upon him, bloodguilt there is on his account; he is to pay, yes, pay-if he has nothing, he is to be sold because of his stealing.

Exodus 22:3 (Now) if what was stolen is found, yes, found in his hand, whether ox, or donkey, or lamb, (still) alive, twofold he is to pay.

Exodus 22:4 When a man has a field or a vineyard grazed in, and sends his grazing-flock free, so that it grazes in another's field, the best-part of his field, the best-part of his vineyard he is to pay.

Exodus 22:5 When fire breaks out and reaches thorn-hedges, and a sheaf-stack or the standing-grain or the (entire) field is consumed, he is to pay, yes, pay, he that caused the blaze to blaze up.

Exodus 22:6 When a man gives silver or goods to his fellow for safekeeping, and it is stolen from the man's house; if the stealer is caught, he is to pay twofold;

Exodus 22:7 if the stealer is not caught, the owner of the house is to come-near God's-oracle, (to inquire) if he did not stretch out his hand against his neighbor's property.

Exodus 22:8 Regarding every matter of transgression, regarding oxen, regarding donkeys, regarding sheep, regarding garments, regarding any kind of loss about which one can say: That is it!- before God's- oracle is the matter of the two of them to come; whomever God's-oracle declares guilty, is to pay twofold to his neighbor.

Exodus 22:9 When a man gives his neighbor a donkey or an ox or a lamb, or any kind of beast, for safekeeping, and it dies, or is crippled or captured, no one seeing (it happen),

Exodus 22:10 the oath of YHVH is to be between the two of them, (to inquire) if he did not send out his hand against his neighbor's property; the owner is to accept it, and he does not have to pay.

Exodus 22:11 But if it was stolen, yes, stolen away from him, he is to pay it back to its owner.

Exodus 22:12 If it was torn, torn-to-pieces, he is to bring it as evidence; what was torn, he does not have to pay back.

Exodus 22:13 When a man borrows it from his neighbor, and it is crippled or it dies: (if) its owner was not with it, he is to pay, yes, pay;

Exodus 22:14 if its owner was with it, he does not have to pay. If it was hired, its hiring-price is received.

Exodus 22:15 When a man seduces a virgin who has not been spoken-for and lies with her, (for) the marrying-price he is to marry her, as his wife.

Exodus 22:16 If her father refuses, yes, refuses to give her to him, silver he is to weigh out, according to the marriage-price of virgins.

Exodus 22:17 A sorceress you are not to let live!

Exodus 22:18 Anyone who lies with a beast is to be put-to-death, yes, death!

Exodus 22:19 He that slaughters (offerings) to (other) gods is to be devoted-to-destruction. Only to YHVH alone!

Exodus 22:20 Now a sojourner you are not to maltreat, you are not to oppress him, for sojourners were you in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 22:21 Any widow or orphan you are not to afflict.

Exodus 22:22 Oh, if you afflict, afflict them . . . ! For (then) they will cry, cry out to me, and I will hearken, hearken to their cry,

Exodus 22:23 my anger will flare up and I will kill you with the sword, so that your wives become widows, and your children, orphans!

Exodus 22:24 If you lend money to my people, to the afflicted-one (who lives) beside you, you are not to be to him like a creditor, you are not to place on him excessive-interest.

Exodus 22:25 If you take-in-pledge, yes, pledge, the cloak of your neighbor, before the sun comes in, return it to him,

Exodus 22:26 for it is his only clothing, it is the cloak for his skin, in what (else) shall he lie down? Now it will be that when he cries out to me, I will hearken, for a Compassionate-one am I!

Exodus 22:27 God you are not to curse, an exalted-leader among your people you are not to damn.

Exodus 22:28 Your full fruit of your trickling-grapes, you are not to delay. The firstborn of your sons, give to me.

Exodus 22:29 Do thus with your ox, with your sheep: for seven days let it be with its mother, (and) on the eighth day, give it to me!

Exodus 22:30 Men of holiness are you to be to me! Flesh that is torn-to-pieces in the field, you are not to eat; to the dogs you are to throw it.

Chapter 23

Exodus 23:1 You are not to take up an empty rumor. Do not put your hand (in) with a guilty person, to become a witness for wrongdoing.

Exodus 23:2 You are not to go after many (people) to do evil. And you are not to testify in a quarrel so as to turn aside toward many-(and thus) turn away.

Exodus 23:3 Even a poor-man you are not to respect as regards his quarrel.

Exodus 23:4 (Now) when you encounter your enemy's ox or his donkey straying, return it, return it to him.

Exodus 23:5 (And) when you see the donkey of one who hates you crouching under its burden, restrain from abandoning it to him- unbind, yes, unbind it together with him.

Exodus 23:6 You are not to turn aside the rights of your needy as regards his quarrel.

Exodus 23:7 From a false matter, you are to keep far! And (one) clear and innocent, do not kill, for I do not acquit a guilty-person.

Exodus 23:8 A bribe you are not to take, for a bribe blinds the open-eyed, and twists the words of the righteous.

Exodus 23:9 A sojourner, you are not to oppress: you yourselves know (well) the feelings of the sojourner, for sojourners were you in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 23:10 For six years you are to sow your land and to gather in its produce,

Exodus 23:11 but in the seventh, you are to let it go and to let it be, that the needy of your people may eat, and what they (allow to) remain, the wildlife of the field may eat. Do thus with your vineyard, with your olive-grove.

Exodus 23:12 For six days you are to make your labor, but on the seventh day, you are to cease, in order that your ox and your donkey may rest and the son of your handmaid and the sojourner may pause-for- breath.

Exodus 23:13 In all that I say to you, take care! The name of other gods, you are not to mention, it is not to be heard in your mouth.

Exodus 23:14 Three times you are to hold pilgrimage for me, every year.

Exodus 23:15 The Pilgrimage-Festival of matzot you are to keep: for seven days you are to eat matzot, as I commanded you, at the appointed-time of the New-moon of Ripe-grain- for in it you went out of Egypt, and no one is to be seen before my presence empty-handed;

Exodus 23:16 and the Pilgrimage-festival of the Cutting, of the firstlings of your labor, of what you sow in the field; and the Pilgrimage-festival of Ingathering, at the going-out of the year, when you gather in your labor's (harvest) from the field.

Exodus 23:17 At three points in the year are all your males to be seen before the presence of the Lord, YHVH.

Exodus 23:18 You are not to slaughter my blood offering with anything fermented. The fat of my festive- offering is not to remain overnight, until morning.

Exodus 23:19 The choicest firstlings of your soil, you are to bring to the house of YHVH your God. You are not to boil a kid in the milk of its mother.

Exodus 23:20 Here, I am sending a messenger before you to care for you on the way, to bring you to the place that I have prepared.

Exodus 23:21 Take-you-care in his presence, and hearken to his voice, do not be rebellious against him, for he is not able to bear your transgressing, for my name is with him.

Exodus 23:22 So then, hearken, hearken to his voice, and do all that I speak, and I will be-an-enemy to your enemies, and I will be-an-adversary to your adversaries.

Exodus 23:23 When my messenger goes before you and brings you to the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, the Hivvite and the Yevusite, and I cause them to perish:

Exodus 23:24 you are not to bow down to their gods, you are not to serve them, you are not to do according to what they do, but: you are to tear, yes, tear them down, and are to smash, yes, smash their standing- stones.

Exodus 23:25 You are to serve YHVH your God! and he will give-blessing to your food and your water; I will remove sickness from amongst you, Exodus 23:26 there will be no miscarrier or barren-one in your land, (and) the number of your days I will make full.

Exodus 23:27 My terror I will send on before you, I will panic all the peoples among whom you come, I will give all your enemies to you by the neck.

Exodus 23:28 I will send Despair on before you so that it drives out the Hivvite, the Canaanite and the Hittite from before you.

Exodus 23:29 I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the wildlife of the field become-many against you.

Exodus 23:30 Little by little will I drive them out from before you, until you have borne-fruit and possessed the land.

Exodus 23:31 And I will make your territory from the Sea of Reeds to the Sea of the Philistines, from the Wilderness to the River. For I give into your hand the settled-folk of the land, that you may drive them out from before you.

Exodus 23:32 You are not to cut with them or with their gods any covenant,

Exodus 23:33 they are not to stay in your land, lest they cause you to sin against me, indeed, you would serve their gods- indeed, that would be a snare to you.

Chapter 24

Exodus 24:1 Now to Moshe he said: Go up to YHVH, you and Aharon, Nadav and Avihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and bow down from afar;

Exodus 24:2 Moshe alone is to approach YHVH, but they, they are not to approach, and as for the people- they (too) are not to go up with him.

Exodus 24:3 So Moshe came and recounted to the people all the words of YHVH and all the regulations. And all the people answered in one voice, and said: All the words that YHVH has spoken, we will do.

Exodus 24:4 Now Moshe wrote down all the words of YHVH. He started-early in the morning, building a slaughter-site beneath the mountain and twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel.

Exodus 24:5 Then he sent the (serving-) lads of the Children of Israel, that they should offer-up offerings- up, slaughter slaughter-offerings of shalom for YHVH-bulls.

Exodus 24:6 Moshe took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he tossed against the slaughter-site.

Exodus 24:7 Then he took the account of the covenant and read it in the ears of the people. They said: All that YHVH has spoken, we will do and we will hearken!

Exodus 24:8 Moshe took the blood, he tossed it on the people and said: Here is the blood of the covenant that YHVH has cut with you by means of all these words.

Exodus 24:9 Then went up Moshe and Aharon, Nadav and Avihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel.

Exodus 24:10 And they saw the God of Israel: beneath his feet (something) like work of sapphire tiles, (something) like the substance of the heavens in purity.

Exodus 24:11 Yet against the Pillars of the Children of Israel, he did not send forth his hand- they beheld Godhood and ate and drank.

Exodus 24:12 Now YHVH said to Moshe: Go up to me on the mountain and remain there, that I may give you tablets of stone: the Instruction and the Command that I have written down, to instruct them.

Exodus 24:13 Moshe arose, and Yehoshua his attendant, and Moshe went up to the mountain of God.

Exodus 24:14 Now to the elders he said: Stay here for us, until we return to you; here, Aharon and Hur are with you- whoever has a legal-matter is to approach them.

Exodus 24:15 So Moshe went up the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain;

Exodus 24:16 the Glory of YHVH took up dwelling on Mount Sinai. The cloud covered it for six days, and he called to Moshe on the seventh day from amidst the cloud.

Exodus 24:17 And the sight of the Glory of YHVH (was) like a consuming fire on top of the mountain in the eyes of the Children of Israel.

Exodus 24:18 Moshe came into the midst of the cloud when he went up the mountain. And Moshe was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Chapter 25

Exodus 25:1 Now YHVH spoke to Moshe, saying:

Exodus 25:2 Speak to the Children of Israel, that they may take me a raised-contribution; from every man whose heart makes-him-willing, you are to take my contribution.
Exodus 25:3 And this is the contribution that you are to take from them: gold, silver, and bronze,
Exodus 25:4 blue-violet, purple, and worm-scarlet (yarn), byssus, and goats'-hair,
Exodus 25:5 rams' skins dyed-red, tanned-leather skins, acacia wood,
Exodus 25:6 oil for lighting, spices for oil of anointing and for fragrant smoking-incense,
Exodus 25:7 onyx stones, stones for setting for the efod and for the breastpiece.

Exodus 25:8 Let them make me a Holy-shrine that I may dwell amidst them.
Exodus 25:9 According to all that I grant you to see, the building-pattern of the Dwelling and the building- pattern of all its implements, thus are you to make it.
Exodus 25:10 They are to make a coffer of acacia wood, two cubits and a half its length, a cubit and a half its width, and a cubit and a half its height.
Exodus 25:11 You are to overlay it with pure gold, inside and outside you are to overlay it, and are to make upon it a rim of gold all around.
Exodus 25:12 You are to cast for it four rings of gold and are to put them upon its four feet, with two rings on its one flank and two rings on its second flank.
Exodus 25:13 You are to make poles of acacia wood and are to overlay them with gold
Exodus 25:14 and are to bring the poles into the rings on the flanks of the coffer, to carry the coffer by (means of) them.
Exodus 25:15 In the rings of the coffer are the poles to remain, they are not to be removed from it.
Exodus 25:16 And you are to put in the coffer the Testimony that I give you.
Exodus 25:17 You are to make a purgation-cover of pure gold, two cubits and a half its length and a cubit and a half its width.
Exodus 25:18 You are to make two winged-sphinxes of gold, of hammered-work are you to make them, at the two ends of the purgation-cover.
Exodus 25:19 Make one sphinx at the end here and one sphinx at the end there; from the purgation-cover are you to make the two sphinxes, at its two ends.
Exodus 25:20 And the sphinxes are to be spreading (their) wings upward with their wings sheltering the purgation-cover, their faces, each-one toward the other; toward the purgation-cover are the sphinxes' faces to be.
Exodus 25:21 You are to put the purgation-cover on the coffer, above it, and in the coffer you are to put the Testimony that I give you.
Exodus 25:22 I will appoint-meeting with you there and I will speak with you from above the purgation- cover, from between the sphinxes that are on the coffer of Testimony- all that I command you concerning the Children of Israel.
Exodus 25:23 You are to make a table of acacia wood, two cubits its length, a cubit its width, and a cubit and a half its height;
Exodus 25:24 you are to overlay it with pure gold. You are to make a rim of gold for it, all around,
Exodus 25:25 you are to make for it a border, a handbreadth all around, thus you are to make a rim of gold for its border, all around.
Exodus 25:26 You are to make for it four rings of gold and are to put the rings at the four edges, where its four legs (are).
Exodus 25:27 Parallel to the border are the rings to be, as holders for the poles, to carry the table.
Exodus 25:28 You are to make the poles of acacia wood, and are to overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried by (means of) them.
Exodus 25:29 You are to make its plates and its ladles, its jars and its jugs, from which (offerings) are poured; of pure gold are you to make them.
Exodus 25:30 And you are to put on the table the Bread of the Presence, before my presence, regularly.
Exodus 25:31 You are to make a lampstand of pure gold; of hammered-work is the lampstand to be made, its shaft and its stem; its goblets, its knobs and its blossoms are to be from it.
Exodus 25:32 Six stems issue from its sides, three lamp-stems from the one side, and three lamp-stems from the second side:
Exodus 25:33 three almond-shaped goblets on the one stem, with knobs and blossoms, and three almond- shaped goblets on the other stem, with knobs and blossoms- thus for the six stems that issue from the lampstand;
Exodus 25:34 and on the lampstand (itself) four almond-shaped goblets, with their knobs and their

blossoms,
Exodus 25:35 a knob beneath two stems, from it, a knob beneath two stems, from it, and a knob beneath two stems, from it, for the six stems that issue from the lampstand.
Exodus 25:36 Their knobs and their stems are to be from it, all of it hammered-work, of pure gold.
Exodus 25:37 You are to make its lamps, seven (of them), you are to draw up its lampwicks so that they light up (the space) across from it.

Exodus 25:38 And its tongs and its trays (shall be) of pure gold.

Exodus 25:39 (From) an ingot of pure gold they are to make it, together with all these implements.

Exodus 25:40 Now see and make, according to their building-pattern which you are granted to see upon the mountain.

Chapter 26

Exodus 26:1 Now the dwelling you are to make from ten tapestries of twisted byssus, blue-violet, purple and worm-scarlet (yarn), with sphinxes, of designer's making, you are to make it.

Exodus 26:2 The length of each one tapestry (shall be) twenty-eight by the cubit, and the width, four by the cubit of each one tapestry, one measure for all of the tapestries.

Exodus 26:3 Five of the tapestries are to be joined, each-one to the other, and five tapestries joined, each- one to the other.

Exodus 26:4 You are to make loops of blue-violet on the edge of one tapestry, at the end of the one joint; and thus you are to make at the edge of the end tapestry, at the second joint.

Exodus 26:5 Fifty loops are you to make on the first tapestry, and fifty loops are you to make at the end of the tapestry that is at the second joint, the loops opposite, each-one from the other.

Exodus 26:6 You are to make fifty clasps of gold and you are to join the tapestries, each-one to the other, with the clasps, so that the dwelling may be one-piece.

Exodus 26:7 You are to make the tapestries of goats'-hair for a tent over the dwelling, eleven tapestries you are to make them.

Exodus 26:8 The length of each one tapestry (shall be) thirty by the cubit, and the width, four by the cubit, for each one tapestry, one measure for the eleven tapestries.

Exodus 26:9 You are to join five of the tapestries separately and six of the tapestries separately, but you are to double over the sixth tapestry, facing the tent.

Exodus 26:10 You are to make fifty loops at the edge of the one tapestry, the end-one, at the joint, and fifty loops at the end of the second joining tapestry.

Exodus 26:11 You are to make clasps of bronze, fifty, and you are to bring the clasps into the loops, so that you join the tent together, that it may become one-piece.

Exodus 26:12 And as for the extension that overlaps in the tapestries of the tent, half of the overlapping tapestry you are to extend over the back of the dwelling.

Exodus 26:13 The cubit over here and the cubit over there of the overlap, in the long-part of the tapestries of the tent, is to be extended over the sides of the tent over here and over there, in order to cover it.

Exodus 26:14 You are to make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed-red, and a covering of tanned- leather skins, above it.

Exodus 26:15 You are to make boards for the Dwelling of acacia wood, standing-upright;

Exodus 26:16 ten cubits, the length of a board, and a cubit and a half, the width of each one board;

Exodus 26:17 with two pegs for each one board, parallel one to the other, thus are you to make for all the boards of the Dwelling.

Exodus 26:18 And you are to make the boards for the Dwelling: twenty as boardwork on the Negev border, southward,

Exodus 26:19 and forty sockets of silver are you to make beneath twenty of the boards, two sockets beneath each one board for its two pegs and two sockets beneath each other board for its two pegs;

Exodus 26:20 and for the second flank of the Dwelling, on the northern border, twenty as boardwork,

Exodus 26:21 with their forty sockets of silver, two sockets beneath each one board, and two sockets beneath each other board.

Exodus 26:22 And for the rear of the Dwelling, toward the sea, you are to make six boards,

Exodus 26:23 and two boards you are to make for the corners of the Dwelling, at the rear,

Exodus 26:24 so that they may be of twin-use, (seen) from the lower-end, and together may be a whole- piece, at the top, toward the first ring; thus shall it be for the two of them, for the two corners shall they be.

Exodus 26:25 Then there are to be eight boards with their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets, two sockets beneath each one board, and two sockets beneath each other board.

Exodus 26:26 You are to make running-bars of acacia wood, five for the boards of Dwelling's one flank

Exodus 26:27 and five bars for the boards of the Dwelling's second flank, and five bars for the Dwelling's flank at the rear, toward the sea.

Exodus 26:28 And the middle bar (shall be) in the midst of the boards, running from end to end.

Exodus 26:29 Now the boards you are to overlay with gold, their rings you are to make of gold, as holders for the bars, and are to overlay the bars with gold.

Exodus 26:30 So erect the Dwelling, according to its plan, as you have been granted to see upon the mountain.

Exodus 26:31 You are to make a curtain of blue-violet, purple, worm-scarlet and twisted byssus; of designer's making they are to make it, with winged-sphinxes.

Exodus 26:32 You are to put it on four columns of acacia, overlaid with gold, their hooks of gold, upon four sockets of silver;

Exodus 26:33 and you are to put the curtain beneath the clasps. You are to bring there, inside the curtain, the coffer of Testimony; the curtain shall separate for you the Holy-shrine from the Holiest Holy-Shrine.

Exodus 26:34 You are to put the purgation-cover on the coffer of Testimony; in the Holiest Holy-Shrine.

Exodus 26:35 You are to place the table outside the curtain, and the lampstand opposite the table on the south flank of the Dwelling, but the table you are to put on the north flank.

Exodus 26:36 You are to make a screen for the entrance to the tent, of blue-violet, purple, worm-scarlet and twisted byssus, of embroiderer's making;

Exodus 26:37 you are to make for the screen five columns of acacia, you are to overlay them with gold, their hooks of gold, and are to cast for them five sockets of bronze.

Chapter 27

Exodus 27:1 You are to make the slaughter-site of acacia wood, five cubits in length and five cubits in width; square is the slaughter-site to be, and three cubits its height.

Exodus 27:2 You are to make its horns on its four points, from it are its horns to be; and you are to overlay it with bronze.

Exodus 27:3 You are to make its pails for removing-its-ashes, its scrapers, its bowls, its flesh-hooks and its pans- all of its implements, you are to make of bronze.

Exodus 27:4 You are to make for it a lattice, as a netting of bronze is made, and are to make on the netting four rings of bronze on its four ends;

Exodus 27:5 you are to put it beneath the ledge of the slaughter-site, below, so that the netting (reaches) to the halfway-point of the slaughter-site,

Exodus 27:6 You are to make poles for the slaughter-site, poles of acacia wood, and are to overlay them with bronze.

Exodus 27:7 Its poles are to be brought through the rings, so that the poles are on the two flanks of the slaughter-site when they carry it.

Exodus 27:8 Hollow, of planks, are you to make it; as he has granted you to see it on the mountain, thus are they to make it.

Exodus 27:9 You are to make the courtyard of the Dwelling: on the Negev border, southward, hangings for the courtyard, of twisted byssus, a hundred by the cubit, the length on one border;

Exodus 27:10 with its columns, twenty, their sockets, twenty, of bronze, the hooks of the columns and their binders, of silver.

Exodus 27:11 And thus on the northern border, lengthwise, hangings a hundred (cubits) in length, with its columns, twenty, their sockets, twenty, of bronze, the hooks of the columns and their binders, of silver.

Exodus 27:12 And (along) the width of the courtyard on the sea border hangings of fifty cubits, with its columns, ten, their sockets, ten.

Exodus 27:13 And (along) the width of the courtyard on the eastern border, toward sunrise, fifty cubits,

Exodus 27:14 namely: fifteen cubits of hangings for the shoulder-piece, their columns, three, their sockets, three,

Exodus 27:15 and for the second shoulder-piece, fifteen (cubits) of hangings, their columns, three, their sockets, three,

Exodus 27:16 and for the gate of the courtyard, a screen of twenty cubits, of blue-violet, purple, worm-scarlet and twisted byssus, of embroiderer's making, their columns, four, their sockets, four.

Exodus 27:17 All the columns of the courtyard all around are attached with silver, their hooks of silver, their sockets of bronze, Exodus 27:18 -the length of the courtyard, a hundred by the cubit, the width, fifty by fifty, the height, five cubits of twisted byssus, their sockets of bronze.

Exodus 27:19 All the implements of the Dwelling for all its service (of construction), and all its pins, and all the pins of the courtyard, -bronze.

Exodus 27:20 Now you, command the Children of Israel, that they may fetch you oil of olives, clear, beaten, for the light, to draw up a lampwick, regularly.

Exodus 27:21 In the Tent of Appointment, outside the curtain that is over the Testimony, Aharon and his sons are to arrange it, from sunset until daybreak before the presence of YHVH- a law for the ages, throughout your generations, on the part of the Children of Israel.

Chapter 28

Exodus 28:1 Now you, have come-near to you Aharon your brother and his sons with him, from amidst the Children of Israel, to be-priests for me; Aharon, Nadav and Avihu, Elazar and Itamar, the sons of Aharon.

Exodus 28:2 You are to make garments of holiness for Aharon your brother, for glory and for splendor.

Exodus 28:3 So you, speak to each who is wise of mind whom I have filled with the spirit of practical- wisdom, that they may make Aharon's garments, to hallow him, to be-priest for me.

Exodus 28:4 And these are the garments that they are to make: breastpiece and efod and tunic, braided coat, wound-turban and sash. So they are to make garments of holiness for Aharon your brother and for his sons, to be-priests for me.

Exodus 28:5 And they, they are to take gold, blue-violet, purple, worm-scarlet and byssus.

Exodus 28:6 They are to make the efod of gold, of blue-violet and of purple, of worm-scarlet and of twisted byssus, of designer's making.

Exodus 28:7 Two shoulder-pieces, joined, it is to have, at its two ends, and it is to be joined.

Exodus 28:8 The designed-band of its efod, which is on it, according to its making, is to be from it, of gold, of blue-violet, of purple, of worm-scarlet and of twisted byssus.

Exodus 28:9 You are to take two onyx stones and are to engrave on them the names of the Children of Israel,

Exodus 28:10 six of their names on the one stone, and the names of the six remaining-ones on the second stone, corresponding to their begettings.

Exodus 28:11 Of stone-cutter's making, with seal engravings, you are to engrave the two stones, with the names of the Children of Israel; surrounded by braids of gold are you to make them.

Exodus 28:12 You are to place the two stones on the shoulder-pieces of the efod, as stones of remembrance for the Children of Israel. Aharon is to bear their names before the presence of YHVH on his two shoulders, for remembrance.

Exodus 28:13 You are to make braids of gold

Exodus 28:14 and two chains of pure gold, (like) lacings are you to make them, of rope-making, and are to put the rope chains on the braids.

Exodus 28:15 You are to make the breastpiece of Judgment of designer's making, like the making of the efod are you to make it, of gold, of blue-violet, of purple, of worm-scarlet and of twisted byssus are you to make it.

Exodus 28:16 Square it is to be, doubled-over, a span its length and a span its width.

Exodus 28:17 You are to set-it-full with a setting of stones, four rows of stones- a row of carnelian, topaz and sparkling-emerald, the first row,

Exodus 28:18 the second row: ruby, sapphire, and hard-onyx,

Exodus 28:19 the third row: jacinth, agate, and amethyst,

Exodus 28:20 the fourth row: beryl, onyx, and jasper. Braided with gold are they to be in their settings.

Exodus 28:21 And the stones are to be with the names of the Children of Israel, twelve with their names, (with) signet engravings, each-one with its name, are they to be, for the twelve tribes.

Exodus 28:22 You are to make, on the breastpiece, laced chains, of rope making, of pure gold;

Exodus 28:23 and you are to make, on the breastpiece, two rings of gold; you are to put the two rings on the two ends of the breastpiece.

Exodus 28:24 And you are to put the two ropes of gold on the two rings at the ends of the breastpiece;

Exodus 28:25 and the two ends of the two ropes, you are to put on the two braids and you are to put them on the shoulder-piece of the efod, facing frontward.

Exodus 28:26 You are to make two rings of gold, and are to place them on the two ends of the breastpiece, on its edge, which is across from the efod, inward,

Exodus 28:27 and you are to make two rings of gold, and are to put them on the two shoulder-pieces of the efod, below, facing frontward, parallel to its joint, above the designed-band of the efod.

Exodus 28:28 They are to tie the breastpiece from its rings to the rings of the efod with a thread of blue- violet, to be (fixed) on the designed-band of the efod; the breastpiece is not to slip from the efod.

Exodus 28:29 So Aharon is to bear the names of the Children of Israel on the breastpiece of Judgment over his heart, whenever he comes into the Holy-shrine for remembrance, before the presence of YHVH, regularly.

Exodus 28:30 And you are to put in the breastpiece of Judgment the Urim and the Tummim, that they may be over Aharon's heart, whenever he comes before the presence of YHVH. So Aharon is to bear the breastpiece of Judgment for the Children of Israel over his heart before the presence of YHVH, regularly.

Exodus 28:31 You are to make the tunic for the efod all of blue-violet.

Exodus 28:32 Its head-opening is to be in its middle; there shall be a seam for its opening, all around, of weaver's making, like the opening for armor is it to be for him, it is not to be split.

Exodus 28:33 You are to make on its skirts pomegranates of blue-violet, purple, and worm-scarlet, on its skirts, all around, and bells of gold amidst them, all around:

Exodus 28:34 bell of gold and pomegranate, bell of gold and pomegranate, on the skirts of the tunic, all around.

Exodus 28:35 It is to be (put) on Aharon, for attending, that its sound may be heard whenever he comes into the Holy-shrine before the presence of YHVH, and whenever he goes out, so that he does not die.

Exodus 28:36 You are to make a plate of pure gold and are to engrave on it signet engravings: Holiness for YHVH.

Exodus 28:37 You are to place it on a thread of blue-violet, that it may be on the turban; on the forefront of the turban is it to be.

Exodus 28:38 It is to be on Aharon's brow. So Aharon is to bear the iniquity of the holy-offerings that the Children of Israel offer-as-holy, all their gifts of holiness; it is to be on his brow regularly, for (receiving) favor for them, before the presence of YHVH.

Exodus 28:39 You are to braid the coat with byssus; you are to make a turban of byssus, and a sash you are to make, of embroiderer's making.

Exodus 28:40 And for the sons of Aharon, you are to make coats, you are to make them sashes and caps you are to make for them, for glory and for splendor.

Exodus 28:41 You are to clothe in them Aharon your brother, and his sons with him, you are to anoint them, you are to give-mandate to them, and you are to hallow them, that they may be-priests for me.

Exodus 28:42 You are to make them breeches of linen to cover the flesh of nakedness; from the hips to the thighs are they to extend.

Exodus 28:43 They are to be on Aharon and on his sons, whenever they come into the Tent of Appointment or whenever they approach the slaughter-site to attend at the Holy-shrine, that they do not bear iniquity and die -a law for the ages, for him and for his seed after him.

Chapter 29

Exodus 29:1 Now this is the ceremony that you are to make for them to hallow them, to be-priests for me:

Take a bull, a young-one of the herd, and rams, two, wholly-sound,

Exodus 29:2 and bread of matza and flat cakes of matza, mixed with oil, and wafers of matza, dipped in oil, of wheat flour are you to make them.

Exodus 29:3 You are to put them in one basket and are to bring-them-near in the basket, along with the bull and along with the two rams.

Exodus 29:4 And Aharon and his two sons you are to bring-near to the entrance of the Tent of Appointment and are to wash them with water.

Exodus 29:5 You are to take the garments and are to clothe Aharon- in the coat, in the tunic of the efod, in the efod and in the breastpiece; you are to invest him in the designed-band of the efod,

Exodus 29:6 you are to place the turban on his head, and are to put the sacred-diadem of holiness on the turban.

Exodus 29:7 You are to take the oil for anointing and are to pour it on his head, anointing him.

Exodus 29:8 And his sons, you are to bring-near and are to clothe them in coats;

Exodus 29:9 you are to gird them with a sash, Aharon and his sons, and are to wind caps for them. It shall be for them as priestly-right, a law for the ages. So you are to give-mandate to Aharon and to his sons:

Exodus 29:10 You are to bring-near the bull, before the Tent of Appointment, and Aharon and his sons are to lean their hands on the head of the bull.

Exodus 29:11 You are to slay the bull in the presence of YHVH, at the entrance of the Tent of Appointment,

Exodus 29:12 and are to take some of the blood of the bull and are to put it on the horns of the slaughter-site with your finger, but all the (rest of the) blood, you are to throw against the foundation of the slaughter-site.

Exodus 29:13 You are to take all the fat that covers the innards, with the extension on the liver, the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and turn-them-into-smoke on the slaughter-site.

Exodus 29:14 And the flesh of the bull, its skin and its dung, you are to burn with fire, outside the camp; it is a hattat/decontamination-offering.

Exodus 29:15 And the first ram, you are to take, and Aharon and his sons are to lean their hands on the head of the ram.

Exodus 29:16 You are to slay the ram, you are to take its blood and you are to toss it on the slaughter-site, all around.

Exodus 29:17 And the ram you are to section into sections, you are to wash its innards and its legs and you are to put (them) on its sections and on its head

Exodus 29:18 and are to turn-into-smoke the entire ram, on the slaughter-site; it is an offering-up for YHVH, a soothing savor, it is a fire-offering for YHVH.

Exodus 29:19 And you are to take the second ram and Aharon and his sons are to lean their hands on the head of the ram.

Exodus 29:20 You are to slay the ram, you are to take (some) of its blood and you are to put (it) on the ridge of Aharon's ear and on the ridge of the right ear of Aharon's sons, and on the thumb of their right hands and on the thumb-toe of their right feet, then you are to toss the blood on the slaughter-site, all around.

Exodus 29:21 You are to take some of the blood that is on the slaughter-site, and some of the oil for anointing, and you are to toss it on Aharon and on his garments, on his sons and on his sons' garments with him, that he and his garments may be hallowed, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.

Exodus 29:22 You are to take the fat from the ram, the tail, the fat that covers the innards and the extension on the liver, the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and the right thigh, for it is the ram for giving- mandate;

Exodus 29:23 and one loaf of bread and one cake of oil-bread and one wafer from the basket of matza that is in the presence of YHVH;

Exodus 29:24 you are to place them all on the palms of Aharon and on the palms of his sons, and you are to elevate them as an elevation-offering, in the presence of YHVH.

Exodus 29:25 You are to take them from their hand and you are to turn-them-into-smoke on the slaughter- site, beside the offering-up, for a soothing savor in the presence of YHVH, it is a fire-offering for YHVH.

Exodus 29:26 You are to take the breast from the ram of giving-mandate that is Aharon's, and you are to elevate it as an elevation-offering, in the presence of YHVH, that it may be an allotment for you.

Exodus 29:27 So you are to hallow the breast for the elevation-offering, and the thigh of the raised- contribution, that is elevated, that is raised from the ram of giving-mandate, from what is Aharon's and from what is his sons'.

Exodus 29:28 It is to be Aharon's and his sons', a fixed-allocation for the ages, on the part of the Children of Israel, for it is a contribution, and a contribution is it to be on the part of the Children of Israel, from their slaughter-offerings of shalom, their raised-contribution for YHVH.

Exodus 29:29 Now the garments of holiness that are Aharon's are to belong to his sons after him, to anoint them in them and to give-them-mandate in them.

Exodus 29:30 For seven days is the one of his sons that acts-as-priest in his stead to be clothed in them, the one who comes into the Tent of Appointment to attend at the Holy-shrine.

Exodus 29:31 And the ram for giving-mandate you are to take and are to boil its flesh in the Holy-shrine.

Exodus 29:32 Aharon and his sons are to eat the flesh of the ram, along with the bread that is in the basket, at the entrance of the Tent of Appointment.

Exodus 29:33 They are to eat them-those who are purged by them, to give-them-mandate, to hallow them; an outsider is not to eat (them), for they are holiness.

Exodus 29:34 Now if there be anything left over of the flesh of giving-mandate or of the bread in the morning, you are to burn what is left by fire, it is not to be eaten, for it is holiness.

Exodus 29:35 You are to make (thus) for Aharon and for his sons, according to all that I have commanded you, for seven days, you are to give-them-mandate.

Exodus 29:36 A bull for the hattat-offering, you are to make-ready for each day, concerning the purging, that you may decontaminate the slaughter-site, by your purging it, and you are to anoint it, to hallow it.

Exodus 29:37 For seven days you are to purge the slaughter-site, that you may hallow it. Thus the slaughter-site will become holiest holiness; whatever touches the slaughter-site shall become-holy.

Exodus 29:38 And this is what you are to sacrifice on the slaughter-site: year-old lambs, two for each day, regularly.

Exodus 29:39 The first lamb you are to sacrifice at daybreak, and the second lamb you are to sacrifice between the setting-times.

Exodus 29:40 A tenth-measure of fine-meal, mixed with beaten oil, a quarter of a hin, and (as) poured-offering, a quarter of a hin of wine-for the first lamb.

Exodus 29:41 And the second lamb you are to sacrifice between the setting-times, like the grain-gift of morning, and like its poured-offering, (that) you make-ready for it, for a soothing savor, a fire-offering for YHVH;

Exodus 29:42 a regular offering-up, throughout your generations, at the entrance to the Tent of Appointment, before the presence of YHVH; for I will appoint-meeting with you there, to speak to you there.

Exodus 29:43 So I will appoint-meeting there with the Children of Israel, and it will be hallowed by my Glory.

Exodus 29:44 I will hallow the Tent of Appointment and the altar, and Aharon and his sons I will hallow, to be-priests for me.

Exodus 29:45 And I will dwell amidst the Children of Israel and I will be a God for them,

Exodus 29:46 that they may know that I am YHVH their God who brought them out of the land of Egypt to dwell, myself, in their midst, I am YHVH their God.

Chapter 30

Exodus 30:1 You are to make a site, a smoking (site) for smoking-incense, of acacia wood are you to make it,

Exodus 30:2 a cubit its length and a cubit its width; square is it to be, and two cubits its height, its horns from it.

Exodus 30:3 You are to overlay it with pure gold- its roof, its walls all around, and its horns, and you are to make a rim of gold all around.

Exodus 30:4 And two rings of gold you are to make for it, beneath its rim, on its two flanks, you are to make (them) on its two sides, that they may be for holders for poles, to carry it by (means of) them.

Exodus 30:5 You are to make the poles of acacia wood and you are to overlay them with gold.

Exodus 30:6 And you are to put it in front of the curtain that is over the coffer of Testimony, in front of the purgation-cover that is over the Testimony, where I will appoint-meeting with you.

Exodus 30:7 And Aharon is to send-up-in-smoke, fragrant smoking-incense on it, in the morning, (every) morning; when he polishes the lamps, he is to send-it-up-in-smoke.

Exodus 30:8 And when Aharon draws up the lampwicks, between the setting-times, he is to send-it-up-in-smoke, a regular smoke-offering before the presence of YHVH, throughout your generations.

Exodus 30:9 You are not to offer-up upon it any outsider's smoking-incense, either as offering-up or as grain-gift, nor are you to pour out any poured-offering upon it.

Exodus 30:10 Aharon is to do-the-purging upon its horns, once a year, with the decontaminating blood of purgation; once a year he is to do-the-purging upon it, throughout your generations, holiest holiness it is for YHVH.

Exodus 30:11 Now YHVH spoke to Moshe, saying:

Exodus 30:12 When you take up the head-count of the Children of Israel, in counting them, they are to give, each-man, a ransom for his life, for YHVH, when they count them, that there be no plague on them, when they count them.

Exodus 30:13 This (is what) they are to give, everyone that goes through the counting: half a shekel of the Holy-shrine shekel-twenty grains to the shekel- half a shekel, a contribution for YHVH.

Exodus 30:14 Everyone that goes through the counting, from the age of twenty years and upward, is to give the contribution of YHVH.

Exodus 30:15 The rich are not to pay-more and the poor are not to pay-less than half a shekel when giving the contribution of YHVH, to effect-ransom for your lives.

Exodus 30:16 You are to take the silver for ransoming from the Children of Israel and are to give it over for the construction-service of the Tent of Appointment, that it may be for the Children of Israel as a remembrance before the presence of YHVH, to effect-ransom for your lives.

Exodus 30:17 Now YHVH spoke to Moshe, saying:

Exodus 30:18 You are to make a basin of bronze, its pedestal of bronze, for washing, and you are to put it between the Tent of Appointment and the slaughter-site; you are to put water therein,

Exodus 30:19 that Aharon and his sons may wash with it their hands and their feet.

Exodus 30:20 When they come into the Tent of Appointment they are to wash with water so that they do not die, or when they approach the slaughter-site, to be-in-attendance, to send up fire-offerings in smoke for YHVH,

Exodus 30:21 they are to wash their hands and their feet, so that they do not die. It is to be for them a law for the ages, for him and for his sons, throughout their generations.

Exodus 30:22 Now YHVH spoke to Moshe, saying:

Exodus 30:23 And as for you, take you fragrant-spices, essence, streaming-myrrh, five hundred, cinnamon- spice, half as much-fifty and two hundred, fragrant-cane, fifty and two hundred,

Exodus 30:24 and cassia, five hundred by the Holy-shrine shekel, as well as olive oil, a hin,

Exodus 30:25 and you are to make (from) it anointing oil of holiness, perfume from the perfume-mixture, of perfumer's making; anointing oil of holiness is it to be.

Exodus 30:26 You are to anoint with it the Tent of Appointment and the coffer of Testimony

Exodus 30:27 and the table and all its implements, and the lampstand and all its implements and the site for smoke-offerings

Exodus 30:28 and the site for offering-up and all its implements and the basin and its pedestal.

Exodus 30:29 You are to hallow them that they may become holiest holiness, whatever touches them shall become-holy.

Exodus 30:30 And Aharon and his sons you are to anoint, you are to hallow them to be-priests for me.

Exodus 30:31 And to the Children of Israel you are to speak, saying: Anointing oil of holiness this is to be for me throughout your generations.

Exodus 30:32 On any (other) human body it is not to be poured out; in its (exact) proportion, you are not to make any like it- holiness is it, holiness it shall remain for you.

Exodus 30:33 Any man who mixes-perfumes like it or who puts any of it on an outsider is to be cut off from his kinspeople!

Exodus 30:34 Now YHVH said to Moshe: Take you fragrant-spices, drop-gum, onycha, and galbanum, (these) fragrances and clear incense; part equaling part are they to be.

Exodus 30:35 You are to make (with) it smoking-incense, perfume, of perfumer's making, salted, pure-holy.

Exodus 30:36 You are to beat some of it into fine-powder and are to put some of it in front of the Testimony in the Tent of Appointment, where I will appoint-meeting with you; holiest holiness it is to be for you.

Exodus 30:37 As for the smoking-incense that you make, you are not to make any for yourselves in its (exact) proportion; holiness shall it be for you, for YHVH.

Exodus 30:38 Any man that makes any like it to savor it is to be cut off from his kinspeople!

Chapter 31

Exodus 31:1 Now YHVH spoke to Moshe, saying:

Exodus 31:2 See, I have called by name Betzalel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Yehuda.

Exodus 31:3 I have filled him with the spirit of God in practical-wisdom, discernment and knowledge in all kinds of workmanship,

Exodus 31:4 to design designs, to make them in gold, in silver and in bronze,

Exodus 31:5 in the cutting of stones for setting and in the cutting of wood, to make them through all kinds of workmanship.

Exodus 31:6 And I, here I give (to be) with him Oholiav son of Ahisamakh, of the tribe of Dan; in the mind of all those wise of mind I place wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you:

Exodus 31:7 the Tent of Appointment and the coffer of Testimony and the purgation-cover that is over it and all the implements of the Tent

Exodus 31:8 and the table and all its implements and the pure lampstand and all its implements and the site

for smoke-offering

Exodus 31:9 and the site for offering-up and all its implements and the basin and its pedestal,

Exodus 31:10 and the officiating garments and the garments of holiness for Aharon the priest and the garments of his sons for being-priests

Exodus 31:11 and oil for anointing and fragrant smoke for the holy-offerings- according to all that I have commanded you, they are to make.

Exodus 31:12 Now YHVH said to Moshe:

Exodus 31:13 And you, speak to the Children of Israel, saying: However: my Sabbaths you are to keep! For it is a sign between me and you, throughout your generations, to know that I, YHVH, hallow you.

Exodus 31:14 You are to keep the Sabbath, for it is holiness for you, whoever profanes it is to be put-to- death, yes, death! For whoever makes work on it- that person is to be cut off from among his kinspeople.

Exodus 31:15 For six days is work to be made, but on the seventh day (is) Sabbath, Sabbath-ceasing, holiness for YHVH, whoever makes work on the Sabbath day is to be put-to-death, yes, death!

Exodus 31:16 The Children of Israel are to keep the Sabbath, to make the Sabbath-observance throughout their generations as a covenant for the ages;

Exodus 31:17 between me and the Children of Israel a sign it is, for the ages, for in six days YHVH made the heavens and the earth, but on the seventh day he ceased and paused-for-breath.

Exodus 31:18 Now he gave to Moshe when he had finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai the two tablets of Testimony, tablets of stone, written by the finger of God.

Chapter 32

Exodus 32:1 Now when the people saw that Moshe was shamefully-late in coming down from the mountain, the people assembled against Aharon and said to him: Arise, make us a god who will go before us, for this Moshe, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him!

Exodus 32:2 Aharon said to them: Break off the gold rings that are in the ears of your wives, your sons and your daughters, and bring (them) to me.

Exodus 32:3 All the people broke off the gold rings that were in their ears, and brought (them) to Aharon.

Exodus 32:4 He took (them) from their hand, fashioned it with a graving-tool, and made it into a molten calf. Then they said: This is your God, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!

Exodus 32:5 When Aharon saw (this), he built a slaughter-site before it, and Aharon called out and said: Tomorrow is a festival to YHVH!

Exodus 32:6 They (started) early on the morrow, offered offerings-up and brought shalom-offerings; the people sat down to eat and drink and proceeded to revel.

Exodus 32:7 YHVH said to Moshe: Go, down! for your people whom you brought up from the land of Egypt has wrought ruin!

Exodus 32:8 They have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them, they have made themselves a molten calf, they have bowed to it, they have slaughtered-offerings to it, and they have said: This is your God, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!

Exodus 32:9 And YHVH said to Moshe: I see this people- and here, it is a hard-necked people!

Exodus 32:10 So now, let me be, that my anger may flare against them and I may destroy them- but you I will make into a great nation!

Exodus 32:11 Moshe soothed the face of YHVH his God, he said: For-what-reason, O YHVH, should your anger flare against your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power, with a strong hand?

Exodus 32:12 For-what-reason should the Egyptians (be able to) say, yes, say: With evil intent he brought them out, to kill them in the mountains, to destroy them from the face of the soil? Turn away from your flaming anger, be sorry for the evil (intended) against your people!

Exodus 32:13 Recall Avraham, Yitzhak and Yisrael your servants, to whom you swore by yourself when you spoke to them: I will make your seed many as the stars of the heavens, and all this land which I have promised, I will give to your seed, that they may inherit (it) for the ages!

Exodus 32:14 And YHVH let himself be sorry concerning the evil that he had spoken of doing to his people.

Exodus 32:15 Now Moshe faced about to come down from the mountain, the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand, tablets written on both their sides, on this-one, on that-one they were written;

Exodus 32:16 and the tablets were God's making, and the writing was God's writing, engraved upon the tablets.

Exodus 32:17 Now when Yehoshua heard the sound of the people as it shouted, he said to Moshe: The sound of war is in the camp!

Exodus 32:18 But he said: Not the sound of the song of prevailing, not the sound of the song of failing, sound of choral-song is what I hear!

Exodus 32:19 And it was, when he neared the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, Moshe's anger flared up, he threw the tablets from his hands and smashed them beneath the mountain.

Exodus 32:20 He took the calf that they had made, burned it with fire, ground it up until it was thin-powder, strewed it on the surface of the water and made the Children of Israel drink it.

Exodus 32:21 Then Moshe said to Aharon: What did this people do to you that you have brought upon it (such) a great sin!

Exodus 32:22 Aharon said: Let not my lord's anger flare up! You yourself know this people, how set-on-evil it is.

Exodus 32:23 They said to me: Make us a god who will go before us, for this Moshe, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him!

Exodus 32:24 So I said to them: Who has gold? They broke it off and gave it to me, I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf.

Exodus 32:25 Now when Moshe saw the people: that it had gotten-loose, for Aharon had let-it-loose for whispering among their foes, Exodus 32:26 Moshe took-up-a-stand at the gate of the camp and said: Whoever is for YHVH-to me! And there gathered to him all the Sons of Levi.

Exodus 32:27 He said to them: Thus says YHVH, the God of Israel: Put every-man his sword on his thigh, proceed and go back-and-forth from gate to gate in the camp, and kill every-man his brother, every- man his neighbor, every-man his relative!

Exodus 32:28 The Sons of Levi did according to Moshe's words. And there fell of the people on that day some three thousand men.

Exodus 32:29 Moshe said: Be-mandated to YHVH today, even though it be every-man at the cost of his son, at the cost of his brother, to bestow blessing upon you today.

Exodus 32:30 It was on the morrow, Moshe said to the people: You, you have sinned a great sin! So now, I will go up to YHVH, perhaps I may be able to purge away your sin.

Exodus 32:31 Moshe returned to YHVH and said: Ah now, this people has sinned a great sin, they have made themselves gods of gold!

Exodus 32:32 So now, if you would only bear their sin-! But if not, pray blot me out of the record that you have written!

Exodus 32:33 YHVH said to Moshe: Whoever sins against me, I blot him (alone) out of my record.

Exodus 32:34 So now, go, lead the people to where I have spoken to you. Here, my messenger will go before you, but on the day of my calling-to-account, I will call-them-to-account for their sin!

Exodus 32:35 And YHVH plagued the people because they made the calf that Aharon made.

Chapter 33

Exodus 33:1 YHVH said to Moshe: Go, up from here, you and the people that you brought up from the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Avraham, to Yitzhak and to Yaakov, saying: I will give it to your seed.

Exodus 33:2 I will send a messenger before you and will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite, the Hivvite and the Yevusite-, Exodus 33:3 to a land flowing with milk and honey. But: I will not go up in your midst, for a hard-necked people are you, lest I destroy you on the way!

Exodus 33:4 When the people heard this evil word they mourned, no man put on his ornaments (again).

Exodus 33:5 Now YHVH said to Moshe: Say to the Children of Israel: You are a hard-necked people- if for one moment I were to go up in your midst, I would destroy you! So now, take down your ornaments from yourselves, that I may know what I am to do with you.

Exodus 33:6 So the Children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments from Mount Sinai on.

Exodus 33:7 Now Moshe would take the Tent and pitch it for himself outside the camp, going-far from the camp. He called it the Tent of Appointment. And it was, whoever besought YHVH would go out to the Tent of Appointment that was outside the camp.

Exodus 33:8 And it was: whenever Moshe would go out to the Tent, all the people would rise, they would station themselves, each-man, at the entrance to his tent, and would gaze after Moshe until he had come into the Tent.

Exodus 33:9 And it was: whenever Moshe would come into the Tent, the column of cloud would come down and stand at the entrance to the Tent, and he would speak with Moshe.

Exodus 33:10 And all the people would see the column of cloud standing at the entrance to the Tent, and all the people would rise, they would bow down, each-man at the entrance to his tent.

Exodus 33:11 And YHVH would speak to Moshe face to face, as a man speaks to his neighbor. Now when he would return to the camp, his attendant, the lad Yehoshua, would not depart from within the Tent.

Exodus 33:12 Moshe said to YHVH: See, you, you say to me: Bring this people up! But you, you have not let us know whom you will send with me! And you, you said: I have known you by name, and you have found favor in my eyes!

Exodus 33:13 So now- if I have, pray, found favor in your eyes, pray let me know your ways, that I may (truly) know you, in order that I may find favor in your eyes: See, this nation is indeed your people!

Exodus 33:14 He said: If my presence were to go (with you), would I cause you to rest-easy?

Exodus 33:15 He said to him: If your presence does not go, do not bring us up from here!

Exodus 33:16 For wherein, after all, is it to be known that I have found favor in your eyes, I and your people? Is it not (precisely) in that you go with us, and that we are distinct, I and your people, from every people that is on the face of the soil?

Exodus 33:17 YHVH said to Moshe: Also this word that you have spoken, I will do, for you have found favor in my eyes, and I have known you by name.

Exodus 33:18 Then he said: Pray let me see your Glory!

Exodus 33:19 He said: I myself will cause all my Goodliness to pass in front of your face, I will call out the name of YHVH before your face: that I show-favor to whom I show-favor, that I show-mercy to whom I show-mercy.

Exodus 33:20 But he said: You cannot see my face, for no human can see me and live!

Exodus 33:21 YHVH said: Here is a place next to me; station yourself on the rock, Exodus 33:22 and it shall be: when my Glory passes by, I will place you in the cleft of the rock and screen you with my hand until I have passed by.

Exodus 33:23 Then I will remove my hand; you shall see my back, but my face shall not be seen.

Chapter 34

Exodus 34:1 Then YHVH said to Moshe: Carve yourself two tablets of stone like the first-ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you smashed.

Exodus 34:2 And be ready by the morning: go up in the morning to Mount Sinai, station yourself for me there, on top of the mountain.

Exodus 34:3 No man is to go up with you, neither is any man to be seen on all the mountain, neither are sheep or oxen to graze in front of this mountain.

Exodus 34:4 So he carved two tablets of stone like the first-ones. Moshe (started) early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai, as YHVH had commanded him, and he took in his hand the two tablets of stone.

Exodus 34:5 YHVH came down in the cloud, he stationed himself beside him there and called out the name of YHVH.

Exodus 34:6 And YHVH passed before his face and called out: YHVH YHVH God, showing-mercy, showing-favor, long-suffering in anger, abundant in loyalty and faithfulness,

Exodus 34:7 keeping loyalty to the thousandth (generation), bearing iniquity, rebellion and sin, yet not clearing, clearing (the guilty), calling-to-account the iniquity of the fathers upon the sons and upon sons' sons, to the third and fourth (generation)!

Exodus 34:8 Quickly Moshe did-homage, on the ground, bowing low,

Exodus 34:9 and said: Pray if I have found favor in your eyes, O my Lord, pray let my Lord go among us!

Indeed, it is a hard-necked people- so forgive our iniquity and our sin, and make-us-your-inheritance!

Exodus 34:10 He said: Here, I cut a covenant: before all your people I will do wonders such as have not been created in all the earth, among all the nations. Then shall all the people among whom you are, see the work of YHVH, how awe-inspiring it is, which I do with you.

Exodus 34:11 Take care for yourself regarding what I command you today! Here, I am driving out before you the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivvite and the Yevusite,- Exodus 34:12 take-you-care, lest you cut a covenant with the settled-folk of the land against which you are coming, lest they become a snare among you.

Exodus 34:13 Rather: their slaughter-sites you are to pull down, their standing-pillars you are to smash, their tree-poles you are to cut down.

Exodus 34:14 For: You are not to bow down to any other god! For YHVH- Jealous-one is his name, a jealous God is he!

Exodus 34:15 -Lest you cut a covenant with the settled-folk of the land: when they go whoring after their gods and slaughter-offer to their gods, they will call to you to eat of their slaughter-offerings;

Exodus 34:16 should you take of their women (in marriage) for your sons, their women will go whoring after their gods, and they will cause your sons to go whoring after their gods.

Exodus 34:17 Molten gods you are not to make for yourselves!

Exodus 34:18 The Pilgrimage-Festival of Matzot you are to keep; for seven days you are to eat matzot, as I commanded you, at the appointed-time, in the New-moon of Ripe-grain, for in the New-moon of Ripe- grain you went out of Egypt.

Exodus 34:19 Every breacher of a womb is mine, and every one that your herd drops-as-male, breacher among oxen and sheep;

Exodus 34:20 the breacher among donkeys you are to redeem with a sheep, and if you do not redeem it, you are to break-its-neck. Every firstborn among your sons you are to redeem. No one is to be seen before my presence empty-handed.

Exodus 34:21 For six days you are to serve, but on the seventh day, you are to cease, at plowing, at grain- cutting, you are to cease.

Exodus 34:22 The Pilgrimage-Festival of Weeks you are to make for yourselves, of the first-fruits of the wheat cutting, as well as the Pilgrimage-festival of Ingathering at the turning of the year.

Exodus 34:23 At three points in the year are all your male-folk to be seen before the presence of the Lord, YHVH, the God of Israel.

Exodus 34:24 For I will dispossess nations before you, and widen your territory, so that no man will desire your land, when you go up to be seen before the presence of YHVH your God, at three points in the year.

Exodus 34:25 You are not to slay my blood offering with anything fermented. You are not to leave-overnight, until morning, the pilgrimage- offering of Passover.

Exodus 34:26 The premier of the firstfruits of your soil you are to bring into the house of YHVH your God.

You are not to boil a kid in the milk of its mother.

Exodus 34:27 YHVH said to Moshe: Write you down these words, for in accordance with these words I cut with you a covenant, and with Israel.

Exodus 34:28 Now he was there beside YHVH for forty days and forty nights; bread he did not eat and water he did not drink, but he wrote down on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Words.

Exodus 34:29 Now it was when Moshe came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of Testimony in Moshe's hand, when he came down from the mountain -(now) Moshe did not know that the skin of his face was radiating because of his having-spoken with him,- Exodus 34:30 Aharon and all the Children of Israel saw Moshe: and here, the skin of his face was radiating! So they were afraid to approach him.

Exodus 34:31 Moshe called to them, and then Aharon and all those exalted in the community came back to him, and Moshe spoke to them.

Exodus 34:32 Afterward all the Children of Israel approached, and he commanded them all that YHVH had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.

Exodus 34:33 Now when Moshe had finished speaking with them, he put a veil upon his face.

Exodus 34:34 Now whenever Moshe would come before the presence of YHVH, to speak with him, he would remove the veil, until he had gone out; and whenever he would come out and speak to the children of Israel that which he had been commanded,

Exodus 34:35 the Children of Israel would see Moshe's face, that the skin of Moshe's face was radiating; but then Moshe would put back the veil on his face, until he came in to speak with him.

Chapter 35

Exodus 35:1 Now Moshe assembled the entire community of the Children of Israel and said to them: These are the words that YHVH has commanded, to do them:

Exodus 35:2 For six days is work to be made, but on the seventh day, there is to be holiness for you, Sabbath, Sabbath-ceasing for YHVH; whoever makes work on it is to be put-to-death!

Exodus 35:3 You are not to let fire burn throughout all your settlements on the Sabbath day.

Exodus 35:4 Now Moshe spoke to the entire community of the Children of Israel, saying: This is the matter that YHVH has commanded, saying:

Exodus 35:5 Take, from yourselves, a raised-contribution for YHVH, whoever is of willing mind is to bring it, YHVH'S contribution: gold, silver, and bronze,

Exodus 35:6 blue-violet, purple, worm-scarlet, byssus and goats'-hair,

Exodus 35:7 rams' skins dyed-red, tanned-leather skins, acacia wood,

Exodus 35:8 oil for lighting, spices for oil of anointing and for fragrant smoking-incense,

Exodus 35:9 onyx stones and stones for setting, for the efod and for the breastpiece.

Exodus 35:10 And everyone wise of mind among you is to come and is to make all that YHVH has commanded:

Exodus 35:11 The Dwelling, its tent and its cover, its clasps and its boards, its running bars, its columns and its sockets;

Exodus 35:12 the coffer and its poles, the purgation-cover and the curtain for the screen;

Exodus 35:13 the table and its poles and all its implements, and the Bread of the Presence;

Exodus 35:14 and the lampstand for lighting and its implements and its lamps, and the oil for lighting;

Exodus 35:15 and the site for smoke-offering and its poles, and the oil for anointing, and the fragrant smoking-incense; and the entrance screen for the entrance of the Dwelling;

Exodus 35:16 the site for offering-up and the bronze lattice that (belongs) to it, its poles and all its implements; the basin and its pedestal;

Exodus 35:17 the hangings of the courtyard, its columns and its sockets, and the screen for the gate of the courtyard;

Exodus 35:18 the pins of the Dwelling and the pins of the courtyard, and their cords,

Exodus 35:19 the officiating garments for attending at the Holy-shrine; the garments of holiness for Aharon the priest and the garments of his sons for acting-as-priest.

Exodus 35:20 So the entire community of the Children of Israel went out from Moshe's presence, Exodus 35:21 and then they came, every man whose mind uplifted him, and everyone whose spirit made- him-willing brought YHVH'S contribution for the skilled-work on the Tent of Appointment, for all its service (of construction), and for the garments of holiness.

Exodus 35:22 Then came men and women alike, everyone of willing mind, they brought brooch and nose- ring and signet-ring and necklace, every kind of gold object, every man that wished to elevate an elevation-offering of gold to YHVH;

Exodus 35:23 and everyone with whom could be found blue-violet, purple, worm-scarlet, byssus and goats'-hair, rams' skins dyed-red and tanned-leather skins, brought it.

Exodus 35:24 Everyone that raised a raised-contribution of silver and bronze brought YHVH'S contribution, and everyone with whom could be found acacia wood for all the work of the service (of construction), brought it.

Exodus 35:25 And every woman wise of mind, with their hands they spun and brought their spinning- the blue-violet, the purple, the worm-scarlet and the byssus,

Exodus 35:26 and every one of the women whose mind uplifted them in practical-wisdom spun the goats'- hair.

Exodus 35:27 And the exalted-ones brought the onyx stones and the stones for setting, for the efod and for the breastpiece,

Exodus 35:28 and the fragrant-spice and the oil for lighting, for oil of anointing, for fragrant smoking- incense.

Exodus 35:29 Every man and woman whose mind made-them-willing to bring (anything) for all the workmanship that YHVH had commanded (them) to make through Moshe, the Children of Israel brought it, freewill-offering for YHVH.

Exodus 35:30 Now Moshe said to the Children of Israel: See, YHVH has called by name Betzalel son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Yehuda,

Exodus 35:31 he has filled him with the spirit of God in practical-wisdom, in discernment and in knowledge, and in all kinds of workmanship

Exodus 35:32 to design designs, to make (them) in gold, in silver and in bronze,

Exodus 35:33 in the carving of stones for setting and in the carving of wood, to make all kinds of designed workmanship,

Exodus 35:34 and (the ability) to instruct he has put in his mind, he and Oholiav son of Ahisamakh, of the tribe of Dan;

Exodus 35:35 he has filled them with wisdom of mind to make all kinds of workmanship of the jewel-cutter, the designer and the embroiderer, in blue-violet, in purple, in worm-scarlet and in byssus, and of the weaver- makers of all kinds of workmanship and designers of designs.

Chapter 36

Exodus 36:1 So are Betzalel and Oholiav to make, and every man wise of mind in whom YHVH has put wisdom and discernment, to know (how) to make all the work for the service of (constructing) the Holy-shrine for all that YHVH has commanded.

Exodus 36:2 So Moshe called for Betzalel, for Oholiav, and for all men wise of mind into whose mind YHVH had put wisdom, all those whose mind uplifted them to come-near for the work, to make it.

Exodus 36:3 And they took from Moshe all the contributions that the Children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of (constructing) the Holy-shrine, to make it. Now they brought him further, freewill-offerings in the morning, (every) morning;

Exodus 36:4 and came, all the wise-ones who were making all the skilled-work for the Holy-shrine, man after man, from their skilled-work that they were making,

Exodus 36:5 and said to Moshe, saying: The people are bringing much more than enough for the service of (doing) the work that YHVH has commanded, to make it!

Exodus 36:6 So Moshe commanded and they had a call go throughout the camp, saying: Man and woman- let them not make-ready any further work-material for the contribution of the Holy-shrine! So the people were stopped from bringing;

Exodus 36:7 the work-material was enough for them, for all the work, to make it, and more.

Exodus 36:8 Then made all those wise of mind among the makers of the work, the dwelling, of ten tapestries of twisted byssus, blue-violet, purple and worm-scarlet; with winged-sphinxes, of designer's making, was it made.

Exodus 36:9 The length of each one tapestry, twenty-eight by the cubit, and the width-four by the cubit, of each one tapestry, one measure for all of the tapestries.

Exodus 36:10 Then were joined five of the tapestries, each-one to each-one, and five tapestries were joined, each-one to each-one.

Exodus 36:11 Then were made loops of blue-violet on the edge of the one tapestry, at the end of the one joint; thus were made in the edge of the end tapestry at the second joint.

Exodus 36:12 Fifty loops were made on the one tapestry, and fifty loops were made at the end of the tapestry that is at the second joint, opposite the loops, this-one to that-one.

Exodus 36:13 Then were made fifty clasps of gold and then were joined the tapestries, this-one to that-one, with the clasps, so that the dwelling became one-piece.

Exodus 36:14 Then were made the tapestries of goats'-hair for a tent over the dwelling, eleven tapestries were they made.

Exodus 36:15 The length of each one tapestry (was) thirty by the cubit, and four cubits, the width of each one tapestry, one measure for the eleven tapestries.

Exodus 36:16 Then were joined five of the tapestries separately and six of the tapestries separately.

Exodus 36:17 Then were made loops, fifty (of them), at the edge of the end tapestry, at the joint, and fifty loops were made at the edge of the second joining tapestry.

Exodus 36:18 Then were made clasps of bronze, fifty (of them), to join the tent together, to become one- piece.

Exodus 36:19 Then was made a covering for the tent, of rams' skins dyed-red, and a covering of tanned- leather skins, above it.

Exodus 36:20 Then were made the boards for the Dwelling, of acacia wood, standing-upright;

Exodus 36:21 ten cubits the length of the board and a cubit and a half the width of each one board,

Exodus 36:22 with two pegs for each one board, parallel this-one to that-one, thus were made for all the boards of the Dwelling.

Exodus 36:23 And then were made the boards for the Dwelling: twenty as boardwork on the Negev border, southward,

Exodus 36:24 and forty sockets of silver were made beneath twenty of the boards, two sockets beneath each one board for its two pegs and two sockets beneath each other board for its two pegs;
Exodus 36:25 and for the second flank of the Dwelling, on the northern border, were made twenty as boardwork,
Exodus 36:26 with their forty sockets of silver, two sockets beneath each one board and two sockets beneath each other board.
Exodus 36:27 And for the rear of the Dwelling, toward the sea, were made six boards,
Exodus 36:28 and two boards were made for the corners of the Dwelling, at the rear,
Exodus 36:29 so that they were of twin-use, (seen) from the lower-end, and together formed a whole-piece, toward the top, toward the first ring; thus were made for the two of them, for the two corners.
Exodus 36:30 So there were eight boards with their bases of silver, sixteen bases, two bases each, two bases
